remaining original appointees of the speaker of the assembly and one original appointee of the minority leader of the assembly;

- (c) Effective January first, two thousand twenty-three: The two remaining original appointees of the governor, the remaining original appointee of the temporary president of the senate, the remaining original appointee of the speaker of the assembly, the remaining original appointee of the minority leader of the senate and the remaining original appointee of the minority leader of the assembly;
- 9 (d) Replacements or reappointments thereafter shall be made at the
 10 expiration of the term of each member, by the appointing official who
 11 originally appointed such member; and
- 12 (e) Vacancies shall be filled by appointment in like manner for unex-
 13 pired terms.
- 2. The committee shall evaluate the safety and efficacy of dietary 15 supplements and its duties shall include, but not be limited to, the 16 following:
- 17 (a) establish a system of reporting adverse events associated with
 18 dietary supplements and support voluntary reporting by consumers, health
 19 practitioners and others;
 - (b) assess available data and make specific recommendations to the commissioner regarding banning the sale of certain dietary supplements the committee deems harmful; and
 - (c) establish a public health education campaign on dietary supplements, with variations specifically directed to target different groups.
 - 3. The advisory council shall meet at least three times a year, at the request of the chairperson.
 - 4. The members of the council shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.
 - 5. The commissioner is hereby authorized to ban the sale of any dietary supplement sold or offered for sale in this state upon recommendation by the committee. Any such ban may be limited in its scope to ban the sale of any such supplement to minors only.
- 6. For purposes of this section, the term "dietary supplement" means 34 35 (a) a product (other than tobacco) that is intended to supplement the diet and that bears or contains one or more of the following dietary 36 ingredients: a vitamin, a mineral, an herb or other botanical, an amino 37 acid, a dietary substance for the use by a person to supplement the diet 38 by increasing the total daily intake, or a concentrate, metabolite, 39 constituent, extract, or combinations of these ingredients; (b) intended 40 41 for ingestion in pill, capsule, tablet, or liquid form; and (c) labeled 42 as a "dietary supplement" pursuant to the federal Dietary Supplement 43 Health and Education Act, 21 U.S.C. 321, as amended.
- § 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 2020. The appointments required to be made pursuant to subdivision 1 of section 25 of the public health law, as added by section one of this act, shall be made on or before such effective date.
