Introduced by M. of A. GANTT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to the retention of motor vehicle records

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (i) of paragraph (i) of subdivision 1 of 2 section 201 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by section 2 of 3 part E of chapter 60 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

4 (i) any accident reports filed with the commissioner, conviction
5 certificates, police reports, complaints, satisfied judgment records, 6 closed suspension and revocation orders, hearing records, other than 7 audio tape recordings of hearings, and significant correspondence relat-
8 ing to any of the same~~[-, and any other record on file]~~ after remaining 9 on file for four years except that if the commissioner shall receive, 10 during the last year of such period of four years, written notice to 11 retain one or more of such papers or documents, the same shall be 12 retained for another four years in addition to said period of four 13 years. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to certificates 14 of conviction filed with respect to convictions which affect sentencing 15 or administrative action required by law beyond such four year period.
16 Such certificates may be destroyed after they have no legal effect on 17 sentencing or administrative action;

18 § 2. Subdivision 1 of section 201 of the vehicle and traffic law is 19 amended by adding a new paragraph (1) to read as follows:

20 (1) for any other record not specified in this section, the commis-
21 sioner or his or her designee shall establish a retention schedule in 22 consultation with the state archives pursuant to section 57.05 of the 23 arts and cultural affairs law.

24 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 25 have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
