AN ACT to amend the civil rights law, in relation to electronic monitoring

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The civil rights law is amended by adding a new section
2	52-b to read as follows:
3	§ 52-b. Employers engaged in electronic monitoring; prior notice
4	required. 1. For purposes of this section, employer means any individ-
5	ual, corporation, partnership, firm, or association with a place of б	business in the state. It shall not include the state or any political
7	subdivision of the state.
8	2. (a) Any employer who monitors or otherwise intercepts telephone
9	conversations or transmissions, electronic mail or transmissions, or
10	internet access or usage of or by an employee by any electronic device
11	or system, including but not limited to the use of a computer, tele-
12	phone, wire, radio, or electromagnetic, photoelectronic or photo-optical
13	systems, shall give prior written notice upon hiring to all employees
14	who are subject to electronic monitoring. The notice required by this
15	subdivision shall be in writing, in an electronic record, or in another
16	electronic form and acknowledged by the employee either in writing or
17	electronically. Each employer shall also post the notice of electronic
18	monitoring in a conspicuous place which is readily available for viewing
19	by its employees who are subject to electronic monitoring.
20	(b) For purposes of written notice required by paragraph (a) of this
21	subdivision, an employee shall be advised that any and all telephone
22	conversations or transmissions, electronic mail or transmissions, or
23	internet access or usage by an employee by any electronic device or
24	system, including but not limited to the use of a computer, telephone,

1	wire, radio or electromagnetic, photoelectronic or photo-optical systems
2	may be subject to monitoring at any and all times and by any lawful
3	means.
4	3. The attorney general may enforce the provisions of this section.
5	Any employer found to be in violation of this section shall be subject
6	to a maximum civil penalty of five hundred dollars for the first
7	offense, one thousand dollars for the second offense and three thousand
8	dollars for the third and each subsequent offense.
9	4. The provisions of this section shall not apply to processes that
10	are designed to manage the type or volume of incoming or outgoing elec-
11	tronic mail or telephone voice mail or internet usage, that are not
12	targeted to monitor or intercept the electronic mail or telephone voice
13	mail or internet usage of a particular individual, and that are
14	performed solely for the purpose of computer system maintenance and/or
15	protection.
16	§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 17 it shall have become a law.
