Introduced by M. of A. CROUCH, BARCLAY, FINCH, McDONOUGH, MONTESANO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to exemptions for possession of firearms and other dangerous weapons

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision a of section 265.20 of the penal law is amended 2 by adding a new paragraph 17 to read as follows:

3 17. Possession of a large capacity ammunition feeding device, as 4 defined in subdivision twenty-three of section 265.00 of this article, 5 by licensed private investigators registered under article seven of the 6 general business law, armed security guards licensed pursuant to article
7 seven-A of the general business law or armored car guards licensed 8 pursuant to article eight-C of the general business law who possess a 9 valid pistol license pursuant to section 400.00 of this chapter and have 10 successfully completed the forty-seven hour firearms training course 11 specified in section eighty-nine-n of the general business law while in 12 the performance of their official duties.

13 § 2. Section 265.20 of the penal law is amended by adding a new 14 subdivision f to read as follows:

15 f. Section 265.01 of this article shall not apply to possession of a 16 truncheon, baton, bludgeon, billy club, blackjack, or similar type weap-
17 on by a licensed private investigator, a licensed armed security officer 18 or armored car guard. Such officer or guard shall be required to have 19 appropriate training, as the superintendent of state police, by regu-20 lation, may prescribe, in the use of such weapon, including but not 21 limited to the defensive use of such weapon and instruction in the legal 22 use of deadly physical force pursuant to article thirty-five of this 23 chapter. The possession of such weapon shall only be permitted under 24 this section when such officer or guard is engaged in his or her lawful 25 duties related to employment as a licensed armed security officer or
