7. The expiration of the minimum period of imprisonment, as set forth in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 70.40 of the penal law, paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of the executive law, and section eight hundred five of this article, shall be deemed to mean the minimum period of imprisonment reduced by any time allowance granted pursuant to subdivision one-a of this section. No earlier than two months prior to the inmate's eligibility to be paroled pursuant to subdivision one of section 70.40 of the penal law, the commissioner shall review the inmate's institutional record to determine whether he or she has complied with the assigned program. If the commissioner determines that the inmate has successfully participated in the program he may issue the inmate a certificate of earned eligibility. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an inmate who

2 and who has been issued a certificate of earned eligibility, shall be 3 granted parole release at the expiration of his or her minimum term, or 4 where applicable, at the expiration of the minimum term reduced by any 5 time allowances, or as authorized by subdivision four of section eight 6 hundred sixty-seven of this chapter unless the board of parole deter-

21 this act shall not affect the expiration of such section and shall be 22 deemed to expire therewith.
