2. "Registered pet groomer" means an individual, registered as a pet groomer who bathes, brushes, dries, clips or styles a pet for financial remuneration.

- 3. "Pet groomer" means an individual, working under the supervision of a registered pet groomer at the grooming facility.
- 6 4. "Pet grooming facility" means a business permanently operating in 7 New York state, including mobile facilities, where a pet may be bathed, 8 dried, brushed, clipped or styled, and (i) pet grooming is the estab-9 lishment's predominant source of sales, or (ii) pet grooming services 10 are offered within a retail store. A pet grooming facility shall not 11 include any self-service pet grooming facilities, including but not limited to businesses such as car wash facilities where pet grooming is 12 13 ancillary to the primary business of the facility or businesses that 14 provide customers with pet grooming equipment and/or supplies for 15 customers to use to groom their own personal pets and employees at such 16 self-service pet grooming facilities only provide assistance demonstrat-17 ing how to operate equipment properly and safely. If a self-service pet grooming facility also offers pet grooming services, then such facility 18 19 shall be considered a pet grooming facility and a registered pet groomer 20 would be required to be on premises. For purposes of this section, 21 locations used for temporary events, such as pet shows and exhibitions, are not considered a pet grooming facility. Further, a pet grooming 22 facility shall not include a home-based breeder as defined by paragraph 23 (a) of subdivision four of section four hundred of the agriculture and 24 25 markets law.
- 26 § 540. Standard of care. 1. The primary concern of every person regis-27 tered pursuant to this article, and those working under the supervision of such person, shall be the safety and well-being of the pet in their 28 29 care. No pet shall be left unaccompanied while restrained or unrestrained on a grooming table, in a bathing area or in a dryer. Pets shall 30 31 be cared for according to the minimum standards of subdivisions one, 32 two, three and four of section four hundred one of the agriculture and 33 markets law, and any other sections of the agriculture and markets law 34 relating to the care of pets.
 - 2. Every pet grooming facility where pets are groomed shall display contact information for the secretary of state and a copy of their certificate of registration as required by section five hundred forty-two of this article.
 - § 541. Record keeping. 1. Each pet groomer shall keep and maintain records regarding each animal cared for and the owner thereof. Such records shall include the name, contact number, and address of the owner, the services provided, and the date such services were provided. Further, each pet grooming facility shall request from pet owners proof of annual vaccinations and a record of any known medical issues, conditions or injuries for each pet groomed.
 - 2. Records for each animal shall be maintained for a minimum period of one year from the date of service. During normal business hours, such records shall be made available to persons authorized by law to enforce the provisions of this article.
 - § 542. Certificate of registration. 1. Any person intending to own or operate a pet grooming facility as defined in this article shall hold a certificate of registration issued by the secretary of state as required by this article.
 - 2. The secretary of state, in cooperation and consultation with the department of agriculture and markets, shall establish a training program for applicants interested in obtaining such registration. The objectives of the training shall be to ensure the applicants have sufficient skills to safequard the health and safety of the animal. The 3 training shall be available through an educational course or program developed by the department and/or offered through a groomer certif-4 ication school, organization or program approved by the department. Such educational training programs or courses shall, at a minimum, include basic health, safety, animal first aid, best sanitation prac-7 8 tices and general care and grooming for animals. Such training shall 9 also be available online by the state or an organization approved by the 10 secretary of state.

