IN ASSEMBLY

January 30, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. CARROLL, COLTON -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. CAHILL, COOK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to financial disclosure of certain political contributions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public officers law is amended by adding a new section
2 73-c to read as follows:

3 § 73-c. Financial disclosure of political contributions. 1. As used in 4 this section:

5 (a) The term "statewide elected official" shall mean the governor,
6 lieutenant governor, comptroller, or attorney general.

7 (b) The term "New York city citywide elected official" shall mean the 8 mayor, president of the council, or comptroller of New York city.

9 (c) The term "reporting individual" shall mean any person required to 10 file an annual statement of financial disclosure pursuant to this 11 section.

12 2. Every statewide elected official, member of the legislature, New 13 York city citywide elected official, member of the New York city coun-
14 cil, and borough president, shall file a statement of financial disclo-15 sure containing the information set forth in subdivision four of this 16 section. Such statement shall be filed quarterly each year on or before 17 the fifteenth day of January, April, July and October with respect to 18 the preceding quarter.

19 3. If the reporting individual is a member of the legislature, such 20 statement shall be filed with the legislative ethics committee estab-
21 lished by section eighty of the legislative law. If the reporting indi-
22 vidual is a New York city citywide elected official, member of the New 23 York city council, or borough president, such statement shall be filed
24 with the New York city conflict of interest board. If the reporting

1 individual is a statewide elected official, such statement shall be 2 filed with the state ethics commission established by section ninety-3 four of the executive law.

4 4. The statement filed by the reporting individual shall include:

5 (a) the name, address and office held by the reporting individual;

6 (b) a list of all moneys and loans in excess of one hundred dollars
7 and property, whether real or personal, whose fair market value is in 8 excess of one hundred dollars transferred, contributed or granted to any 9 fund, organization, or committee over which a reporting individual has,
10 or appears to have, direct or indirect control, or any moneys and loans
11 in excess of one hundred dollars and property, whether real or personal,
12 whose fair market value is in excess of one hundred dollars, trans-13 ferred, contributed or granted to a reporting individual where such 14 reporting individual has, or appears to have, direct or indirect control
15 over the use of the money, loan or property;

16 (c) the dollar amount of such money or loan and fair market value of 17 such property;

18 (d) the name, address and employer of the transferor, contributor or 19 grantor;

20 (e) the date of such transfer, contribution, or grant;

21 (f) a list of all expenditures and payments made from those moneys,
22 loans and property described in paragraph (b) of this subdivision;

23 (g) the date of such expenditure or payment;

24 (h) the name, address and employer of the person to whom such expendi-25 ture was made; and

26 (i) the name of any fund, trust, committee or other organization
27 created or established by the reporting individual,
28 provided, however, that such reporting individual shall not be required
29 to disclose any information required to be disclosed by article fourteen 30 of the election law.

31 5. Upon receipt of a filed statement of financial disclosure, the 32 legislative ethics committee, the state ethics commission or the New 33 York city conflict of interest board shall make such statement imme-
34 diately available for public inspection.

35 6. A reporting individual who knowingly and wilfully fails to file an 36 annual statement of financial disclosure or who knowingly and wilfully 37 with intent to deceive makes a false statement or gives information
38 which such individual knows to be false on such statement of financial 39 disclosure filed pursuant to this section shall be subject to a civil 40 penalty in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars. Assessment of 41 a civil penalty hereunder shall be made by the state ethics commission
42 or by the legislative ethics committee, as the case may be, with respect
43 to persons subject to their respective jurisdictions. The state ethics 44 commission acting pursuant to subdivision thirteen of section ninety-45 four of the executive law or the legislative ethics committee acting 46 pursuant to subdivision twelve of section eighty of the legislative law,
47 as the case may be, may, in lieu of a civil penalty, refer a violation 48 to the appropriate prosecutor and upon such conviction, but only after 49 such referral, such violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemea-
50 nor. A civil penalty for false filing may not be imposed hereunder in 51 the event the value or amount of a contribution reported hereunder is 52 incorrect unless such reported information is falsely understated.
53 Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no other 54 penalty, civil or criminal may be imposed for a failure to file, or for 55 false filing, of such statement, except that the appointing authority
56 may impose disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The state

1 ethics commission and the legislative ethics committee shall each be 2 deemed to be an agency within the meaning of article three of the state
3 administrative procedure act and shall adopt rules governing the conduct 4 of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals relating to the assessment of 5 the civil penalties herein authorized. Such rules, which shall not be 6 subject to the approval requirements of the state administrative proce-
7 sure act, shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substan-
8 tially similar to those set forth in such article three but such mech-
9 anisms need not be identical in terms or scope. Assessment of a civil 10 penalty shall be final unless modified, suspended or vacated within 11 thirty days of imposition and upon becoming final shall be subject to 12 review at the instance of the affected reporting individual in a 13 proceeding commenced against the state ethics commission or legislative 14 ethics committee, pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil prac-
15 tice law and rules.

16 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
