- (d) The commission shall begin to act 45 days after this act shall have become a law. A quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the commission entitled to vote on the matter under consideration. Approval of any matter shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members voting thereon.
- (e) The members of the commission shall adopt by-laws for the management and regulation of its affairs.
- § 2. Appointments to commission. The legislative leaders, the governor, the mayor of the City of New York and the chancellor of the city school district of the City of New York shall submit their appointments to the board of regents, and the board of regents shall make appointments, no later than 45 days after this act becomes a law. If any such appointment is not made by such date, the person or board responsible for making the appointment pursuant to subdivision (b) of section one of this act may make the appointment after that date, but the vacant appointment shall not count for calculation of a quorum until it is filled. Vacancies in the commission shall be filled in the same manner as the member whose vacancy is being filled was appointed.
- 3. Commission staff and agency liaison. (a) The commissioner of education shall designate such employees of the department of education are reasonably necessary to provide support services to the commission. The commissioner of education shall appoint one or more representatives of the department of education to serve as liaison between such department and the commission.
- (b) The chancellor of the city school district of the City of New York shall designate such employees of the city school district of the City of New York as are reasonably necessary to provide support services to the commission. The chancellor of the city school district of the City of New York shall appoint one or more representatives of the office of the chancellor of the city school district of the City of New York to serve as liaison between such office and the commission.
- (c) All state agencies, public authorities, public benefit corporations and the city school district of the City of New York shall provide such assistance as may be reasonably requested by the chair of the commission.
  - (d) The commission, acting by the chair of the commission, may employ additional staff and consultants, who shall be paid from amounts available to the commission for that purpose.
- § 4. Factors and information for consideration. The chancellor of the city school district of the City of New York shall submit to the commission, no later than ninety days after this act becomes a law, a list of all diversity initiatives currently used by the specialized senior high schools. The chancellor may submit additional relevant factors to be considered in the deliberations of the commission. The commission may also adopt additional factors to be considered in its deliberations.
- Deliberations of commission. The deliberations, meetings and other proceedings of the commission and any committee thereof shall be governed by article 7 of the public officers law. Any one or more members of a committee may participate in a meeting of such committee by 50 means of a conference telephone, conference video or similar communi-51 cations equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to 52 hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting. At any meetings of the 54 commission conducted by means of a conference telephone, conference video or similar communications equipment, other than executive 55 sessions, the public shall be given an opportunity to listen. If a meeting other than an executive session is to be conducted by means of a conference telephone, conference video or similar communications equipment, the public notice for the meeting shall inform the public that such equipment will be used, and identify the means by which the public may listen to such meeting.

- 6 § 6. Commission recommendations. (a) The commission, upon consider-7 ation of demographic, geographic, educational and fiscal indicators shall develop recommendations for improving diversity in the City of New 9 York's specialized senior high schools. Such recommendations shall 10 include, but not be limited to, changes in the schools' admission proc-11 esses. In carrying out its functions, the commission shall collaborate with the city school district of the City of New York insofar as practi-12 13 cable to foster discussions among, and conduct formal public hearings 14 with requisite public notice to solicit input and recommendations from 15 stakeholder interests including but not limited to school district 16 administrators, teachers, school board members, parents, students, non-17 pedagogical school support personnel, representatives from post-secondary institutions and other pertinent groups and individuals. The commission shall formally solicit recommendations from school district 18 19 20 administrators, teachers, school board members, parents, students, non-21 pedagogical school support personnel, representatives from post-secon-22 dary institutions and other interested parties.
  - (b) The commission shall make recommendations relating to each specialized senior high school.
  - (c) On or before July 1, 2020, the commission shall transmit to the governor, the legislature, the mayor of the City of New York and the chancellor of the city school district of the City of New York a report containing its recommendations. Upon the transmission of the report to the governor and the legislature the commission shall be dissolved.
- 30 § 7. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivi-31 sion, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of 32 competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, 33 impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section 34 35 or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judg-36 ment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of 37 the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such 38 invalid provisions had not been included herein.
- $\S$  8. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be deemed repealed June 30, 2021.
