IN ASSEMBLY

January 18, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. RICHARDSON, MOSLEY, SIMON, ORTIZ, COLTON -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. D'URSO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing

AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four and the emergency housing rent control law, in relation to the adjustment of maximum allowable rent and requiring the division of housing and community renewal to confirm improvements have been made prior to the approval of rent increases

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraphs (e) and (g) of paragraph 1 of subdivision g of section 26-405 of the administrative code of the city of New York, subparagraph (e) as amended by section 15 of part B of chapter 97 of the laws of 2011 and subparagraph (g) as amended by section 31 of part A of chapter 20 of the laws of 2015, are amended and a new paragraph 8 is added to read as follows:

6 7 (e) The landlord and tenant by mutual voluntary written agreement 8 agree to a substantial increase or decrease in dwelling space or a 9 change in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided in 10 the housing accommodations. An adjustment under this subparagraph shall 11 be equal to one-fortieth, in the case of a building with thirty-five or fewer housing accommodations, or one-sixtieth, in the case of a building 12 with more than thirty-five housing accommodations where such adjustment 13 takes effect on or after September twenty-fourth, two thousand eleven, 14 of the total cost incurred by the landlord in providing such modifica-15 tion or increase in dwelling space, services, furniture, furnishings or 17 equipment, including the cost of installation, but excluding finance 18 charges, provided further that an owner who is entitled to a rent 19 increase pursuant to this subparagraph shall not be entitled to a 20 further rent increase based upon the installation of similar equipment, or new furniture or furnishings within the useful life of such new equipment, or new furniture or furnishings. An owner entitled to a rent increase pursuant to this subparagraph shall only be entitled to such increase for a period of five years from the date of the adjustment. The owner shall give written notice to the city rent agency of any such adjustment pursuant to this subparagraph; or

- (g) There has been since July first, nineteen hundred seventy, a major capital improvement required for the operation, preservation or maintenance of the structure. An adjustment under this subparagraph [(g) for any order of the commissioner issued after the effective date of the rent act of 2015 shall be in an amount sufficient to amortize the cost of the improvements pursuant to this subparagraph (g) over an eight year period for buildings with thirty-five or fewer units or a nine year period for buildings with more than thiry-five units] shall only be in effect for a period of five years from the date of such adjustment, or
- (8) Before ordering any adjustment in rent pursuant to subparagraphs (e) and (g) of paragraph one of this subdivision, the division of housing and community renewal shall require the owner of the property to file a statement with the division containing information outlining the scope of the work and the date of completion of such work. Upon receipt of such statement, the division of housing and community renewal shall inspect the property to ensure the specified work has been completed. No increase shall be collectible under subparagraphs (e) and (g) of paragraph one of this subdivision where the division of housing and community renewal has determined the specified work has not been completed.
- § 2. Paragraphs 6 and 13 of subdivision c of section 26-511 of the administrative code of the city of New York, paragraph 6 as amended by section 29 of part A of chapter 20 of the laws of 2015 and paragraph 13 as amended by section 16 of part B of chapter 97 of the laws of 2011, are amended and two new paragraphs 6-b and 15 are added to read as follows:
- (6) provides criteria whereby the commissioner may act upon applica-tions by owners for increases in excess of the level of fair rent increase established under this law provided, however, that such crite-ria shall provide [(a)] as to hardship applications, for a finding that the level of fair rent increase is not sufficient to enable the owner to maintain approximately the same average annual net income (which shall be computed without regard to debt service, financing costs or manage-ment fees) for the three year period ending on or within six months of the date of an application pursuant to such criteria as compared with annual net income, which prevailed on the average over the period nine-teen hundred sixty-eight through nineteen hundred seventy, or for the first three years of operation if the building was completed since nine-teen hundred sixty-eight or for the first three fiscal years after a transfer of title to a new owner provided the new owner can establish to the satisfaction of the commissioner that he or she acquired title to the building as a result of a bona fide sale of the entire building and that the new owner is unable to obtain requisite records for the fiscal years nineteen hundred sixty-eight through nineteen hundred seventy despite diligent efforts to obtain same from predecessors in title and further provided that the new owner can provide financial data covering a minimum of six years under his or her continuous and uninterrupted operation of the building to meet the three year to three year compar-54 ative test periods herein provided[+ and (b) as to completed building-wide major capital improvements, for a finding that such improvements 56 are deemed depreciable under the Internal Revenue Code and that the cost is to be amortized over an eight-year period for a building with thirty-five or fewer housing accommodations, or a nine-year period for a 3 building with more than thirty-five housing accommodations, for any 4 determination issued by the division of housing and community renewal after the effective date of the rent act of 2015, based upon cash 6 purchase price exclusive of interest or service charges]. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no hardship increase 7 granted pursuant to this paragraph shall, when added to the annual gross 9 rents, as determined by the commissioner, exceed the sum of, (i) the 10 annual operating expenses, (ii) an allowance for management services as 11 determined by the commissioner, (iii) actual annual mortgage debt service (interest and amortization) on its indebtedness to a lending 12 13 institution, an insurance company, a retirement fund or welfare fund 14 which is operated under the supervision of the banking or insurance laws 15 the state of New York or the United States, and (iv) eight and one-16 half percent of that portion of the fair market value of the property 17 which exceeds the unpaid principal amount of the mortgage indebtedness referred to in subparagraph (iii) of this paragraph. Fair market value 18 19 for the purposes of this paragraph shall be six times the annual gross 20 rent. The collection of any increase in the stabilized rent for any 21 apartment pursuant to this paragraph shall not exceed six percent in any year from the effective date of the order granting the increase over the 22 rent set forth in the schedule of gross rents, with collectability of 23 24 any dollar excess above said sum to be spread forward in similar incre-25 ments and added to the stabilized rent as established or set in future 26 years;

