3 class one reassessment exemption as provided in this section. Such 4 exemption shall apply in the same manner and to the same extent to coun-

6 assessment roll prepared by such special assessing unit.

9 apply an exemption as provided in this section to each property classi-10 fied in class one pursuant to article eighteen of this chapter.

11 3. Exemption calculation. (a) (i) The assessor shall calculate the 12 exemption as a percentage of the exemption base. The exemption base 13 shall be the amount by which the assessment of a property on the two 14 thousand twenty--two-thousand twenty-one tentative assessment roll 15 issued on or about January 2, 2019 exceeds the equalized assessment on 16 the two thousand nineteen--two thousand twenty final assessment roll.

21 ment on the two thousand twenty--two thousand twenty-one final assess-22 ment roll. The assessor shall determine a property's effective full 23 value on the two thousand nineteen--two thousand twenty final assessment 24 roll by dividing the assessment on the two thousand nineteen--two thou-25 sand twenty final assessment roll by the class one level of assessment 26 on the two thousand nineteen--two thousand twenty final assessment roll.
27 Such exemption base shall not include assessment increases due to a 28 physical improvement or a removal or reduction of an exemption on prop-29 erty.

30 (ii) Any increase in the assessment of a property due to an increase 31 in a property's full value or physical changes subsequent to the two 32 thousand twenty--two thousand twenty-one final assessment roll shall not 33 be eligible for the exemption. If any portion of a property is fully or 34 partially removed from the assessment roll subsequent to the two thou-35 sand twenty--two thousand twenty-one final assessment roll by reason of 36 fire, demolition, destruction or new exemption, the assessor shall 37 reduce the exemption for any remaining portion in the same proportion 38 the assessment is reduced for such fire, demolition, destruction or new 39 exemption.

40 (b) The exemption shall be eighty per centum of the exemption base on 41 the two thousand twenty--two thousand twenty-one final assessment roll, 42 sixty per centum of the exemption base on the two thousand twenty-one-- 43 two thousand twenty-two final assessment roll, forty per centum of the 44 exemption base on the two thousand twenty-two--two thousand twenty-three 45 final assessment roll, twenty per centum of the exemption base on the 46 two thousand twenty-three--two thousand twenty-four final assessment 47 roll and zero per centum of the exemption base on the two thousand twen-48 ty-four--two thousand twenty-five final assessment roll.

49 4. Entering of exemption on assessment roll. The assessor shall enter 50 in a separate column on the assessment roll the value of any exemption 51 provided by this section.

52 § 2. Severability. If any provision of this act or if any application 53 thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of 54 this act and the application of the provision to other persons and 48 § 49-a. State finance law is amended by adding a new Article 3-A, to 49 be known as the Fiscal Accountability and Budget Balance Act, to read as 50 follow:

51 § 28. Legislative intent.

52 This legislation is being advanced to ensure the fiscal discipline of 53 the State's Executive Budget process by requiring that legislation 54 passed outside of the State's Executive Budget process adequately takes 55 into account the impact of such bills and makes clear prescriptions 56 regarding the spending to be offset to maintain budget balance. The 1 initial offset recommendations by the Legislature to the Executive are 2 an integral part of the process of adjusting the Enacted Budget as 3 appropriate; however, this bill requires the Budget Director to deter-4 mine the estimated fiscal impact of any such legislation passed, as well 5 as the associated plans to offset such spending effectuated by the 6 legislation. Instead, this legislation is intended to preserve the 7 rights of the Legislature to advance legislation, and the role of the 8 Executive to maintain budget balance.

9 § 29. Definitions.

11 this chapter.

17 cial plan submitted in accordance with section 23 of the state finance 18 law.

55 (c) for every instance where a final fiscal accountability plan 56 submitted for a given bill is determined by the budget director to be

1 insufficient to offset the fiscal impact of the respective bill, an 2 explanation of such determination;

7 (e) a total reduction amount, which shall be equal to the difference 8 between the total fiscal impact described in paragraph (a) of this 9 subdivision and the fiscal accountability total set forth in paragraph 51 paragraphs (e) and (f) of subdivision 2 of this section to account for 52 any bills passed by both houses of the legislature after the regular 53 session and before January 1 of the immediately following fiscal year in 54 the event that the final fiscal accountability plans required for such 55 post-regular session bills are deemed by the Budget Director to be 56 insufficient to offset the fiscal impact of such bills. Such adjust-

19 request shall be randomly assigned to another judge or justice of the 20 court in which the original sentence was imposed. If the original 21 sentencing judge is no longer a judge or justice of a court of competent 22 jurisdiction, then the request shall be randomly assigned to another 23 judge or justice of the court.

24 (c) If the court finds that such person has met the requirements to 25 apply for resentencing in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the court 26 shall notify such person that he or she may submit an application for 27 resentencing. Upon such notification, the person may request that the 28 court assign him or her an attorney for the preparation of and 29 proceedings on the application for resentencing pursuant to this 30 section. The attorney shall be assigned in accordance with the 31 provisions of subdivision one of section seven hundred seventeen and 32 subdivision four of section seven hundred twenty-two of the county law 33 and the related provisions of article eighteen-A of such law.

34 (d) If the court finds that such person has not met the requirements 35 to apply for resentencing in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this 36 section, the court shall notify such person and dismiss his or her 37 request without prejudice.

38 2. (a) Upon the court's receipt of an application for resentencing, 39 the court shall promptly notify the appropriate district attorney and 40 provide such district attorney with a copy of the application.

41 (b) If the judge or justice that received the application is not the 42 original sentencing judge or justice, the application may be referred to 43 the original sentencing judge or justice provided that he or she is a 44 judge or justice of a court of competent jurisdiction and that the 45 applicant and the district attorney agree that the application should be 46 referred.

47 (c) An application for resentencing pursuant to this section must 48 include at least two pieces of evidence corroborating the applicant's 49 claim that he or she was, at the time of the offense, a victim of domes-50 tic violence subjected to substantial physical, sexual or psychological 51 abuse inflicted by a member of the same family or household as the 52 applicant as such term is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 53 of this chapter.

54 At least one piece of evidence must be either a court record, pre-sen-55 tence report, social services record, hospital record, sworn statement 56 from a witness to the domestic violence, law enforcement record, domes-

1 tic incident report, or order of protection. Other evidence may 2 include, but shall not be limited to, local and state department of 3 corrections records, a showing based in part on documentation prepared 4 at or near the time of the commission of the offense or the prosecution 5 thereof tending to support the person's claim, or when there is verifi-6 cation of consultation with a licensed medical or mental health care 7 provider, employee of a court acting within the scope of his or her 8 employment, member of the clergy, attorney, social worker, or rape 9 crisis counselor as defined in section forty-five hundred ten of the 10 civil practice law and rules, or other advocate acting on behalf of an 11 agency that assists victims of domestic violence for the purpose of 12 assisting such person with domestic violence victim counseling or 13 support.

14 (d) If the court finds that the applicant has not complied with the 15 provisions of paragraph (c) of this subdivision, the court shall dismiss 16 the application without prejudice.

17 (e) If the court finds that the applicant has complied with the 18 provisions of paragraph (c) of this subdivision, the court shall conduct 19 a hearing to aid in making its determination of whether the applicant 20 should be resentenced in accordance with section 60.12 of the penal law.
21 At such hearing the court shall determine any controverted issue of fact 22 relevant to the issue of sentencing. Reliable hearsay shall be admissi-23 ble at such hearings.

24 The court may consider any fact or circumstances relevant to the impo-25 sition of a new sentence which are submitted by the applicant or the 26 district attorney and may, in addition, consider the institutional 27 record of confinement of such person, but shall not order a new pre-sen-28 tence investigation and report or entertain any matter challenging the 29 underlying basis of the subject conviction. The court's consideration of 30 the institutional record of confinement of such applicant shall include, 31 but not be limited to, such applicant's participation in or willingness 32 to participate in programming such as domestic violence, parenting and 33 substance abuse treatment while incarcerated and such applicant's disci-34 plinary history. The fact that the applicant may have been unable to 35 participate in treatment or other programming while incarcerated despite 36 such applicant's willingness to do so shall not be considered a negative 37 factor in determining a motion pursuant to this section.

38 (f) If the court determines that the applicant should not be resen-39 tenced in accordance with section 60.12 of the penal law, the court 40 shall inform such applicant of its decision and shall enter an order to 41 that effect. Any order issued by a court pursuant to this section must 42 include written findings of fact and the reasons for such order.

43 (g) If the court determines that the applicant should be resentenced 44 in accordance with section 60.12 of the penal law, the court shall noti-45 fy the applicant that, unless he or she withdraws the application or 46 appeals from such order, the court will enter an order vacating the 47 sentence originally imposed and imposing the new sentence to be imposed 48 as authorized by section 60.12 of the penal law. Any order issued by a 49 court pursuant to this section must include written findings of fact and 50 the reasons for such order.

51 3. An appeal may be taken as of right in accordance with applicable 52 provisions of this chapter: (a) from an order denying resentencing; or 53 (b) from a new sentence imposed under this provision and may be based on 54 the grounds that (i) the term of the new sentence is harsh or excessive; 55 or (ii) that the term of the new sentence is unauthorized as a matter of 56 law. An appeal in accordance with the applicable provisions of this chapter may also be taken as of right by the applicant from an order specifying and informing such applicant of the term of the determinate sentence the court would impose upon resentencing on the ground that the term of the proposed sentence is harsh or excessive; upon remand to the sentencing court following such appeal the applicant shall be given an opportunity to withdraw an application for resentencing before any sentence is imposed. The applicant may request that the court assign him or her an attorney for the preparation of and proceedings on any appeals regarding his or her application for resentencing pursuant to this section. The attorney shall be assigned in accordance with the provisions of subdivision one of section seven hundred seventeen and subdivision four of section seven hundred twenty-two of the county law and the related provisions of article eighteen-A of such law.

4. In calculating the new term to be served by the applicant pursuant to section 60.12 of the penal law, such applicant shall be credited for any jail time credited towards the subject conviction as well as any period of incarceration credited toward the sentence originally imposed.

§ 4. Subdivision 1 of section 450.90 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 10 of part AAA of chapter 56 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

1. Provided that a certificate granting leave to appeal is issued pursuant to section 460.20, an appeal may, except as provided in subdivision two, be taken to the court of appeals by either the defendant or the people from any adverse or partially adverse order of an intermediate appellate court entered upon an appeal taken to such intermediate appellate court pursuant to section 450.10, 450.15, or 450.20, or from an order granting or denying a motion to set aside an order of an intermediate appellate court on the ground of ineffective assistance or wrongful deprivation of appellate counsel, or by either the defendant or the people from any adverse or partially adverse order of an intermediate appellate court entered upon an appeal taken to such intermediate appellate court from an order entered pursuant to section 440.46 or section 440.47 of this chapter. An order of an intermediate appellate court is adverse to the party who was the appellant in such court when it affirms the judgment, sentence or order appealed from, and is adverse to the party who was the respondent in such court when it reverses the judgment, sentence or order appealed from. An appellate court order which modifies a judgment or order appealed from is partially adverse to each party.

§ 5. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 390.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 5 of part OO of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Not less than one court day prior to sentencing, unless such time requirement is waived by the parties, the pre-sentence report or memorandum shall be made available by the court for examination and for copying by the defendant's attorney, the defendant himself, if he has no attorney, and the prosecutor. In its discretion, the court may except from disclosure a part or parts of the report or memoranda which are not relevant to a proper sentence, or a diagnostic opinion which might seriously disrupt a program of rehabilitation, or sources of information which have been obtained on a promise of confidentiality, or any other portion thereof, disclosure of which would not be in the interest of justice. In all cases where a part or parts of the report or memoranda are not disclosed, the court shall state for the record that a part or parts of the report or memoranda have been excepted and the reasons for its action. The action of the court excepting information from disclo-

1 sure shall be subject to appellate review. The pre-sentence report shall 2 be made available by the court for examination and copying in connection 3 with any appeal in the case, including an appeal under this subdivision.
4 Upon written request, the court shall make a copy of the presentence
5 report, other than a part or parts of the report redacted by the court 6 pursuant to this paragraph, available to the defendant for use before 7 the parole board for release consideration or an appeal of a parole 8 board determination or an application for resentencing pursuant to 9 section 440.46 or 440.47 of this chapter. In his or her written request 10 to the court the defendant shall affirm that he or she anticipates an 11 appearance before the parole board or intends to file an administrative 12 appeal of a parole board determination or meets the eligibility criteria 13 for and intends to file a motion for resentencing pursuant to 440.46 of 14 this chapter or has received notification from the court which received 15 his or her request to apply for resentencing pursuant to section 440.47 16 of this chapter confirming that he or she is eligible to submit an 17 application for resentencing pursuant to section 440.47 of this chapter.
18 The court shall respond to the defendant's written request within twenty 19 days from receipt of the defendant's written request.

20 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 21 sections one and two of this act shall apply to offenses committed on, 22 after and prior to such effective date where the sentence for such 23 offense has not yet been imposed; provided, further that sections three, 24 four and five of this act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after 25 it shall have become a law.

After the jury has retired to deliberate, the court must either (1) with the consent of the defendant and the people, discharge the alternate jurors or (2) direct the alternate jurors not to discuss the case and must further direct that they be kept separate and apart from the regular jurors.

~~[2. In any prosecution in which the people seek a sentence of death, the court shall not discharge the alternate jurors when the jury retires to deliberate upon its verdict and the alternate jurors, in the discretion of the court, may be continuously kept together under the supervision of an appropriate public servant or servants until such time as the jury returns its verdict. 29 ~~parole or to a sentence of imprisonment for the class A-I felony of~~ 30 ~~murder in the first degree other than a sentence of life imprisonment~~
31 ~~without parole. Upon granting the motion upon any of the grounds set~~ 32 ~~forth in the aforesaid paragraphs of subdivision one of section 440.10~~ 33 ~~and setting aside the sentence, the court must afford the people a~~ 34 ~~reasonable period of time, which shall not be less than ten days, to~~ 35 ~~determine whether to take an appeal from the order setting aside the~~ 36 ~~sentence of death. The taking of an appeal by the people stays the~~ 37 ~~effectiveness of that portion of the court's order that directs a new~~ 38 ~~sentencing proceeding.]~~

48 470.20, governing the consideration and determination by intermediate 49 appellate courts of appeals thereto from judgments and orders of crimi-

52 to the consideration and determination by the court of appeals of 53 appeals taken directly thereto, ~~[pursuant to sections 450.70 and~~ 54 ~~450.80,]~~ from judgments and orders of superior criminal courts.

55 ~~[2. Whenever a sentence of death is imposed, the judgment and sentence~~ 56 ~~shall be reviewed on the record by the court of appeals. Review by the~~ ~~court of appeals pursuant to subdivision one of section 450.70 may not be waived.~~

~~3. With regard to the sentence, the court shall, in addition to exercising the powers and scope of review granted under subdivision one of this section, determine:~~

~~(b) whether the sentence of death is excessive or disproportionate to the penalty imposed in similar cases considering both the crime and the defendant. In conducting such review the court, upon request of the defendant, in addition to any other determination, shall review whether the sentence of death is excessive or disproportionate to the penalty imposed in similar cases by virtue of the race of the defendant or a victim of the crime for which the defendant was convicted; and~~

~~(c) whether the decision to impose the sentence of death was against the weight of the evidence.~~

~~4. The court shall include in its decision: (a) the aggravating and mitigating factors established in the record on appeal; and~~

~~(b) those similar cases it took into consideration.~~

~~5. In addition to exercising any other corrective action pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the court, with regard to review of a sentence of death, shall be authorized to:~~

~~(a) affirm the sentence of death; or~~

~~(b) set the sentence aside and remand the case for resentencing pursuant to the procedures set forth in section 400.27 for a determination as to whether the defendant shall be sentenced to death, life imprisonment without parole or to a term of imprisonment for the class A-I felony of murder in the first degree other than a sentence of life imprisonment without parole; or~~

~~(c) set the sentence aside and remand the case for resentencing by the court for a determination as to whether the defendant shall be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole or to a term of imprisonment for the class A-I felony of murder in the first degree other than a sentence of life imprisonment without parole.]~~

The original transaction report shall be forwarded to the division of state police within ten days of delivering a firearm to any person, and a duplicate copy shall be kept by the licensee. The superintendent of state police may designate that such record shall be completed and transmitted in electronic form. A dealer may be granted a waiver from transmitting such records in electronic form if the superintendent determines that such dealer is incapable of such transmission due to technological limitations that are not reasonably within the control of the dealer, or other exceptional circumstances demonstrated by the dealer, pursuant to a process established in regulation, and at the discretion of the superintendent. Records assembled or collected for purposes of inclusion in the database created pursuant to section 400.02 of this article shall not be subject to disclosure pursuant to article six of the public officers law. The record book shall be maintained on the premises mentioned and described in the license and shall be open at all reasonable hours for inspection by any peace officer, acting pursuant to his special duties, or police officer. 6 (NICS) or its successor has issued a "proceed" response to the seller or 7 transferor, or (b) ten business days shall have elapsed since the date
8 the seller or transferor contacted NICS to initiate a national instant 9 criminal background check and NICS has not notified the seller or 21 person's federal firearms license or such sale, exchange or disposal is 22 between members of an immediate family. When a sale, exchange or 23 disposal is conducted pursuant to a person's federal firearms license, 24 before delivering a firearm, rifle or shotgun to any person, either (a) 25 the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS) or its 26 successor has issued a "proceed" response to the federal firearms licen-27 see, or (b) ten business days shall have elapsed since the date the 28 federal firearms licensee contacted NICS to initiate a national instant 29 criminal background check and NICS has not notified the federal firearms 30 licensee that the transfer of the firearm, rifle or shotgun to such 31 person should be denied. For purposes of this section, "immediate fami-32 ly" shall mean spouses, domestic partners, children and step-children.

33 2. Before any sale, exchange or disposal pursuant to this article, a 34 national instant criminal background check must be completed by a dealer 35 who consents to conduct such check, and upon completion of such back-36 ground check, shall complete a document, the form of which shall be 37 approved by the superintendent of state police, that identifies and 38 confirms that such check was performed. Before a dealer who consents to 39 conduct a national instant criminal background check delivers a firearm, 40 rifle or shotgun to any person, either (a) NICS issued a "proceed" 41 response to the dealer, or (b) ten business days shall have elapsed 42 since the date the dealer contacted NICS to initiate a national instant 43 criminal background check and NICS has not notified the dealer that the 44 transfer of the firearm, rifle or shotgun to such person should be 45 denied.

46 § 5. This act shall take effect on the forty-fifth day after it shall

For purposes of this article, school official shall include the following: school teacher, school guidance counselor, school psychologist, school social worker, school nurse, school administrator or other school personnel required to hold a teaching or administrative license or certificate, and full or part-time compensated school employee required to hold a temporary coaching license or professional coaching certificate.

3. "Respondent" means the person against whom an extreme risk protection order is or may be sought under this article.

4. "Possess" shall have the same meaning as defined in subdivision eight of section 10.00 of the penal law.

§ 6342. Issuance of a temporary extreme risk protection order. 1. Upon application of a petitioner pursuant to this article, the court may issue a temporary extreme risk protection order, ex parte or otherwise, to prohibit the respondent from purchasing, possessing or attempting to purchase or possess a firearm, rifle or shotgun, upon a finding that there is probable cause to believe the respondent is likely to engage in conduct that would result in serious harm to himself, herself or others, as defined in paragraph one or two of subdivision (a) of section 9.39 of the mental hygiene law. Such application for a temporary order shall be determined in writing on the same day the application is filed.

1 2. In determining whether grounds for a temporary extreme risk
2 protection order exist, the court shall consider any relevant factors 3 including, but not limited to, the following acts of the respondent:

4 (a) a threat or act of violence or use of physical force directed 5 toward self, the petitioner, or another person;

6 (b) a violation or alleged violation of an order of protection;

13 alcohol; or

14 (g) evidence of recent acquisition of a firearm, rifle, shotgun or 15 other deadly weapon or dangerous instrument, or any ammunition therefor.

16 In considering the factors under this subdivision, the court shall 17 consider the time that has elapsed since the occurrence of such act or 18 acts and the age of the person at the time of the occurrence of such act 19 or acts.

20 For the purposes of this subdivision, "recent" means within the six 21 months prior to the date the petition was filed.

22 3. The application of the petitioner and supporting documentation, if 23 any, shall set forth the factual basis for the request and probable 24 cause for issuance of a temporary order. The court may conduct an exam-25 ination under oath of the petitioner and any witness the petitioner may 26 produce.

27 4. A temporary extreme risk protection order, if warranted, shall 28 issue in writing, and shall include:

29 (a) a statement of the grounds found for the issuance of the order;

30 (b) the date and time the order expires;

31 (c) the address of the court that issued the order;

32 (d) a statement to the respondent: (i) directing that the respondent 33 may not purchase, possess or attempt to purchase or possess a firearm, 34 rifle or shotgun while the order is in effect and that any firearm, 35 rifle or shotgun possessed by such respondent shall be promptly surren-36 dered to any authorized law enforcement official in the same manner as 37 set forth in subdivision five of section 530.14 of the criminal proce-
38 dure law;

39 (ii) informing the respondent that the court will hold a hearing no 40 sooner than three nor more than six business days after service of the 41 temporary order, to determine whether a final extreme risk protection 42 order will be issued and the date, time and location of such hearing, 43 provided that the respondent shall be entitled to more than six days 44 upon request in order to prepare for the hearing; and (iii) informing 45 the respondent the he or she may seek the advice of an attorney and that 46 an attorney should be consulted promptly; and 47 (e) a form to be completed and executed by the respondent at the time 48 of service of the temporary extreme risk protection order which elicits 49 a list of all firearms, rifles and shotguns possessed by the respondent 50 and the particular location of each firearm, rifle or shotgun listed.

51 5. If the application for a temporary extreme risk protection order is 52 not granted, the court shall notify the petitioner and, unless the 53 application is voluntarily withdrawn by the petitioner, nonetheless 54 schedule a hearing on the application for a final extreme risk 55 protection order. Such hearing shall be scheduled to be held promptly, 56 but in any event no later than ten business days after the date on which 1 such application is served on the respondent, provided, however, that 2 the respondent may request, and the court may grant, additional time to 3 allow the respondent to prepare for the hearing. A notice of such hear-4 ing shall be prepared by the court and shall include the date and time 5 of the hearing, the address of the court, and the subject of the hear-6 ing.

7 6. (a) The court shall, in the manner specified in paragraph (b) of 8 this subdivision, arrange for prompt service of a copy of the temporary 9 extreme risk protection order, if any, the application therefor and, if 10 separately applied for or if a temporary extreme risk protection order 11 was not granted, the application for an extreme risk protection order, 12 any notice of hearing prepared by the court, along with any associated 13 papers including the petition and any supporting documentation, 14 provided, that the court may redact the address and contact information 15 of the petitioner from such application and papers where the court finds 16 that disclosure of such address or other contact information would pose 17 an unreasonable risk to the health or safety of the petitioner.

18 (b) The court shall provide copies of such documents to the appropri-19 ate law enforcement agency serving the jurisdiction of the respondent's 20 residence with a direction that such documents be promptly served, at no 21 cost to the petitioner, on the respondent; provided, however, that the 22 petitioner may voluntarily arrange for service of copies of such order 23 and associated papers through a third party, such as a licensed process 24 server.

25 7. (a) The court shall notify the division of state police, any other 26 law enforcement agency with jurisdiction, all applicable licensing offi-
27 cers, and the division of criminal justice services of the issuance of a 28 temporary extreme risk protection order and provide a copy of such order 29 no later than the next business day after issuing the order to such 30 persons or agencies. The court also shall promptly notify such persons 31 and agencies and provide a copy of any order amending or revoking such 32 protection order or restoring the respondent's ability to own or possess 33 firearms, rifles or shotguns no later than the next business day after 34 issuing the order to restore such right to the respondent. The court 35 also shall report such demographic data as required by the state divi-36 sion of criminal justice services at the time such order is transmitted 37 thereto. Any notice or report submitted pursuant to this subdivision 38 shall be in an electronic format, in a manner prescribed by the division 39 of criminal justice services.

40 (b) Upon receiving notice of the issuance of a temporary extreme risk 41 protection order, the division of criminal justice services shall imme-42 diately report the existence of such order to the federal bureau of 43 investigation to allow the bureau to identify persons prohibited from 44 purchasing firearms, rifles or shotguns. The division shall also imme-45 diately report to the bureau the expiration of any such protection 46 order, any court order amending or revoking such protection order or 47 restoring the respondent's ability to purchase a firearm, rifle or shot-48 gun.

49 8. A law enforcement officer serving a temporary extreme risk
50 protection order shall request that the respondent immediately surrender 51 to the officer all firearms, rifles and shotguns in the respondent's 52 possession and the officer shall conduct any search permitted by law for 53 such firearms. The law enforcement officer shall take possession of all 54 firearms, rifles and shotguns that are surrendered, that are in plain 55 sight, or that are discovered pursuant to a lawful search. As part of 56 the order, the court may also direct a police officer to search for

1 firearms, rifles and shotguns in the respondent's possession in a manner 2 consistent with the procedures of article six hundred ninety of the 3 criminal procedure law.

4 9. Upon issuance of a temporary extreme risk protection order, or upon 5 setting a hearing for a final extreme risk protection order where a 6 temporary order is denied or not requested, the court shall direct the 7 law enforcement agency having jurisdiction to conduct a background 8 investigation and report to the court and, subject to any appropriate 9 redactions to protect any person, each party regarding whether the 10 respondent:

11 (a) has any prior criminal conviction for an offense involving domes-

13 (b) has any criminal charge or violation currently pending against him 14 or her;

15 (c) is currently on parole or probation;

16 (d) possesses any registered firearms, rifles or shotguns; and 17 (e) has been, or is, subject to any order of protection or has 18 violated or allegedly violated any order of protection.

19 § 6343. Issuance of a final extreme risk protection order. 1. In 20 accordance with this article, no sooner than three business days nor 21 later than six business days after service of a temporary extreme risk 22 protection order and, alternatively, no later than ten business days 23 after service of an application under this article where no temporary 24 extreme risk protection order has been issued, the supreme court shall 25 hold a hearing to determine whether to issue a final extreme risk 26 protection order and, when applicable, whether a firearm, rifle or shot-27 gun surrendered by, or removed from, the respondent should be returned 28 to the respondent. The respondent shall be entitled to more than six 29 business days if a temporary extreme risk protection order has been 30 issued and the respondent requests a reasonable period of additional 31 time to prepare for the hearing. Where no temporary order has been 32 issued, the respondent may request, and the court may grant, additional 33 time beyond the ten days to allow the respondent to prepare for the 34 hearing.

35 2. At the hearing pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the 36 petitioner shall have the burden of proving, by clear and convincing 37 evidence, that the respondent is likely to engage in conduct that would 38 result in serious harm to himself, herself or others, as defined in 39 paragraph one or two of subdivision (a) of section 9.39 of the mental 40 hygiene law. The court may consider the petition and any evidence 41 submitted by the petitioner, any evidence submitted by the respondent, 42 any testimony presented, and the report of the relevant law enforcement 43 agency submitted pursuant to subdivision nine of section sixty-three 44 hundred forty-two of this article. The court shall also consider the 45 factors set forth in subdivision two of section sixty-three hundred 46 forty-two of this article.

47 3. (a) After the hearing pursuant to subdivision one of this section, 48 the court shall issue a written order granting or denying the extreme 49 risk protection order and setting forth the reasons for such determi-50 nation. If the extreme risk protection order is granted, the court shall 51 direct service of such order in the manner and in accordance with the 52 protections for the petitioner set forth in subdivision six of section 53 sixty-three hundred forty-two of this article.

54 (b) Upon issuance of an extreme risk protection order: (i) any 55 firearm, rifle or shotgun removed pursuant to a temporary extreme risk 56 protection order or such extreme risk protection order shall be retained

1 by the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction for the duration of 2 the order, unless ownership of the firearm, rifle or shotgun is legally 3 transferred by the respondent to another individual permitted by law to 4 own and possess such firearm, rifle or shotgun; (ii) the supreme court 5 shall temporarily suspend any existing firearm license possessed by the 6 respondent and order the respondent temporarily ineligible for such a 7 license; (iii) the respondent shall be prohibited from purchasing or 8 possessing, or attempting to purchase or possess, a firearm, rifle or 9 shotgun; and (iv) the court shall direct the respondent to surrender any 10 firearm, rifle or shotgun in his or her possession in the same manner as
12 dure law.