- 3. The secretary of state shall create and maintain an online roster of registrants. Such record shall include disciplinary action, suspension of registration and revocation.
- 14 4. No individual shall be permitted to register as a pet groomer 15 unless such applicant is at least eighteen years of age.
 - 5. (a) If the applicant provides the necessary business information and has completed the training and received a certificate, then the secretary of state shall issue such applicant a certificate of registration as a registered pet groomer upon payment of a forty dollar annual registration fee. At minimum, each registrant shall provide:
 - (i) the name of the pet grooming facility;
- 22 (ii) the principal address, contact number, and names of all the 23 owners of the business;
 - (iii) evidence of appropriate training, such as: (1) having been in the field of pet grooming either as an apprentice program or from a school or institution approved by the department and that provides an organization instruction in pet grooming; or (2) has successfully completed a grooming certification course through a professional pet groomers and stylists alliance compliant membership organization in good standing at the time of completion and such program is approved by the department; and
- 32 (iv) any other information that the department deems necessary and
 33 appropriate.
- 34 (b) Individuals currently engaged in pet grooming on the effective
 35 date of this article may apply for a certificate of registration by 36 providing:
- (i) payment of the same registration fee as required in paragraph (a)
 of this subdivision;
 - (ii) the name of the pet grooming facility;
- 40 (iii) the principal address, contact number, and names of all the
 41 owners of the business;
- 42 (iv) evidence of completion of a training program approved by the 43 department; and
- 44 (v) any other information that the department deems necessary and 45 appropriate.
- 46 (c) The department shall provide each pet grooming facility which has 47 complied with the registration requirements as provided for in this 48 article with a certificate of registration and an identification card or 49 certificate, which shall have an identification number and expiration 50 date.
- 6. A registered pet groomer may employ individuals, under his or her direct supervision. A registered pet groomer must be on premises at all times that a pet is being actively groomed. The grooming facility shall display in a conspicuous place in such facility the certificate of registration.

§ 543. Certificate of registration refusal, suspension or revocation.

1. The secretary of state may decline to grant or renew, or may suspend or revoke a pet groomer's certificate of registration for a false statement as to a material matter in the application for such certificate of registration, for persistent improper record keeping or business practices, or for a violation of any provision of this law or any law relating to the humane treatment of animals.

- 2. The secretary of state shall conduct a hearing before revoking or suspending any certificate of registration or before issuing any order directing the cessation of unauthorized activities. At least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing, the holder of such certificate of registration shall be notified in writing, or the person alleged to have engaged in unauthorized activities, of any charges made and shall afford such person an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel in reference hereto. The hearing on such charges shall be at such time and place as the department shall prescribe. Any pet grooming facility or pet groomer whose certificate of registration is revoked, denied, or suspended may reapply after re-taking a training course as approved by the department as well as demonstrate to the secretary of state their ability to provide for the humane and appropriate care and safety of pets in their care.
- 3. Any action of the secretary of state pursuant to this section shall be subject to judicial review in a proceeding pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.
- § 544. Inspections. The secretary of state or his or her authorized agents shall be authorized to jointly coordinate with the commissioner of agriculture and markets or his or her authorized agents to inspect pet grooming facilities to ensure compliance with the provisions of this article or if a complaint warrants such inspection. Nothing herein shall limit the ability of the department of agriculture and markets to enforce the provisions of the agriculture and markets law as applicable to such facility. Authority to conduct such inspections to enforce the provisions of this article and report thereon may be delegated by the secretary of state to a municipality.
- § 545. Violations. 1. In addition to denial, revocation, suspension or refusal of renewal of a certificate of registration, as otherwise provided in this article, any violation of a provision of this article is a civil offense, for which a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each violation may be imposed, provided however for violations not affecting the health and safety of a person or a pet at the pet grooming facility, the secretary of state may allow for a cure period or other opportunity for ameliorative action, the successful completion of which will prevent the imposition of penalties on the party or parties subject to enforcement. The secretary of state shall implement an appeals process for such registered pet groomer who wishes to contest the imposition of a penalty related to a civil offense.
- 2. The provisions of this article may be concurrently enforced by the secretary of state and by any municipality to which the secretary of state has delegated authority. Moneys collected thereunder shall be retained by the local municipality.
- 3. Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or restrict any municipality with a population of one million or more from enacting or enforcing a local law, rule, regulation or ordinance governing pet groomers, provided however, that any such local law, rule, regulation,

1 or ordinance shall be no less stringent than the applicable provisions 2 of this article.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 4 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-5 ment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implemen-6 tation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 7 completed on or before such effective date.
