A. 1642

Beginning April first, two thousand twenty-one, a manufacturer of consumer goods must accept for collection, handling and recycling or reuse, consumer goods waste for which it is the manufacturer.

4 § 27-3103. Manufacturer consumer goods waste acceptance program.

5 1. A manufacturer shall provide for the collection, handling and recy-6 cling or reuse of consumer goods waste pursuant to section 27-3102 of this title in a manner convenient to consumers. The following accept-7 8 ance methods shall be considered reasonably convenient: (a) mail or ship 9 back return programs; (b) collection or acceptance events conducted by 10 the manufacturer or the manufacturer's agent or designee, including 11 events conducted through local governments or private parties; (c) fixed acceptance locations such as dedicated acceptance sites operated by the 12 13 manufacturer or its agent or designee; (d) agreements with local govern-14 ments, retail stores, sales outlets and not-for-profit organizations which have agreed to provide facilities for the collection of consumer 15 16 goods waste; (e) community collection events; and (f) any combination of 17 these or other acceptance methods which effectively provide for the acceptance of consumer goods waste for recycling or reuse through means 18 19 that are available and reasonably convenient to consumers in the state. 20 At a minimum, the manufacturer shall ensure that all counties of the 21 state, and all municipalities which have a population of ten thousand or greater, have at least one method of acceptance that is available within 22 such county or municipality. The department may establish additional 23 24 requirements to ensure convenient collection from consumers.

2. A manufacturer shall be responsible for all costs associated with the implementation of the consumer goods waste acceptance program. The manufacturer shall not charge consumers for the collection, handling and recycling and reuse of consumer goods waste, provided that such prohibition shall not apply to a charge on business consumers or to charges for premium services. This prohibition shall not apply to a manufacturer's contract with a consumer for the collection, handling, recycling or reuse of consumer goods waste that was entered into prior to the effective date of this section.

Beginning April first, two thousand twenty-one, a manufacturer may not offer for sale in the state or deliver to retailers for subsequent sale consumer goods unless it has a visible, permanent label clearly identifying the manufacturer of that equipment.

39 § 27-3105. Department responsibilities.

The department is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations necessary to implement and administer this title.

42 § 27-3106. Preemption.

Jurisdiction in all matters pertaining to consumer goods waste recycling is, by this title, vested exclusively in the state. Any provision of any local law or ordinance, or any rule or regulation promulgated thereto, governing consumer goods and the collection, reuse, or recycling of consumer goods waste shall upon the effective date of this title be preempted.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