13 (c) An extreme risk protection order issued in accordance with this 14 section shall extend, as specified by the court, for a period of up to 15 one year from the date of the issuance of such order; provided, however, 16 that if such order was immediately preceded by the issuance of a tempo-17 rary extreme risk protection order, then the duration of the extreme 18 risk protection order shall be measured from the date of issuance of 19 such temporary extreme risk protection order.

20 (d) A law enforcement officer serving a final extreme risk protection 21 order shall request that the respondent immediately surrender to the 22 officer all firearms, rifles and shotguns in the respondent's possession 23 and the officer shall conduct any search permitted by law for such 24 firearms. The law enforcement officer shall take possession of all 25 firearms, rifles and shotguns that are surrendered, that are in plain 26 sight, or that are discovered pursuant to a lawful search. As part of 27 the order, the court may also direct a police officer to search for 28 firearms, rifles and shotguns in a respondent's possession consistent 29 with the procedures of article six hundred ninety of the criminal proce-30 dure law.

31 4. (a) The court shall notify the division of state police, any other 32 law enforcement agency with jurisdiction, all applicable licensing offi-
33 cers, and the division of criminal justice services of the issuance of a 34 final extreme risk protection order and provide a copy of such order to 35 such persons and agencies no later than the next business day after 36 issuing the order. The court also shall promptly notify such persons and 37 agencies and provide a copy of any order amending or revoking such 38 protection order or restoring the respondent's ability to own or possess 39 firearms, rifles or shotguns no later than the next business day after 40 issuing the order to restore such right to the respondent. Any notice or 41 report submitted pursuant to this subdivision shall be in an electronic 42 format, in a manner prescribed by the division of criminal justice 43 services.

44 (b) Upon receiving notice of the issuance of a final extreme risk 45 protection order, the division of criminal justice services shall imme-
47 investigation to allow the bureau to identify persons prohibited from 48 purchasing firearms, rifles or shotguns. The division shall also imme-49 diately report to the bureau the expiration of such protection order and 50 any court order amending or revoking such protection order or restoring 51 the respondent's ability to purchase a firearm, rifle or shotgun.

52 5. (a) If, in accordance with a temporary extreme risk protection 53 order, a firearm, rifle or shotgun has been surrendered by or removed 54 from the respondent, and the supreme court subsequently finds that the 55 petitioner has not met the required standard of proof, the court's find-56 ing shall include a written order, issued to all parties, directing that

1 any firearm, rifle or shotgun surrendered or removed pursuant to such 2 temporary order shall be returned to the respondent, upon a written 3 finding that there is no legal impediment to the respondent's possession 4 of such firearm, rifle or shotgun.

5 (b) If any other person demonstrates that he or she is the lawful 6 owner of any firearm, rifle or shotgun surrendered or removed pursuant 7 to a protection order issued in accordance with this article, and 8 provided that the court has made a written finding that there is no 9 legal impediment to the person's possession of a surrendered or removed 10 firearm, rifle or shotgun, the court shall direct that such firearm, 11 rifle or shotgun be returned to such lawful owner and inform such person 12 of the obligation to safely store such firearm, rifle, or shotgun in 13 accordance with section 265.45 of the penal law.

14 6. The respondent shall be notified on the record and in writing by 15 the court that he or she may submit one written request, at any time 16 during the effective period of an extreme risk protection order, for a 17 hearing setting aside any portion of such order. The request shall be 18 submitted in substantially the same form and manner as prescribed by the 19 chief administrator of the courts. Upon such request, the court shall 20 promptly hold a hearing, in accordance with this article, after provid-21 ing reasonable notice to the petitioner. The respondent shall bear the 22 burden to prove, by clear and convincing evidence, any change of circum-23 stances that may justify a change to the order.

24 § 6344. Surrender and removal of firearms, rifles and shotguns pursu-
25 ant to an extreme risk protection order. 1. When a law enforcement offi-26 cer takes any firearm, rifle or shotgun pursuant to a temporary extreme 27 risk protection order or a final extreme risk protection order, the 28 officer shall give to the person from whom such firearm, rifle or shot-29 gun is taken a receipt or voucher for the property taken, describing the 30 property in detail. In the absence of a person, the officer shall leave 31 the receipt or voucher in the place where the property was found, mail a 32 copy of the receipt or voucher, retaining proof of mailing, to the last 33 known address of the respondent and, if different, the owner of the 34 firearm, rifle or shotgun, and file a copy of such receipt or voucher 35 with the court. All firearms, rifles and shotguns in the possession of a 36 law enforcement official pursuant to this article shall be subject to 37 the provisions of applicable law, including but not limited to subdivi-38 sion six of section 400.05 of the penal law; provided, however, that any 39 such firearm, rifle or shotgun shall be retained and not disposed of by 40 the law enforcement agency for at least two years unless legally trans-41 ferred by the respondent to an individual permitted by law to own and 42 possess such firearm, rifle or shotgun.

43 2. If the location to be searched during the execution of a temporary 44 extreme risk protection order or extreme risk protection order is joint-45 ly occupied by two or more parties, and a firearm, rifle or shotgun 46 located during the execution of such order is owned by a person other 47 than the respondent, the court shall, upon a written finding that there 48 is no legal impediment to the person other than the respondent's 49 possession of such firearm, rifle or shotgun, order the return of such 50 firearm, rifle or shotgun to such lawful owner and inform such person of 51 their obligation to safely store their firearm, rifle, or shotgun in 52 accordance with section 265.45 of the penal law.

53 § 6345. Request for renewal of an extreme risk protection order. 1.
54 If a petitioner believes a person subject to an extreme risk protection 55 order continues to be likely to engage in conduct that would result in 56 serious harm to himself, herself, or others, as defined in paragraph one

1 or two of subdivision (a) of section 9.39 of the mental hygiene law, 2 such petitioner may, at any time within sixty days prior to the expira-3 tion of such existing extreme risk protection order, initiate a request 4 for a renewal of such order, setting forth the facts and circumstances 5 necessitating the request. The chief administrator of the courts shall 6 adopt forms that may be used for purposes of such applications and the 7 court's consideration of such applications. The court may issue a tempo-8 rary extreme risk protection order in accordance with section sixty-9 three hundred forty-two of this article, during the period that a 10 request for renewal of an extreme risk protection order is under consid-11 eration pursuant to this section.

12 2. A hearing held pursuant to this section shall be conducted in the 13 supreme court, in accordance with section sixty-three hundred forty-14 three of this article, to determine if a request for renewal of the 15 order shall be granted. The respondent shall be served with written 16 notice of an application for renewal a reasonable time before the hear-17 ing, and shall be afforded an opportunity to fully participate in the 18 hearing. The court shall direct service of such application and the 19 accompanying papers in the manner and in accordance with the protections 20 for the petitioner set forth in subdivision six of section sixty-three 21 hundred forty-two of this article.

22 § 6346. Expiration of an extreme risk protection order. 1. A 23 protection order issued pursuant to this article, and all records of any 24 proceedings conducted pursuant to this article, shall be sealed upon 25 expiration of such order and the clerk of the court wherein such 26 proceedings were conducted shall immediately notify the commissioner of 27 the division of criminal justice services, the heads of all appropriate 28 police departments, applicable licensing officers, and all other appro-29 priate law enforcement agencies that the order has expired and that the 30 record of such protection order shall be sealed and not be made avail-31 able to any person or public or private entity, except that such records 32 shall be made available to:

33 (a) the respondent or the respondent's designated agent;

34 (b) courts in the unified court system;

35 (c) police forces and departments having responsibility for enforce-36 ment of the general criminal laws of the state;

37 (d) any state or local officer or agency with responsibility for the 38 issuance of licenses to possess a firearm, rifle or shotgun, when the 39 respondent has made application for such a license; and 40 (e) any prospective employer of a police officer or peace officer as 41 those terms are defined in subdivisions thirty-three and thirty-four of 42 section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law, in relation to an applica-43 tion for employment as a police officer or peace officer; provided, 44 however, that every person who is an applicant for the position of 45 police officer or peace officer shall be furnished with a copy of all 46 records obtained under this subparagraph and afforded an opportunity to 47 make an explanation thereto.

48 2. Upon expiration of a protection order issued pursuant to this arti-49 cle and upon written application of the respondent who is the subject of 50 such order, with notice and opportunity to be heard to the petitioner 51 and every licensing officer responsible for issuance of a firearm 52 license to the subject of the order pursuant to article four hundred of 53 the penal law, and upon a written finding that there is no legal imped-54 iment to the respondent's possession of a surrendered firearm, rifle or 55 shotgun, the court shall order the return of a firearm, rifle or shotgun 56 not otherwise disposed of in accordance with subdivision one of section

sixty-three hundred forty-four of this article. When issuing such order in connection with any firearm subject to a license requirement under article four hundred of the penal law, if the licensing officer informs the court that he or she will seek to revoke the license, the order shall be stayed by the court until the conclusion of any license revocation proceeding.

§ 6347. Effect of findings and determinations in subsequent proceedings. Notwithstanding any contrary claim based on common law or a provision of any other law, no finding or determination made pursuant to this article shall be interpreted as binding, or having collateral estoppel or similar effect, in any other action or proceeding, or with respect to any other determination or finding, in any court, forum or administrative proceeding.

§ 2. Section 265.45 of the penal law, as amended by section 3 of part FF of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

§ 265.45 Safe storage of rifles, shotguns, and firearms.

No person who owns or is custodian of a rifle, shotgun or firearm who resides with an individual who such person knows or has reason to know is prohibited from possessing a firearm pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 922(g) (1), (4), (8) or (9), or pursuant to a temporary or final extreme risk protection order issued under article sixty-three-A of the civil practice law and rules, shall store or otherwise leave such rifle, shotgun or firearm out of his or her immediate possession or control without having first securely locked such rifle, shotgun or firearm in an appropriate safe storage depository or rendered it incapable of being fired by use of a gun locking device appropriate to that weapon. For purposes of this section "safe storage depository" shall mean a safe or other secure container which, when locked, is incapable of being opened without the key, combination or other unlocking mechanism and is capable of preventing an unauthorized person from obtaining access to and possession of the weapon contained therein. With respect to a person who is prohibited from possessing a firearm pursuant to 18 USC § 922(g)(9), for purposes of this section, this section applies only if such person has been convicted of a crime included in subdivision one of section 370.15 of the criminal procedure law and such gun is possessed within five years from the later of the date of conviction or completion of sentence. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect, impair or supersede any special or local act relating to the safe storage of rifles, shotguns or firearms which impose additional requirements on the owner or custodian of such weapons.

§ 3. If any part or provision of this act is adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, such judgment shall not affect or impair any other part or provision of this act, but shall be confined in its operation to such part or provision.

§ 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law.

PART AA

Section 1. This part enacts into law major components of legislation which are necessary to reform the manner in which New York state pursues justice before trial. This state, like most across the United States, has for far too long needlessly incarcerated those meant to be guaranteed a presumption of innocence simply because of an inability to pay bail and have forced those same people to choose between facing lengthy

1 prison sentences or a speedy return to society without providing them
2 with sufficient information regarding the case against them. This Part 3 will usher into New York true reforms in the areas of bail, discovery, 4 and speedy trial. Each component is wholly contained within a Subpart
5 identified as Subparts A through C. The effective date for each partic-6 ular provision contained within such Subpart is set forth in the last 7 section of such Subpart. Any provision in any section contained within 8 a Subpart, including the effective date of the Subpart, which makes a 9 reference to a section "of this act", when used in connection with that 10 particular component, shall be deemed to mean and refer to the corre-
11 sponding section of the Subpart in which it is found.

12 SUBPART A

13 Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature finds and declares 14 that there is a present need to revise New York's procedures regulating 15 release of persons charged with criminal offenses pending trial, set 16 forth in title P of the criminal procedure law, so that fewer presumed-17 innocent people are held behind bars pretrial. First, the bill requires 18 the police to issue appearance tickets in misdemeanor and class E felony 19 cases, with enumerated exceptions, so that fewer people spend time in 20 jail before arraignment. Then after arraignment, the bill breaks the 21 link between paying money and earning freedom, so that defendants are 22 either released on their own recognizance or, failing that, released 23 under non-monetary conditions. The bill also revises the existing proc-24 ess of remanding individuals in jail before trial, so that pretrial 25 detention can be ordered only in limited cases involving high risk of 26 flight or a current risk to the physical safety of a reasonably iden-27 tifiable person or persons, and the order comports with Supreme Court 28 jurisprudence regarding required substantive and procedural due process 29 before detention.

30 § 2. Subdivision 1 of section 150.20 of the criminal procedure law, as 31 amended by chapter 550 of the laws of 1987, is amended to read as 32 follows:

33 1. (a) Whenever a police officer is authorized pursuant to section 34 140.10 of this title to arrest a person without a warrant for an offense
35 other than a class A, B, C or D felony or a violation of section 130.25, 36 130.40, 205.10, 205.17, 205.19 or 215.56 of the penal law, he ~~may~~ 37 shall, except as set out in paragraph (b) of this subdivision, subject 38 to the provisions of subdivisions three and four of section 150.40 of 39 this title, instead issue to and serve upon such person an appearance 40 ticket.

41 (b) An officer is not required to issue an appearance ticket if the 42 person:

43 (i) has one or more outstanding warrants;

44 (ii) has a documented history of failure to appear in court 45 proceedings;

46 (iii) has been given a reasonable opportunity to make their verifiable 47 identity and a method of contact known, and has been unable or unwilling 48 to do so, so that a custodial arrest is necessary to subject the indi-49 vidual to the jurisdiction of the court;

50 (iv) is charged with a crime or offense between members of the same 51 family or household, as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of 52 this chapter;

53 (v) is charged with a crime or offense involving sexual misconduct
54 under section 130.00 of the penal law;

(vi) should, in the officer's estimation, be brought before the court for consideration of issuance of an order of protection, pursuant to section 530.13 of this chapter, based on the facts of the crime or offense that the officer has reasonable cause to believe occurred;

(vii) should, in the officer's estimation, be brought before the court for consideration of court-ordered restrictions on operation of a motor vehicle, based on the facts of the crime or offense that the officer has reasonable cause to believe occurred;

(viii) should, in the officer's estimation, be brought before the court for consideration of court ordered medical or mental health assessment, based on the facts of the alleged crime or offense that the officer has reasonable cause to believe occurred and the observed behavior of the individual when in contact with the police; or

(ix) is unlikely to return to court on the return date of an appearance ticket for reasons specific to the facts of the case that the officer can articulate in the information or misdemeanor complaint. These reasons cannot rely solely on the defendant's prior criminal history or place of residence.

§ 3. Section 150.30 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

§ 4. Subdivision 1 of section 150.40 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

1. An appearance ticket must be made returnable at a date as soon as possible, but in no event later than twenty days from the date of issuance. The appearance ticket shall be made returnable in a local criminal court designated in section 100.55 of this title as one with which an information for the offense in question may be filed.

§ 5. Subdivisions 1, 2, 4, 5 and 6 of section 500.10 of the criminal procedure law are amended and a new subdivision 3-a is added to read as follows:

1. "Principal" means a defendant in a criminal action or proceeding, or a person adjudged a material witness therein, or any other person so involved therein that ~~he~~ the principal may by law be compelled to appear before a court for the purpose of having such court exercise control over ~~his~~ the principal's person to secure ~~his~~ the principal's future attendance at the action or proceeding when required, and who in fact either is before the court for such purpose or has been before it and been subjected to such control.

2. "Release on own recognizance." A court releases a principal on ~~his~~ the principal's own recognizance when, having acquired control over ~~his~~ the principal's person, it permits ~~him~~ the principal to be at liberty during the pendency of the criminal action or proceeding involved upon condition that ~~he~~ the principal will appear thereat whenever ~~his~~ the principal's attendance may be required and will at all times render ~~himself~~ the principal amenable to the orders and processes of the court.

3-a. "Release under non-monetary conditions". A court releases a principal under non-monetary conditions when, having acquired control over a person, it permits the person to be at liberty during the pendency of the criminal action under conditions set by the court, which shall be the least restrictive that will reasonably assure the principal's return appearance in court. Such conditions may include, among others, that the principal shall be in contact with a pretrial services agency serving principals in that county; that the principal shall abide by specified restrictions on association or travel that are reasonably related to a risk of flight from the jurisdiction; that the principal shall refrain from possessing a firearm, destructive device or other dangerous weapon;

1 that the person be placed in pretrial supervision with a pretrial 2 services agency serving principals in that county; that the person be 3 monitored with an approved electronic monitoring device. A principal 4 shall not be required to pay for any part of the cost of release under 5 non-monetary conditions, including, but not limited to, electronic moni-6 toring.

7 4. "Commit to the custody of the sheriff." A court commits a principal 8 to the custody of the sheriff when, having acquired control over his 9 person, it orders that he be confined in the custody of the sheriff 10 [~~during the pendency of the criminal action or proceeding involved~~] 11 pending the outcome of a hearing under article five hundred forty-five 12 of this title, as to whether the individual shall be ordered into 13 pretrial detention.

14 5. "Securing order" means an order of a court [~~committing a principal~~ 15 ~~to the custody of the sheriff, or fixing bail, or releasing him on his~~ 16 ~~own recognizance~~] that either releases a principal under personal recog-17 nizance, or releases the principal under non-monetary conditions, all 18 with the direction that the principal return to court for future court 19 appearances and to be at all times amendable to the orders and processes 20 of the court.

21 6. [~~"Order of recognizance or bail" means a securing order releasing a~~ 22 ~~principal on his own recognizance or fixing bail~~] "Pretrial detention".
23 A county or superior court may commit a principal to pretrial detention 24 if, after a hearing and making such findings as specified in article 25 five hundred forty-five of this title, a judge so orders detention.

26 § 6. Section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chap-27 ter 459 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

28 § 510.10 Securing order; when required; alternatives available; standard 29 to be applied.

30 1. When a principal, whose future court attendance at a criminal 31 action or proceeding is or may be required, initially comes under the 32 control of a court, such court [~~must~~] shall, by a securing order[~~, or~~ 33 ~~either release him on his own recognizance, fix bail or commit him to~~ 34 ~~the custody of the sheriff.~~] release the principal pending trial on the 35 principal's personal recognizance, unless the court finds on the record 36 that release on recognizance will not reasonably assure the individual's 37 court attendance. In such instances, the court will release the individ-38 ual under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive 39 alternative that will reasonably assure the principal's court attend-40 ance. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record.

41 2. Notwithstanding the above, in cases where the people indicate that 42 they intend to move for pretrial detention as set out in article five 43 hundred forty-five of this title, the court may commit the defendant to 44 the custody of the sheriff or issue a securing order in accordance with 45 article five hundred forty-five of this title.

46 3. When a securing order is revoked or otherwise terminated in the 47 course of an uncompleted action or proceeding but the principal's future 48 court attendance still is or may be required and [~~he~~] the principal is 49 still under the control of a court, a new securing order must be issued.
50 When the court revokes or otherwise terminates a securing order which 51 committed the principal to the custody of the sheriff, the court shall 52 give written notification to the sheriff of such revocation or termi-53 nation of the securing order.

54 § 7. Section 510.20 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read
55 as follows:

§ 510.20 [~~Application for recognizance or bail, making and determination thereof in general~~] Application for a change in securing order based on a material change of circumstances.

1. Upon any occasion when a court [~~is required to issue~~] has issued a securing order with respect to a principal, [~~or at any time when a principal is confined in the custody of the sheriff as a result of a previously issued securing order, he~~] the defendant or the people may make an application for [~~recognizance or bail~~] a different securing order due to a material change of circumstances.

2. Upon such application, the principal or the people must be accorded an opportunity to be heard and to contend that [~~an order of recognizance or bail~~] a different securing order must or should issue[~~, that the court should release him on his own recognizance rather than fix bail, and that if bail is fixed it should be in a suggested amount and form~~] because, due to a material change in circumstances, the current order is either too restrictive or not restrictive enough to reasonably ensure a defendant's appearance in court. In acting upon such an application, the court shall select the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably ensure a court appearance.

§ 8. Section 510.30 of the criminal procedure law, subparagraph (v) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982, subparagraph (vi) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as renumbered by chapter 447 of the laws of 1977, subparagraph (vii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as added and subparagraphs (viii) and (ix) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as renumbered by section 1 of part D of chapter 491 of the laws of 2012, and subdivision 3 as added by chapter 788 of the laws of 1981, is amended to read as follows:

§ 510.30 Application for [~~recognizance or bail~~] securing order; rules of law and criteria controlling determination.

~~1. Determinations of applications for recognizance or bail are not in all cases discretionary but are subject to rules, prescribed in article five hundred thirty and other provisions of law relating to specific kinds of criminal actions and proceedings, providing (a) that in some circumstances such an application must as a matter of law be granted, (b) that in others it must as a matter of law be denied and the principal committed to or retained in the custody of the sheriff, and (c) that in others the granting or denial thereof is a matter of judicial discretion.~~

~~2. To the extent that the issuance of an order of recognizance or bail and the terms thereof are matters of discretion rather than of law, an application is determined on the basis of the following factors and criteria:~~

~~(a)~~ With respect to any principal, the court in all cases, unless otherwise provided by law, must [~~consider the~~] impose the least restrictive kind and degree of control or restriction that is necessary to secure [~~his~~] the principal's court attendance when required. In determining that matter, the court must, on the basis of available information, consider and take into account:

~~[(i) The principal's character, reputation, habits and mental condition;~~

~~(ii) His employment and financial resources; and~~

~~(iii) His family ties and the length of his residence if any in the community; and~~

~~(iv) His]~~ 1. information about the principal that is relevant to court appearance, including, but not limited to, the principal's activities, history and community ties;

1 2. if the principal is a defendant, the charges facing the principal;
2 3. the principal's criminal record if any; provided that the court 3 must also consider the time that has elapsed since the occurrence of the 4 crime or crimes and the age of the principal at the time of the occur-5 rence of such delinquent or youthful offender conduct; [and 6 ~~(v) His~~ 4. the principal's record of previous adjudication as a juve-7 nile delinquent, as retained pursuant to section 354.2 of the family 8 court act, or, of pending cases where fingerprints are retained pursuant 9 to section 306.1 of such act, or a youthful offender, if any; provided 10 that the court must also consider the time that has elapsed since the 11 occurrence of the crime or crimes and the age of the principal at the 12 time of the occurrence of such delinquent or youthful offender conduct; 13 [and

14 ~~(vi) His~~ 5. the principal's previous record if any in responding to 15 court appearances when required or with respect to flight to avoid crim-16 inal prosecution; [and 17 ~~(vii) Where~~ 6. where the principal is charged with a crime or crimes 18 against a member or members of the same family or household as that term 19 is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, the 20 following factors:

21 ~~(A)~~ (i) any violation by the principal of an order of protection 22 issued by any court for the protection of a member or members of the 23 same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of 24 section 530.11 of this title, whether or not such order of protection is 25 currently in effect; and 26 ~~(B)~~ (ii) the principal's history of use or possession of a firearm; 27 [and

28 ~~(viii)~~ 7. If [he] the principal is a defendant, the weight of the 29 evidence against ~~him~~ the principal in the pending criminal action and 30 any other factor indicating probability or improbability of conviction; 31 or, in the case of an application for ~~[bail or recognizance]~~ securing 32 order pending appeal, the merit or lack of merit of the appeal; and 33 ~~(ix)~~ 8. If [he] the principal is a defendant, the sentence which may 34 be or has been imposed upon conviction~~[-~~

35 ~~(b) Where the principal is a defendant-appellant in a pending appeal~~ 36 ~~from a judgment of conviction, the court must also consider the likeli-~~ 37 ~~hood of ultimate reversal of the judgment. A determination that the~~ 38 ~~appeal is palpably without merit alone justifies, but does not require,~~ 39 ~~a denial of the application, regardless of any determination made with~~ 40 ~~respect to the factors specified in paragraph (a).~~

41 ~~3. When bail or recognizance is ordered, the court shall inform the~~ 42 ~~principal, if he is a defendant charged with the commission of a felony,~~ 43 ~~that the release is conditional and that the court may revoke the order~~ 44 ~~of release and commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff in~~ 45 ~~accordance with the provisions of subdivision two of section 530.60 of~~ 46 ~~this chapter if he commits a subsequent felony while at liberty upon~~ 47 ~~such order.]; and~~

48 9. if the principal is a defendant-appellant in a pending appeal from 49 a judgment of conviction, the court must also consider the likelihood of 50 ultimate reversal of the judgment. A determination that the appeal is 51 palpably without merit alone justifies, but does not require, a denial 52 of the application, regardless of any determination made with respect to 53 the factors specified in this paragraph.

55 as follows:

§ 510.40 [~~Application for recognizance or bail, determination thereof, form of securing order and execution thereof~~] Notification to principal by court of conditions of release and penalties for violations of release.

1. [~~An application for recognizance or bail must be determined by a securing order which either:~~

(a) ~~Grants the application and releases the principal on his own recognizance; or~~

(b) ~~Grants the application and fixes bail; or~~

(c) ~~Denies the application and commits the principal to, or retains him in, the custody of the sheriff.~~

2.] Upon ordering that a principal be released on [~~his~~] the principal's own recognizance, or released under non-monetary conditions, the court must direct [~~him~~] the principal to appear in the criminal action or proceeding involved whenever [~~his~~] the principal's attendance may be required and to [~~render himself~~] be at all times amenable to the orders and processes of the court. If the principal is a defendant, the court shall also direct the defendant not to commit a crime while at liberty upon the court's securing order. If such principal is in the custody of the sheriff [~~or at liberty upon bail~~] at the time of the order, the court must direct that [~~he~~] the principal be discharged from such custody [~~or, as the case may be, that his bail be exonerated~~].

~~3. Upon the issuance of an order fixing bail, and upon the posting thereof, the court must examine the bail to determine whether it complies with the order. If it does, the court must, in the absence of some factor or circumstance which in law requires or authorizes disapproval thereof, approve the bail and must issue a certificate of release, authorizing the principal to be at liberty, and, if he is in the custody of the sheriff at the time, directing the sheriff to discharge him therefrom. If the bail fixed is not posted, or is not approved after being posted, the court must order that the principal be committed to the custody of the sheriff.]~~

2. If the principal is released under non-monetary conditions, the court shall, in the document authorizing the principal's release, notify the principal of:

(a) any of the conditions under which the principal is subject, in addition to the directions in subdivision one of this section, in a manner sufficiently clear and specific to serve as a guide for the principal's conduct; and

(b) the consequences for violation of those conditions, which could include revoking of the securing order, setting of a more restrictive securing order, or, after a motion and a hearing prescribed in article five hundred forty-five of this title, pretrial detention.

§ 10. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 510.41 to read as follows:

§ 510.41 Provisions regarding non-monetary conditions of release.

1. Non-monetary conditions of release shall, for each individual, require the least degree of restrictions or required actions that will reasonably ensure the individual's court attendance. At future court appearances, the court shall consider a lessening of the conditions or modification of conditions to a less burdensome form based on the principal's compliance with existing conditions of release.

2. (a) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be ordered only if the individual is charged with a felony, or a misdemeanor crime involving a person who is a member of the same household as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, and if the court finds,

1 after notice and an opportunity to be heard and an individualized deter-2 mination explained on the record or in writing, that no other non-mone-3 tary condition or sets of conditions will reasonably ensure a princi-4 pal's return to court.

5 (b) The specific method of electronic monitoring of the principal's
6 location must be approved by the court. It must be the least restrictive 7 method and procedure that will reasonably ensure the principal's return 8 to court, and unobtrusive to the greatest extent possible.

9 (c) Electronic monitoring orders shall be reviewed at least every 10 sixty days to ascertain whether they are the least restrictive means of 11 reasonably ensuring an individual's court attendance and whether there 12 are less burdensome methods of ensuring such attendance.

