IN ASSEMBLY

January 16, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. LENTOL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to stolen memorial plaques; and to amend the general business law, in relation to the revocation of scrap metal processors' licenses

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 155.30 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdivision 12 to read as follows:

12. The value of the property exceeds one hundred dollars and the property consists of a memorial plaque, statue or other item or property that is kept or used in connection with memorial observance in any building, structure, park, or other venue.

§ 2. Section 165.45 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdivision 8 to read as follows:

8. The value of the property exceeds one hundred dollars and the property consists of a memorial plaque, statue or other item or property that is kept or used in connection with memorial observance in any building, structure, park, or other venue.

§ 3. The opening paragraph of section 69-f of the general business law is designated subdivision 1 and a new subdivision 2 is added to read as follows:

2. If any person is convicted of criminal possession of stolen property in the fourth degree pursuant to subdivision eight of section 165.45 of the penal law, such person's license, which was issued pursuant to this article, shall be revoked permanently.

§ 4. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
