CROUCH, ENGLEBRIGHT, GALEF, M. L. MILLER, PALMESANO, RODRIGUEZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes
- AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing the crime of non-consensual dissemination of sexually explicit images

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding two new sections 250.70
2 and 250.75 to read as follows:

3 § 250.70 Non-consensual dissemination of sexually explicit images.

4 A person is quilty of non-consensual dissemination of sexually explic-5 it images when he or she knowingly and without consent of the depicted б person disseminates a photograph, film, videotape, recording, or any 7 other reproduction of the image of such depicted person whose intimate parts are exposed or who is engaged in an act of sexual contact, when a 8 reasonable person would have known that the person depicted would not 9 10 have consented to such dissemination, and under circumstances in which the depicted person has a reasonable expectation of privacy. A person 11 12 who has consented to the capture or possession of an image within the 13 context of a private or confidential relationship retains a reasonable 14 expectation of privacy with regard to dissemination beyond that 15 relationship.

- 16 1. For the purposes of this section:
- 17 (a) "Intimate parts" means the naked genitals, pubic area, anus, or 18 female post-pubescent nipple of the person.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1	(b) "Sexual contact" means but is not limited to, masturbation, geni-
2	tal, anal, or oral sex, sexual penetration with objects, or the transfer
3	or transmission of semen upon any part of the depicted person's body.
4	2. This section shall not apply to:
5	(a) lawful and common practices of law enforcement, criminal report-
б	ing, or legal proceedings, or disseminations made in the reporting of
7	unlawful activity;
8	(b) situations involving voluntary exposure in public or commercial
9	settings, or disseminations made for a legitimate public purpose; or
10	(c) providers of an interactive computer service, as defined in 47
11	U.S.C. § 230(f), for images provided by another person.
12	Non-consensual dissemination of sexually explicit images is a class A
13	misdemeanor.
14	§ 250.75 Civil cause of action for non-consensual dissemination of sexu-
15	ally explicit images.
16	1. A civil cause of action lies against a person who disseminates,
17	threatens to disseminate an image of another person identifiable from
18	the image itself or information displayed in connection with the image
19	and whose intimate parts are exposed or is engaged in sexual conduct
20	without that other person's consent, if the actor:
21	(a) obtained the image or images under circumstances in which a
22	reasonable person would know or understand that the image was to remain
23	private, including but not limited to images shared within the context
24	of a confidential relationship that were then disseminated beyond such
25	relationship; or
26	(b) knowingly obtained the image or images under false pretenses or
27	without authorization or by exceeding authorized access to property,
28	accounts, messages, files, devices, or resources.