13 3. In the event of non compliance with the conditions of release, the 14 court, upon motion by the people and only after affording the defendant 15 and defendant's counsel notice of the alleged noncompliance and an 16 opportunity to be heard, may revoke and modify the securing order. In 17 determining whether to revoke and modify the securing order, the court 18 must consider the facts, nature, willfulness, and the seriousness of the 19 noncompliance. The court may only set a more restrictive condition or 20 conditions if it finds that such conditions are necessary to reasonably 21 ensure the defendant's appearance in court.

22 § 11. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section
23 510.43 to read as follows:

24 § 510.43 Court appearances; additional notifications.

25 The court, or, upon direction of the court, a certified pretrial 26 services agency, shall, in addition to verbal notifications during court 27 appearances, make best efforts to notify all principals released under 28 recognizance and under non-monetary conditions of all court appearances 29 in advance by text message, electronic mail, phone call or first class
30 mail. The chief administrator of the courts shall, pursuant to subdivi-31 sion one of section 10.40 of this chapter, develop a form which shall be 32 offered to the principal at the principal's initial court appearance, by 33 which the principal may select one such preferred method of notice. The 34 form shall be retained in the court file. In no instance, however, shall 35 the principal's failure to receive such additional notifications in 36 addition to verbal notification at court appearances, constitute grounds 37 to excuse the principal's failure to appear at court proceedings.

38 § 12. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section
39 510.45 to read as follows:

40 § 510.45 Pretrial service agencies.

41 1. Pretrial services shall be provided by a county probation depart-42 ment or nonprofit pretrial service agency. The department or agency must 43 be approved by the division of criminal justice services and certified 44 by the office of court administration. The department or agency will 45 advise the court on a principal's release on recognizance or under non-46 monetary conditions and monitor principals released under conditions of 47 non-monetary release. The division of criminal justice services shall 48 promulgate regulations for the operation of approved pretrial agencies, 49 which shall include data collection and reporting requirements on prin-
50 cipals served. The office of court administration shall maintain a list-51 ing on its public website identifying each pretrial services agency so 52 certified in the state. A county shall be authorized to enter into a 53 contract with another county or municipality to provide pretrial 54 services.

55 2. Any criteria, instrument, or tool used to inform a pretrial service 56 agency's recommendation to the court about pretrial conditions shall be

1 made available to the principal and the principal's counsel. Any crite-2 ria, instrument or tool used may consider risk of failing to appear in 3 court and shall not contain a measure of a person's general risk to 4 public safety. Any blank form of the criteria, instrument or tool used 5 in the county for such purpose shall be made available to any person 6 promptly upon request. If scores are calculated to predict the risk of 7 failure to appear, the scoring formula shall be made available. Any 8 tool used to predict failure to appear shall be periodically validated, 9 with validation studies available upon request.

11 as follows:

12 § 510.50 Enforcement of securing order.

13 When the attendance of a principal confined in the custody of the 14 sheriff is required at the criminal action or proceeding at a particular 15 time and place, the court may compel such attendance by directing the 16 sheriff to produce ~~[him]~~ such principal at such time and place. If the 17 principal is at liberty on ~~[his]~~ the principal's own recognizance ~~[or on~~ 18 ~~bail]~~ or non-monetary conditions, ~~[his]~~ the principal's attendance may 19 be achieved or compelled by various methods, including notification and 20 the issuance of a bench warrant, prescribed by law in provisions govern-21 ing such matters with respect to the particular kind of action or 22 proceeding involved.

23 § 14. Article 520 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

24 § 15. The article heading of article 530 of the criminal procedure law 25 is amended to read as follows:

26 ~~[ORDERS OF RECOGNIZANCE OR BAIL WITH~~ 27 ~~RESPECT TO DEFENDANTS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS~~ 28 ~~AND PROCEEDINGS--WHEN AND BY WHAT~~ 29 ~~COURTS AUTHORIZED]~~ SECURING ORDERS WITH 30 RESPECT TO DEFENDANTS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS AND 31 PROCEEDINGS - WHEN AND BY WHAT COURTS AUTHORIZED

33 as follows:

34 § 530.10 ~~[Order of recognizance or bail]~~ Securing orders; in general.

35 Under circumstances prescribed in this article, a court, upon applica-36 tion of a defendant charged with or convicted of an offense, is 37 ~~[required or authorized to order bail or recognizance]~~ to issue a secur-38 ing order for the release or prospective release of such defendant 39 during the pendency of either:

- 40 1. A criminal action based upon such charge; or
- 41 2. An appeal taken by the defendant from a judgment of conviction or a 42 sentence or from an order of an intermediate appellate court affirming 43 or modifying a judgment of conviction or a sentence.

44 § 17. Subdivision 4 of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, 45 as added by chapter 186 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as 46 follows:

47 4. When a person is arrested for an alleged family offense or an 48 alleged violation of an order of protection or temporary order of 49 protection or arrested pursuant to a warrant issued by the supreme or 50 family court, and the supreme or family court, as applicable, is not in 51 session, such person shall be brought before a local criminal court in 52 the county of arrest or in the county in which such warrant is return-53 able pursuant to article one hundred twenty of this chapter. Such local 54 criminal court may issue any order authorized under subdivision eleven 55 of section 530.12 of this article, section one hundred fifty-four-d or 56 one hundred fifty-five of the family court act or subdivision three-b of 1 section two hundred forty or subdivision two-a of section two hundred 2 fifty-two of the domestic relations law, in addition to discharging 3 other arraignment responsibilities as set forth in this chapter. In 4 making such order, the local criminal court shall consider the [~~bail~~ 5 ~~recommendation~~] securing order, if any, made by the supreme or family 6 court as indicated on the warrant or certificate of warrant. Unless the 7 petitioner or complainant requests otherwise, the court, in addition to 8 scheduling further criminal proceedings, if any, regarding such alleged 9 family offense or violation allegation, shall make such matter return-10 able in the supreme or family court, as applicable, on the next day such 11 court is in session.

12 § 18. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 530.13 of the criminal 13 procedure law, as added by chapter 388 of the laws of 1984, is amended
14 to read as follows:

15 (a) revoke [~~an order of recognizance or bail~~] a securing order and 16 commit the defendant to custody; or

17 § 19. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 530.13 of the 18 criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 137 of the laws of 2007, 19 is amended to read as follows:

20 When any criminal action is pending, and the court has not issued a 21 temporary order of protection pursuant to section 530.12 of this arti-22 cle, the court, in addition to the other powers conferred upon it by 23 this chapter, may for good cause shown issue a temporary order of 24 protection in conjunction with any securing order [~~committing the~~ 25 ~~defendant to the custody of the sheriff or as a condition of a pre-trial~~ 26 ~~release, or as a condition of release on bail or an adjournment in~~ 27 ~~contemplation of dismissal~~]. In addition to any other conditions, such 28 an order may require that the defendant:

29 § 20. Subdivisions 9 and 11 of section 530.12 of the criminal proce-
30 dure law, subdivision 9 as amended by section 81 of subpart B of part C 31 of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 32 498 of the laws of 1993, the opening paragraph of subdivision 11 as 33 amended by chapter 597 of the laws of 1998, paragraph (a) of subdivision 34 11 as amended by chapter 222 of the laws of 1994, paragraph (d) of 35 subdivision 11 as amended by chapter 644 of the laws of 1996, are 36 amended to read as follows:

37 9. If no warrant, order or temporary order of protection has been 38 issued by the court, and an act alleged to be a family offense as 39 defined in section 530.11 of this [~~chapter~~] article is the basis of the 40 arrest, the magistrate shall permit the complainant to file a petition, 41 information or accusatory instrument and for reasonable cause shown, 42 shall thereupon hold such respondent or defendant, [~~admit to, fix or~~ 43 ~~accept bail,~~] establish a securing order or parole him or her for hear-44 ing before the family court or appropriate criminal court as the 45 complainant shall choose in accordance with the provisions of section 46 530.11 of this [~~chapter~~] article.

47 11. If a defendant is brought before the court for failure to obey any 48 lawful order issued under this section, or an order of protection issued 49 by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or 50 tribal jurisdiction, and if, after hearing, the court is satisfied by 51 competent proof that the defendant has willfully failed to obey any such 52 order, the court may:

53 (a) revoke [~~an order of recognizance or revoke an order of bail or~~ 54 ~~order forfeiture of such bail~~] a securing order and commit the defendant 55 to custody; or

(b) restore the case to the calendar when there has been an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal and commit the defendant to custody; or

(c) revoke a conditional discharge in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter and impose probation supervision or impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law based on the original conviction; or

(d) revoke probation in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter and impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law based on the original conviction. In addition, if the act which constitutes the violation of the order of protection or temporary order of protection is a crime or a violation the defendant may be charged with and tried for that crime or violation.

§ 21. Section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 531 of the laws of 1975, subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 218 of the laws of 1979, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.20 [~~Order of recognizance or bail;~~] Securing order by local criminal court when action is pending therein.

When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, such court, upon application of a defendant, must [~~or may order recognizance or bail~~] issue a securing order as follows:

1. [~~When the defendant is charged, by information, simplified information, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint, with an offense or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recognizance or bail.~~] Release the principal pending trial on the principal's personal recognizance, unless the court finds on the record that release on recognizance will not reasonably assure the individual's court attendance. In such instances, the court will release the individual under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure the principal's court attendance. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record.

2. [~~When the defendant is charged, by felony complaint, with a felony, the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail except as otherwise provided in this subdivision.~~

~~(a) A city court, a town court or a village court may not order recognizance or bail when (i) the defendant is charged with a class A felony, or (ii) it appears that the defendant has two previous felony convictions;~~

~~(b)]~~ Notwithstanding the above, in cases where the people indicate that they intend to move for pretrial detention as set forth in article five hundred forty-five of this title, the court may commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff or issue a securing order in accordance with article five hundred forty-five of this title.

3. Notwithstanding the above, in cases where the defendant is facing a charge of a class A felony, or it appears that the defendant has two previous felony convictions within the meaning of subdivision one of section 70.08 or 70.10 of the penal law; the court shall commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff for the county or superior court to make a determination about a securing order within three days.

4. No local criminal court may order [~~recognizance or bail~~] a securing order with respect to a defendant charged with a felony unless and until[+]

~~(i) The district attorney has been heard in the matter or, after knowledge or notice of the application and reasonable opportunity to be~~

~~heard, has failed to appear at the proceeding or has otherwise waived his right to do so, and~~

~~(ii) The~~ the court ~~[has]~~, and counsel for the defense, have been furnished with a report of the division of criminal justice services concerning the defendant's criminal record, if any, or with a police department report with respect to the defendant's prior arrest and conviction record, if any. If neither report is available, the court, with the consent of the district attorney, may dispense with this requirement; provided, however, that in an emergency, including but not limited to a substantial impairment in the ability of such division or police department to timely furnish such report, such consent shall not be required if, for reasons stated on the record, the court deems it unnecessary. ~~[When the court has been furnished with any such report or record, it shall furnish a copy thereof to counsel for the defendant or, if the defendant is not represented by counsel, to the defendant.]~~

§ 22. The section heading, subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 530.30 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 762 of the laws of 1971, are amended to read as follows:

~~[Order of recognizance or bail, by superior court judge when action is pending in local criminal court]~~ Securing order by superior court judge when action is pending in local criminal court.

1. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, other than one consisting of a superior court judge sitting as such, a judge of a superior court holding a term thereof in the county, upon application of a defendant, may order ~~[recognizance or bail]~~ a securing order when such local criminal court:

(a) Lacks authority to issue such an order, pursuant to ~~[paragraph (a) of]~~ subdivision ~~[two]~~ three of section 530.20~~[-or~~

~~(b) Has denied an application for recognizance or bail, or~~

~~(c) Has fixed bail which is excessive,]~~ or

(b) Has set a securing order of release under non-monetary conditions which are more restrictive than necessary to reasonably ensure court attendance.

In such case, such superior court judge may vacate the order of such local criminal court and release the defendant on ~~[his own]~~ recognizance ~~[or fix bail in a lesser amount or in a less burdensome form,]~~ or under release with conditions, whichever is the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure defendant's appearance in court. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, when the defendant is charged with a felony in a local criminal court, a superior court judge may not ~~[order recognizance or bail]~~ issue a securing order unless and until the district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such judge ~~[has]~~ and counsel for the defendant have been furnished with a report as described in ~~[subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of]~~ subdivision ~~[two]~~ four of section 530.20.

§ 23. Section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, and subdivision 4 as amended by chapter 762 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.40 ~~[Order of recognizance or bail,]~~ Securing order by superior court when action is pending therein.

When a criminal action is pending in a superior court, such court, upon application of a defendant, must ~~[or may]~~ order ~~[recognizance or bail]~~ a securing order as follows:

1. ~~When the defendant is charged with an offense or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recognizance or bail.~~

2. ~~When the defendant is charged with a felony, the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail. In any such case in which an indictment (a) has resulted from an order of a local criminal court holding the defendant for the action of the grand jury, or (b) was filed at a time when a felony complaint charging the same conduct was pending in a local criminal court, and in which such local criminal court or a superior court judge has issued an order of recognizance or bail which is still effective, the superior court's order may be in the form of a direction continuing the effectiveness of the previous order.] Release~~ the principal pending trial on the principal's personal recognizance, unless the court finds on the record that release on recognizance will not reasonably assure the individual's court attendance. In such instances, the court will release the individual under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably assure the principal's court attendance. The court will support its choice of alternative on the record.

2. Notwithstanding the above, in cases where the people indicate that they intend to move for pretrial detention as set out in article five hundred forty-five of this title, the court may commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff, or issue a securing order in accordance with article five hundred forty-five of this title.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision [two], one of this section, a superior court may not ~~[order recognizance or bail]~~ issue a securing order, or permit a defendant to remain at liberty pursuant to an existing order, after ~~[he]~~ the defendant has been convicted of either: (a) a class A felony or (b) any class B or class C felony defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age. In either case the court must commit or remand the defendant to the custody of the sheriff.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision [two] one of this section, a superior court may not ~~[order recognizance or bail]~~ issue a securing order when the defendant is charged with a felony unless and until the district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such court ~~[has]~~ and counsel for the defense have been furnished with a report as described in ~~[subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of]~~ subdivision ~~[two]~~ four of section 530.20 of this article.

§ 24. Subdivision 1 of section 530.45 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

1. When the defendant is at liberty in the course of a criminal action as a result of a prior ~~[order of recognizance or bail]~~ securing order and the court revokes such order and then ~~[either fixes no bail or fixes bail in a greater amount or in a more burdensome form than was previously fixed and remands or commits defendant to the custody of the sheriff, a judge designated in subdivision two, upon application of the defendant following conviction of an offense other than a class A felony or a class B or class C felony offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age, and before sentencing, may issue a securing order and either release defendant on his own recognizance, or fix bail, or fix bail in a lesser amount or]~~ issues a more restrictive securing order in a less

1 [~~burdensome~~] restrictive form than fixed by the court in which the 2 conviction was entered.

3 § 25. Section 530.60 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

4 § 26. Title P of part 3 of the criminal procedure law is amended by 5 adding a new article 545 to read as follows:

6 ARTICLE 545--PRETRIAL DETENTION

7 Section 545.10 Pretrial detention; when ordered.

8 545.20 Eligibility for a pretrial detention hearing.

9 545.30 Pretrial detention hearing.

10 545.40 Order for pretrial detention.

11 545.50 Reopening of pretrial hearing.

12 545.60 Length of detention for defendant held under a pretrial
13 detention order.

14 § 545.10 Pretrial detention; when ordered.

15 A county or superior court may order, before trial, the detention of a 16 defendant if the people seek detention of the defendant under section 17 545.20 of this article, and, after a hearing pursuant to section 545.30 18 of this article, the court finds clear and convincing evidence that the 19 defendant poses a high risk of flight before trial, or that defendant 20 poses a current threat to the physical safety of a reasonably identifi-21 able person or persons, and that no conditions or combination of condi-22 tions in the community will suffice to contain the aforesaid risk or 23 threat. There shall be a rebuttable presumption, except in the circum-24 stances outlined in subdivision four of section 545.30 of this article 25 that some condition or conditions in the community will reasonably 26 contain a high risk of flight or a current threat to the physical safety 27 of a reasonably identifiable person or persons. That presumption may 28 only be overcome by clear and convincing evidence.

29 § 545.20 Eligibility for a pretrial detention hearing.

30 1. The people may make a motion with the court at any time seeking the 31 pretrial detention of a defendant:

32 (a) charged with a class A felony defined in the penal law;

33 (b) charged with offenses involving witness intimidation under section 34 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law;

35 (c) charged with class B or C crimes as enumerated under section 70.02 36 of the penal law (except burglary in the second degree as defined in 37 subdivision two of section 140.25 of the penal law, or robbery in the 38 second degree as defined in subdivision one of section 160.10 of the 39 penal law);

40 (d) who, the people allege poses an immediate risk of physical harm to 41 members of the same family or household of the defendant, as defined in 42 subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title; or 43 (e) who has persistently and willfully failed to appear in court in 44 the current case, and the relevant pretrial services agency certifies 45 that the agency has made persistent efforts to assist the individual's 46 appearance in court.

47 2. Upon such motion by the people, the defendant may be committed to 48 the custody of the sheriff pending a hearing on the people's motion, or 49 the court may issue a securing order. The court shall support its choice 50 of an alternative on the record. If the person is at liberty, a warrant 51 shall be issued and the defendant brought into custody of the sheriff.

52 § 545.30 Pretrial detention hearing.

53 1. A hearing shall be held within three working days from the people's 54 motion. At the hearing, the defendant shall have the right to be 55 represented by counsel, and, if financially unable to obtain counsel, to 56 have counsel assigned. The defendant shall be afforded an opportunity to 1 testify, to present witnesses, to cross-examine witnesses who appear at 2 the hearing, and to present information by proffer or otherwise. The 3 rules concerning the admissibility of evidence in criminal trials do not 4 apply to the presentation and consideration of information during the 5 hearing.

6 2. (a) Within at least twenty-four hours of the hearing, the people 7 shall disclose to the defendant and permit the defendant to inspect, 8 copy or photograph all statements and reports that are in the 9 possession, custody or control of the people, or persons under the 10 people's direction and control that:

11 (i) the people rely upon to establish reasonable cause that the 12 defendant committed the alleged crime or crimes; and 13 (ii) relate to the people's basis for the pretrial detention motion 14 that either the defendant presents a high risk of flight or a current 15 threat to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable person or 16 persons.

17 (b) In addition, the people will produce any statements that are 18 exculpatory in nature.

19 (c) Portions of materials claimed to be non-discoverable may be with-20 held pending a determination and ruling of the court under section 21 245.70 of this chapter; but the defendant shall be notified in writing 22 that such information has not been disclosed under a particular subdivi-23 sion of such section, and the discoverable portions of such materials 24 shall be disclosed if practicable.

25 3. In hearings in cases for which there is no indictment, the people 26 shall establish reasonable cause that the eligible defendant committed 27 the charged offense. The people must establish by clear and convincing 28 evidence that defendant poses a high risk of flight or a current threat 29 of physical danger to a reasonably identifiable person or persons and 30 that no conditions or combination of conditions in the community will 31 suffice to contain the aforesaid risk or threat.

32 4. There shall be a rebuttable presumption, which the defendant may 33 overcome by a preponderance of the evidence, that no conditions or 34 combination of conditions in the community will suffice to contain a 35 current threat to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable 36 person or persons if the court finds reasonable cause that the defend-37 ant:

38 (a) committed a crime for which the defendant would be subject to a 39 term of life imprisonment;

40 (b) committed a crime involving serious physical injury or threat of 41 serious physical injury, or attempt therein, while the defendant was in 42 the community on recognizance or under non-monetary conditions for a 43 crime involving serious physical injury or the threat of serious phys-44 ical injury; or

45 (c) threatened, injured, intimidated, or attempted to threaten, injure 46 or intimidate a prospective witness or juror in an criminal investi-47 gation or judicial proceeding.

48 5. In determining whether the defendant presents a high risk of flight 49 or a current threat of physical danger to a reasonably identifiable 50 person or persons and whether no conditions or combinations of condi-51 tions in the community will suffice to contain such risk or threat, the 52 court may take into account the following information:

53 (a) the nature and circumstances of the charged offense;

54 (b) the weight of the evidence against the defendant, except that the 55 court may consider the admissibility of any evidence sought to be 56 excluded;

1 (c) the defendant's current and prior history of failure to appear in 2 court whether such failures to appear were willful;

3 (d) the nature and the credibility of the threat to the physical 4 danger of a reasonably identifiable person or persons, if applicable; 5 and

6 (e) whether, at the time of the current offense or arrest, the defend-7 ant was on probation, parole, or on release pending trial, sentencing or 8 completion of a sentence in this state or other jurisdictions.

9 § 545.40 Order for pretrial detention.

10 In a pretrial detention order issued pursuant to section 545.10 of 11 this article, the court shall:

12 1. include written findings of fact and a written statement of the 13 reasons for the detention; and 14 2. direct that the eligible defendant be afforded reasonable opportu-15 nity for private consultation with counsel.

16 § 545.50 Reopening of pretrial hearing.

17 A pretrial detention hearing may be opened, before or after issuance 18 of a pretrial detention order by the court, by motion of the people or 19 the defendant, at any time before trial, if the court finds either a 20 change of circumstances or that information exists that was not known to 21 the people or to the defendant at the time of the hearing, that has a 22 material bearing on the issue of whether defendant presents a high risk 23 of failure to appear or a current threat to the physical safety of a 24 reasonably identifiable person or persons and whether no conditions or 25 combination of conditions will suffice to contain such risk or threat.

26 § 545.60 Length of detention for defendant held under a pretrial
27 detention order.

28 1. If a pretrial detention order is issued, a defendant shall not 29 remain detained in jail for more than one hundred eighty days after the 30 return of the indictment, if applicable, until the start of trial. In 31 cases where no indictment is required, the defendant shall not remain 32 detained in jail for more than ninety days from the date of the pretrial 33 detention motion until the start of trial.

34 2. (a) The time within which the trial of the case commences may be 35 extended for one or more additional periods not to exceed twenty days 36 each on the basis of a motion submitted by the people and approved by 37 the court. The additional period or periods of detention may be granted 38 only on the basis of good cause shown, and shall be granted only for the 39 additional time required to prepare for the trial of the person. Good 40 cause may include, but not be limited to, the unavailability of an 41 essential witness, the necessity for forensic analysis of evidence, the 42 ability to conduct a joint trial with a co-defendant or co-defendants, 43 severance of co-defendants which permits only one trial to commence 44 within the time period, complex or major investigations, scheduling 45 conflicts which arise shortly before the trial date, the inability to 46 proceed to trial because of action taken by or at the behest of the 47 defendant, the breakdown of a plea agreement on or immediately before 48 the trial date, and allowing reasonable time to prepare for a trial 49 after the circumstances giving rise to a tolling or extension of the 50 time period no longer exists.

51 (b) In computing the one hundred eighty days from indictment, if 52 applicable, or if no indictment is required, ninety days from the date 53 of the pretrial order, to commencement of trial, the following periods 54 shall be excluded:

55 (i) any period from the filing of the notice of appeal to the issuance 56 of the mandate in an interlocutory appeal;

(ii) any period attributable to any examination to determine the defendant's sanity or lack thereof or his or her mental or physical competency to stand trial;

(iii) any period attributable to the inability of the defendant to participate in the defendant's defense because of mental incompetency or physical incapacity; and

(iv) any period in which the defendant is otherwise unavailable for trial.

3. If a trial has not commenced within one hundred eighty days from indictment, if applicable, or ninety days from the pretrial detention order if no indictment is required, as calculated above, and the defendant remains in custody, the defendant shall be released on recognizance or under non-monetary conditions of release pending trial on the underlying charge, unless:

(a) the trial is in progress,

(b) the trial has been delayed by the timely filing of motions, excluding motions for continuances;

(c) the trial has been delayed at the request of the defendant; or

(d) upon motion of the people, the court finds that a current substantial and unjustifiable risk to the physical safety of a reasonably identifiable person would result from the defendant's release from custody, and that no appropriate conditions for the defendant's release would reasonably address that risk, and also finds that the failure to commence trial in accordance with the time requirements set forth in this section was not due to unreasonable delay by the people. If the court makes such a finding, the court must set an additional period of time, not to exceed thirty days, in which the defendant's trial must commence. If the trial does not commence within this period, the defendant must be released on recognizance or under non-monetary conditions.

§ 27. Article 68 of the insurance law is REPEALED.

§ 28. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 9 of section 216.05 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 258 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

(a) If at any time during the defendant's participation in the judicial diversion program, the court has reasonable grounds to believe that the defendant has violated a release condition or has failed to appear before the court as requested, the court shall direct the defendant to appear or issue a bench warrant to a police officer or an appropriate peace officer directing him or her to take the defendant into custody and bring the defendant before the court without unnecessary delay; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall a defendant who requires treatment for opioid abuse or dependence be deemed to have violated a release condition on the basis of his or her participation in medically prescribed drug treatments under the care of a health care professional licensed or certified under title eight of the education law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice. The provisions of ~~[subdivision one of]~~ section ~~[530.60]~~ 530.10 of this chapter relating to ~~[revocation of recognizance or bail]~~ issuance of securing orders shall apply to such proceedings under this subdivision.

§ 29. Subdivisions 2 and 3 of section 620.50 of the criminal procedure law are amended to read as follows:

2. If the court is satisfied after such hearing that there is reasonable cause to believe that the prospective witness (a) possesses information material to the pending action or proceeding, and (b) will not be amenable or respond to a subpoena at a time when ~~[his]~~ the witness's attendance will be sought, it may issue a material witness order, adjudging ~~[him]~~ the individual a material witness and ~~[fixing bail to secure his]~~ releasing the individual on the individual's own recognizance unless the court finds on the record that release on recognizance will not reasonably ensure the individual's court attendance. In such instances the court will release the individual under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative that will reasonably ensure the individual's future attendance.

3. ~~[A]~~ When a material witness order ~~[must be]~~ is executed ~~[as follows]~~.

~~(a) If the bail is posted and approved by the court]~~, the witness must~~[, as provided in subdivision three of section 510.40]~~ be released and be permitted to remain at liberty~~[, provided that, where the bail is posted by a person other than the witness himself, he may not be so released except upon his signed written consent thereto]~~.

~~(b) If the bail is not posted, or if though posted it is not approved by the court, the witness must[, as provided in subdivision three of section 510.40, be committed to the custody of the sheriff].~~

§ 30. Section 216 of the judiciary law is amended by adding a new subdivision 5 to read as follows:

5. (a) The chief administrator of the courts shall collect data at arraignment on all pretrial release and detention decisions, including information on sex, race, criminal charge, the pretrial release decision outcome, whether the individual was detained, whether electronic monitoring was imposed, and information on any pretrial motions made, and motions granted.

(b) The office of court administration shall provide data and information to the division of criminal justice services which will prepare an annual report on pretrial release and detention outcomes, and include information on the sex, race, criminal charge, pretrial decision outcomes, the use of electronic monitoring, pretrial motions, rates of failure to appear and rates of rearrest for individuals released before trial. The report shall also include information on pretrial service agency activity.

§ 31. This act shall take effect November 1, 2020.

6 than fifteen calendar days after the defendant's arraignment on an 7 indictment, superior court information, prosecutor's information, infor-8 mation, or simplified information. Portions of materials claimed to be 9 non-discoverable may be withheld pending a determination and ruling of 10 the court under section 245.70 of this article; but the defendant shall 11 be notified in writing that information has not been disclosed under a 12 particular subdivision of such section, and the discoverable portions of 13 such materials shall be disclosed if practicable. When the discoverable 14 materials are exceptionally voluminous or, despite diligent efforts, are 15 otherwise not in the possession, custody, or control of the prosecution, 16 the time period in this paragraph may be stayed by up to an additional 17 thirty calendar days without need for a motion pursuant to subdivision 18 two of section 245.70 of this article.

19 (b) The prosecution shall perform its supplemental discovery obli-

28 of materials claimed to be non-discoverable may be withheld pending a 29 determination and ruling of the court under section 245.70 of this arti-30 cle; but the prosecution must be notified in writing that information 31 has not been disclosed under a particular section and the disclosable 32 portions of such material shall be disclosed if practicable.

33 § 245.20 Automatic discovery.