(6-b) provides criteria whereby the commissioner may act upon application by owners for increases in excess of the level of fair rent increase established under this law provided, however, that as to completed building-wide major capital improvements, an owner shall only be entitled to a rent increase for a five year period from the date of the approved increase.

(13) provides that an owner is entitled to a rent increase where there has been a substantial modification or increase of dwelling space or an 34 increase in the services, or installation of new equipment or improvements or new furniture or furnishings provided in or to a tenant's housing accommodation, on written tenant consent to the rent increase. In the case of a vacant housing accommodation, tenant consent shall not be required. The [permanent] increase in the legal regulated rent for the affected housing accommodation shall be one-fortieth, in the case of a building with thirty-five or fewer housing accommodations, or one-sixtieth, in the case of a building with more than thirty-five housing accommodations where such [permanent] increase takes effect on or after September twenty-fourth, two thousand eleven, of the total cost incurred by the landlord in providing such modification or increase in dwelling space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, including the cost of installation, but excluding finance charges; provided, however, the increase allowable under this paragraph shall only be in effect for a period of five years from the date of such increase. Provided further that an owner who is entitled to a rent increase pursuant to this paragraph shall not be entitled to a further rent increase based upon the installation of similar equipment, or new furniture or furnishings withthe useful life of such new equipment, or new furniture furnishings.

(15) provides that before ordering any adjustment in rent pursuant to paragraphs six-b and thirteen of this subdivision, the division of housA. 1959 4

ing and community renewal shall require the owner of the property to file a statement with the division containing information outlining the scope of the work and the date of completion of such work. Upon receipt of such statement, the division of housing and community renewal shall inspect the property to ensure the specified work has been completed. No increase shall be collectible under paragraphs six-b and thirteen of this subdivision where the division of housing and community renewal has determined the specified work has not been completed.

- § 3. Paragraphs 1 and 3 of subdivision d of section 6 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, paragraph 1 as amended by section 18 of part B of chapter 97 of the laws of 2011 and paragraph 3 as amended by section 30 of part A of chapter 20 of the laws of 2015, are amended and a new paragraph 6 is added to read as follows:
- (1) there has been a substantial modification or increase of dwelling space or an increase in the services, or installation of new equipment or improvements or new furniture or furnishings, provided in or to a tenant's housing accommodation, on written tenant consent to the rent increase. In the case of a vacant housing accommodation, tenant consent shall not be required. The [permanent] increase in the legal regulated rent for the affected housing accommodation shall be one-fortieth, in the case of a building with thirty-five or fewer housing accommodations, or one-sixtieth, in the case of a building with more than thirty-five housing accommodations where such [permanent] increase takes effect on or after September twenty-fourth, two thousand eleven, of the total cost incurred by the landlord in providing such modification or increase in dwelling space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, including the cost of installation, but excluding finance charges; provided, however, the increase allowable under this paragraph shall only be in effect for a period of five years from the date of such increase. Provided further that an owner who is entitled to a rent increase pursuant to this paragraph shall not be entitled to a further rent increase based upon the installation of similar equipment, or new furniture or furnishings within the useful life of such new equipment, or new furniture or furnishings.
- (3) there has been since January first, nineteen hundred seventy-four a major capital improvement required for the operation, preservation or maintenance of the structure. An adjustment under this paragraph shall [be in an amount sufficient to amortize the cost of the improvements pursuant to this paragraph over an eight-year period for a building with thirty-five or fewer housing accommodations, or a nine year period for a building with more than thirty-five housing accommodations, for any determination issued by the division of housing and community renewal after the effective date of the rent act of 2015] only be in effect for a period of five years from the date of such adjustment, or
- (6) Before ordering any adjustment in rent pursuant to paragraphs one and three of this subdivision, the division of housing and community renewal shall require the owner of the property to file a statement with the division containing information outlining the scope of the work and the date of completion of such work. Upon receipt of such statement, the division of housing and community renewal shall inspect the property to ensure the specified work has been completed. No increase shall be collectible under paragraphs one and three of this subdivision where the division of housing and community renewal has determined the specified work has not been completed.
