AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing a credit for developing a college to work program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 53 to read as follows:

3 53. Credit for college to work program. (a) Allowance of credit. A
4 taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as hereinafter
5 provided, against the tax imposed by this article, based upon its 6 payment of tuition to an institution of higher education on behalf of an 7 individual in exchange for the individual agreeing to work for the 8 taxpayer for a number of years, as set forth in a written agreement
9 between the taxpayer and the individual.

10 (b) Tuition. For the purposes of this credit, the term "tuition" shall 11 mean the tuition and fees paid for the enrollment and attendance of an
12 individual at an institution of higher education, as well as monies paid
13 for textbooks in connection with attendance at an institution of higher
14 education. Provided, however, any amounts which have been paid for or 15 reimbursed by any other scholarships or financial aid, or tuition
16 required for enrollment or attendance in a course of study leading to 17 the granting of a post baccalaureate or other graduate degree, shall be 18 excluded from the definition of "tuition".

19 (c) Institution of higher education. For the purposes of this credit, 20 the term "institution of higher education" shall mean any institution of 21 higher education, recognized and approved by the regents, or any succes-
22 sor organization, of the university of the state of New York or accred-
23 ited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency or association
24 accepted as such by the regents, or any successor organization, of the

1 university of the state of New York, which provides a course of study
2 leading to the granting of a post-secondary degree, certificate or
3 diploma.

4 (d) Qualified individual. For purposes of this credit, the term "qual-
5 ified individual" shall mean any individual who is not a spouse, child
6 or dependent of the taxpayer or any individual who is not a spouse,
7 child or dependent of any officer or employee of the taxpayer.

8 (e) Written agreement. For purposes of this credit, the term "written 9 agreement" shall mean a document signed and dated by both the taxpayer
10 and the qualified individual which contains provisions including but not
11 limited to the minimum salary which the taxpayer will pay to the quali-
12 fied individual upon completion of the individual's degree; the required
13 duration of employment upon completion of the individual's degree; and 14 the parties' respective responsibilities in the event that the taxpayer
15 ceases operations or later decides not to offer employment to the indi-
16 vidual upon completion of his/her degree or in the event that the quali-
17 fied individual fails to complete the degree or to work for the taxpayer
18 for the agreed upon term.

19 (f) Amount of credit. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, 20 a taxpayer which provides for the payment of an individual's tuition 21 under the college to work program established by this subdivision, shall 22 be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this article, to the 23 extent of twenty-five percent of monies paid for each individual's 24 tuition, but such credit shall not exceed five thousand dollars for one 25 year for each such qualified individual.

26 (g) Carryover. The credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxa-27 ble year shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the 28 amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section two 29 hundred ten of this article. Provided, however, if the amount of credit 30 allowable under this subdivision for any taxable year reduces the tax to 31 such amount, any amount of credit not deductible in such taxable year
32 may be carried over to the following year or years, and may be deducted 33 from the taxpayer's tax for such year or years.

34 § 2. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 35 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xliv) to read as 36 follows:

37 (xliv) College to work program	Amount of credit under
38 credit under subsection (s-1)	subdivision fifty-three
39	of section two hundred ten-B

40 § 3. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection
41 (s-1) to read as follows:

42 (s-1) Credit for college to work program. (1) Allowance of credit. A
43 taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as hereinafter
44 provided, against the tax imposed by this article, based upon such 45 taxpayer's payment of tuition to an institution of higher education on 46 behalf of an individual in exchange for the individual agreeing to work
47 for the taxpayer for a number of years, as set forth in a written agree-48 ment between the taxpayer and the individual.

49 (2) Tuition. For the purposes of this credit, the term "tuition" shall 50 mean the tuition and fees paid for the enrollment and attendance of an
51 individual at an institution of higher education, as well as monies paid
52 for textbooks in connection with attendance at an institution of higher
53 education. Provided, however, any amounts which have been paid for or 54 reimbursed by any other scholarships or financial aid, or tuition

1 required for enrollment or attendance in a course of study leading to
2 the granting of a post baccalaureate or other graduate degree, shall be
3 excluded from the definition of "tuition".

4 (3) Institution of higher education. For the purposes of this credit, 5 the term "institution of higher education" shall mean any institution of 6 higher education, recognized and approved by the regents, or any succe-
7 sor organization, of the university of the state of New York or accred-
8 ited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency or association
9 accepted as such by the regents, or any successor organization, of the 10 university of the state of New York, which provides a course of study
11 leading to the granting of a post-secondary degree, certificate or 12 diploma.

13 (4) Qualified individual. For purposes of this credit, the term "qual-14 ified individual" shall mean any individual who is not a spouse, child
15 or dependent of the taxpayer or any individual who is not a spouse,
16 child or dependent of any officer or employee of the taxpayer.

17 (5) Written agreement. For purposes of this credit, the term "written 18 agreement" shall mean a document signed and dated by both the taxpayer
19 and the qualified individual which contains provisions including but not
20 limited to the minimum salary which the taxpayer will pay to the quali-
21 fied individual upon completion of the individual's degree; the required
22 duration of employment upon completion of the individual's degree; and
23 the parties' respective responsibilities in the event that the taxpayer
24 ceases operations or later decides not to offer employment to the indi-
25 vidual upon completion of his/her degree or in the event that the quali-
26 fied individual fails to complete the degree or to work for the taxpayer
27 for the agreed upon term.

28 (6) Amount of credit. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, 29 a taxpayer who provides for the payment of an individual's tuition under 30 the college to work program established by this subsection, shall be 31 allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this article, to the extent 32 of twenty-five percent of monies paid for each individual's tuition, but 33 such credit shall not exceed five thousand dollars for one year for each 34 such qualified individual.

35 (7) Carryover. If the amount of credit allowable under this subsection 36 for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax amount, any amount 37 of the excess may be carried over to the following year or years, and 38 may be deducted from the taxpayer's tax for such year or years.

39 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to all 40 taxable years commencing after January 1, 2018.