34 1. Initial discovery for the defendant. Subject to paragraph (b) of 35 this subdivision and section 245.70 of this article, the prosecution 36 shall disclose to the defendant, and permit the defendant to discover, 37 inspect, copy or photograph, each of the following items and information 38 when it relates to the subject matter of the case and is in the 39 possession, custody or control of the prosecution or persons known to 40 the prosecution to be in the possession, custody or control of the pros-41 ecution's direction or control:

42 (a) All written or recorded statements, and the substance of all oral 43 statements, made by the defendant or a co-defendant to a public servant 44 engaged in law enforcement activity or to a person then acting under his 45 or her direction or in cooperation with him or her, other than state-46 ments made in the course of the criminal transaction.

47 (b) All transcripts of the testimony of a person who has testified 48 before a grand jury, including but not limited to the defendant or a 49 co-defendant. If in the exercise of reasonable diligence, and due to the 50 limited availability of transcription resources, a transcript is 51 unavailable for disclosure within the time period specified in subdivi-52 sion one of section 245.10 of this article, such time period may be 53 stayed by up to an additional thirty calendar days without need for a 54 motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.70 of this article; 55 except that such disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and not 56 later than thirty calendar days before a scheduled trial date. When the 1 court is required to review grand jury transcripts, the prosecution

2 shall disclose such transcripts to the court expeditiously upon receipt 3 by the prosecutor, notwithstanding the otherwise-applicable time periods 4 for disclosure in this article.

5 (c) The names of, and addresses or adequate alternative contact infor-6 mation for, all persons other than law enforcement personnel whom the 7 prosecutor knows to have evidence or information relevant to any offense 8 charged or to a potential defense thereto, including a designation by 9 the prosecutor as to which of those persons may be called as witnesses.
10 Information under this subdivision relating to a confidential informant 11 may be withheld, and redacted from discovery materials, without need for 12 a motion pursuant to section 245.70 of this article; but the defendant 13 shall be notified in writing that such information has not been 14 disclosed, unless the court rules otherwise for good cause shown.

15 (d) The name and work affiliation of all law enforcement personnel 16 whom the prosecutor knows to have evidence or information relevant to 17 any offense charged or to a potential defense thereto, including a 18 designation by the prosecutor as to which of those persons may be called 19 as witnesses. Information under this subdivision relating to undercover 20 personnel may be withheld, and redacted from discovery materials, with-21 out need for a motion pursuant to section 245.70 of this article; but 22 the defendant shall be notified in writing that such information has not 23 been disclosed, unless the court rules otherwise for good cause shown.

24 (e) All statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing 25 or recording, made by persons who have evidence or information relevant 26 to any offense charged or to a potential defense thereto, including all 27 police reports and law enforcement agency reports. This provision also 28 includes statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing or 29 recording, by persons to be called as witnesses at pre-trial hearings.

30 (f) Expert opinion evidence, including the name, business address, 31 current curriculum vitae, and a list of publications of each expert 32 witness whom the prosecutor intends to call as a witness at trial or a 33 pre-trial hearing, and all reports prepared by the expert that pertain 34 to the case, or if no report is prepared, a written statement of the 35 facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a 36 summary of the grounds for each opinion. This paragraph does not alter 37 or in any way affect the procedures, obligations or rights set forth in 38 section 250.10 of this title. If in the exercise of reasonable dili-39 gence this information is unavailable for disclosure within the time 40 period specified in subdivision one of section 245.10 of this article, 41 that period shall be stayed without need for a motion pursuant to 42 subdivision two of section 245.70 of this article; except that the 43 disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and not later than thir-44 ty calendar days before a scheduled trial date, unless an order is 45 obtained pursuant to section 245.70 of this article. When the prose-46 cution's expert witness is being called in response to disclosure of an 47 expert witness by the defendant, the court may alter a scheduled trial 48 date to allow the prosecution thirty calendar days to make the disclo-49 sure and the defendant thirty calendar days to prepare and respond to 50 the new materials.

51 (g) All tapes or other electronic recordings which the prosecution 52 intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

53 (h) All photographs and drawings made or completed by a public servant 54 engaged in law enforcement activity, or which were made by a person 55 whom the prosecutor intends to call as a witness at trial or a pre-trial

1 hearing, or which the prosecution intends to introduce at trial or a 2 pre-trial hearing.

3 (i) All photographs, photocopies and reproductions made by or at the 4 direction of law enforcement personnel of any property prior to its 5 release pursuant to section 450.10 of the penal law.

6 (j) All reports, documents, data, calculations or writings, including 7 but not limited to preliminary tests or screening results and bench 8 notes, concerning physical or mental examinations, or scientific tests 9 or experiments or comparisons, and analyses performed electronically, 10 relating to the criminal action or proceeding which were made by or at 11 the request or direction of a public servant engaged in law enforcement 12 activity, or which were made by a person whom the prosecutor intends to 13 call as a witness at trial or a pre-trial hearing, or which the prose-14 cution intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

15 (k) All evidence and information, including that which is known to 16 police or other law enforcement agencies acting on the government's 17 behalf in the case, that tends to: (i) negate the defendant's guilt as 18 to a charged offense; (ii) reduce the degree of or mitigate the defend-19 ant's culpability as to a charged offense; (iii) support a potential 20 defense to a charged offense; (iv) materially impact the credibility of 21 a testifying prosecution witness; (v) undermine evidence of the defend-22 ant's identity as a perpetrator of a charged offense; or (vi) provide a 23 basis for a motion to suppress evidence. Information under this subdi-24 vision shall be disclosed whether or not such information is recorded in 25 tangible form and irrespective of whether the prosecutor credits the 26 information. The prosecutor shall disclose the information expeditiously 27 upon its receipt and shall not delay disclosure if it is obtained earli-28 er than the time period for disclosure in subdivision one of section 29 245.10 of this article.

30 (l) A summary of all promises, rewards and inducements made to, or in 31 favor of, persons who may be called as witnesses, as well as requests 32 for consideration by persons who may be called as witnesses and copies 33 of all documents relevant to a promise, reward or inducement.

34 (m) A list of all tangible objects obtained from, or allegedly 35 possessed by, the defendant or a co-defendant. The list shall include a 36 designation by the prosecutor as to which objects were physically or 37 constructively possessed by the defendant and were recovered during a 38 search or seizure by a public servant or an agent thereof, and which 39 tangible objects were recovered by a public servant or an agent thereof 40 after allegedly being abandoned by the defendant. If the prosecution 41 intends to prove the defendant's possession of any tangible objects by 42 means of a statutory presumption of possession, it shall designate such 43 intention as to each such object. If reasonably practicable, the prose-44 cution shall also designate the location from which each tangible object 45 was recovered. There is also a right to inspect or copy or photograph 46 the listed tangible objects.

47 (n) Whether a search warrant has been executed and all documents 48 relating thereto, including but not limited to the warrant, the warrant 49 application, supporting affidavits, a police inventory of all property 50 seized under the warrant, and a transcript of all testimony or other 51 oral communications offered in support of the warrant application.

52 (o) All tangible property that the prosecution intends to introduce in 53 its case-in-chief at trial or a pre-trial hearing. If in the exercise of 54 reasonable diligence the prosecutor has not formed an intention within 55 the time period specified in subdivision one of section 245.10 of this 56 article that an item under this subdivision will be introduced at trial

1 or a pre-trial hearing, such time period shall be stayed without need 2 for a motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.70 of this arti-
3 cle; but the disclosure shall be made as soon as practicable and subject 4 to the continuing duty to disclose in section 245.60 of this article.

5 (p) A record of judgment of conviction for all defendants and all 6 persons designated as potential prosecution witnesses pursuant to para-7 graph (c) of this subdivision, other than those witnesses who are 8 experts.

9 (q) When it is known to the prosecution, the existence of any pending 10 criminal action against all persons designated as potential prosecution 11 witnesses pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision.

12 (r) The approximate date, time and place of the offense or offenses 13 charged and of the defendant's seizure and arrest.

14 (s) In any prosecution alleging a violation of the vehicle and traffic 15 law, where the defendant is charged by indictment, superior court infor-16 mation, prosecutor's information, information, or simplified informa-17 tion, the most recent record of inspection, calibration and repair of 18 machines and instruments utilized to perform any scientific tests and 19 experiments and the certification certificate, if any, held by the oper-20 ator of the machine or instrument, and all other disclosures required 21 under this article.

22 (t) In any prosecution alleging a violation of section 156.05 or 23 156.10 of the penal law, the time, place and manner such violation 24 occurred.

25 2. Discovery by the prosecution. The prosecutor shall make a dili-26 gent, good faith effort to ascertain the existence of material or infor-27 mation discoverable under subdivision one of this section and to cause 28 such material or information to be made available for discovery where 29 it exists but is not within the prosecutor's possession, custody or 30 control; provided that the prosecutor shall not be required to obtain by 31 subpoena duces tecum material or information which the defendant may 32 thereby obtain. This provision shall not require the prosecutor to 33 ascertain the existence of witnesses not known to police or another law 34 enforcement agency, or the written or recorded statements thereof, under 35 paragraph (c) or (e) of subdivision one of this section.

36 3. Supplemental discovery for the defendant. The prosecution shall 37 disclose to the defendant a list of all misconduct and criminal acts of 38 the defendant not charged in the indictment, superior court information, 39 prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information, which 40 the prosecution intends to use at trial for purposes of (a) impeaching 41 the credibility of the defendant, or (b) as substantive proof of any 42 material issue in the case.

43 4. Reciprocal discovery for the prosecution. (a) The defendant shall, 44 subject to constitutional limitations, disclose to the prosecution, and 45 permit the prosecution to discover, inspect, copy or photograph, any 46 material and relevant evidence within the defendant's or counsel for the 47 defendant's possession or control that is discoverable under paragraphs 48 (f), (g), (h), (j), (l) and (o) of subdivision one of this section, 49 which the defendant intends to offer at trial or a pre-trial hearing, 50 and the names, addresses, birth dates, and all statements, written or 51 recorded or summarized in any writing or recording, of those persons 52 other than the defendant whom the defendant intends to call as witnesses 53 at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

54 (b) Disclosure of the name, address, birth date, and all statements, 55 written or recorded or summarized in any writing or recording, of a 56 person whom the defendant intends to call as a witness for the sole

1 purpose of impeaching a prosecution witness is not required until after 2 the prosecution witness has testified at trial.

3 (c) If in the exercise of reasonable diligence the reciprocally 4 discoverable information under paragraph (f) or (o) of subdivision one 5 of this section is unavailable for disclosure within the time period 6 specified in subdivision two of section 245.10 of this article, such 7 time period shall be stayed without need for a motion pursuant to subdivi-8 sion two of section 245.70 of this article; but the disclosure shall 9 be made as soon as practicable and subject to the continuing duty to 10 disclose in section 245.60 of this article.

11 5. Stay of automatic discovery; remedies and sanctions. If in the 12 judgment of either party good cause exists for declining to make any of 13 the disclosures set forth above, such party may move for a protective 14 order pursuant to section 245.70 of this article and production of the 15 item shall be stayed pending a ruling by the court. The opposing party 16 shall be notified in writing that information has not been disclosed
17 under a particular section. When some parts of material or information 18 are discoverable but in the judgment of a party good cause exists for 19 declining to disclose other parts, the discoverable parts shall be 20 disclosed and the disclosing party shall give notice in writing that 21 non-discoverable parts have been withheld.

22 6. Redactions permitted. Either party may redact social security 23 numbers and tax numbers from disclosures under this article.

24 § 245.25 Disclosure prior to guilty plea deadline.

25 1. Pre-indictment guilty pleas. Subject to subdivision two of this 26 section and section 245.70 of this article, upon a felony complaint, 27 where the prosecution has made a pre-indictment guilty plea offer 28 requiring a plea to a crime, the defendant may, upon timely request and 29 reasonable notice to the prosecution, inspect any available police or 30 other law enforcement agency report of a factual nature regarding the 31 arrest or investigation of the charges, and/or any designated and avail-32 able items or information that could be of material importance to the 33 decision on the guilty plea offer and would be discoverable prior to 34 trial under subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article. The pros-35 ecution shall disclose the requested and designated items or informa-36 tion, as well as any known information that tends to be exculpatory or 37 to support a defense to a charged offense, not less than three calendar 38 days prior to the expiration date of any guilty plea offer by the prose-39 cution or any deadline imposed by the court for acceptance of a negoti-40 ated guilty plea offer. If the prosecution does not comply with a prop-41 er request made pursuant to this subdivision, the court may take 42 appropriate action as necessary to address the non-compliance. The 43 inspection rights under this subdivision do not apply to items or infor-44 mation that are the subject of a protective order under section 245.70 45 of this article; but if such information tends to be exculpatory, the 46 court shall reconsider the protective order. The court may deny an 47 inspection under this subdivision when a reasonable person in the 48 defendant's position would not consider the requested and designated 49 item or information to be of material importance to the decision on the 50 guilty plea offer. A defendant may waive his or her rights under this 51 subdivision; but a guilty plea offer may not be conditioned on such 52 waiver.

53 2. Other guilty pleas. Upon an indictment, superior court information, 54 prosecutor's information, information, simplified information, or 55 misdemeanor complaint, where the prosecution has made a guilty plea 56 offer requiring a plea to a crime, the defendant may, upon timely

1 request and reasonable notice to the prosecution, inspect any available 2 police or other law enforcement agency report of a factual nature 3 regarding the arrest or investigation of the charges, and/or any desig-4 minated and available items or information that could be of material 5 importance to the decision on the guilty plea offer and would be discov-6 erable prior to trial under subdivision one of section 245.20 of this 7 article. The prosecution shall disclose the requested and designated 8 items or information, as well as any known information that tends to be 9 exculpatory or to support a defense to a charged offense, not less than 10 seven calendar days prior to the expiration date of any guilty plea 11 offer by the prosecution or any deadline imposed by the court for a 12 guilty plea. If the prosecution does not comply with a proper request 13 made pursuant to this subdivision, the court may take appropriate action 14 as necessary to address the non-compliance. The inspection rights under 15 this subdivision do not apply to items or information that are the 16 subject of a protective order under section 245.70 of this article; but 17 if such information tends to be exculpatory, the court shall reconsider 18 the protective order. The court may deny an inspection under this 19 subdivision when a reasonable person in the defendant's position would 20 not consider the requested and designated item or information to be of 21 material importance to the decision on the guilty plea offer. A defend-22 ant may waive his or her rights under this subdivision, but a guilty 23 plea offer may not be conditioned on such waiver.

24 § 245.30 Court orders for preservation, access or discovery.

25 1. Order to preserve evidence. At any time, a party may move for a 26 court order to any individual, agency or other entity in possession, 27 custody or control of items which relate to the subject matter of the 28 case or are otherwise relevant, requiring that such items be preserved 29 for a specified period of time. The court shall hear and rule upon such 30 motions expeditiously. The court may modify or vacate such an order 31 upon a showing that preservation of particular evidence will create 32 significant hardship, on condition that the probative value of that 33 evidence is preserved by a specified alternative means.

34 2. Order to grant access to premises. Without prejudice to its abili-35 ty to issue a subpoena pursuant to this chapter, after an accusatory 36 instrument has been filed, on application of the prosecution or the 37 defendant for access to an area or place relevant to the case in order 38 to inspect, photograph, or measure same, and upon notice to the property 39 owner with a right to be heard, the court may, upon a finding that such 40 would be material to the preparation of the case or helpful to the jury 41 in determining any material factual issue, enter an order authorizing 42 same on a date and time reasonable for the parties and those in 43 possession of the area or place, provided that law enforcement is not in 44 good faith engaged in a continued investigation of the area or place.
45 The court may in the alternative otherwise provide for the securing of 46 photographs or measurements of the area or place, particularly when 47 necessary to protect the privacy of those in possession of private prem-48 ises, or when necessary to preserve the safety and security of a place.
49 The court may also limit access and/or the distribution of photographs 50 or measurements to the parties or their counsel.

51 3. Discretionary discovery by order of the court. The court in its 52 discretion may, upon a showing by the defendant that the request is 53 reasonable and that the defendant is unable without undue hardship to 54 obtain the substantial equivalent by other means, order the prosecution, 55 or any individual, agency or other entity subject to the jurisdiction of 56 the court, to make available for disclosure to the defendant any materi-

1 al or information which relates to the subject matter of the case and is 2 reasonably likely to be material. A motion under this subdivision must 3 be on notice to any person or entity affected by the order. The court 4 may, on its own, upon request of any person or entity affected by the 5 order, modify or vacate the order if compliance would be unreasonable or 6 will create significant hardship. The court may permit a party seeking 7 or opposing a discretionary order of discovery under this subdivision, 8 or another affected person or entity, to submit papers or testify on the 9 record ex parte or in camera. Any such papers and a transcript of such 10 testimony may be sealed and shall constitute a part of the record on 11 appeal.

12 § 245.35 Court ordered procedures to facilitate compliance.

13 To facilitate compliance with this article, and to reduce or stream-14 line litigation of any disputes about discovery, the court in its 15 discretion may issue an order:

16 1. Requiring that the prosecutor and counsel for the defendant dili-17 gently confer to attempt to reach an accommodation as to any dispute 18 concerning discovery prior to seeking a ruling from the court;

19 2. Requiring a discovery compliance conference at a specified time 20 prior to trial between the prosecutor, counsel for all defendants, and 21 the court or its staff;

22 3. Requiring the prosecution to file an additional certificate of 23 compliance that states that the prosecutor and/or an appropriate named 24 agent has made reasonable inquiries of all police officers and other 25 persons who have participated in investigating or evaluating the case 26 about the existence of any favorable evidence or information within 27 paragraph (k) of subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article, 28 including such evidence or information that was not reduced to writing 29 or otherwise memorialized or preserved as evidence, and has disclosed 30 any such information to the defendant; and/or 31 4. Requiring other measures or proceedings designed to carry into 32 effect the goals of this article.

33 § 245.40 Non-testimonial evidence from the defendant.

34 1. Availability. After the filing of an accusatory instrument, and 35 subject to constitutional limitations, the court may, upon motion of 36 the prosecution showing probable cause to believe the defendant has 37 committed the crime, a clear indication that relevant material evidence 38 will be found, and that the method used to secure such evidence is safe 39 and reliable, require a defendant to provide non-testimonial evidence, 40 including to:

41 (a) Appear in a lineup;

42 (b) Speak for identification by a witness or potential witness;

43 (c) Be fingerprinted;

44 (d) Pose for photographs not involving reenactment of an event;

45 (e) Permit the taking of samples of the defendant's blood, hair, and 46 other materials of the defendant's body that involves no unreasonable 47 intrusion thereof;

48 (f) Provide specimens of the defendant's handwriting; and

49 (g) Submit to a reasonable physical or medical inspection of the 50 defendant's body.

51 2. Limitations. This section shall not be construed to alter or in any 52 way affect the issuance of a similar court order, as may be authorized 53 by law, before the filing of an accusatory instrument, consistent with 54 such rights as the defendant may derive from the state constitution or 55 the United States constitution. This section shall not be construed to 56 alter or in any way affect the administration of a chemical test where 1 otherwise authorized. An order pursuant to this section may be denied, 2 limited or conditioned as provided in section 245.70 of this article.

3 § 245.45 DNA comparison order.

4 Where property in the prosecution's possession, custody, or control 5 consists of a deoxyribonucleic acid ("DNA") profile obtained from 6 probative biological material gathered in connection with the investi-7 gation of the crime, or the defendant, or the prosecution of the defend-8 ant, and the defendant establishes (a) that such profile complies with 9 federal bureau of investigation or state requirements, whichever are 10 applicable and as such requirements are applied to law enforcement agen-11 cies seeking a keyboard search or similar comparison, and (b) that the 12 data meets state DNA index system or national DNA index system criteria 13 as such criteria are applied to law enforcement agencies seeking such a 14 keyboard search or similar comparison, the court may, upon motion of a 15 defendant against whom an indictment, superior court information, 16 prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information is 17 pending, order an entity that has access to the combined DNA index
18 system or its successor system to compare such DNA profile against DNA 19 databanks by keyboard searches, or a similar method that does not 20 involve uploading, upon notice to both parties and the entity required 21 to perform the search, upon a showing by the defendant that such a 22 comparison is material to the presentation of his or her defense and 23 that the request is reasonable. For purposes of this section, a 24 "keyboard search" shall mean a search of a DNA profile against the 25 databank in which the profile that is searched is not uploaded to or 26 maintained in the databank.

27 § 245.50 Certificates of compliance.

28 1. By the prosecution. When the prosecution has provided the discovery 29 required by subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article, except 30 for any items or information that are the subject of an order pursuant 31 to section 245.70 of this article, it shall serve upon the defendant and 32 file with the court a certificate of compliance. The certificate of 33 compliance shall state that, after exercising due diligence and making 34 reasonable inquiries to ascertain the existence of material and infor-35 mation subject to discovery, the prosecutor has disclosed and made 36 available all known material and information subject to discovery. It 37 shall also identify the items provided. If additional discovery is 38 subsequently provided prior to trial pursuant to section 245.60 of this 39 article, a supplemental certificate shall be served upon the defendant 40 and filed with the court identifying the additional material and infor-41 mation provided. No adverse consequence to the prosecution or the prose-42 cutor shall result from the filing of a certificate of compliance in 43 good faith; but the court may grant a remedy or sanction for a discov-44 ery violation as provided in section 245.80 of this article.

45 2. By the defendant. When the defendant has provided all discovery 46 required by subdivision four of section 245.20 of this article, except 47 for any items or information that are the subject of an order pursuant 48 to section 245.70 of this article, counsel for the defendant shall serve 49 upon the prosecution and file with the court a certificate of compli-50 ance. The certificate shall state that, after exercising due diligence 51 and making reasonable inquiries to ascertain the existence of material 52 and information subject to discovery, counsel for the defendant has 53 disclosed and made available all known material and information subject 54 to discovery. It shall also identify the items provided. If additional 55 discovery is subsequently provided prior to trial pursuant to section 56 245.60 of this article, a supplemental certificate shall be served upon

1 the prosecution and filed with the court identifying the additional 2 material and information provided. No adverse consequence to the 3 defendant or counsel for the defendant shall result from the filing of a 4 certificate of compliance in good faith; but the court may grant a reme-5 dy or sanction for a discovery violation as provided in section 245.80 6 of this article.

7 § 245.55 Flow of information.

8 1. Sufficient communication for compliance. The district attorney and 9 the assistant responsible for the case, or, if the matter is not being 10 prosecuted by the district attorney, the prosecuting agency and its 11 assigned representative, shall endeavor to ensure that a flow of infor-12 mation is maintained between the police and other investigative person-13 nel and his or her office sufficient to place within his or her 14 possession or control all material and information pertinent to the 15 defendant and the offense or offenses charged, including, but not limit-16 ed to, any evidence or information discoverable under paragraph (k) of 17 subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article.

18 2. Provision of law enforcement agency files. Absent a court order or 19 clear security requirement, upon request by the prosecution, a New York 20 state law enforcement agency shall make available to the prosecution a 21 complete copy of its complete files related to the investigation of the 22 case or the prosecution of the defendant for compliance with this arti-
23 cle.

24 3. 911 telephone call and police radio transmission electronic 25 recordings, police worn body camera recordings and other police 26 recordings. (a) Whenever an electronic recording of a 911 telephone 27 call or a police radio transmission or video or audio footage from a 28 police body-worn camera or other police recording was made or received 29 in connection with the investigation of an apparent criminal incident, 30 the arresting officer or lead detective shall expeditiously notify the 31 prosecution in writing upon the filing of an accusatory instrument of 32 the existence of all such known recordings. The prosecution shall expe-33 ditiously take whatever reasonable steps are necessary to ensure that 34 all known electronic recordings of 911 telephone calls, police radio 35 transmissions and video and audio footage and other police recordings 36 made or available in connection with the case are preserved throughout 37 the pendency of the case. Upon the defendant's timely request and desig-38 nation of a specific electronic recording of a 911 telephone call, the 39 prosecution shall also expeditiously take whatever reasonable steps are 40 necessary to ensure that it is preserved throughout the pendency of the 41 case.

42 (b) If the prosecution fails to disclose such an electronic recording 43 to the defendant pursuant to paragraph (e), (g) or (k) of subdivision 44 one of section 245.20 of this article due to a failure to comply with 45 this obligation by police officers or other law enforcement or prose-46 cution personnel, the court upon motion of the defendant shall impose an 47 appropriate remedy or sanction pursuant to section 245.80 of this arti-48 cle.

49 § 245.60 Continuing duty to disclose.

50 If either the prosecution or the defendant subsequently learns of 51 additional material or information which it would have been under a duty 52 to disclose pursuant to any provisions of this article at the time of a 53 previous discovery obligation or discovery order, it shall expeditiously 54 notify the other party and disclose the additional material or informa-55 tion as required for initial discovery under this article. This 56 provision also requires expeditious disclosure by the prosecution of 1 material or information that became relevant to the case or discoverable 2 based upon reciprocal discovery received from the defendant pursuant to 3 subdivision four of section 245.20 of this article.

4 § 245.65 Work product.

5 This article does not authorize discovery by a party of those portions 6 of records, reports, correspondence, memoranda, or internal documents of 7 the adverse party which are only the legal research, opinions, theories 8 or conclusions of the adverse party or its attorney or the attorney's 9 agents, or of statements of a defendant, written or recorded or summa-10 rized in any writing or recording, made to the attorney for the defend-11 ant or the attorney's agents.

12 § 245.70 Protective orders.

13 1. Any discovery subject to protective order. Upon a showing of good 14 cause by either party, the court may at any time order that discovery or 15 inspection of any kind of material or information under this article be 16 denied, restricted, conditioned or deferred, or make such other order as 17 is appropriate. The court may impose as a condition on discovery to a 18 defendant that the material or information to be discovered be available 19 only to counsel for the defendant; or, alternatively, that counsel for 20 the defendant, and persons employed by the attorney or appointed by the 21 court to assist in the preparation of a defendant's case, may not 22 disclose physical copies of the discoverable documents to a defendant or 23 to anyone else, provided that the prosecution affords the defendant 24 access to inspect redacted copies of the discoverable documents at a 25 supervised location that provides regular and reasonable hours for such 26 access, such as a prosecutor's office, police station, facility of 27 detention, or court. The court may permit a party seeking or opposing a 28 protective order under this section, or another affected person, to 29 submit papers or testify on the record ex parte or in camera. Any such 30 papers and a transcript of such testimony may be sealed and shall 31 constitute a part of the record on appeal. This section does not alter 32 the allocation of the burden of proof with regard to matters at issue, 33 including privilege.

34 2. Modification of time periods for discovery. Upon motion of a party 35 in an individual case, the court may alter the time periods for discov-36 ery imposed by this article upon a showing of good cause.

37 3. Prompt hearing. Upon request for a protective order, the court 38 shall conduct an appropriate hearing within three business days to 39 determine whether good cause has been shown and when practicable shall 40 render decision expeditiously. Any materials submitted and a transcript 41 of the proceeding may be sealed and shall constitute a part of the 42 record on appeal.

43 4. Showing of good cause. Good cause under this section includes but 44 is not limited to: constitutional rights or limitations; danger to the 45 integrity of physical evidence; an unreasonable risk of physical harm, 46 intimidation, economic reprisal, bribery or unjustified annoyance or 47 embarrassment to any person; an unreasonable risk of an adverse effect 48 upon the legitimate needs of law enforcement, including but not limited 49 to a continuing or related grand jury proceeding and the protection of 50 the confidentiality of informants; danger to any person stemming from 51 factors such as a defendant's gang affiliation, prior history of inter-52 fering with witnesses, or threats or intimidating actions directed at 53 potential witnesses; or other similar factors that also outweigh the 54 usefulness of the discovery.

55 5. Successor counsel or pro se defendant. In cases in which the attor-56 ney-client relationship is terminated prior to trial for any reason,

1 any material or information disclosed subject to a condition that it be 2 available only to counsel for the defendant, or limited in dissemination 3 by protective order or otherwise, shall be provided only to successor 4 counsel for the defendant under the same condition or conditions or be 5 returned to the prosecution, unless the court rules otherwise for good 6 cause shown or the prosecutor gives written consent. Any work product 7 derived from such material or information shall not be provided to the 8 defendant, unless the court rules otherwise or the prosecutor gives 9 written consent. If the defendant is acting as his or her own attorney, 10 the court may regulate the time, place and manner of access to any 11 discoverable material or information; and it may as appropriate appoint 12 persons to assist the defendant in the investigation or preparation of 13 the case. Upon motion or application of a defendant acting as his or her 14 own attorney, the court may at any time modify or vacate any condition 15 or restriction relating to access to discoverable material or informa-16 tion, for good cause shown.

