- (c) provide the expectant mother with information concerning pre-term labor and the potential health effects of pre-term labor and premature birth delivery on the mother and on her fetus as required by section twenty-eight hundred three-j of this chapter.
- 2. As used in this section, "general hospital" means a general hospital as defined in section twenty-eight hundred one of this chapter.
- § 3. Subdivisions 1 and 1-a of section 2803-j of the public health w, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 66 of the laws of 2020 and subdivision 1-a as added by chapter 56 of the laws of 1996, are amended and a new subdivision 1-f is added to read as follows:
- 1. The commissioner shall require that every hospital and birth center shall prepare in printed or photocopied form and distribute at the time of pre-booking directly to each prospective maternity patient and, upon 14 request, to the general public an informational leaflet. Such leaflet shall also be distributed to any expectant mother who presents at the 16 hospital during pregnancy. Such leaflet shall be designed by the commissioner and shall contain brief definitions of maternity related procedures and practices as specified in subdivision two of this section and such other material as deemed appropriate by the commissioner. Hospitals 20 and birth centers may also elect to distribute additional explanatory material along with the maternity patients informational leaflet. The commissioner shall make the information contained in the leaflet available on the department's website.
 - 1-a. The informational leaflet shall also include:
 - (a) an explanation of the special provisions relating to maternity care and coverage under the insurance law and section [two thousand eight] twenty-eight hundred three-n of this [ehapter] article, suggest that expectant parents check their insurance policies for the details of their maternity coverage; and
- (b) a statement that the medical assistance program provides coverage 31 for all income-eligible pregnant women and children residing in the 32 state regardless of immigration status.
- 1-f. The informational leaflet shall also include information relating to pre-term labor and premature birth, including but not limited to 34 definitions and information on the risks that pre-term labor and premature birth pose to the expectant mother and fetus.
- 37 § 4. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 38 have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or 39 repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed 41 on or before such date.
