In the event that a new evaluation system has not been adopted in accordance with the recommendations of the committee of experts as set forth in subdivision sixteen of this section by September first, two thousand twenty-three, the date for compliance with the provisions of subpart E of part EE of chapter fifty-six of the laws of two thousand fifteen, shall be suspended until such time that a new evaluation system is enacted.

§ 2. Section 3012-d of the education law is amended by adding a new subdivision 16 to read as follows:

16. a. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph a of subdivision four and subdivision five of this section, or of any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, until the two thousand twenty-three--two thousand twenty-four school year, or until such time that a new evaluation system has been adopted in accordance with the provisions of subdivision eleven of this section, whichever is later, school districts and boards of cooperative educational services that have approved annual professional performance review plans pursuant to this section shall locally determine whether to utilize the student performance category as part of its annual professional performance review evaluation system or whether to base evaluations of classroom teachers and building principals solely upon the observation/school visit category ratings.

b. During the transition period, any student performance category score and rating that is based upon grades three through eight English language arts and mathematics state assessments and/or state-provided growth scores on regents examinations shall be deemed advisory only. The transition scores and ratings shall be used for the purposes of employment decisions set forth in subdivision one of this section and to determine whether a teacher or principal improvement plan is required. Transition scores and ratings shall be calculated based upon either solely the observation/school visit category, or with an alternate SLO to replace such impermissible assessment measures at the sole option of each school district or board of cooperative educational services, as determined locally. The board of regents shall amend section 30-3.17 of its rules in accordance with the terms contained herein.

c. During the transition period, school districts and boards of cooperative educational services shall choose whether to continue to implement their approved annual professional performance review plans pursuant to section three thousand twelve-c of this article or whether to submit a compliant annual professional performance review plan pursuant to this section and implement such plan upon its approval.

d. During this transition period when the state completes its transition to higher learning standards and aligns its assessments to such standards, a committee of experts shall be formed to propose a new evaluation system for classroom teachers and building principals which shall ultimately amend this section in accordance with the committee's recommendations, subject to legislative adoption of the same, after which the board of regents shall also amend its rules in accordance with the terms thereof. The committee shall be comprised of experts in the field of education selected by the regents. Should the committee members be selected and accept service on a voluntary basis, then there shall be no remuneration for such service, provided that if volunteers cannot be found, the committee members shall be remunerated in accordance with legislative appropriations that shall be made to fairly compensate such members.

e. The committee of experts shall develop a research-based evaluation model that is grounded in student learning and teacher/principal effec-

1 tiveness research. The committee shall recommend an array of permissible
2 assessments for use within this new annual professional performance
3 review system. The committee shall further recommend how to measure
4 growth in a meaningful way that fairly and accurately captures teacher 5 or principal contribution to the student learning process over an appro-6 priate interval of time. The committee shall carefully examine all 7 provisions of the current evaluation system, including current weights
8 attributable to various measures, to recommend what components thereof 9 should be continued and what should be discarded. The committee shall 10 provide a report of its recommendations by no later than September 11 first, two thousand twenty-three.

12 § 3. Section 3012-c of the education law is amended by adding a new 13 subdivision 11 to read as follows:

14 11. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rule, or regulation to 15 the contrary, for the two thousand eighteen--two thousand nineteen 16 through two thousand twenty-two--two thousand twenty-three school years, 17 or until such time that a new evaluation system has been adopted in 18 accordance with the provisions of subdivision sixteen of section three 19 thousand twelve-d of this article, whichever is later, school districts 20 and boards of cooperative educational services continuing to implement 21 their annual professional performance review plans pursuant to this 22 section shall provide transition scores and ratings that exclude any 23 student performance results based upon grades three through eight 24 English language arts and mathematics state assessments and/or state-25 provided growth scores on regents examinations. Such transition scores 26 shall be a significant factor for employment decisions as set forth in 27 subdivision one of this section and to determine whether a teacher or 28 principal improvement plan shall be required pursuant to the provisions 29 of subdivision four of this section. The transition scores shall be 30 calculated in accordance with section 30-2.14 of the rules of the board 31 of regents, which shall be extended to remain effective during the tran-
32 sition period referenced hereinabove. The board of regents shall conform 33 section 30-2.14 to the provisions contained herein.

34 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
