AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to disputes between a surrogate and a hospital or individual health care provider

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 3 of section 2994-f of the public health law, 2 as amended by chapter 430 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as 3 follows:

- 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section or subdivision one 5 of section twenty-nine hundred ninety-four-q of this article, if a surrogate directs the provision of life-sustaining treatment, the denial of which in reasonable medical judgment would be likely to result in the death of the patient, a hospital or individual health care provider that does not wish to provide such treatment shall nonetheless comply with the surrogate's decision pending either transfer of the patient to a 10 11 willing hospital or individual health care provider, or judicial review 12 in accordance with section twenty-nine hundred ninety-four-r of this 13 article. This requirement shall not apply when the hospital or individ-14 ual health care provider is carrying out a patient's decision made 15 pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision three of 16 section twenty-nine hundred ninety-four-d of this article; provided that 17 the surrogate in such instance retains the right to request ethics 18 committee review of the case pursuant to section twenty-nine hundred 19 ninety-four-m of this article, or judicial review in accordance with 20 section twenty-nine hundred ninety-four-r of this article.
- 21 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [_] is old law to be omitted.
