WALLACE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee -- again reported from said committee with amendments, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to requiring that a homeowner be provided a cost estimate for installation of a fire sprinkler system

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 759-b to read as follows:

§ 759-b. Fire sprinkler system estimate. For all private, one-family and two-family home construction contracted on or after the effective date of this section, the home construction estimate must include a cost estimate for the installation of a fire sprinkler system. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the home buyer to purchase such a system.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the first of September next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