17 6. Expedited review of adverse ruling. (a) A party that has unsucces-18 fully sought, or unsuccessfully opposed the granting of, a protective 19 order under this section relating to the name, address, contact informa-20 tion or statements of a person may obtain expedited review of that 21 ruling by an individual justice of the intermediate appellate court to 22 which an appeal from a judgment of conviction in the case would be 23 taken.

24 (b) Such review shall be sought within two business days of the 25 adverse or partially adverse ruling, by order to show cause filed with 26 the intermediate appellate court. The order to show cause shall in addi-27 tion be timely served on the lower court and on the opposing party, and 28 shall be accompanied by a sworn affirmation stating in good faith (i) 29 that the ruling affects substantial interests, and (ii) that diligent 30 efforts to reach an accommodation of the underlying discovery dispute 31 with opposing counsel failed or that no accommodation was feasible; 32 except that service on the opposing party, and a statement regarding 33 efforts to reach an accommodation, are unnecessary where the opposing 34 party was not made aware of the application for a protective order and 35 good cause exists for omitting service of the order to show cause on the 36 opposing party. The lower court's order subject to review shall be 37 stayed until the appellate justice renders decision.

38 (c) The assignment of the individual appellate justice, and the mode 39 of and procedure for the review, are determined by rules of the individ-40 ual appellate courts. The appellate justice may consider any relevant 41 and reliable information bearing on the issue, and may dispense with 42 written briefs other than supporting and opposing materials previously 43 submitted to the lower court. The appellate justice may dispense with 44 the issuance of a written opinion in rendering his or her decision, and 45 when practicable shall render decision expeditiously. Such review and 46 decision shall not affect the right of a defendant, in a subsequent 47 appeal from a judgment of conviction, to claim as error the ruling 48 reviewed.

49 7. Compliance with protective order. Any protective order issued under 50 this article is a mandate of the court for purposes of the offense of 51 criminal contempt in subdivision three of section 215.50 of the penal 52 law.

53 § 245.75 Waiver of discovery by defendant.

54 A defendant who does not seek discovery from the prosecution under 55 this article shall so notify the prosecution and the court at the 56 defendant's arraignment on an indictment, superior court information,

1 prosecutor's information, information, or simplified information, or 2 expeditiously thereafter but before receiving discovery from the prose-3 cution pursuant to subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article, 4 and the defendant need not provide discovery to the prosecution pursuant 5 to subdivision four of section 245.20 and section 245.60 of this arti-
6 cle. A waiver shall be in writing and signed by the defendant and coun-
7 sel for the defendant. Such a waiver does not alter or in any way 8 affect the procedures, obligations or rights set forth in sections 9 250.10, 250.20 and 250.30 of this title, or otherwise established or 10 required by law. The prosecution may not condition a guilty plea offer 11 on the defendant's execution of a waiver under this section.

12 § 245.80 Remedies or sanctions for non-compliance.

13 1. Need for remedy or sanction. (a) When material or information is 14 discoverable under this article but is disclosed belatedly, the court 15 shall impose an appropriate remedy or sanction if the party entitled to 16 disclosure shows that it was prejudiced. Regardless of a showing of 17 prejudice the party entitled to disclosure shall be given reasonable 18 time to prepare and respond to the new material.

19 (b) When material or information is discoverable under this article 20 but cannot be disclosed because it has been lost or destroyed, the court 21 shall impose an appropriate remedy or sanction if the party entitled to 22 disclosure shows that the lost or destroyed material may have contained 23 some information relevant to a contested issue. The appropriate remedy 24 or sanction is that which is proportionate to the potential ways in 25 which the lost or destroyed material reasonably could have been helpful 26 to the party entitled to disclosure.

27 2. Available remedies or sanctions. For failure to comply with any 28 discovery order imposed or issued pursuant to this article, the court 29 may make a further order for discovery, grant a continuance, order that 30 a hearing be reopened, order that a witness be called or recalled, 31 instruct the jury that it may draw an adverse inference regarding the 32 non-compliance, preclude or strike a witness's testimony or a portion of 33 a witness's testimony, admit or exclude evidence, order a mistrial, 34 order the dismissal of all or some of the charges, or make such other 35 order as it deems just under the circumstances; except that any sanction 36 against the defendant shall comport with the defendant's constitutional 37 right to present a defense, and precluding a defense witness from 38 testifying shall be permissible only upon a finding that the defendant's 39 failure to comply with the discovery obligation or order was willful 40 and motivated by a desire to obtain a tactical advantage.

41 3. Consequences of non-disclosure of statement of testifying prose-
42 cution witness. The failure of the prosecutor or any agent of the prose-43 cutor to disclose any written or recorded statement made by a prose-44 cution witness which relates to the subject matter of the witness's 45 testimony shall not constitute grounds for any court to order a new 46 pre-trial hearing or set aside a conviction, or reverse, modify or 47 vacate a judgment of conviction, in the absence of a showing by the 48 defendant that there is a reasonable possibility that the non-disclosure 49 materially contributed to the result of the trial or other proceeding; 50 provided, however, that nothing in this section shall affect or limit 51 any right the defendant may have to a reopened pre-trial hearing when 52 such statements were disclosed before the close of evidence at trial.

53 § 245.85 Admissibility of discovery.

54 The fact that a party has indicated during the discovery process an 55 intention to offer specified evidence or to call a specified witness is 1 not admissible in evidence or grounds for adverse comment at a hearing 2 or a trial.

3 § 3. Subdivision 3 of section 610.20 of the criminal procedure law is 4 amended and a new subdivision 4 is added to read as follows:

5 3. An attorney for a defendant in a criminal action or proceeding, as 6 an officer of a criminal court, may issue a subpoena of such court, 7 subscribed by himself, for the attendance in such court of any witness 8 whom the defendant is entitled to call in such action or proceeding. An 9 attorney for a defendant may not issue a subpoena duces tecum of the 10 court directed to any department, bureau or agency of the state or of a 11 political subdivision thereof, or to any officer or representative ther-12 eof, unless the subpoena is endorsed by the court and provides at least 13 three days for the production of the requested materials. In the case of 14 an emergency, the court may by order dispense with the three-day 15 production period. Such a subpoena duces tecum may be issued in behalf 16 of a defendant upon order of a court pursuant to the rules applicable to 17 civil cases as provided in section twenty-three hundred seven of the 18 civil practice law and rules.

19 4. The showing required to sustain any subpoena under this section is 20 that the testimony or evidence sought is reasonably likely to be rele-21 vant and material to the proceedings, and the subpoena is not overbroad 22 or unreasonably burdensome.

23 § 4. Section 65.20 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 24 505 of the laws of 1985, subdivision 2 as added, the opening paragraph 25 of subdivision 10 as amended and subdivisions 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 26 11, 12 and 13 as renumbered by chapter 548 of the laws of 2007, subdivi-27 sion 7 and paragraph (k) of subdivision 10 as amended by chapter 320 of 28 the laws of 2006 and subdivisions 11 and 12 as amended by chapter 455 of 29 the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

30 § 65.20 Closed-circuit television; procedure for application and grounds 31 for determination.

32 1. Prior to the commencement of a criminal proceeding; other than a 33 grand jury proceeding, either party may apply to the court for an order 34 declaring that a child witness is vulnerable.

35 2. A child witness should be declared vulnerable when the court, in 36 accordance with the provisions of this section, determines by clear and 37 convincing evidence that the child witness would suffer serious mental 38 or emotional harm that would substantially impair the child witness' 39 ability to communicate with the finder of fact without the use of live, 40 two-way closed-circuit television.

41 3. A motion pursuant to subdivision one of this section must be made 42 in writing at least eight days before the commencement of trial or other 43 criminal proceeding upon reasonable notice to the other party and with 44 an opportunity to be heard.

45 4. The motion papers must state the basis for the motion and must 46 contain sworn allegations of fact which, if true, would support a deter-47 mination by the court that the child witness is vulnerable. Such allega-48 tions may be based upon the personal knowledge of the deponent or upon 49 information and belief, provided that, in the latter event, the sources 50 of such information and the grounds for such belief are stated.

51 5. The answering papers may admit or deny any of the alleged facts and 52 may, in addition, contain sworn allegations of fact relevant to the 53 motion, including the rights of the defendant, the need to protect the 54 child witness and the integrity of the truth-finding function of the 55 trier of fact.

1 6. Unless all material facts alleged in support of the motion made 2 pursuant to subdivision one of this section are conceded, the court 3 shall, in addition to examining the papers and hearing oral argument, 4 conduct an appropriate hearing for the purpose of making findings of 5 fact essential to the determination of the motion. Except as provided in 6 subdivision [~~six~~] seven of this section, it may subpoena or call and 7 examine witnesses, who must either testify under oath or be permitted to 8 give unsworn testimony pursuant to subdivision two of section 60.20 and 9 must authorize the attorneys for the parties to do the same.

10 7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the child witness who 11 is alleged to be vulnerable may not be compelled to testify at such 12 hearing or to submit to any psychological or psychiatric examination.
13 The failure of the child witness to testify at such hearing shall not be 14 a ground for denying a motion made pursuant to subdivision one of this 15 section. Prior statements made by the child witness relating to any 16 allegations of conduct constituting an offense defined in article one 17 hundred thirty of the penal law or incest as defined in section 255.25, 18 255.26 or 255.27 of such law or to any allegation of words or conduct 19 constituting an attempt to prevent, impede or deter the child witness 20 from cooperating in the investigation or prosecution of the offense 21 shall be admissible at such hearing, provided, however, that a declara-22 tion that a child witness is vulnerable may not be based solely upon 23 such prior statements.

24 8. (a) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of article forty-five of 25 the civil practice law and rules, any physician, psychologist, nurse or 26 social worker who has treated a child witness may testify at a hearing 27 conducted pursuant to subdivision [~~five~~] six of this section concerning 28 the treatment of such child witness as such treatment relates to the 29 issue presented at the hearing, provided that any otherwise applicable 30 statutory privileges concerning communications between the child witness 31 and such physician, psychologist, nurse or social worker in connection 32 with such treatment shall not be deemed waived by such testimony alone, 33 except to the limited extent of permitting the court alone to examine in 34 camera reports, records or documents, if any, prepared by such physi-35 cian, psychologist, nurse or social worker. If upon such examination the 36 court determines that such reports, records or documents, or any one or 37 portion thereof, contain information material and relevant to the issue 38 of whether the child witness is a vulnerable child witness, the court 39 shall disclose such information to both the attorney for the defendant 40 and the district attorney.

41 (b) At any time after a motion has been made pursuant to subdivision 42 one of this section, upon the demand of the other party the moving party 43 must furnish the demanding party with a copy of any and all of such 44 records, reports or other documents in the possession of such other 45 party and must, in addition, supply the court with a copy of all such 46 reports, records or other documents which are the subject of the demand.
47 At any time after a demand has been made pursuant to this paragraph, the 48 moving party may demand that property of the same kind or character in 49 possession of the party that originally made such demand be furnished to 50 the moving party and, if so furnished, be supplied, in addition, to the 51 court.

52 9. (a) Prior to the commencement of the hearing conducted pursuant to 53 subdivision [~~five~~] six of this section, the district attorney shall, 54 subject to a protective order, comply with the provisions of paragraph 55 (c) of subdivision one of section [~~240-45~~] 245.20 of this chapter as

1 they concern any witness whom the district attorney intends to call at 2 the hearing and the child witness.

3 (b) Before a defendant calls a witness at such hearing, he or she 4 must, subject to a protective order, comply with the provisions of 5 subdivision [~~two~~] four of section [~~240.45~~] 245.20 of this chapter as 6 they concern all the witnesses the defendant intends to call at such 7 hearing.

8 10. The court may consider, in determining whether there are factors 9 which would cause the child witness to suffer serious mental or 10 emotional harm, a finding that any one or more of the following circum-11 stances have been established by clear and convincing evidence:

12 (a) The manner of the commission of the offense of which the defendant 13 is accused was particularly heinous or was characterized by aggravating 14 circumstances.

15 (b) The child witness is particularly young or otherwise particularly 16 subject to psychological harm on account of a physical or mental condi-17 tion which existed before the alleged commission of the offense.

18 (c) At the time of the alleged offense, the defendant occupied a posi-19 tion of authority with respect to the child witness.

20 (d) The offense or offenses charged were part of an ongoing course of 21 conduct committed by the defendant against the child witness over an 22 extended period of time.

23 (e) A deadly weapon or dangerous instrument was allegedly used during 24 the commission of the crime.

25 (f) The defendant has inflicted serious physical injury upon the child 26 witness.

27 (g) A threat, express or implied, of physical violence to the child 28 witness or a third person if the child witness were to report the inci-29 dent to any person or communicate information to or cooperate with a 30 court, grand jury, prosecutor, police officer or peace officer concern-31 ing the incident has been made by or on behalf of the defendant.

32 (h) A threat, express or implied, of the incarceration of a parent or 33 guardian of the child witness, the removal of the child witness from the 34 family or the dissolution of the family of the child witness if the 35 child witness were to report the incident to any person or communicate 36 information to or cooperate with a court, grand jury, prosecutor, police 37 officer or peace officer concerning the incident has been made by or on 38 behalf of the defendant.

39 (i) A witness other than the child witness has received a threat of 40 physical violence directed at such witness or to a third person by or on 41 behalf of the defendant.

42 (j) The defendant, at the time of the inquiry, (i) is living in the 43 same household with the child witness, (ii) has ready access to the 44 child witness or (iii) is providing substantial financial support for 45 the child witness.

46 (k) The child witness has previously been the victim of an offense 47 defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law or incest as 48 defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of such law.

49 (l) According to expert testimony, the child witness would be partic-50 ularly [~~susceptible~~] susceptible to psychological harm if required to 51 testify in open court or in the physical presence of the defendant.

52 11. Irrespective of whether a motion was made pursuant to subdivision 53 one of this section, the court, at the request of either party or on its 54 own motion, may decide that a child witness may be vulnerable based on 55 its own observations that a child witness who has been called to testify 56 at a criminal proceeding is suffering severe mental or emotional harm

1 and therefore is physically or mentally unable to testify or to continue 2 to testify in open court or in the physical presence of the defendant 3 and that the use of live, two-way closed-circuit television is necessary 4 to enable the child witness to testify. If the court so decides, it must 5 conduct the same hearing that subdivision [~~five~~] six of this section 6 requires when a motion is made pursuant to subdivision one of this 7 section, and it must make findings of fact pursuant to subdivisions 8 [~~nine~~] ten and [~~eleven~~] twelve of this section, before determining that 9 the child witness is vulnerable.

10 12. In deciding whether a child witness is vulnerable, the court shall 11 make findings of fact which reflect the causal relationship between the 12 existence of any one or more of the factors set forth in subdivision 13 [~~nine~~] ten of this section or other relevant factors which the court 14 finds are established and the determination that the child witness is 15 vulnerable. If the court is satisfied that the child witness is vulner-16 able and that, under the facts and circumstances of the particular case, 17 the defendant's constitutional rights to an impartial jury or of 18 confrontation will not be impaired, it may enter an order granting the 19 application for the use of live, two-way closed-circuit television.

20 13. When the court has determined that a child witness is a vulnerable 21 child witness, it shall make a specific finding as to whether placing 22 the defendant and the child witness in the same room during the testimo-23 ny of the child witness will contribute to the likelihood that the child 24 witness will suffer severe mental or emotional harm. If the court finds 25 that placing the defendant and the child witness in the same room during 26 the testimony of the child witness will contribute to the likelihood 27 that the child witness will suffer severe mental or emotional harm, the 28 order entered pursuant to subdivision [~~eleven~~] twelve of this section 29 shall direct that the defendant remain in the courtroom during the 30 testimony of the vulnerable child witness.

31 § 5. Subdivision 5 of section 200.95 of the criminal procedure law, as 32 added by chapter 558 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

33 5. Court ordered bill of particulars. Where a prosecutor has timely 34 served a written refusal pursuant to subdivision four of this section 35 and upon motion, made in writing, of a defendant, who has made a request 36 for a bill of particulars and whose request has not been complied with 37 in whole or in part, the court must, to the extent a protective order is 38 not warranted, order the prosecutor to comply with the request if it is 39 satisfied that the items of factual information requested are authorized 40 to be included in a bill of particulars, and that such information is 41 necessary to enable the defendant adequately to prepare or conduct his 42 defense and, if the request was untimely, a finding of good cause for 43 the delay. Where a prosecutor has not timely served a written refusal 44 pursuant to subdivision four of this section the court must, unless it 45 is satisfied that the people have shown good cause why such an order 46 should not be issued, issue an order requiring the prosecutor to comply 47 or providing for any other order authorized by [~~subdivision one of~~ 48 ~~section 240.70~~] section 245.80 of this part.

49 § 6. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 of section 255.10 of the criminal 50 procedure law, as added by chapter 763 of the laws of 1974, is amended
51 to read as follows:

52 (c) granting discovery pursuant to article [~~240~~] 245; or

53 § 7. Subdivision 1 of section 255.20 of the criminal procedure law, as 54 amended by chapter 369 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as 55 follows:

1 1. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, whether the defend-2 ant is represented by counsel or elects to proceed pro se, all pre-trial 3 motions shall be served or filed within forty-five days after arraign-4 ment and before commencement of trial, or within such additional time as 5 the court may fix upon application of the defendant made prior to entry
6 of judgment. In an action in which either (a) material or information 7 has been disclosed pursuant to paragraph (m) or (n) of subdivision one 8 of section 245.20, (b) an eavesdropping warrant and application have 9 been furnished pursuant to section 700.70, or (c) a notice of intention 10 to introduce evidence has been served pursuant to section 710.30, such 11 period shall be extended until forty-five days after the last date of 12 such service. If the defendant is not represented by counsel and has 13 requested an adjournment to obtain counsel or to have counsel assigned, 14 such forty-five day period shall commence on the date counsel initially 15 appears on defendant's behalf.

16 § 8. Section 340.30 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read
17 as follows:

18 § 340.30 Pre-trial discovery and notices of defenses.

19 The provisions of article two hundred [~~forty~~] forty-five, concerning 20 pre-trial discovery by a defendant under indictment in a superior court, 21 and article two hundred fifty, concerning pre-trial notice to the people 22 by a defendant under indictment in a superior court who intends to 23 advance a trial defense of mental disease or defect or of alibi, apply 24 to a prosecution of an information in a local criminal court.

27 follows:

28 14. (a) At a reasonable time prior to the sentencing proceeding or a 31 a protective order, make available to the defendant the statements and 32 information specified in subdivision one of section [~~240.45~~] 245.20 of 33 this part and make available for inspection, photographing, copying or 34 testing the property specified in subdivision one of section [~~240.20,~~ 35 ~~and~~

36 ~~(ii) the defendant shall, unless previously disclosed and subject to a~~ 37 ~~protective order, make available to the prosecution the statements and~~ 38 ~~information specified in subdivision two of section 240.45 and make~~ 39 ~~available for inspection, photographing, copying or testing, subject to~~ 40 ~~constitutional limitations, the reports, documents and other property~~ 41 ~~specified in subdivision one of section 240.30] 245.20 of this part.~~

42 (b) Where a party refuses to make disclosure pursuant to this section, 43 the provisions of section [~~240.35, subdivision one of section 240.40 and~~ 44 ~~section 240.50~~] 245.70, 245.75 and/or 245.80 of this part shall apply.

45 (c) If, after complying with the provisions of this section or an 46 order pursuant thereto, a party finds either before or during a sentenc-47 ing proceeding or mental retardation hearing, additional material 48 subject to discovery or covered by court order, the party shall promptly 49 make disclosure or apply for a protective order.

50 (d) If the court finds that a party has failed to comply with any of 51 the provisions of this section, the court may [~~enter~~] employ any of the 52 [~~orders~~] remedies or sanctions specified in subdivision one of section 53 [~~240.70~~] 245.80 of this part.

54 § 10. The opening paragraph of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of 55 section 440.30 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 19 of 56 the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:

1 In conjunction with the filing or consideration of a motion to vacate 2 a judgment pursuant to section 440.10 of this article by a defendant
3 convicted after a trial, in cases where the court has ordered an eviden-4 tiary hearing upon such motion, the court may order that the people
5 produce or make available for inspection property[~~, as defined in subdi-~~ 6 ~~vision three of section 240.10 of this part,~~] in its possession, custo-7 dy, or control that was secured in connection with the investigation or 8 prosecution of the defendant upon credible allegations by the defendant 9 and a finding by the court that such property, if obtained, would be 10 probative to the determination of defendant's actual innocence, and that 11 the request is reasonable. The court shall deny or limit such a request 12 upon a finding that such a request, if granted, would threaten the 13 integrity or chain of custody of property or the integrity of the proc-14 esses or functions of a laboratory conducting DNA testing, pose a risk 15 of harm, intimidation, embarrassment, reprisal, or other substantially 16 negative consequences to any person, undermine the proper functions of 17 law enforcement including the confidentiality of informants, or on the 18 basis of any other factor identified by the court in the interests of 19 justice or public safety. The court shall further ensure that any prop-20 erty produced pursuant to this paragraph is subject to a protective 21 order, where appropriate. The court shall deny any request made pursuant 22 to this paragraph where:

23 § 11. Subdivision 10 of section 450.10 of the penal law, as added by 25 10. Where there has been a failure to comply with the provisions of 26 this section, and where the district attorney does not demonstrate to 27 the satisfaction of the court that such failure has not caused the 28 defendant prejudice, the court shall instruct the jury that it may 29 consider such failure in determining the weight to be given such 30 evidence and may also impose any other sanction set forth in subdivision 31 one of section [~~240.70~~] 245.80 of the criminal procedure law; provided, 32 however, that unless the defendant has convinced the court that such 33 failure has caused him undue prejudice, the court shall not preclude the 34 district attorney from introducing into evidence the property, photo-35 graphs, photocopies, or other reproductions of the property or, where 36 appropriate, testimony concerning its value and condition, where such 37 evidence is otherwise properly authenticated and admissible under the 38 rules of evidence. Failure to comply with any one or more of the 39 provisions of this section shall not for that reason alone be grounds 40 for dismissal of the accusatory instrument.

41 § 12. Section 460.80 of the penal law, as added by chapter 516 of the 42 laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

47 ery of any property not otherwise disclosed which is material and 48 reasonably necessary for preparation by the defendant with respect to 49 the forfeiture proceeding pursuant to such section. The court may issue 50 a protective order denying, limiting, conditioning, delaying or regulat-51 ing such discovery where a danger to the integrity of physical evidence 52 or a substantial risk of physical harm, intimidation, economic reprisal, 53 bribery or unjustified annoyance or embarrassment to any person or an 54 adverse effect upon the legitimate needs of law enforcement, including 55 the protection of the confidentiality of informants, or any other factor 56 or set of factors outweighs the usefulness of the discovery.

§ 13. Subdivision 5 of section 480.10 of the penal law, as added by chapter 655 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:

5. In addition to information required to be disclosed pursuant to article two hundred ~~[forty]~~ forty-five of the criminal procedure law, when forfeiture is sought pursuant to this article, and following the defendant's arraignment on the special forfeiture information, the court shall order discovery of any information not otherwise disclosed which is material and reasonably necessary for preparation by the defendant with respect to a forfeiture proceeding brought pursuant to this article. Such material shall include those portions of the grand jury minutes and such other information which pertain solely to the special forfeiture information and shall not include information which pertains to the criminal charges. Upon application of the prosecutor, the court may issue a protective order pursuant to section ~~[240.40]~~ 245.70 of the criminal procedure law with respect to any information required to be disclosed pursuant to this subdivision.

~~(d) five days from the commencement of his commitment to the custody of the sheriff in a criminal action wherein the defendant is accused of one or more offenses, at least one of which is a violation and none of which is a crime.]~~

Whenever pursuant to this section a prosecutor states or otherwise provides notice that the people are ready for trial, the court may make inquiry on the record as to their actual readiness. If, after conducting its inquiry, the court determines that the people are not ready to proceed to trial, the prosecutor's statement or notice of readiness shall not be valid for purposes of this section. Any statement of trial readiness must be accompanied or preceded by a certification of good faith compliance with the disclosure requirements of article two hundred forty-five of this chapter. This subdivision shall not apply to cases where the defense has waived disclosure requirements. The defense shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard on the record concerning any such inquiry by the court, and concerning whether such disclosure requirements have been met.

2-a. Upon a misdemeanor complaint, a statement of readiness shall not be valid unless the prosecuting attorney certifies that all counts charged in the accusatory instrument meet the requirements of sections 100.15 and 100.40 and those counts not meeting the requirements of sections 100.15 and 100.40 have been dismissed.

3. (a) Subdivisions one and two do not apply to a criminal action wherein the defendant is accused of an offense defined in sections 125.10, 125.15, 125.20, 125.25, 125.26 and 125.27 of the penal law.

(b) A motion made pursuant to subdivisions one or two upon expiration of the specified period may be denied where the people are not ready for trial if the people were ready for trial prior to the expiration of the specified period and their present unreadiness is due to some exceptional fact or circumstance, including, but not limited to, the sudden unavailability of evidence material to the people's case, when the district attorney has exercised due diligence to obtain such evidence and there are reasonable grounds to believe that such evidence will become available in a reasonable period.

(c) A motion made pursuant to subdivision two shall not:

(i) apply to any defendant who is serving a term of imprisonment for another offense;

(ii) require the release from custody of any defendant who is also being held in custody pending trial of another criminal charge as to which the applicable period has not yet elapsed;

(iii) prevent the redetention of or otherwise apply to any defendant who, after being released from custody pursuant to this section or

1 otherwise, is charged with another crime or violates the conditions on 2 which he has been released, by failing to appear at a judicial proceed-3 ing at which his presence is required or otherwise.

4 4. In computing the time within which the people must be ready for 5 trial pursuant to subdivisions one and two, the following periods must 6 be excluded:

7 (a) a reasonable period of delay resulting from other proceedings 8 concerning the defendant, including but not limited to: proceedings for 9 the determination of competency and the period during which defendant is 10 incompetent to stand trial; demand to produce; request for a bill of 11 particulars; pre-trial motions; appeals; trial of other charges; and the 12 period during which such matters are under consideration by the court; 13 or

14 (b) the period of delay resulting from a continuance granted by the 15 court at the request of, or with the consent of, the defendant or his or 16 her counsel. The court [~~must~~] may grant such a continuance only if it is 17 satisfied that postponement is in the interest of justice, taking into 18 account the public interest in the prompt dispositions of criminal 19 charges. A defendant without counsel must not be deemed to have 20 consented to a continuance unless he has been advised by the court of 21 his or her rights under these rules and the effect of his consent, which 22 must be done on the record in open court; or

23 (c) (i) the period of delay resulting from the absence or unavailabil-24 ity of the defendant. A defendant must be considered absent whenever his 25 location is unknown and he is attempting to avoid apprehension or prose-26 cution, or his location cannot be determined by due diligence. A defend-27 ant must be considered unavailable whenever his location is known but 28 his presence for trial cannot be obtained by due diligence; or

29 (ii) where the defendant has either escaped from custody or has failed 30 to appear when required after having previously been released on bail or 31 on his own recognizance, and provided the defendant is not in custody on 32 another matter, the period extending from the day the court issues a 33 bench warrant pursuant to section 530.70 because of the defendant's 34 failure to appear in court when required, to the day the defendant 35 subsequently appears in the court pursuant to a bench warrant or volun-36 tarily or otherwise; or

37 (d) a reasonable period of delay when the defendant is joined for 38 trial with a co-defendant as to whom the time for trial pursuant to this 39 section has not run and good cause is not shown for granting a sever-40 ance; or

41 (e) the period of delay resulting from detention of the defendant in 42 another jurisdiction provided the district attorney is aware of such 43 detention and has been diligent and has made reasonable efforts to 44 obtain the presence of the defendant for trial; or 45 (f) the period during which the defendant is without counsel through 46 no fault of the court; except when the defendant is proceeding as his 47 own attorney with the permission of the court; or 48 (g) other periods of delay occasioned by exceptional circumstances, 49 including but not limited to, the period of delay resulting from a 50 continuance granted at the request of a district attorney if (i) the 51 continuance is granted because of the unavailability of evidence materi-52 al to the people's case, when the district attorney has exercised due 53 diligence to obtain such evidence and there are reasonable grounds to 54 believe that such evidence will become available in a reasonable period; 55 or (ii) the continuance is granted to allow the district attorney addi-56 tional time to prepare the people's case and additional time is justi-

1 fied by the exceptional circumstances of the case. Any such exclusion 2 when a statement of unreadiness has followed a statement of readiness 3 made by the people must be accompanied by supporting facts and approved 4 by the court. The court shall inquire on the record as to the reasons 5 for the people's unreadiness; or

6 (h) the period during which an action has been adjourned in contem-7 plation of dismissal pursuant to sections 170.55, 170.56 and 215.10 of 8 this chapter[]; or

9 (i) [~~The~~] the period prior to the defendant's actual appearance for 10 arraignment in a situation in which the defendant has been directed to 11 appear by the district attorney pursuant to subdivision three of section 12 120.20 or subdivision three of section 210.10[]; or

13 (j) the period during which a family offense is before a family court 14 until such time as an accusatory instrument or indictment is filed 15 against the defendant alleging a crime constituting a family offense, as 16 such term is defined in section 530.11 of this chapter.

