Introduced by M. of A. ENGLEBRIGHT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Aging

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to establishing a real property tax exemption for persons eighty years of age or over

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new
2	section 465 to read as follows:
3	§ 465. Persons eighty years of age or over. 1. (a) Real property owned
4	by one or more persons, each of whom is eighty years of age or over, or
5	real property owned by husband and wife, one of whom is eighty years of
б	age or over, shall be exempt from taxation by any municipal corporation
7	in which located to the extent provided pursuant to paragraph (b) of
8	this subdivision, provided the governing board of such municipality,
9	after public hearing, adopts a local law, ordinance or resolution
10	providing therefor.
11	(b) The exemption provided by this section shall be calculated as
12	follows:
13	(i) for assessment rolls prepared on the basis of taxable status dates
14	occurring during the year two thousand twenty, ten percent of the 15	assessed valuation;
16	(ii) for assessment rolls prepared on the basis of taxable status
17	dates occurring during the year two thousand twenty-one, twenty percent
18	of the assessed valuation;
19	(iii) for assessment rolls prepared on the basis of taxable status
20	dates occurring during the year two thousand twenty-two, thirty percent
21	of the assessed valuation;
22	(iv) for assessment rolls prepared on the basis of taxable status
23	dates occurring during the year two thousand twenty-three, forty percent
24	of the assessed valuation;

(c) Real property may be exempt from taxation pursuant to this subdi-1 2 vision by a municipality in which such property is located only if the 3 governing board of such municipality, after public hearing, adopts a 4 local law, ordinance or resolution providing therefor. 5 Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any local law, б ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to this paragraph may provide, 7 or be amended to provide, that a tenant-stockholder who resides in a 8 dwelling which is subject to the provisions of either article two, four, 9 five or eleven of the private housing finance law and who is eligible for a rent increase exemption pursuant to section four hundred sixty-10 11 seven-c of this title shall not be eliqible for an exemption pursuant to this subdivision and that a tenant-stockholder who resides in a dwelling 12 13 which is subject to the provisions of either article two, four, five or 14 eleven of the private housing finance law and who is not eligible for a 15 rent increase exemption pursuant to section four hundred sixty-seven-c 16 of this title but who meets the requirements for eligibility for an 17 exemption pursuant to this section shall be eligible for such exemption provided that such exemption shall be in an amount determined by multi-18 19 plying the exemption otherwise allowable pursuant to this section by a 20 fraction having a numerator equal to the amount of real property taxes 21 or payments in lieu of taxes that were paid with respect to such dwell-22 ing and a denominator equal to the full amount of real property taxes that would have been owed with respect to such dwelling had it not been 23 24 granted an exemption or abatement of real property taxes pursuant to any 25 provision of law, provided, however, that any reduction in real property 26 taxes received with respect to such dwelling pursuant to this section or 27 section four hundred sixty-seven-c of this title shall not be considered 28 in calculating such numerator. Any such local law, ordinance or resol-29 ution that so provides, or is amended to so provide, shall also provide 30 that a tenant-stockholder who resides in a dwelling which was or contin-31 ues to be subject to a mortgage insured or initially insured by the 32 federal government pursuant to section two hundred thirteen of the 33 National Housing Act, as amended, and who is eligible for both a rent increase exemption pursuant to section four hundred sixty-seven-c of 34 35 this title and an exemption pursuant to this subdivision, may apply for 36 and receive either a rent increase exemption pursuant to section four 37 hundred sixty-seven-c of this title or an exemption pursuant to this 38 subdivision, but not both. 39 5. Every municipal corporation in which such real property is located 40 shall notify, or cause to be notified, each person owning residential real property in such municipal corporation of the provisions of this 41 42 section. The provisions of this subdivision may be met by a notice or 43 legend sent on or with each tax bill to such persons reading "You may be eligible for tax exemptions for persons eighty years of age or over. 44 45 Such persons have until month..... day....., year...., to 46 apply for such exemptions. For information please call or write ," 47 followed by the name, telephone number and/or address of a person or department selected by the municipal corporation to explain the 48 49 provisions of this section. Each cooperative apartment corporation shall notify each tenant-stockholder thereof in residence of such provisions 50 as set forth in this subdivision. Failure to notify, or cause to be 51 notified any person who is in fact, eliqible to receive the exemption 52 53 provided by this section or the failure of such person to receive the 54 same shall not prevent the levy, collection and enforcement of the payment of the taxes on property owned by such person. 55

6. Application for such exemption shall be made by the owner, or all 1 2 of the owners of the property, on forms prescribed by the commission to 3 be furnished by the appropriate assessing authority and shall furnish 4 the information and be executed in the manner required or prescribed in 5 such forms, and shall be filed in such assessor's office on or before б the appropriate taxable status date. Notwithstanding any other provision 7 of law, at the option of the municipal corporation, any person otherwise 8 qualifying under this section shall not be denied the exemption under 9 this section if he becomes eighty years of age after the appropriate 10 taxable status date and on or before December thirty-first of the same 11 year. 7. Any local law or ordinance adopted pursuant to paragraph (a) of 12 13 subdivision one of this section may be amended, or a local law or ordi-14 nance may be adopted to provide, notwithstanding subdivision five of this section, that an application for such exemption may be filed with 15 16 the assessor after the appropriate taxable status date but not later 17 than the last date on which a petition with respect to complaints of assessment may be filed, where failure to file a timely application 18 resulted from: (a) a death of the applicant's spouse, child, parent, 19 20 brother or sister; or (b) an illness of the applicant or of the appli-21 cant's spouse, child, parent, brother or sister, which actually prevents the applicant from filing on a timely basis, as certified by a licensed 22 physician. The assessor shall approve or deny such application as if it 23 had been filed on or before the taxable status date. 24 8. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section or any other 25 26 provision of law, a county with an annual taxable status date of January 27 first or January second and with a population of one million or more, may, at its option and by amendment or adoption of a local law or ordi-28 29 nance, authorize its assessor to accept applications for the exemption 30 from real property taxes authorized pursuant to this section on a date 31 later than such county's statutory deadline date for receiving applications for such exemption. Any application filed later than such statuto-32 33 ry deadline date which is in compliance with such local law or ordinance amended or adopted pursuant to this subdivision and which meets all 34 35 other necessary requirements for granting the exemption authorized by 36 this section shall be deemed to have been timely filed prior to such 37 statutory deadline date, and any individual or individuals for whom such 38 an application has been filed shall be granted such exemption and shall 39 receive such exemption on the assessment rolls prepared for such county on the basis of the taxable status date immediately preceding the date 40 41 such application was filed. 42 9. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section or any other 43 provision of law, in a city having a population of one million or more, 44 applications for the exemption authorized pursuant to this section shall 45 be considered timely filed if they are filed on or before the fifteenth 46 day of March of the appropriate year. 47 10. (a) The exemption granted pursuant to this section shall remain in 48 effect until discontinued in the manner provided in this section. 49 (b) The assessor shall discontinue any exemption granted pursuant to this section if it appears that: (i) the property may not be the primary 50 51 residence of the owner or owners who applied for the exemption, (ii) 52 title to the property has been transferred to a new owner or owners, or 53 (iii) the property otherwise may no longer be eligible for the 54 exemption. (c) Upon determining that an exemption granted pursuant to this 55 56 section should be discontinued, the assessor shall mail a notice so
