2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 29, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. CYMBROWITZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse

AN ACT to amend the mental hygiene law and the state finance law, in relation to the reinvestment of funds into community-based services for persons suffering from chemical dependence

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Legislative intent and findings. The legislature finds that declines in the state prison inmate census, due to the utilization of alternatives to incarceration and changes in the sentencing laws for persons convicted of drug offenses, create concomitant demand and strain on community-based chemical dependence treatment services.
 The legislature also finds that as state expenditures for incarcerated individuals are reduced due to the aforementioned interventions, it is

Individuals are reduced due to the aforementioned interventions, it is necessary and appropriate to establish a dedicated fund, comprised of those savings, which will be reinvested into the development and expansion of community-based chemical dependence treatment and prevention programs.

12 The legislature further finds that as it is well established that 13 chemical dependence prevention and treatment is the most effective 14 response to chemical abuse and addiction and the resulting criminal 15 offenses, the availability of effective prevention and treatment 16 programs should be a prominent component of the state's response.

17 § 2. Section 1.03 of the mental hygiene law is amended by adding a new 18 subdivision 59 to read as follows:

19 59. "Community chemical dependence reinvestment services" shall 20 include chemical dependence services as defined in subdivision fifty- 21 five of this section.

22 § 3. The mental hygiene law is amended by adding a new section 22.12 23 to read as follows:

24 § 22.12 Community reinvestment program.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 (a) The commissioner of the office of alcoholism and substance abuse services shall plan, promote, establish, develop, coordinate, evaluate, 2 3 and conduct programs and services of prevention, diagnosis, examination, 4 care, treatment, rehabilitation, education and vocational training, and 5 research for the benefit of individuals who suffer from and/or are at б risk for chemical dependence. Such programs shall be licensed or approved by the office of alcoholism and substance abuse services and 7 8 shall include but not be limited to inpatient, residential, half-way 9 house, outpatient, methadone maintenance treatment, emergency, rehabilitative, educational and vocational and other appropriate treatment, 10 11 prevention and support services. (b) All moneys received or accepted pursuant to this section shall be 12 13 deposited into the chemical dependence reinvestment fund established 14 pursuant to section ninety-five-j of the state finance law. (c) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, in approving 15 16 funds pursuant to section ninety-five-j of the state finance law, the 17 commissioner of the office of alcoholism and substance abuse services shall consider the extent to which local governmental units have main-18 19 tained local contributions for expenditures in any local fiscal year for 20 local or unified services, as applicable, provided to persons diagnosed 21 with chemical dependence and made pursuant to this article, at a level equal to or greater than the amount expended that fiscal year. Such 22 commissioner shall be authorized to reduce payments made to local 23 governmental units which have received grants pursuant to this section, 24 in the following fiscal year for failure to maintain expenditures. Funds 25 26 annually appropriated by the legislature for community chemical depend-27 ence reinvestment services are intended to pay for the development, expansion, and operation of community chemical dependence services. 28 29 Annual community chemical dependence reinvestment funds shall not be 30 used to supplant or replace community chemical dependence costs of any 31 provider that were previously paid from the prior year's office of alco-32 holism and substance abuse services general fund appropriations for the 33 identical purpose. (d) There is hereby established the state interagency council on chem-34 35 ical dependence reinvestment fund utilization. This council shall develop and implement a schedule for studying chemical dependence prevention 36 37 and treatment programs, focusing on the availability of such programs 38 and whether these programs adequately meet the needs of those inmates released from department of corrections facilities. Further, this coun-39 cil shall recommend any needed expansions to chemical dependence treat-40 ment programs. By January first of the year following implementation of 41 42 this section, this council shall report its finding to the governor, the 43 temporary president of the senate, and the speaker of the assembly. Such 44 council shall operate independently and shall consist of a chairperson, 45 chosen by the council members, and the commissioners of the office of 46 alcoholism and substance abuse services, the office of court administration, the division of criminal justice services, the department of 47 corrections and community supervision, and the office of children and 48 family services. The council shall also consist of nine representatives 49 selected from the following three communities as follows: three repre-50 51 sentatives from the service provider community; three representatives from the consumer community; and three representatives who shall be 52 53 family members of consumers. One representative from each of these three 54 communities shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate, the governor, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the 55 56 assembly and the minority leader of the senate.
