AN ACT to amend the general business law and the civil practice law and rules, in relation to the uniform trade secrets act

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new article
2 17-B to read as follows:

ARTICLE 17-B

UNIFORM TRADE SECRETS ACT

3 Section 279-m. Short title.

4 279-n. Definitions.

5 279-o. Injunctive relief.

6 279-p. Damages.

7 279-q. Attorney's fees.

8 279-r. Preservation of secrecy.

9 279-s. Statute of limitations.

10 279-t. Effect on other law.

11 279-u. Uniformity of application and construction.

12 279-v. Severability.

13 § 279-m. Short title. This article shall be known as the "uniform 14 trade secrets act".

15 § 279-n. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context 16 requires otherwise:

17 (a) "Improper means" includes theft, bribery, misrepresentation, 18 breach or inducement of a breach of a duty to maintain secrecy, or espi-19 onage through electronic or other means;

20 (b) "Misappropriation" means: (1) acquisition of a trade secret of 21 another by a person who knows or has reason to know that the trade 22 secret was acquired by improper means; or (2) duplicating, sketching,

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 drawing, photographing, downloading, uploading, concealing, altering,
2 destroying, replicating, transmitting, delivering, sending, mailing,
3 communicating, or conveying a trade secret without authorization; or (3) 4 receiving, buying, or possessing a trade secret, knowing the same to 5 have been stolen or appropriated, obtained, or converted without author-6 ization; or (4) disclosure or use of a trade secret of another without 7 express or implied consent by a person who:

8 (i) used improper means to acquire knowledge of the trade secret; or

9 (ii) at the time of disclosure or use, knew or had reason to know that 10 his or her knowledge of the trade secret was:

11 (A) derived from or through a person who had utilized improper means 12 to acquire it;

13 (B) acquired under circumstances giving rise to a duty to maintain its 14 secrecy or limit its use; or

15 (C) derived from or through a person who owed a duty to the person 16 seeking relief to maintain its secrecy or limit its use; or

17 (iii) before a material change of his or her position, knew or had 18 reason to know that it was a trade secret and that knowledge of it had 19 been acquired by accident or mistake;

20 (c) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, limited liability 21 company, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint 22 venture, government, governmental subdivision or agency, or any other 23 legal or commercial entity; and

24 (d) "Trade secret" means any form and type of financial, business, 25 scientific, technical, economic, or engineering information, including a 26 pattern, plan, compilation, program device, formula, design, prototype, 27 method, technique, process, procedure, program, or code, whether tangi-
28 ble or intangible, and whether or how stored, compiled, or memorialized 29 physically, electronically, graphically, photographically or in writing, 30 that:

31 (1) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not 32 being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper 33 means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclo-34 sure or use; and

35 (2) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circum-
36 stances to maintain its secrecy.

37 § 279-o. Injunctive relief. (a) Actual or threatened misappropriation
38 may be temporarily, preliminarily, or permanently enjoined. Upon appli-39 cation to the court, an injunction shall be vacated when the trade 40 secret has ceased to exist, but the injunction may be continued for an 41 additional reasonable period of time in order to eliminate commercial 42 advantage that otherwise would be derived from the misappropriation.

43 (b) In exceptional circumstances, an injunction may condition future 44 use upon payment of a reasonable royalty for no longer than the period
45 of time for which use could have been prohibited. Exceptional circum-
46 stances include, but are not limited to, a material and prejudicial 47 change of position prior to acquiring knowledge or reason to know of 48 misappropriation that renders a prohibitive injunction inequitable.

49 (c) In appropriate circumstances, the court may order affirmative acts 50 to protect a trade secret.

51 § 279-p. Damages. (a) Except to the extent that a material and preju-52 dicial change of position prior to acquiring knowledge or reason to know 53 of misappropriation renders a monetary recovery inequitable, a complain-54 ant is entitled to recover damages for misappropriation. Damages can 55 include both the actual loss caused by misappropriation and the unjust 56 enrichment caused by misappropriation that is not taken into account in

1 computing actual loss. In lieu of damages measured by any other methods, 2 the damages caused by misappropriation may be measured by imposition of 3 liability for a reasonable royalty for a misappropriator's unauthorized 4 disclosure or use of a trade secret.

5 (b) If willful or malicious misappropriation exists, the court may 6 award exemplary damages in an amount not exceeding twice any award made 7 under subdivision (a) of this section.

8 § 279-q. Attorney's fees. If (a) a claim of misappropriation is made 9 or continued in bad faith, (b) a motion to terminate an injunction is 10 made or resisted or continued in bad faith, or (c) a willful or mali-11 cious misappropriation exists, the court may award reasonable attorney's 12 fees to the prevailing party. For purposes of this section, a claim of 13 misappropriation is made or continued in bad faith or a motion to termi-14 nate an injunction is made or resisted or continued in bad faith if it 15 is undertaken or continued solely to harass or maliciously injure anoth-16 er or to delay or prolong the resolution of the litigation; or it is 17 undertaken or continued without any reasonable basis in fact or law and 18 could not be supported by a good faith argument for an extension, 19 modification or reversal of existing law.

20 § 279-r. Preservation of secrecy. In an action under this article, a 21 court shall preserve the secrecy of an alleged trade secret by reason-22 able means, including but not limited to, granting protective orders in 23 connection with discovery devices pursuant to the provisions of section 24 thirty-one hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, holding 25 in-camera hearings, sealing the records of the action, and ordering any 26 person involved in the litigation not to disclose an alleged trade 27 secret without prior court approval.

28 § 279-s. Statute of limitations. Notwithstanding any inconsistent 29 provision of law, an action for misappropriation must be brought within 30 three years after the misappropriation is discovered or by the exercise 31 of reasonable diligence should have been discovered. For the purposes of 32 this section, a continuing misappropriation constitutes a single claim.

33 § 279-t. Effect on other law. (a) Except as provided in subdivision
34 (b) of this section, this article displaces conflicting tort, restitu-35 tionary, and other law of this state providing civil remedies for misap-36 propriation of a trade secret.

37 (b) This article does not affect:

38 (1) contractual remedies, whether or not based upon misappropriation 39 of a trade secret;

40 (2) other civil remedies that are not based upon misappropriation of a 41 trade secret; or

42 (3) criminal remedies, whether or not based upon misappropriation of a 43 trade secret.

44 § 279-u. Uniformity of application and construction. This article 45 shall be applied and construed to effectuate its general purpose to make 46 uniform the law with respect to the subject of this article among states 47 enacting it.

48 § 279-v. Severability. If any provision of this article or its appli-49 cation to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity 50 does not affect other provisions or applications of this article which 51 can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to 52 this end the provisions of this article are severable.

53 § 2. Section 8303-a of the civil practice law and rules is amended by 54 adding a new subdivision (d) to read as follows:

55 (d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to actions governed 56 by article seventeen-B of the general business law.

1     § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 2     it shall have become a law, except that the provisions of article 17-B 3     of the general business law, as added by section one of this act, shall 4     not apply to a misappropriation occurring prior to such effective date.
5     With respect to a continuing misappropriation that began prior to such 6     effective date, this act shall not apply to the continuing misappropri-7     ation that occurs after such effective date.
