AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to professional certification of doulas

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section 2 2509 to read as follows:
 - § 2509. Certified doulas. 1. Definitions. As used in this section:
- 4 (a) "Certified doula" means an individual certified under this section
 5 who provides certified doula services.
- 6 (b) "Certified doula services" means continuous emotional and physical 7 support provided by a certified doula throughout labor and birth, and 8 intermittently during the prenatal and postpartum periods.
- 9 2. Use of title. Only a person certified under this section shall be 10 authorized to use the title "certified doula".
- 3. Certificate. The commissioner shall issue a certificate as a certified doula to an individual who applies for certification and who qualifies under subdivision four of this section.
- 4. Requirements for a professional certification. To be certified under this section, an applicant shall fulfill the following requirements:
- 17 (a) Application: file an application with the department.
- 18 (b) Education: satisfactorily:

 (ii) submit evidence of certification, the educational preparation for which is determined by the department to be equivalent to the foregoing, from any state or country, satisfactory to the department and in accordance with the commissioner's regulations.

- (c) Examination: pass an examination satisfactory to the department and in accordance with the commissioner's regulations.
 - (d) Age: be at least eighteen years of age.
- (e) Character: be of good moral character as determined by the department.
- (f) Fee: pay a fee of forty dollars to the department for consideration of an application for certification.
- 5. Proceedings and grounds for suspension or revocation. (a) proceedings against any certificate holder under this section shall be commenced by filing with the department a written charge or charges in the form of a petition under oath against such certified doula. The petition may be filed by any person, corporation, association or public officer, or by the department in the first instance.
- (b) If the commissioner decides that the charges should be heard, the commissioner shall appoint a hearing officer to hear and report on the charges and shall set a time and place for the hearing. A copy of the charges, together with a notice of the time and place of hearing, shall be served on the accused at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the hearing.
- (c) The respondent in all such cases brought under this section shall, at least five days before the return date of the petition containing the charges, file with the department a verified answer, in duplicate, to the allegations set forth in the petition. The respondent shall have the opportunity at such hearing to appear either personally or by counsel, to cross-examine witnesses and to produce evidence and witnesses in the respondent's defense.
- (d) Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the hearing officer shall make a written report of findings and conclusions and shall transmit them, together with a recommendation, to the commissioner. If the commissioner finds that the charges are not sustained, the commissioner shall order a dismissal of the charges and an exoneration. If the commissioner finds that any of the charges are sustained, the commissioner shall, in the commissioner's discretion, issue an order suspending, revoking or annulling the certificate of the respondent, or set reasonable and appropriate requirements for the respondent's practice under the certificate.
- 41 (e) Where a certificate has been revoked or annulled under this 42 section, the department may, after the expiration of two years, enter-43 tain an application for restoration of the certificate.
- 44 (f) A respondent aggrieved by any action of the commissioner under
 45 this section may commence a proceeding under article seventy-eight of
 46 the civil practice law and rules in the supreme court, Albany county,
 47 challenging that action.
- 48 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 49 have become a law. Effective immediately, the commissioner of health 50 shall make regulations and take other actions reasonably necessary to 51 implement this act on such date.