17 5. At each court appearance date preceding the commencement of trial 18 in a criminal action, the court, whenever it is practicable to do so, 19 shall rule preliminarily on whether the adjournment period immediately 20 following such court appearance date is to be included or excluded for 21 the purposes of computing the time within which the people must be ready 22 for trial within the meaning of this section. The court's ruling shall 23 be noted in the court file.

24 6. For purposes of this section, (a) where the defendant is to be 25 tried following the withdrawal of the plea of guilty or is to be retried 26 following a mistrial, an order for a new trial or an appeal or collat-27 eral attack, the criminal action and the commitment to the custody of 28 the sheriff, if any, must be deemed to have commenced on the date the 29 withdrawal of the plea of guilty or the date the order occasioning a 30 retrial becomes final;

31 (b) where a defendant has been served with an appearance ticket, the 32 criminal action must be deemed to have commenced on the date the defend-33 ant first appears in a local criminal court in response to the ticket;

34 (c) where a criminal action is commenced by the filing of a felony
35 complaint, and thereafter, in the course of the same criminal action
36 either the felony complaint is replaced with or converted to an informa-37 tion, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint pursuant to 38 article [~~180~~] one hundred eighty or a prosecutor's information is filed 39 pursuant to section 190.70, the period applicable for the purposes of 40 subdivision one must be the period applicable to the charges in the new 41 accusatory instrument, calculated from the date of the filing of such 42 new accusatory instrument; provided, however, that when the aggregate of 43 such period and the period of time, excluding the periods provided in 44 subdivision [~~four~~] five, already elapsed from the date of the filing of 45 the felony complaint to the date of the filing of the new accusatory 46 instrument exceeds six months, the period applicable to the charges in 47 the felony complaint must remain applicable and continue as if the new 48 accusatory instrument had not been filed;

49 (d) where a criminal action is commenced by the filing of a felony
50 complaint, and thereafter, in the course of the same criminal action
51 either the felony complaint is replaced with or converted to an informa-52 tion, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint pursuant to 53 article [~~180~~] one hundred eighty or a prosecutor's information is filed 54 pursuant to section 190.70, the period applicable for the purposes of 55 subdivision two must be the period applicable to the charges in the new 56 accusatory instrument, calculated from the date of the filing of such

1 new accusatory instrument; provided, however, that when the aggregate of 2 such period and the period of time, excluding the periods provided in 3 subdivision [~~four~~] five, already elapsed from the date of the filing of 4 the felony complaint to the date of the filing of the new accusatory 5 instrument exceeds ninety days, the period applicable to the charges in 6 the felony complaint must remain applicable and continue as if the new 7 accusatory instrument had not been filed.

8 (e) where a count of an indictment is reduced to charge only a misde-
9 meanor or petty offense and a reduced indictment or a prosecutor's
10 information is filed pursuant to subdivisions one-a and six of section 11 210.20, the period applicable for the purposes of subdivision one of 12 this section must be the period applicable to the charges in the new 13 accusatory instrument, calculated from the date of the filing of such 14 new accusatory instrument; provided, however, that when the aggregate of 15 such period and the period of time, excluding the periods provided in 16 subdivision [~~four~~] five of this section, already elapsed from the date 17 of the filing of the indictment to the date of the filing of the new 18 accusatory instrument exceeds six months, the period applicable to the 19 charges in the indictment must remain applicable and continue as if the 20 new accusatory instrument had not been filed;

21 (f) where a count of an indictment is reduced to charge only a misde-
22 meanor or petty offense and a reduced indictment or a prosecutor's 23 information is filed pursuant to subdivisions one-a and six of section 24 210.20, the period applicable for the purposes of subdivision two of 25 this section must be the period applicable to the charges in the new 26 accusatory instrument, calculated from the date of the filing of such 27 new accusatory instrument; provided, however, that when the aggregate of 28 such period and the period of time, excluding the periods provided in 43 motion, be excluded in computing the time within which the people must 44 be ready for trial pursuant to such section 30.30.

§ 89. General provisions relating to access to records; certain cases. The provisions of this section apply to access to all records, except as hereinafter specified:

1. (a) The committee on open government is continued and shall consist of the lieutenant governor or the delegate of such officer, the secretary of state or the delegate of such officer, whose office shall act as secretariat for the committee, the commissioner of the office of general services or the delegate of such officer, the director of the budget or the delegate of such officer, and seven other persons, none of whom shall hold any other state or local public office except the representative of local governments as set forth herein, to be appointed as follows: five by the governor, at least two of whom are or have been representatives of the news media, one of whom shall be a representative of local government who, at the time of appointment, is serving as a duly elected officer of a local government, one by the temporary president of the senate, and one by the speaker of the assembly. The persons appointed by the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly shall be appointed to serve, respectively, until the expiration of the terms of office of the temporary president and the speaker to which the temporary president and speaker were elected. The four persons presently serving by appointment of the governor for fixed terms shall continue to serve until the expiration of their respective terms. Thereafter, their respective successors shall be appointed for terms of four years. The member representing local government shall be appointed for a term of four years, so long as such member shall remain a duly elected officer of a local government. The committee shall hold no less than two meetings annually, but may meet at any time. The members of the committee shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties.

(b) The committee shall:

i. furnish to any agency and to each house of the state legislature advisory guidelines, opinions or other appropriate information regarding this article;

ii. furnish to any person advisory opinions or other appropriate information regarding this article;

iii. promulgate rules and regulations with respect to the implementation of subdivision one and paragraph (c) of subdivision three of section eighty-seven of this article;

iv. request from any agency and from either house of the state legislature such assistance, services and information as will enable the committee to effectively carry out its powers and duties;

v. develop a form, which shall be made available on the internet, that may be used by the public to request a record; and

vi. report on its activities and findings regarding this article and article seven of this chapter, including recommendations for changes in the law, to the governor and the legislature annually, on or before December fifteenth.

2. (a) The committee on [~~public access to records~~] open government may promulgate guidelines regarding deletion of identifying details or withholding of records otherwise available under this article to prevent unwarranted invasions of personal privacy. In the absence of such guidelines, an agency and the respective house of state legislature may delete identifying details when it makes records available.

1 (b) An unwarranted invasion of personal privacy includes, but shall 2 not be limited to:

3 i. disclosure of employment, medical or credit histories or personal 4 references of applicants for employment;

5 ii. disclosure of items involving the medical or personal records of a 6 client or patient in a medical facility;

7 iii. sale or release of lists of names and addresses if such lists
8 would be used for solicitation or fund-raising purposes;

9 iv. disclosure of information of a personal nature when disclosure 10 would result in economic or personal hardship to the subject party and 11 such information is not relevant to the work of the agency or respective 12 house of the state legislature requesting or maintaining it;

13 v. disclosure of information of a personal nature reported in confi-14 dence to an agency or to the state legislature and not relevant to the 15 ordinary work of such agency or the state legislature;

16 vi. information of a personal nature contained in a workers' compen-17 sation record, except as provided by section one hundred ten-a of the 18 workers' compensation law; ~~or~~

19 vii. disclosure of electronic contact information, such as an e-mail 20 address or a social network username, that has been collected from a 21 taxpayer under section one hundred four of the real property tax law; or

22 viii. disclosure of communications of a personal nature between legis-23 lators and their constituents.

24 (c) Unless otherwise provided by this article, disclosure shall not be 25 construed to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy 26 pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision:

27 i. when identifying details are deleted;

28 ii. when the person to whom a record pertains consents in writing to 29 disclosure;

30 iii. when upon presenting reasonable proof of identity, a person seeks 31 access to records pertaining to him or her; or

32 iv. when a record or group of records relates to the right, title or 33 interest in real property, or relates to the inventory, status or char-34 acteristics of real property, in which case disclosure and providing 35 copies of such record or group of records shall not be deemed an unwar-36 ranted invasion of personal privacy, provided that nothing herein shall 37 be construed to authorize the disclosure of electronic contact informa-38 tion, such as an e-mail address or a social network username, that has 39 been collected from a taxpayer under section one hundred four of the 40 real property tax law.

41 2-a. Nothing in this article shall permit disclosure which constitutes 42 an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy as defined in subdivision 43 two of this section if such disclosure is prohibited under section nine-44 ty-six of this chapter.

45 3. (a) Each entity subject to the provisions of this article, within 46 five business days of the receipt of a written request for a record 47 reasonably described, shall make such record available to the person 48 requesting it, deny such request in writing or furnish a written 49 acknowledgement of the receipt of such request and a statement of the 50 approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of 51 the request, when such request will be granted or denied, including, 52 where appropriate, a statement that access to the record will be deter-53 mined in accordance with subdivision five of this section. ~~And~~ Neither 54 an agency nor the state legislature shall ~~not~~ deny a request on the 55 basis that the request is voluminous or that locating or reviewing the 56 requested records or providing the requested copies is burdensome

1 because the agency or respective house of the state legislature lacks 2 sufficient staffing or on any other basis if the agency or respective 3 house of the state legislature may engage an outside professional 4 service to provide copying, programming or other services required to 5 provide the copy, the costs of which the agency may recover pursuant to 6 paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section eighty-seven of this arti-
7 cle. An agency or respective house of the state legislature may require 8 a person requesting lists of names and addresses to provide a written 9 certification that such person will not use such lists of names and 10 addresses for solicitation or fund-raising purposes and will not sell, 11 give or otherwise make available such lists of names and addresses to 12 any other person for the purpose of allowing that person to use such 13 lists of names and addresses for solicitation or fund-raising purposes.
14 If an agency or respective house of the state legislature determines to 15 grant a request in whole or in part, and if circumstances prevent 16 disclosure to the person requesting the record or records within twenty 17 business days from the date of the acknowledgement of the receipt of the 18 request, the agency or respective house of the state legislature shall 19 state, in writing, both the reason for the inability to grant the 20 request within twenty business days and a date certain within a reason-21 able period, depending on the circumstances, when the request will be 22 granted in whole or in part. Upon payment of, or offer to pay, the fee 23 prescribed therefor, the entity shall provide a copy of such record and 24 certify to the correctness of such copy if so requested, or as the case 25 may be, shall certify that it does not have possession of such record or 26 that such record cannot be found after diligent search. Nothing in this 27 article shall be construed to require any entity to prepare any record 28 not possessed or maintained by such entity except the records specified 29 in subdivision three of section eighty-seven [~~and subdivision three of~~ 30 ~~section eighty-eight~~] of this article. When an agency or the respective 31 house of the state legislature has the ability to retrieve or extract a 32 record or data maintained in a computer storage system with reasonable 33 effort, it shall be required to do so. When doing so requires less 34 employee time than engaging in manual retrieval or redactions from non-35 electronic records, the agency and respective house of the state legis-36 lature shall be required to retrieve or extract such record or data 37 electronically. Any programming necessary to retrieve a record main-38 tained in a computer storage system and to transfer that record to the 39 medium requested by a person or to allow the transferred record to be 40 read or printed shall not be deemed to be the preparation or creation of 41 a new record.

42 (b) All entities shall, provided such entity has reasonable means 43 available, accept requests for records submitted in the form of elec-44 tronic mail and shall respond to such requests by electronic mail, using 45 forms, to the extent practicable, consistent with the form or forms 46 developed by the committee on open government pursuant to subdivision 47 one of this section and provided that the written requests do not seek a 48 response in some other form.

49 (c) Each state agency, as defined in subdivision five of this section, 50 that maintains a website shall ensure its website provides for the 51 online submission of a request for records pursuant to this article.

52 4. (a) Except as provided in subdivision five of this section, any 53 person denied access to a record may within thirty days appeal in writ-54 ing such denial to the head, chief executive or governing body of the 55 entity, or the person therefor designated by such head, chief executive, 56 or governing body, who shall within ten business days of the receipt of 1 such appeal fully explain in writing to the person requesting the record 2 the reasons for further denial, or provide access to the record sought.

3 In addition, each agency or the respective house of the state legisla-4 ture shall immediately forward to the committee on open government a 5 copy of such appeal when received by the agency or such house and the 6 ensuing determination thereon. Failure by an agency or respective house 7 of the state legislature to conform to the provisions of subdivision 8 three of this section shall constitute a denial.

9 (b) Except as provided in subdivision five of this section, a person 10 denied access to a record in an appeal determination under the 11 provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision may bring a proceeding 12 for review of such denial pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil 13 practice law and rules. In the event that access to any record is denied 14 pursuant to the provisions of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of 15 this article, the agency or respective house of the state legislature 16 involved shall have the burden of proving that such record falls within 17 the provisions of such subdivision two. Failure by an agency or respec-18 tive house of the state legislature to conform to the provisions of 19 paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall constitute a denial.

20 (c) The court in such a proceeding: (i) may assess, against such agen-21 cy involved, reasonable attorney's fees and other litigation costs 22 reasonably incurred by such person in any case under the provisions of 23 this section in which such person has substantially prevailed, and when 24 the agency failed to respond to a request or appeal within the statutory 25 time; and (ii) shall assess, against such agency involved, reasonable 26 attorney's fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred by such 27 person in any case under the provisions of this section in which such 28 person has substantially prevailed and the court finds that the agency 29 had no reasonable basis for denying access.

30 (d) (i) Appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court must be 31 made in accordance with subdivision (a) of section fifty-five hundred 32 thirteen of the civil practice law and rules.

33 (ii) An appeal from an agency or respective house of the state legis-34 lature taken from an order of the court requiring disclosure of any of 35 all records sought:

36 (A) shall be given preference;

37 (B) shall be brought on for argument on such terms and conditions as 38 the presiding justice may direct, upon application of any party to the 39 proceedings; and

40 (C) shall be deemed abandoned if the agency or respective house of the 41 state legislature fails to serve and file a record and brief within 42 sixty days after the date of service upon the petitioner of the notice 43 of appeal, unless consent to further extension is given by all parties, 44 or unless further extension is granted by the court upon such terms as 45 may be just and upon good cause shown.

46 5. (a) (1) A person acting pursuant to law or regulation who, subse-47 quent to the effective date of this subdivision, submits any information 48 to any state agency or to the respective house of the state legislature 49 may, at the time of submission, request that the agency or such house 50 provisionally except such information from disclosure under paragraph 51 (d) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of this article. Where 52 the request itself contains information which if disclosed would defeat 53 the purpose for which the exception is sought, such information shall 54 also be provisionally excepted from disclosure.

55 (1-a) A person or entity who submits or otherwise makes available any 56 records to any agency or a house of the state legislature, may, at any

1 time, identify those records or portions thereof that may contain crit-2 ical infrastructure information, and request that the agency or house of 3 the state legislature that maintains such records except such informa-4 tion from disclosure under subdivision two of section eighty-seven of 5 this article. Where the request itself contains information which if 6 disclosed would defeat the purpose for which the exception is sought, 7 such information shall also be provisionally excepted from disclosure.

8 (2) The request for an exception shall be in writing, shall specif-9 ically identify which portions of the record are the subject of the 10 request for exception and shall state the reasons why the information 11 should be provisionally excepted from disclosure. Any such request for 12 an exception shall be effective for a five-year period from the agency's 13 or respective house of the state legislature's receipt thereof.
14 Provided, however, that not less than sixty days prior to the expiration 15 of the then current term of the exception request, the submitter may 16 apply to the agency or respective house of the state legislature for a 17 two-year extension of its exception request. Upon timely receipt of a 18 request for an extension of an exception request, an agency or respec-
19 tive house of the state legislature may either (A) perform a cursory 20 review of the application and grant the extension should it find any 21 justification for such determination, or (B) commence the procedure set 22 forth in paragraph (b) of this subdivision to make a final determination 23 granting or terminating such exception.

24 (3) Information submitted as provided in subparagraphs one and one-a 25 of this paragraph shall be provisionally excepted from disclosure and be 26 maintained apart by the agency and the respective house of the state 27 legislature from all other records until the expiration of the submit-28 ter's exception request or fifteen days after the entitlement to such 29 exception has been finally determined or such further time as ordered by 30 a court of competent jurisdiction.

31 (b) [~~On the~~] During the effective period of an exception request under 32 this subdivision, on the initiative of the agency or either house of the 33 state legislature at any time, or upon the request of any person for a 34 record excepted from disclosure pursuant to this subdivision, the agency 35 or respective house of the state legislature shall:

36 (1) inform the person who requested the exception of the agency's or 37 such house's intention to determine whether such exception should be 38 granted or continued;

39 (2) permit the person who requested the exception, within ten business 40 days of receipt of notification from the agency or respective house of 41 the state legislature, to submit a written statement of the necessity 42 for the granting or continuation of such exception;

43 (3) within seven business days of receipt of such written statement, 44 or within seven business days of the expiration of the period prescribed 45 for submission of such statement, issue a written determination grant-46 ing, continuing or terminating such exception and stating the reasons 47 therefor; copies of such determination shall be served upon the person, 48 if any, requesting the record, the person who requested the exception, 49 and the committee on [~~public access to records~~] open government.

50 (c) A denial of an exception from disclosure under paragraph (b) of 51 this subdivision may be appealed by the person submitting the informa-52 tion and a denial of access to the record may be appealed by the person 53 requesting the record in accordance with this subdivision:

54 (1) Within seven business days of receipt of written notice denying 55 the request, the person may file a written appeal from the determination 56 of the agency or the respective house of the state legislature with the 1 head of the agency or respective house of the state legislature, the 2 chief executive officer or governing body or their designated represen-3 tatives.

4 (2) The appeal shall be determined within ten business days of the 5 receipt of the appeal. Written notice of the determination shall be 6 served upon the person, if any, requesting the record, the person who 7 requested the exception and the committee on [~~public access to records~~] 8 open government. The notice shall contain a statement of the reasons for 9 the determination.

10 (d) A proceeding to review an adverse determination pursuant to para-11 graph (c) of this subdivision may be commenced pursuant to article 12 seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. Such proceeding, when 13 brought by a person seeking an exception from disclosure pursuant to 14 this subdivision, must be commenced within fifteen days of the service 15 of the written notice containing the adverse determination provided for 16 in subparagraph two of paragraph (c) of this subdivision. The proceeding 17 shall be given preference and shall be brought on for argument on such 18 terms and conditions as the presiding justice may direct, not to exceed 19 forty-five days. Appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court 20 must be made in accordance with law, and must be filed within fifteen 21 days after service by a party upon the appellant of a copy of the judg-22 ment or order appealed from and written notice of its entry. An appeal 23 taken from an order of the court requiring disclosure shall be given 24 preference and shall be brought on for argument on such terms and condi-25 tions as the presiding justice may direct, not to exceed sixty days.
26 This action shall be deemed abandoned when the party requesting an 27 exclusion from disclosure fails to serve and file a record and brief 28 within thirty days after the date of the notice of appeal. Failure by 29 the party requesting an exclusion from disclosure to serve and file a 30 record and brief within the allotted time shall result in the dismissal 31 of the appeal.

32 (e) The person requesting an exception from disclosure pursuant to 33 this subdivision shall in all proceedings have the burden of proving 34 entitlement to the exception.

35 (f) Where the agency or the respective house of the state legislature 36 denies access to a record pursuant to paragraph [~~(d)~~ ~~of~~] (b) of this 37 subdivision in conjunction with subdivision two of section eighty-seven 38 of this article, the agency or respective house of the state legislature 39 shall have the burden of proving that the record falls within the 40 provisions of such exception.

41 (g) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to deny any person 42 access, pursuant to the remaining provisions of this article, to any 43 record or part excepted from disclosure upon the express written consent 44 of the person who had requested the exception.

45 (h) As used in this subdivision the term "agency" or "state agency" 46 means only a state department, board, bureau, division, council or 47 office and any public corporation the majority of whose members are 48 appointed by the governor.

49 (i) As used in this subdivision the term "state legislature" means the 50 legislature as defined in subdivision two of section eighty-six of this 51 article.

52 6. Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or abridge any 53 otherwise available right of access at law or in equity of any party to 54 records.

55 7. Nothing in this article shall require the disclosure of the home
56 address of an officer or employee, former officer or employee, or of a

1 retiree of a public employees' retirement system; nor shall anything in 2 this article require the disclosure of the name or home address of a 3 beneficiary of a public employees' retirement system or of an applicant 4 for appointment to public employment; provided however, that nothing in 5 this subdivision shall limit or abridge the right of an employee organ-6 ization, certified or recognized for any collective negotiating unit of 7 an employer pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law, to 8 obtain the name or home address of any officer, employee or retiree of 9 such employer, if such name or home address is otherwise available under 10 this article.

11 8. Any person who, with intent to prevent the public inspection of a 12 record pursuant to this article, willfully conceals or destroys any such 13 record shall be guilty of a violation.

14 9. When records maintained electronically include items of information 15 that would be available under this article, as well as items of informa-16 tion that may be withheld, an agency or respective house of the state 17 legislature in designing its information retrieval methods, whenever 18 practicable and reasonable, shall do so in a manner that permits the 19 segregation and retrieval of available items in order to provide maximum 20 public access.

21 § 5. Subdivisions (t) and (u) of section 105 of the civil practice law 22 and rules, subdivision (u) as relettered by chapter 100 of the laws of

PART II

Section 1. This Part enacts into law major components of legislation that remove unnecessary barriers to reentry of people with criminal histories into society. This Part removes mandatory bars on licensing and employment for people with criminal convictions in the categories enumerated therein and replace them with individualized review processes using the factors set out in article 23-A of the correction law. This Part removes mandatory drivers license suspension for non-driving drug offenses. This Part prohibits disclosure of mugshots and arrest information by amending the freedom of information law. This Part also amends provisions of law to enact into law major components of legislation to prevent the use in a civil context, of past arrest information that did not result in a conviction because no disposition has been reported, or the case has been adjourned in contemplation of dismissal, or because arrest and arraignment charges were not followed by a corresponding conviction on those charges. This information would still be able to be seen and used by law enforcement and in criminal proceedings. Finally, this Part establishes compassionate parole for incarcerated individuals over the age of 55 who have incapacitating medical conditions exacerbated by age. Each component is wholly contained with a Subpart identified as Subparts A through P. Any provision in any section contained within a Subpart, including the effective date of the Subpart, which makes reference to a section "of this act", when used in connection with that particular component, shall be deemed to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the Subpart in which it is found. Section three of this Part sets forth the general effective date of this Part.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

SUBPART H

Section 1. Subdivision 5 of section 336-f of the social services law, as added by section 148 of part B of chapter 436 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

5. The social services district shall require every private or not-for-profit employer that intends to hire one or more work activity participants to certify to the district [~~that~~] whether such employer has [~~not~~], in the past five years, been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor nor the underlying basis of which involved workplace safety and health or labor standards. Such employer shall also certify as to all violations issued by the department of labor within the past five years. The social services official in the district in which the participant is placed shall determine whether there is a pattern of convictions or violations sufficient to render the potential employer ineligible. Employers who submit false information under this section shall be subject to criminal prosecution for filing a false instrument.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

SUBPART I

Section 1. Subdivision 9 of section 394 of the vehicle and traffic law, as separately renumbered by chapters 300 and 464 of the laws of 1960, is amended to read as follows:

9. Employees. [~~No licensee shall knowingly employ, in connection with a driving school in any capacity whatsoever, any person who has been convicted of a felony, or of any crime involving violence, dishonesty, deceit, indecency, degeneracy or moral turpitude]~~ A licensee may not employ, in connection with a driving school in any capacity whatsoever, a person who has been convicted of a crime, if, after considering the factors set forth in article twenty-three-A of the correction law, the licensee determines that there is a direct relationship between the conviction and employment in the driving school, or that employment would constitute an unreasonable risk to property or to the safety of students, customers, or employees of the driving school, or to the general public.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

SUBPART J

Section 1. Legislative findings. This Subpart will remove an overbroad mandatory suspension of drivers' licenses for six months for people convicted of state and federal drug crimes, that is unnecessary to protect the safety of New York roads, as the vehicle and traffic law has other provisions to suspend licenses when drug use has impaired safe driving. The mandatory suspension, and the fees associated with lifting it, interferes with the ability of people convicted of drug crimes to work, attend treatment and otherwise live productive lives, all of which are necessary for their rehabilitation. At any given time, about 8,000 New Yorkers have their licenses suspended because of non-driving related drug convictions. This mandatory suspension was instituted in response to federal law requiring states to either suspend the licenses of people convicted of drug offenses, or pass a resolution expressing opposition to the bill, or lose eight percent of federal highway funding. Concurrent with this bill, Resolution ___ is being presented to the legislature for their action; the Resolution contains the required statement of opposition to mandatory suspension of driver's licenses for people convicted of drug crimes in order for New York's federal funding for highways to be maintained. By passing the Resolution and removing the mandatory suspension, New York will join 40 other states who have taken this action.

§ 2. Subparagraphs (v), (vi) and (vii) of paragraph b of subdivision 2 of section 510 of the vehicle and traffic law are REPEALED.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

SUBPART K

Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature finds that law enforcement booking information and photographs, otherwise known as "mugshots," are published on the internet and other public platforms with impunity. An individual's mugshot is displayed publicly even if the arrest does not lead to a conviction, or the conviction is later expunged, sealed, or pardoned. This practice presents an unacceptable invasion of the individual's personal privacy. While there is a well-established Constitutional right for the press and the public to publish government records which are in the public domain or that have been lawfully accessed, arrest and booking information have not been found by courts to have the same public right of access as criminal court proceedings or court filings. Therefore, each state can set access to this information through its Freedom of Information laws. The federal government has already limited access to booking photographs through privacy formulations in its Freedom of Information Act, and the legislature hereby declares that New York will follow the same principle to protect its residents from this unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, absent a specific law enforcement purpose, such as disclosure of a

1 photograph to alert victims or witnesses to come forward to aid in a 2 criminal investigation.

3 § 2. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 89 of the public offi-
4 cers law, as amended by section 11 of part U of chapter 61 of the laws 5 of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

6 (b) An unwarranted invasion of personal privacy includes, but shall 7 not be limited to:

8 i. disclosure of employment, medical or credit histories or personal 9 references of applicants for employment;

10 ii. disclosure of items involving the medical or personal records of a 11 client or patient in a medical facility;

12 iii. sale or release of lists of names and addresses if such lists
13 would be used for solicitation or fund-raising purposes;

14 iv. disclosure of information of a personal nature when disclosure 15 would result in economic or personal hardship to the subject party and 16 such information is not relevant to the work of the agency requesting or 17 maintaining it;

18 v. disclosure of information of a personal nature reported in confi-19 dence to an agency and not relevant to the ordinary work of such agency;

20 vi. information of a personal nature contained in a workers' compen-21 sation record, except as provided by section one hundred ten-a of the 22 workers' compensation law; [ex]

23 vii. disclosure of electronic contact information, such as an e-mail 24 address or a social network username, that has been collected from a 25 taxpayer under section one hundred four of the real property tax law; or

26 viii. disclosure of law enforcement booking information about an indi-27 vidual, including booking photographs, unless public release of such 28 information will serve a specific law enforcement purpose and disclosure 29 is not precluded by any state or federal laws.

