The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 399-c of the general business law, as added by 2 chapter 946 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 399-c. Mandatory arbitration clauses in certain consumer contracts

9 intended use or benefit of which is intended for the personal, family or 10 household purposes of such consumer.

11 c. The term "mandatory arbitration clause" shall mean a term or 12 provision contained in a written contract for the sale or purchase of 13 consumer goods or employment, which requires the parties to such 14 contract to submit any controversy thereafter arising under such 15 contract to arbitration prior to the commencement of any legal action to 16 enforce the provisions of such contract and which also further provides 17 language to the effect that the decision of the arbitrator or panel of 18 arbitrators in its application to the consumer party shall be final and 19 not subject to court review.

20 d. The term "arbitration" shall mean the use of a decision making

1 e. The term "representative" shall mean an employee or agent of a 2 company who is responsible for administering a contract for consumer
3 goods, services, or employment to a consumer.

4 2. a. Prohibition. No written contract for the sale or purchase of 5 consumer goods, entered into on or after the effective date of this 6 section, to which a consumer is a party, shall contain a mandatory arbi-
7 tration clause. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prohibit 8 a non-consumer party from incorporating a provision within such contract
9 that such non-consumer party agrees that the decision of the arbitrator 10 or panel of arbitrators shall be final in its application to such non-11 consumer party and not subject to court review.

12 b. Mandatory arbitration clause null and void. The provisions of a 13 mandatory arbitration clause shall be null and void. The inclusion of 14 such clause in a written contract for the sale or purchase of consumer 15 goods shall not serve to impair the enforceability of any other 16 provision of such contract.

17 3. In the event that a consumer is required to sign a contract for 18 consumer goods, services, or employment containing a mandatory arbi-
19 tration clause the representative shall disclose the mandatory arbi-
20 tration clause to the consumer and clearly explain, in plain language, 21 what an arbitration clause is. If the consumer is agreeing to a contract
22 by any form of contact that is not personal, including but not limited 23 to, electronically, using the internet or through the mail, such 24 contract shall have, at the end of such contract, information informing 25 the consumer that they are signing a mandatory arbitration clause and an 26 internet link to a valid and plain written explanation of what an arbi-27 tration clause is.

28 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 29 it shall have become a law.
