in writing prior to entering into any contract with such potential client that ensures the potential client is aware that the fiduciary 3 standard does not apply to the non-fiduciary investment advisor. Such required disclosure shall state the following: "A non-fiduciary investment advisor is not required by law to act solely in the client's best interest. Federal law, state law, and standards of professional conduct do not apply a fiduciary standard to my investment recommendations, 7 although other standards may apply. You may ask any advisor to explain 9 to you the standards that apply to their investment recommendations." The non-fiduciary investment advisor shall provide a copy of the disclo-10 11 sure form to their client.

- 2. A written client agreement must include a separately signed acknowledgement by the client that this plain language disclosure was 14 provided. The non-fiduciary investment advisor shall maintain the signed acknowledgement alongside the written client agreement.
- 16 3. Investment brochures, advertising materials, or other related 17 printed information provided to potential clients must also include such disclosure set forth in a clear and conspicuous manner. 18
  - 4. Investment advisors that are subject to a fiduciary standard under state or federal law or regulation or applicable standards of professional conduct with respect to certain types of investment advice but not others, must disclose in plain language in writing the extent to which the fiduciary standard applies in the context of each client relationship.
- 25 § 6-103. Enforcement. Whenever the attorney general finds that there 26 has been a violation of this article, he or she may proceed as provided 27 in subdivision twelve of section sixty-three of the executive law. Civil penalties up to five thousand dollars may be imposed for each violation 28 of this article. 29
- 30 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-31 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