30 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

31 SUBPART L

32 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 845-c 33 to read as follows:

34 § 845-c. Criminal history record searches; undisposed cases. 1. When, 35 pursuant to statute or the regulations of the division, the division 36 conducts a search of its criminal history records and returns a report 37 thereon, all references to undisposed cases contained in such criminal 38 history record shall be excluded from such report.

39 2. For purposes of this section, "undisposed case" shall mean a crimi-40 nal action or proceeding identified in the division's criminal history 41 record repository, for which there is no record of an unexecuted warrant 42 of arrest, superior court warrant of arrest, or bench warrant, and for 43 which there is no record of conviction or imposition of sentence or 44 other final disposition, other than the issuance of an apparently unexe-45 cuted warrant, has been recorded and with respect to which no entry has 46 been made in the division's criminal history records for a period of at 47 least five years preceding the issuance of such report. When a criminal 48 action in the division's criminal history record repository becomes an 49 undisposed case pursuant to this section, the division shall notify the 50 district attorney in the county which has jurisdiction. If the district 51 attorney notifies the division that such case is pending and should not 52 meet the definition of an undisposed case, the case shall not be 53 excluded from such report.

3. The provisions of subdivision one of this section shall not apply to criminal history record information: (a) provided by the division to qualified agencies pursuant to subdivision six of section eight hundred thirty-seven of this article, or to federal or state law enforcement agencies, for criminal justice purposes; (b) prepared solely for a bona fide research purpose; or (c) prepared for the internal record keeping or case management purposes of the division.

§ 2. Subdivision 2 of section 212 of the judiciary law is amended by adding a new paragraph (x) to read as follows:

(x) Take such actions and adopt such measures as may be necessary to ensure that no written or electronic report of a criminal history record search conducted by the office of court administration, other than a search conducted solely for the internal recordkeeping or case management purposes of the judiciary or for a bona fide research purpose, contains information relating to an undisposed case. For purposes of this paragraph, "undisposed case" shall mean a criminal action or proceeding, or an arrest incident, appearing in the criminal history records of the office of court administration for which no conviction, imposition of sentence, order of removal or other final disposition, other than the issuance of an apparently unexecuted warrant, has been recorded and with respect to which no entry has been made in such records for a period of at least five years preceding the issuance of such report. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be deemed to permit or require the release, disclosure or other dissemination by the office of court administration of criminal history record information that has been sealed in accordance with law.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law and shall apply to searches of criminal history records conducted on or after such date. Prior to such effective date, the division of criminal justice services, in consultation with the state administrator of the unified court system as well as any other public or private agency, shall undertake such measures as may be necessary and appropriate to update its criminal history records with respect to criminal cases and arrest incidents for which no final disposition has been reported.

SUBPART M

Section 1. The commissioner of the division of criminal justice services is authorized to direct that records of any action or proceeding terminated in favor of the accused, as defined by section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law, on or after September 1, 1976 and before November 1, 1991 maintained by the division of criminal justice services be sealed in the manner provided for by section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law. The commissioner of the division of criminal justice services is further authorized to direct that records of any action or proceeding terminated by a conviction for a traffic infraction or a violation, other than a violation of loitering as described in paragraph (d) or (e) of subdivision 1 of section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law or the violation of operating a motor vehicle while ability impaired as described in subdivision one of section 1192 of the vehicle and traffic law on or after September 1, 1980 and before November 1, 1991 maintained by the division of criminal justice services be sealed in the manner provided for by section 160.55 of the criminal procedure law.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law.

SUBPART N

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 845-d to read as follows:

§ 845-d. Criminal record searches; arrest charges without corresponding convictions or violations. 1. When, pursuant to statute or the regulations of the division, the division conducts a search of its criminal history records and returns a report thereon, in arrest cycles that result in at least one conviction or violation, all arrest and arraignment charges in that cycle that do not result in a corresponding conviction shall be excluded from such report.

2. For purposes of this section, "corresponding conviction" shall mean a conviction or violation charge that matches one or more of the arrest or arraignment charges.

3. The provisions of subdivision one of this section shall not apply to criminal history records: (a) provided by the division to qualified agencies pursuant to subdivision six of section eight hundred thirty-seven of this article, or to federal or state law enforcement agencies, for criminal justice purposes; (b) prepared solely for a bona fide research purpose; or (c) prepared for the internal record keeping or case management purposes of the division.

§ 2. Subdivision 2 of section 212 of the judiciary law is amended by adding a new paragraph (y) to read as follows:

(y) Take such actions and adopt such measures as may be necessary to ensure that no written or electronic report of a criminal history record search conducted by the office of court administration that contains an arrest cycle and a criminal conviction or violation resulting from that arrest, other than a search conducted for the internal recordkeeping or case management purposes of the judiciary, or produced to the court, the people, and defense counsel in a criminal proceeding, or for a bona fide research purpose, contains information relating to arrest and arraignment charges that do not result in a corresponding conviction. For purposes of this section, "corresponding conviction" shall mean a conviction or violation charge that matches one or more of the arrest or arraignment charges.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

SUBPART O

Section 1. This Subpart amends the human rights law to specify that considering arrests that are followed by an order adjourning the criminal action in contemplation of dismissal, which adjournments are not convictions or admissions of guilt under section 170.55 of the criminal procedure law, is an unlawful discriminatory practice for civil purposes. This Subpart amends the human rights law to clarify as well that adjourning the criminal action in contemplation of dismissal is not a pending arrest for purposes of this Subpart, unless the case has been restored to the calendar. This Subpart also amends the same section of the law to add housing and volunteer positions to employment and licensing to the civil purposes for which past arrest information that did not result in a conviction or violation can be used.

§ 2. Subdivision 16 of section 296 of the executive law, as amended by section 48-a of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

16. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice, unless specifically required or permitted by statute, for any person, agency, bureau,

1 corporation or association, including the state and any political subdi-2 vision thereof, to make any inquiry about, whether in any form of appli-3 cation or otherwise, or to act upon adversely to the individual 4 involved, any arrest or criminal accusation of such individual not then 5 pending against that individual which was followed by a termination of 6 that criminal action or proceeding in favor of such individual, as 7 defined in subdivision two of section 160.50 of the criminal procedure 8 law, or by an order adjourning the criminal action in contemplation of 9 dismissal, pursuant to section 170.55, 170.56, 210.46, 210.47, or 215.10 10 of the criminal procedure law, or by a youthful offender adjudication, 11 as defined in subdivision one of section 720.35 of the criminal proce-12 dure law, or by a conviction for a violation sealed pursuant to section 13 160.55 of the criminal procedure law or by a conviction which is sealed 14 pursuant to section 160.59 or 160.58 of the criminal procedure law, in 15 connection with the licensing, housing, employment, including volunteer 16 positions, or providing of credit or insurance to such individual; 17 provided, further, that no person shall be required to divulge informa-18 tion pertaining to any arrest or criminal accusation of such individual 19 not then pending against that individual which was followed by a termi-20 nation of that criminal action or proceeding in favor of such individ-21 ual, as defined in subdivision two of section 160.50 of the criminal 22 procedure law, or by an order adjourning the criminal action in contem-23 plation of dismissal, pursuant to section 170.55 or 170.56 of the crimi-24 nal procedure law, or by a youthful offender adjudication, as defined in 25 subdivision one of section 720.35 of the criminal procedure law, or by a 26 conviction for a violation sealed pursuant to section 160.55 of the 27 criminal procedure law, or by a conviction which is sealed pursuant to 28 section 160.58 or 160.59 of the criminal procedure law. The provisions 29 of this subdivision shall not apply to the licensing activities of 30 governmental bodies in relation to the regulation of guns, firearms and 31 other deadly weapons or in relation to an application for employment as 32 a police officer or peace officer as those terms are defined in subdivi-33 sions thirty-three and thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal 34 procedure law; provided further that the provisions of this subdivision 35 shall not apply to an application for employment or membership in any 36 law enforcement agency with respect to any arrest or criminal accusation 37 which was followed by a youthful offender adjudication, as defined in 38 subdivision one of section 720.35 of the criminal procedure law, or by a 39 conviction for a violation sealed pursuant to section 160.55 of the 40 criminal procedure law, or by a conviction which is sealed pursuant to 41 section 160.58 or 160.59 of the criminal procedure law. For purposes of 42 this subdivision, an action which has been adjourned in contemplation of 43 dismissal, pursuant to section 170.55 or 170.56 of the criminal proce-44 dure law, shall not be considered a pending action, unless the case has 45 been restored to the calendar.

46 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 47 have become a law.

48 SUBPART P

49 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 259-t 50 to read as follows:

51 § 259-t. Release on compassionate parole for inmates who are affected 52 by an age-related debility. 1. (a) The board shall have the power to 53 release on compassionate parole any inmate who is at least fifty-five 54 years of age, serving an indeterminate or determinate sentence of imprisonment who, pursuant to subdivision two of this section, has been certified to be suffering from a chronic or serious condition, disease, syndrome, or infirmity, exacerbated by age, that has rendered the inmate so physically or cognitively debilitated or incapacitated that the ability to provide self-care within the environment of a correctional facility is substantially diminished, provided, however, that no inmate serving a sentence imposed upon a conviction for murder in the first degree, aggravated murder or an attempt or conspiracy to commit murder in the first degree or aggravated murder or a sentence of life without parole shall be eligible for such release, and provided further that no inmate shall be eligible for such release unless in the case of an indeterminate sentence he or she has served at least one-half of the minimum period of the sentence and in the case of a determinate sentence he or she has served at least one-half of the term of his or her determinate sentence. Solely for the purpose of determining compassionate parole eligibility pursuant to this section, such one-half of the minimum period of the indeterminate sentence and one-half of the term of the determinate sentence shall not be credited with any time served under the jurisdiction of the department prior to the commencement of such sentence pursuant to the opening paragraph of subdivision one of section 70.30 of the penal law or subdivision two-a of section 70.30 of the penal law, except to the extent authorized by subdivision three of section 70.30 of the penal law.

(b) Such release shall be granted only after the board considers whether, in light of the inmate's condition, there is a reasonable probability that the inmate, if released, will live and remain at liberty without violating the law, and that such release is not incompatible with the welfare of society and will not so deprecate the seriousness of the crime as to undermine respect for the law, and shall be subject to the limits and conditions specified in subdivision four of this section. In making this determination, the board shall consider: (i) the factors described in subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article; (ii) the nature of the inmate's conditions, diseases, syndromes or infirmities and the level of care; (iii) the amount of time the inmate must serve before becoming eligible for release pursuant to section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article; (iv) the current age of the inmate and his or her age at the time of the crime; and (v) any other relevant factor.

(c) The board shall afford notice to the sentencing court, the district attorney, the attorney for the inmate and, where necessary pursuant to subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article, the crime victim, that the inmate is being considered for release pursuant to this section and the parties receiving notice shall have thirty days to comment on the release of the inmate. Release on compassionate parole shall not be granted until the expiration of the comment period provided for in this paragraph.

2. (a) The commissioner, on the commissioner's own initiative or at the request of an inmate, or an inmate's spouse, relative or attorney, may, in the exercise of the commissioner's discretion, direct that an investigation be undertaken to determine whether an assessment should be made of an inmate who appears to be suffering from chronic or serious conditions, diseases, syndromes or infirmities, exacerbated by advanced age that has rendered the inmate so physically or cognitively debilitated or incapacitated that the ability to provide self-care within the environment of a correctional facility is substantially diminished. Any such medical assessment shall be made by a physician licensed to prac-

1 tice medicine in this state pursuant to section sixty-five hundred twen-2 ty-four of the education law. Such physician shall either be employed by 3 the department, shall render professional services at the request of the 4 department, or shall be employed by a hospital or medical facility used 5 by the department for the medical treatment of inmates. The assessment 6 shall be reported to the commissioner by way of the deputy commissioner 7 for health services or the chief medical officer of the facility and 8 shall include but shall not be limited to a description of the condi-9 tions, diseases or syndromes suffered by the inmate, a prognosis 10 concerning the likelihood that the inmate will not recover from such 11 conditions, diseases or syndromes, a description of the inmate's phys-12 ical or cognitive incapacity which shall include a prediction respecting 13 the likely duration of the incapacity, and a statement by the physician 14 of whether the inmate is so debilitated or incapacitated as to be 15 severely restricted in his or her ability to self-ambulate or to perform 16 significant activities of daily living. This assessment also shall 17 include a recommendation of the type and level of services and level of 18 care the inmate would require if granted compassionate parole and a 19 recommendation for the types of settings in which the services and 20 treatment should be given.

21 (b) The commissioner, or the commissioner's designee, shall review the 22 assessment and may certify that the inmate is suffering from a chronic 23 or serious condition, disease, syndrome or infirmity, exacerbated by 24 age, that has rendered the inmate so physically or cognitively debili-25 tated or incapacitated that the ability to provide self-care within the 26 environment of a correctional facility is substantially diminished. If 27 the commissioner does not so certify then the inmate shall not be 28 referred to the board for consideration for release on compassionate 29 parole. If the commissioner does so certify, then the commissioner 30 shall, within seven working days of receipt of such assessment, refer 31 the inmate to the board for consideration for release on compassionate 32 parole. However, an inmate will not be referred to the board of parole 33 with diseases, conditions, syndromes or infirmities that pre-existed 34 incarceration unless certified by a physician that such diseases, condi-35 tions, syndromes or infirmities, have progressed to render the inmate so 36 physically or cognitively debilitated or incapacitated that the ability 37 to provide self-care within the environment of a correctional facility 38 is substantially diminished.

39 3. Any certification by the commissioner or the commissioner's desig-40 nee pursuant to this section shall be deemed a judicial function and 41 shall not be reviewable if done in accordance with law.

42 4. (a) Once an inmate is released on compassionate parole, that 43 releasee will then be supervised by the department pursuant to paragraph 44 (b) of subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this arti-45 cle.

46 (b) The board may require as a condition of release on compassionate 47 parole that the releasee agree to remain under the care of a physician 48 while on compassionate parole and in a hospital established pursuant to 49 article twenty-eight of the public health law, nursing home established 50 pursuant to article twenty-eight-a of the public health law, a hospice 51 established pursuant to article forty of the public health law or any 52 other placement, including a residence with family or others, that can 53 provide appropriate medical and other necessary compassionate care as 54 recommended by the medical assessment required by subdivision two of 55 this section. For those who are released pursuant to this subdivision, a 56 discharge plan shall be completed and state that the availability of the 1 placement has been confirmed, and by whom. Notwithstanding any other 2 provision of law, when an inmate who qualifies for release under this 3 section is cognitively incapable of signing the requisite documentation 4 to effectuate the discharge plan and, after a diligent search no person 5 has been identified who could otherwise be appointed as the inmate's 6 guardian by a court of competent jurisdiction, then, solely for the 7 purpose of implementing the discharge plan, the facility health services 8 director at the facility where the inmate is currently incarcerated 9 shall be lawfully empowered to act as the inmate's guardian for the 10 purpose of effectuating the discharge.

11 (c) Where appropriate, the board shall require as a condition of 12 release that compassionate parolees be supervised on intensive caseloads 13 at reduced supervision ratios.

14 5. A denial of release on compassionate parole shall not preclude the 15 inmate from reapplying for compassionate parole or otherwise affect an 16 inmate's eligibility for any other form of release provided for by law.

17 6. To the extent that any provision of this section requires disclo-18 sure of medical information for the purpose of processing an application 19 or making a decision, regarding release on compassionate parole or for 20 the purpose of appropriately supervising a person released on compas-21 sionate parole, and that such disclosure would otherwise be prohibited 22 by article twenty-seven-f of the public health law, the provisions of 23 this section shall be controlling.

24 7. The commissioner and the chair of the board shall be authorized to 25 promulgate rules and regulations for their respective agencies to imple-26 ment the provisions of this section.

27 8. Any decision made by the board pursuant to this section may be 28 appealed pursuant to subdivision four of section two hundred fifty-29 nine-i of this article.

30 9. The chair of the board shall report annually to the governor, the 31 temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly, the 32 chairpersons of the assembly and senate codes committees, the chair-33 person of the senate crime and corrections committee, and the chair-34 person of the assembly corrections committee the number of inmates who 35 have applied for compassionate parole under this section; the number who 36 have been granted compassionate parole; the nature of the illness of the 37 applicants, the counties to which they have been released and the nature 38 of the placement pursuant to the discharge plan; the categories of 39 reasons for denial for those who have been denied; the number of releas-40 ees on compassionate parole who have been returned to imprisonment in 41 the custody of the department and the reasons for return.

42 § 2. This act shall take effect April 1, 2019.

43 § 2. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivi-44 sion, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of 45 competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, 46 impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in 47 its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section 48 or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judg-49 ment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of 50 the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such 51 invalid provisions had not been included herein.

52 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately provided, however, that 53 the applicable effective date of Subparts A through P of this act shall 54 be as specifically set forth in the last section of such Subparts.

1 Section 1. Section 2 of the correction law is amended by adding four 2 new subdivisions 32, 33, 34 and 35 to read as follows:

3 32. "Special populations" means any person: (a) who is an adolescent 4 offender that is confined in an adolescent offender facility; or (b) who 5 is pregnant, or in the first eight weeks of post partum recovery period 6 after giving birth.

7 33. "Residential rehabilitation unit" means a housing unit used for 8 treatment and rehabilitative programming of incarcerated individuals who 9 have been determined to require more than ninety days of segregated 10 confinement on and after April first, two thousand twenty-one; more than 11 sixty days of segregated confinement on and after October first, two 12 thousand twenty-one; and more than thirty days of segregated confinement 13 on and after April first, two thousand twenty-two or who have been 14 deemed by the deputy commissioner for correctional facilities or his or 15 her designee to be an unreasonable risk to safety and security of staff, 16 incarcerated individuals or the facility.

17 34. "Step down unit" means a housing unit used for the progressive 18 programming of incarcerated individuals with a violent history or a 19 substance abuse history that has led to long-term periods of segregated 20 confinement in order to prepare them for return to general population or 21 the community.

22 35. "Adolescent offender separation unit" means a housing unit used 23 for adolescent offenders housed in an adolescent offender facility that 24 receive a disciplinary confinement sanction or who have been deemed by 25 the superintendent to be an unreasonable risk to the safety and security 26 of staff, incarcerated individuals or the facility.

27 § 2. Subdivision 6 of section 137 of the correction law is amended by 28 adding ten new paragraphs (g), (h), (i), (j), (k), (l), (m), (n), (o) 29 and (p) to read as follows:

30 (g) Incarcerated individuals in special populations as defined in 31 subdivision thirty-two of section two of this chapter shall not be 32 placed in segregated confinement for any length of time.

33 (h) No incarcerated individual may be placed in segregated confinement 34 for longer than necessary and no more than ninety days of segregated 35 confinement on and after April first, two thousand twenty-one; no more 36 than sixty days of segregated confinement on and after October first, 37 two thousand twenty-one; and no more than thirty days of segregated 38 confinement on and after April first, two thousand twenty-two. Upon 39 reaching this limit, he or she must be released from segregated confine-40 ment or diverted to a residential rehabilitation unit or step down unit.
41 Such admission to a residential rehabilitation unit or step down unit 42 shall occur as expeditiously as possible and in no case take longer than 43 seventy-two hours from the time transfer should occur.

44 (i) Persons admitted to a residential rehabilitation unit shall be 45 offered at least five hours of out-of-cell programming, activities, or 46 recreation four days per week, excluding holidays, and at least two 47 hours of recreation on the remaining days.

48 (i) Such incarcerated individuals in a residential rehabilitation unit 49 shall have access to out-of-cell programs and activities that promote 50 personal development and group engagement, addressing underlying causes 51 of problematic behavior resulting in placement in segregated confinement 52 or a residential rehabilitation unit, and helping prepare for discharge 53 from the unit to general confinement or the community.

54 (ii) Persons in a residential rehabilitation unit shall have the 55 opportunity to earn additional privileges under a progressive movement 56 system.

1 (iii) Upon admission to a residential rehabilitation unit, a program 2 management team shall develop an individual rehabilitation plan in 3 consultation with the incarcerated individual based upon his or her 4 programming needs. Such plan shall identify specific goals and program

10 individuals length of disciplinary sanction.

11 (v) If the incarcerated individual is maintained in the residential 12 rehabilitation unit beyond the length of the disciplinary sanction 13 imposed, or is placed there as a result of the deputy commissioner for 14 correctional facility or his or her designee's determination of an 15 unreasonable risk to safety and security or staff, incarcerated individ-16 uals or the facility, there shall be a periodic review of the status of 20 (j) Persons may be admitted to a step down unit from either segregated 21 confinement or a residential rehabilitation unit.

22 (i) Persons admitted to a step down unit shall participate in a 23 multi-phase progressive program. Incarcerated individuals will progress

26 (ii) Such incarcerated individuals will be offered at least five hours 27 of out-of-cell programming, activities and recreation four days per 28 week, excluding holidays, and at least two hours of recreation on the 29 remaining days.

30 (iii) When an incarcerated person is discharged from a step down unit, 31 any remaining time to serve on any underlying disciplinary sanction 32 shall be held in abeyance for a period of no more than six months.

33 (iv) Persons in a step down unit shall have the opportunity to earn

35 (k) Persons admitted to an adolescent offender separation unit shall 38 hours of recreation on the remaining days.

39 (i) Persons in an adolescent offender separation unit shall have the 40 opportunity to earn additional privileges under a progressive movement 41 system.

42 (ii) If the incarcerated individual is maintained in the adolescent

44 imposed, or is placed there as a result of the deputy commissioner for 45 correctional facility or designees determination of an unreasonable risk 46 to safety and security of staff, incarcerated individuals or the facili-47 ty, there shall be a periodic review of the status of each incarcerated 48 person at least every sixty days to assess the person's progress and 49 determine if the person should be discharged from the unit.

50 (l) All staff assigned to segregated confinement, residential rehabil-51 itation, step down or adolescent offender separation unit shall receive 52 specialized training in dealing with this population, to include inter-53 personal communication skills, de-escalation techniques and implicit 54 bias.

55 (m) The superintendent of the institution maintains the right to 56 restrict employees from working on a segregated confinement, residential

1 rehabilitation, step down or adolescent offender separation unit if it 2 is in the best interest of the overall safety and security of the insti-3 tution, staff or incarcerated individuals.

4 (n) Prior to presiding over a superintendent hearing, all hearing 5 officers shall receive hearing officers training on relevant topics, 6 including implicit bias.

7 (o) The department shall publish monthly reports on its website of the 8 total number of incarcerated individuals who are in segregated confine-9 ment, the total number of incarcerated individuals who are in a residen-10 tial rehabilitation unit and the total number of incarcerated individ-11 uals in a step down unit, and the total number of incarcerated 12 individuals in an adolescent offender separation unit on the first day 13 of each month.

14 (p) The department shall publish an annual cumulative report of the 15 total number of incarcerated individuals who were in segregated confine-16 ment, the total number of incarcerated individuals who were in a resi-17 dential rehabilitation unit and the total number of incarcerated indi-18 viduals who were in a step down unit for the preceding year. The annual 19 report shall include the average length of stay in each of the units.

20 § 3. Clauses (A) and (B) of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (d) of 21 subdivision 6 of section 137 of the correction law, as added by chapter 22 1 of the laws of 2008, are amended to read as follows:

23 (A) Upon placement of an inmate into segregated confinement, a resi-24 dential rehabilitation unit, step down unit or adolescent offender sepa-25 ration unit, at a level one or level two facility, a suicide prevention 26 screening instrument shall be administered by staff from the department 27 or the office of mental health who has been trained for that purpose. If 28 such a screening instrument reveals that the inmate is at risk of 29 suicide, a mental health clinician shall be consulted and appropriate 30 safety precautions shall be taken. Additionally, within one business day 31 of the placement of such an inmate into segregated confinement, a resi-
32 dential rehabilitation unit, step down unit or adolescent offender sepa-33 ration unit, at a level one or level two facility, the inmate shall be 34 assessed by a mental health clinician.

35 (B) Upon placement of an inmate into segregated confinement, a resi-

37 ration unit, at a level three or level four facility, a suicide 38 prevention screening instrument shall be administered by staff from the 39 department or the office of mental health who has been trained for that 40 purpose. If such a screening instrument reveals that the inmate is at 41 risk of suicide, a mental health clinician shall be consulted and appro-42 priate safety precautions shall be taken. All inmates placed in segre-43 gated confinement, a residential rehabilitation unit, step down unit or 44 adolescent offender separation unit, at a level three or level four

48 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 49 no incarcerated individual may be placed in segregated confinement for 50 longer than necessary and:

51 1. effective on and after April 1, 2021, no more than ninety days of 52 segregated confinement;

53 2. effective on and after October 1, 2021, no more than sixty days of 54 segregated confinement; and

6 section 70.02 of this chapter or subdivision six of section 70.06 of 7 this chapter upon a person who stands convicted either of burglary in 8 the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 140.25 of 9 this chapter or robbery in the second degree as defined in subdivision 10 one of section 160.10 of this chapter, or an attempt thereof, upon 11 motion of the defendant, the court may issue an order directing that the 12 department of corrections and community supervision enroll the defendant 13 in the shock incarceration program as defined in article twenty-six-A of 14 the correction law, provided that the defendant is an eligible inmate, 15 as described in subdivision one of section eight hundred sixty-five of 16 the correction law. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this 17 subdivision, any defendant to be enrolled in such program pursuant to 18 this subdivision shall be governed by the same rules and regulations

23 (b) Paragraph (b) of subdivision seven of section 60.04 of this arti-

PART LL

Section 1. Section 57 of the civil service law, as added by chapter 83 of the laws of 1963, is amended to read as follows:

§ 57. Continuous recruitment for certain positions. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter or any other law, the civil service department or a municipal commission may establish a continuing eligible list for any class of positions for which it finds ~~[inadequate numbers of well-qualified persons available for recruitment]~~ such lists appropriate. Names of eligibles shall be inserted in such list from time to time as applicants are tested and found qualified in examinations held at such intervals as may be prescribed by the civil service department or municipal commission having jurisdiction. Such successive examinations shall, so far as practicable, be constructed and rated so as to be equivalent tests of the merit and fitness of candidates. The name of any candidate who passes any such examination and who is otherwise qualified shall be placed on the continuing eligible list in the rank corresponding to his final rating on such examination. The period of eligibility of successful candidates for certification and appointment from such continuing eligible list, as a result of any such examination, shall be fixed by the civil service department or municipal commission but, except as a list may reach an announced terminal date, such period shall not be less than one year; nor shall such period of eligibility exceed four years. Subject to such conditions and limitations as the civil service department or municipal commission may prescribe, a candidate may take more than one such examination; provided, however, that no such candidate shall be certified simultaneously with more than one rank on the continuing eligible list. With respect to any candidate who applies for and is granted additional credit in any such examination as a disabled or non-disabled veteran, and for the limited purpose of granting such additional credit, the eligible list shall be deemed to be established on the date on which his name is added thereto.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

PART MM

11. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the annual salary of any position, compensable on an annual basis, which is classified or reclassified, or which is allocated or reallocated to a salary grade pursuant to the provisions of this article shall not be reduced for the then ~~[permanent]~~ incumbent by reason of any provision of this article ~~[so long as such position is held by the then permanent incumbent]~~.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

PART 00

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 70.15 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 291 of the laws of 1993, is amended to read as follows:

1. Class A misdemeanor. A sentence of imprisonment for a class A misdemeanor shall be a definite sentence. When such a sentence is imposed the term shall be fixed by the court, and shall not exceed ~~[one year]~~ three hundred sixty-four days; provided, however, that a sentence of imprisonment imposed upon a conviction of criminal possession of a weapon in the fourth degree as defined in subdivision one of section 265.01 must be for a period of no less than ~~[one year]~~ three hundred sixty-four days when the conviction was the result of a plea of guilty entered in satisfaction of an indictment or any count thereof charging the defendant with the class D violent felony offense of criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in subdivision four of section 265.02, except that the court may impose any other sentence authorized by law upon a person who has not been previously convicted in the five years immediately preceding the commission of the offense for a felony or a class A misdemeanor defined in this chapter, if the court having regard to the nature and circumstances of the crime and to the history and character of the defendant, finds on the record that such sentence would be unduly harsh and that the alternative sentence would be consistent with public safety and does not deprecate the seriousness of the crime.

§ 2. Section 70.15 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdivision 1-a to read as follows:

1-a. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, whenever the phrase "one year" or "three hundred sixty-five days" or "365 days" or any similar phrase appears in any provision of this chapter or any other law in reference to the definite sentence or maximum definite sentence of imprisonment that is imposed, or has been imposed, or may be imposed after the effective date of this subdivision, for a misdemeanor conviction in this state, such phrase shall mean, be interpreted and be applied as three hundred sixty-four days.

(b) The amendatory provisions of this subdivision are ameliorative and shall apply to all persons who are sentenced before, on or after the effective date of this subdivision, for a crime committed before, on or after the effective date of this subdivision.

(c) Any sentence for a misdemeanor conviction imposed prior to the effective date of this subdivision that is a definite sentence of imprisonment of one year, or three hundred sixty-five days, shall, by operation of law, be changed to, mean and be interpreted and applied as a sentence of three hundred sixty-four days. In addition to any other right of a person to obtain a record of a proceeding against him or her, a person so sentenced prior to the effective date of this subdivision shall be entitled to obtain, from the criminal court or the clerk thereof, a certificate of conviction, as described in subdivision one of section 60.60 of the criminal procedure law, setting forth such sentence as the sentence specified in this paragraph.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

PART PP

Section 1. The opening paragraph and paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 1311 of the civil practice law and rules, the opening paragraph as amended by chapter 655 of the laws of 1990 and paragraph (a) as added by chapter 669 of the laws of 1984, are amended to read as follows:

A civil action may be commenced by the appropriate claiming authority against a criminal defendant to recover the property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime or the real property instrumentality of a crime ~~[or to recover a money judgment in an amount equivalent in value to the property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime, or the real property instrumentality of a crime]~~. A civil action may be commenced against a non-criminal defendant to recover the property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime, or the real property instrumentality of a crime provided, however, that a judgment of forfeiture predicated upon clause (A) of subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (b) of subdivision three ~~[hereof]~~ of this section shall be limited to the amount of the proceeds of the crime. Any action under this article must be commenced within five years of the commission of the crime and shall be civil, remedial, and in personam in nature and shall not be deemed to be a penalty or criminal forfeiture for any purpose. Except as otherwise specially provided by statute, the proceedings under this article shall be governed by this chapter. An action under this article is not a criminal proceeding and may not be deemed to be a previous prosecution under article forty of the criminal procedure law.

(a) Actions relating to post-conviction forfeiture crimes. An action relating to a post-conviction forfeiture crime must be grounded upon a conviction of a felony defined in subdivision five of section one thousand three hundred ten of this article~~[, or upon criminal activity arising from a common scheme or plan of which such a conviction is a part,~~ or upon a count of an indictment or information alleging a felony which was dismissed at the time of a plea of guilty to a felony in satisfaction of such count. A court may not grant forfeiture until such conviction has occurred. However, an action may be commenced, and a court may grant a provisional remedy provided under this article, prior to such conviction having occurred. An action under this paragraph must be dismissed at any time after sixty days of the commencement of the action unless the conviction upon which the action is grounded has occurred, or an indictment or information upon which the asserted conviction is to be based is pending in a superior court. An action under this paragraph shall be stayed during the pendency of a criminal action which is related to it; provided, however, that such stay shall not prevent the granting or continuance of any provisional remedy provided under this article or any other provisions of law.

§ 2. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new section 1311-b to read as follows:

§ 1311-b. Money judgment. If a claiming authority obtains a forfeiture judgment against a defendant for the proceeds, substituted proceeds, instrumentality of a crime or real property instrumentality of a crime,

1 but is unable to locate all or part of any such property, the claiming 2 authority may apply to the court for a money judgment against the 3 defendant in the amount of the value of the forfeited property that 4 cannot be located. The defendant shall have the right to challenge the 5 valuation of any property that is the basis for such an application. The 6 claiming authority shall have the burden of establishing the value of 7 the property under this section by a preponderance of the evidence.

8 § 3. Subdivisions 1, 3 and 4 of section 1312 of the civil practice law 9 and rules, subdivision 1 as added by chapter 669 of the laws of 1984, 10 subdivision 3 as amended and subdivision 4 as added by chapter 655 of 11 the laws of 1990, are amended to read as follows:

12 1. The provisional remedies of attachment, injunction, receivership 13 and notice of pendency provided for herein, shall be available in all 14 actions to recover property [~~or for a money judgment~~] under this arti-15 cle.

16 3. A court may grant an application for a provisional remedy when it 17 determines that: (a) there is a substantial probability that the claim-18 ing authority will be able to demonstrate at trial that the property is 19 the proceeds, substituted proceeds, instrumentality of the crime or real 20 property instrumentality of the crime, that the claiming authority will 21 prevail on the issue of forfeiture, and that failure to enter the order 22 may result in the property being destroyed, removed from the jurisdic-23 tion of the court, or otherwise be unavailable for forfeiture; (b) the 24 need to preserve the availability of the property through the entry of 25 the requested order outweighs the hardship on any party against whom the 26 order may operate; and (c) in an action relating to real property, that 27 entry of the requested order will not substantially diminish, impair, or 28 terminate the lawful property interest in such real property of any 29 person or persons other than the defendant or defendants.

30 4. Upon motion of any party against whom a provisional remedy granted 31 pursuant to this article is in effect, the court may issue an order 32 modifying or vacating such provisional remedy if necessary to permit the 33 moving party to obtain funds for the payment of reasonable living 34 expenses, other costs or expenses related to the maintenance, operation, 35 or preservation of property which is the subject of any such provisional 36 remedy or reasonable and bona fide attorneys' fees and expenses for the 37 representation of the defendant in the forfeiture proceeding or in a 38 related criminal matter relating thereto, payment for which is not 39 otherwise available from assets of the defendant which are not subject 40 to such provisional remedy. Any such motion shall be supported by an 41 affidavit establishing the unavailability of other assets of the moving 42 party which are not the subject of such provisional remedy for payment 43 of such expenses or fees. That funds sought to be released under this 44 subdivision are alleged to be the proceeds, substituted proceeds, 45 instrumentality of a crime or real property instrumentality of a crime 46 shall not be a factor for the court in considering and determining a 47 motion made pursuant to this subdivision.

48 § 4. The opening paragraph of subdivision 2 of section 1349 of the 49 civil practice law and rules, as added by chapter 655 of the laws of 50 1990, is amended to read as follows:

51 If any other provision of law expressly governs the manner of disposi-52 tion of property subject to the judgment or order of forfeiture, that 53 provision of law shall be controlling, with the exception that, notwith-54 standing the provisions of any other law, all forfeited monies and 55 proceeds from forfeited property shall be deposited into and disbursed 56 from an asset forfeiture escrow fund established pursuant to section

1 six-v of the general municipal law, which shall govern the maintenance
2 of such monies and proceeds from forfeited property. Upon application 3 by a claiming agent for reimbursement of moneys directly expended by a 4 claiming agent in the underlying criminal investigation for the purchase 5 of contraband which were converted into a non-monetary form or which 6 have not been otherwise recovered, the court shall direct such 7 reimbursement from money forfeited pursuant to this article. Upon appli-8 cation of the claiming agent, the court may direct that any vehicles, 9 vessels or aircraft forfeited pursuant to this article be retained by 10 the claiming agent for law enforcement purposes, unless the court deter-11 mines that such property is subject to a perfected lien, in which case 12 the court may not direct that the property be retained unless all such 13 liens on the property to be retained have been satisfied or pursuant to 14 the court's order will be satisfied. In the absence of an application by 15 the claiming agent, the claiming authority may apply to the court to 16 retain such property for law enforcement purposes. Upon such applica-17 tion, the court may direct that such property be retained by the claim-18 ing authority for law enforcement purposes, unless the court determines 19 that such property is subject to a perfected lien. If not so retained, 20 the judgment or order shall direct the claiming authority to sell the 21 property in accordance with article fifty-one of this chapter, and that 22 the proceeds of such sale and any other moneys realized as a consequence 23 of any forfeiture pursuant to this article shall be deposited to an 24 asset forfeiture escrow fund established pursuant to section six-v of 25 the general municipal law and shall be apportioned and paid in the 26 following descending order of priority:

27 § 5. Section 1349 of the civil practice law and rules is amended by 28 adding a new subdivision 5 to read as follows:

29 5. Monies and proceeds from the sale of property realized as a conse-30 quence of any forfeiture distributed to the claiming agent or claiming 31 authority of any county, town, city, or village of which the claiming 32 agent or claiming authority is a part, shall be deposited to an asset 33 forfeiture escrow fund established pursuant to section six-v of the 34 general municipal law.

35 § 6. Subdivision 2 of section 700 of the county law is amended to read
36 as follows:

37 2. Within thirty days after the receipt of any fine, penalty, recovery 38 upon any recognizance, monies and proceeds from the sale of property 39 realized as a consequence of any forfeiture, or other money belonging to 40 the county, the district attorney or the claiming authority shall pay 41 the same to the county treasurer. Not later than the first day of Febru-42 ary in each year, the district attorney shall make in duplicate a veri-43 fied true statement of all such moneys received and paid to the county 44 treasurer during the preceding calendar year and at that time shall pay 45 to the county treasurer any balance due. One statement shall be 46 furnished to the county treasurer [~~and the other~~], one to the clerk of 47 the board of supervisors and one to the state comptroller. A district 48 attorney who is not re-elected shall make and file the verified state-49 ment and pay any balance of such moneys to the county treasurer within 50 thirty days after the expiration of his term.

51 § 7. The general municipal law is amended by adding a new section 6-v
52 to read as follows:

7 (i) In the case of counties operating under (1) an alternative form of 8 county government or charter enacted as a state statute or adopted under 9 the alternative county government law or by local law, the official 10 designated in such statute, consolidated law or local law as the chief 11 fiscal officer, or, if no such designation is made therein, the official 12 possessing powers and duties similar to those of a county treasurer 13 under the county law as shall be designated by local law.

14 (2) In the case of counties not operating under an alternative form of 18 the comptroller.

19 (ii) In the case of cities, the comptroller; if a city does not have a 20 comptroller, the treasurer; if a city has neither a comptroller nor a 21 treasurer, such official possessing powers and duties similar to those

34 or county attorney may act as a claiming authority only with the consent 35 of the district attorney or the attorney general, as appropriate.

36 d. The term "claiming agent" shall mean and shall include all persons 37 described in subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal 38 procedure law, and sheriffs, undersheriffs and deputy sheriffs of coun-39 ties within the city of New York.

40 2. The governing board shall authorize the establishment of an asset 41 forfeiture escrow fund for any claiming agent or claiming authority as 42 is deemed necessary for the monies and proceeds of sale of property 43 realized as a consequence of any forfeiture. The separate identity of 44 such fund shall be maintained.

45 3. There shall be paid into the asset forfeiture escrow fund all 46 proceeds realized as a consequence of any forfeiture action. Such funds 47 shall include, but are not limited to, all funds and any property (real,

49 agreement or otherwise prior to, in lieu of or after the lodging of 50 criminal charges, pre-indictment, post-indictment, or after conviction 51 by plea or trial. Such funds shall also include funds that are forfeited 52 in compromise of charges that are never brought.

53 4. The monies and proceeds in the asset forfeiture escrow fund shall 54 be deposited and secured in the manner provided by section ten of this 55 article. All monies and proceeds so deposited in such fund shall be 56 kept in a separate bank account. The chief fiscal officer may invest the 1 moneys in such fund in the manner provided in section eleven of this 2 article. Any interest earned or capital gains realized on the moneys so 3 deposited or invested shall accrue to and become part of such fund. The 4 separate identity of such fund shall be maintained, whether its assets 5 consist of cash, investments, or both.

6 5. Every claim for the payment of money from the asset forfeiture 7 escrow fund shall specify the purpose of the requested payment and must 8 be accompanied by a written certification that the expenditure is in 18 complement of chromosomes or group of such cells, not a gamete or

23 JUDGMENT OF PARENTAGE

24 Section 581-201. Judgment of parentage.

25 581-202. Proceeding for judgment of parentage of a child born
26 through assisted reproduction.

27 581-203. Proceeding for judgment of parentage of a child born
28 pursuant to a gestational carrier arrangement.

29 581-204. Judgment of parentage for intended parents who are 30 spouses.

31 581-205. Jurisdiction.

32 § 581-201. Judgment of parentage. (a) A civil proceeding may be main-33 tained to adjudicate the parentage of a child under the circumstances 34 set forth in this article. This proceeding is governed by the civil 35 practice law and rules.

36 (b) A judgment of parentage may be issued prior to birth but shall not 37 become effective until the birth of the child.

38 (c) A judgment of parentage shall be issued by the court upon the 39 petition of (1) a child, or (2) a parent or a presumed parent, or (3) a 40 participant, or (4) the support/enforcement agency or other governmental 41 agency authorized by other law, or (5) a representative authorized by 42 law to act for an individual who would otherwise be entitled to maintain 43 a proceeding but who is deceased, incapacitated, or a minor, in order to 44 legally establish the child-parent relationship of either a child born 45 through assisted reproduction under part three of this article or a 46 child born pursuant to a gestational carrier arrangement under part four 47 of this article.

48 § 581-202. Proceeding for judgment of parentage of a child born 49 through assisted reproduction. (a) A proceeding for a judgment of 50 parentage may be commenced:

51 (1) if the intended parent resides in New York state, in the county 52 where the intended parent resides any time after pregnancy is achieved 53 or in the county where the child was born or resides; or

1 (2) if the intended parent and child do not reside in New York state, 2 up to ninety days after the birth of the child in the county where the 3 child was born.

4 (b) The petition for a judgment of parentage must be verified and 5 include the following:

6 (1) a statement that the intended parent has been a resident of the 7 state for at least ninety days or if the intended parent is not a New 8 York state resident, that the child was born in the state; and 9 (2) a statement from the gestating parent that the gestating parent 10 became pregnant as a result of the donation of the gamete or embryo and 11 a representation of non-access during the time of conception; and 12 (3) a statement that the non-gestating intended parent consented to 13 assisted reproduction pursuant to section 581-304 of this article; and 14 (4) proof of donor's donative intent.

15 (c) The following shall be deemed sufficient proof of a donor's dona-16 tive intent for purposes of this section:

17 (1) in the case of an anonymous donor or where gametes or embryos have 18 previously been relinquished to a gamete or embryo storage facility, a 19 statement from the gamete or embryo storage facility with custody of the 20 gametes or embryos that the donor does not retain any parental or 21 proprietary interest in the gametes or embryos; or 22 (2) in the case of a donation from a known donor, a record from the 23 gamete or embryo donor acknowledging the donation and confirming that 24 the donor has no parental or proprietary interest in the gametes or 25 embryos. The record shall be signed by the gamete or embryo donor:

26 i. before a notary public, or

27 ii. before two witnesses who are not the intended parents, or 28 iii. before the health care provider, who supervised the donation.

29 (3) In the absence of a record pursuant to paragraph two of this 30 subdivision, notice shall be given to the donor at least twenty days 31 prior to the proceeding by delivery of a copy of the petition and 32 notice. Upon a showing to the court, by affidavit or otherwise, on or 33 before the date of the proceeding or within such further time as the 34 court may allow, that personal service cannot be effected at the donor's 35 last known address with reasonable effort, notice may be given, without 36 prior court order therefore, at least twenty days prior to the proceed-37 ing by registered or certified mail directed to the donor's last known 38 address. Notice by publication shall not be required to be given to a 39 donor entitled to notice pursuant to the provisions of this section.

40 (4) Notwithstanding the above, where sperm is provided under the 41 supervision of a health care provider to someone other than the sperm 42 provider's intimate partner or spouse without a record of the sperm 43 provider's intent to parent, the sperm provider is presumed to be a 44 Donor and notice is not required.

45 (d) Where a petition for parentage demonstrates the consent of the 46 intended parent to assisted reproduction, the donative intent of the 47 gamete or embryo donor and that the pregnancy resulted from the 48 donation, the court shall issue a judgment of parentage:

49 (1) declaring, that upon the birth of the child, the intended parent 50 is the only legal parent of the child; and

51 (2) ordering the intended parent to assume sole responsibility for the 52 maintenance and support of the child immediately upon the birth of the 53 child; and

54 (3) ordering that upon the birth of the child, a copy of the judgment
55 of parentage be served on the (i) department of health or New York city 56 department of mental health and hygiene, or (ii) registrar of births in

1 the hospital where the child is born and directing that the hospital
2 report the parentage of the child to the appropriate department of 3 health in conformity with the court order. If an original birth certifi-4 cate has already issued, the court shall issue an order directing the 5 appropriate department of health to amend the birth certificate in an 6 expedited manner and seal the previously issued birth certificate.

7 § 581-203. Proceeding for judgment of parentage of a child born pursu-8 ant to a gestational carrier arrangement. (a) The proceeding may be 9 commenced at any time after the gestational agreement has been executed 10 by all of the parties. Any party to the gestational agreement not join-11 ing in the petition must be served with notice of the proceeding. Fail-12 ure to respond to the notice shall be considered a default and no 13 further notice shall be required.

14 (b) The petition for a judgment of parentage must be verified and 15 include the following:

16 (1) A statement that the gestational carrier or the intended parent 17 has been a resident of the state for at least ninety days at the time 18 the gestational agreement was executed; and 19 (2) A certification from the attorneys representing the petitioners 20 that the parties are eligible to participate in the gestational carrier 21 arrangement as required by section 581-404 of this article and that the 22 gestational agreement contains the required terms under section 581-405 23 of this article; and

24 (3) A statement that the parties entered into the gestational agree-25 ment knowingly and voluntarily.

26 (c) Where a petition satisfies subdivision (b) of this section, the 27 court shall issue a judgment of parentage, without additional 28 proceedings or documentation:

29 (1) Declaring, that upon the birth of a child born during the term of 30 the gestational agreement, the intended parent is the legal parent of 31 the child; and

32 (2) Declaring, that upon the birth of a child born during the term of 33 the gestational agreement, the gestational carrier, and the gestational 34 carrier's spouse, if any, is not the legal parent of the child; and

35 (3) Ordering the gestational carrier and the gestational carrier's 36 spouse, if any, to transfer the child to the intended parent if this has 37 not already occurred; and

38 (4) Ordering the intended parent to assume sole responsibility for the 39 maintenance and support of the child immediately upon the birth of the 40 child; and

41 (5) Ordering that when the child is born, a copy of the judgment of 42 parentage be served on the (i) department of health or New York city 43 department of mental health and hygiene, or (ii) registrar of births in 44 the hospital where the child is born and directing that the hospital 45 report the parentage of the child to the appropriate department of 46 health in conformity with the court order. If an original birth certifi-47 cate has already issued, the court shall issue an order directing the 48 appropriate department of health to amend the birth certificate in an 49 expedited manner and seal the previously issued birth certificate.

50 (d) In the event the certification required by paragraph two of subdivi-51 sion (b) of this section cannot be made because of a technical or 52 non-substantial deviation from the requirements of sections 581-404 or 53 581-405 of this article; the court may nevertheless enforce the agree-54 ment and issue an order of parentage if the court determines the agree-55 ment is in substantial compliance with the requirements of sections 56 581-404 and 581-405 of this article.

(e) The agreement of the intended parent to pay reasonable compensation to the gestational carrier in excess of reasonable medical and ancillary costs shall not be a bar to the issuance of a judgment of parentage.

§ 581-204. Judgment of parentage for intended parents who are spouses. Notwithstanding or without limitation on presumptions of parentage that apply, a judgment of parentage may be obtained under this part by intended parents who are each other's spouse.

§ 581-205. Jurisdiction. Proceedings pursuant to this article may be instituted in the supreme, family or surrogate's court.

CHILD OF ASSISTED REPRODUCTION

Section 581-301. Scope of article.

581-302. Status of donor.

581-303. Parentage of child of assisted reproduction.

581-304. Consent to assisted reproduction.

581-305. Limitation on spouses' dispute of parentage of child of assisted reproduction.

581-306. Effect of embryo disposition agreement between intended parents which transfers custody and control to one intended parent.

581-307. Effect of death of intended parent.

§ 581-301. Scope of article. This article does not apply to the birth of a child conceived by means of sexual intercourse.

§ 581-302. Status of donor. A donor is not a parent of a child conceived by means of assisted reproduction.

§ 581-303. Parentage of child of assisted reproduction. (a) An individual who provides gametes for assisted reproduction with the intent to be a parent of the child and consents to assisted reproduction with the consent of the gestating parent as provided in section 581-304 of this part, is a parent of the resulting child for all legal purposes.

(b) Upon application by any participant, the court shall issue a judgment of parentage to any participant who is a parent pursuant to this act.

§ 581-304. Consent to assisted reproduction. (a) Where the intended parent who gives birth to a child by means of assisted reproduction is a spouse, the consent of both spouses to the assisted reproduction is presumed and neither spouse may challenge the parentage of the child, except as provided in section 581-305 of this part.

(b) Where the intended parent who gives birth to a child by means of assisted reproduction is not a spouse, the consent to the assisted reproduction must be in a record in such a manner as to indicate the mutual agreement of the intended parents to conceive and parent a child together.

(c) The absence of a record described in subdivision (b) of this section shall not preclude a finding that such consent existed if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that at the time of the assisted reproduction the intended parents agreed to conceive and parent the child together.

§ 581-305. Limitation on spouses' dispute of parentage of child of assisted reproduction. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b) of this section, neither spouse may challenge the presumption of parentage of the child unless:

(1) Within two years after learning of the birth of the child a proceeding is commenced to adjudicate parentage; and

(2) The court finds by clear and convincing evidence that either spouse did not consent for the non-gestating spouse to be a parent of the child.

(b) A proceeding for a judgment of parentage may be maintained at any time if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that:

(1) The spouse did not consent to assisted reproduction by the individual who gave birth; and

(2) The spouse and the individual who gave birth have not cohabited since the spouse knew or had reason to know of the pregnancy; and

(3) The spouse never openly held out the child as his or her own.

(c) The limitation provided in this section applies to a spousal relationship that has been declared invalid after assisted reproduction or artificial insemination.

§ 581-306. Effect of embryo disposition agreement between intended parents which transfers custody and control to one intended parent. (a) An embryo disposition agreement between intended parents with joint custody and control of an embryo shall be binding under the following circumstances:

(1) it is in writing;

(2) each intended parent had the advice of counsel prior to its execution; and

(3) where the intended parents are married, transfer of custody and control occurs only upon divorce.

(b) The intended parent who transfers custody and control of the embryo is not a parent of any child born from the embryo unless the agreement states that he or she consents to be a parent.

(c) If the intended parent transferring custody and control consents to be a parent, he or she may withdraw his or her consent to be a parent upon notice to the embryo storage facility and to the other intended parent prior to transfer of the embryo. If he or she timely withdraws consent to parent he or she is not a parent for any purpose including support obligations but the embryo transfer may still proceed.

(d) An embryo disposition agreement or advance directive that is not in compliance with subdivision (a) of this section may still be found to be enforceable by the court after balancing the respective interests of the parties except that under no circumstances may the intended parent who divested him or herself of custody and control be declared to be a parent for any purpose without his or her consent. The parent awarded custody and control of the embryos shall, in this instance, be declared to be the only parent of the child.

§ 581-307. Effect of death of intended parent. If an individual who consented in a record to be a parent by assisted reproduction dies before the transfer of eggs, sperm, or embryos, the deceased individual is not a parent of the resulting child unless the deceased individual consented in a signed record that if assisted reproduction were to occur after death, the deceased individual would be a parent of the child, provided that the record complies with the estates, powers and trusts law.

(d) A gestational agreement may not limit the right of the gestational carrier to make decisions to safeguard the gestational carrier's health or that of any fetus or embryo the gestational carrier is carrying.

2 spouse:

4 separation or pursuant to a written agreement of separation subscribed 5 by the parties thereto and acknowledged or proved in the form required

23 (2) It shall be executed prior to the embryo transfer; and 24 (3) It shall be executed by a gestational carrier meeting the eligi-25 bility requirements of subdivision (a) of section 581-404 of this part 26 and by the gestational carrier's spouse, unless the gestational carri-27 er's spouse's signature is not required as set forth in this section; 28 and

29 (4) It shall be executed by intended parents meeting the eligibility 30 requirements of subdivision (b) of section 581-404 of this part; and 31 (5) The gestational carrier and the gestational carrier's spouse if 32 applicable and the intended parents shall have been represented by sepa-33 rate, independent counsel in all matters concerning the gestational 34 agreement; and

35 (6) If the gestational agreement provides for the payment of compen-36 sation to the gestational carrier, the compensation shall have been 37 placed in escrow with an independent escrow agent prior to the gesta-38 tional carrier's commencement of any medical procedure other than 39 medical evaluations necessary to determine the gestational carrier's 40 eligibility; and

41 (7) The agreement must include information disclosing how the intended 42 parents will cover the medical expenses of the surrogate and the child.
43 If health care coverage is used to cover the medical expenses, the 44 disclosure shall include a review of the health care policy provisions 45 related to coverage for surrogate pregnancy, including any possible 46 liability of the surrogate, third-party liability liens or other insur-47 ance coverage, and any notice requirements that could affect coverage or 48 liability of the surrogate.

49 (8) The gestational agreement must include the following terms:

50 (i) As to the gestational carrier and the gestational carrier's 51 spouse, if any:

52 (A) the agreement of the gestational carrier to undergo embryo trans-53 fer and attempt to carry and give birth to the child; and 4 (ii) As to the intended parent:

5 (A) the agreement to accept custody of all resulting children imme-6 diately upon birth regardless of number, gender, or mental or physical 7 condition; and

8 (B) the agreement to assume sole responsibility for the support of the 9 child immediately upon the child's birth; and 10 (C) the agreement that the rights and obligations of the intended 11 parent under the gestational agreement are not assignable.

12 § 581-406. Termination of gestational agreement. After the execution 13 of a gestational agreement but before the gestational carrier becomes 14 pregnant by means of assisted reproduction, the gestational carrier, the 15 gestational carrier's spouse, if any, or any intended parent may termi-16 nate the gestational agreement by giving notice of termination in a 17 record to all other parties. Upon proper termination of the gestational 18 agreement the parties are released from all obligations recited in the 19 agreement except that the intended parent remains responsible for all 20 expenses that are reimbursable under the agreement which have been 21 incurred by the gestational carrier through the date of termination.
22 Unless the agreement provides otherwise, the gestational carrier is 23 entitled to keep all payments she has received and obtain all payments

37 parentage pursuant to section 581-203 of this article, either because 38 the gestational agreement does not meet the requirements of this article 39 or there was no gestational agreement, the parentage of a child will be 40 determined based on the best interests of the child taking into account 41 genetics and the intent of the parties. An intended parent's absence of 42 genetic connection to the child is not a sufficient basis to deny that 43 individual a judgment of legal parentage.

44 § 581-409. Dispute as to gestational agreement. (a) Any dispute which 45 is related to a gestational agreement other than disputes as to parent-46 age shall be resolved by the supreme court, which shall determine the 47 respective rights and obligations of the parties. If a gestational 48 agreement does not meet the requirements of this article, except as set 49 forth in subdivision (d) of section 581-203 of part two of this article 50 the agreement is not enforceable.

51 (b) Except as expressly provided in the gestational agreement, the 52 intended parent and the gestational carrier shall be entitled to all 53 remedies available at law or equity in any dispute related to the gesta-54 tional agreement.

55 (c) There shall be no specific performance remedy available for a 56 breach by the gestational carrier of a gestational agreement term that

1 requires the gestational carrier to be impregnated or to terminate the 2 pregnancy or to reduce the number of fetuses or embryos the gestational 3 carrier is carrying.

4 § 581-410. Inspection of records. The proceedings, records, and iden-

10 ditional standards of section seventy-six of the domestic relations 11 law, the court conducting a proceeding under this article has exclusive, 12 continuing jurisdiction of all matters arising out of the gestational 13 agreement until a child born to the gestational carrier during the peri-14 od governed by the agreement attains the age of one hundred eighty days.
