§ 3. Section 1801 of the uniform justice court act, as amended by chapter 76 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows: § 1801. Small claims defined.

The term "small claim" or "small claims" as used in this act shall mean and include any cause of action for money only not in excess of [three] five thousand dollars exclusive of interest and costs, provided that the defendant either resides, or has an office for the transaction of business or a regular employment, within the municipality where the court is located. However, where a judge of the county court, pursuant subdivision (g) of section three hundred twenty-five of the civil practice law and rules, transfers a small claim from the town or village court having jurisdiction over the matter to another town or village court within the same county, the court to which it is transferred shall 14 have jurisdiction to determine the claim.

- § 4. Paragraph (a) of section 1803 of the uniform justice court act, as amended by chapter 309 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as follows:
- (a) Small claims shall be commenced upon the payment by the claimant of a filing fee of [ten] fifteen dollars for claims in the amount of one thousand dollars or less and [fifteen] twenty dollars for claims in the amount of more than one thousand dollars, without the service of a summons and, except by special order of the court, without the service 22 any pleading other than a statement of his cause of action by the claimant or someone in his behalf to the clerk, who shall reduce the same to a concise, written form and record it in a filing system maintained especially for such purpose. Such procedure shall provide for the sending of notice of such claim by ordinary first class mail and certified mail with return receipt requested to the party complained against at his residence, if he resides within the county and his residence is known to the claimant, or at his office or place of regular employment 30 within the municipality if he does not reside within the county or his 32 residence within the county is not known to the claimant. If, after the 33 expiration of twenty-one days, such ordinary first class mailing has not 34 been returned as undeliverable, the party complained against shall be 35 presumed to have received notice of such claim. Such notice shall include a clear description of the procedure for filing a counterclaim, pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section.
- 38 § 5. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-39 ing the date on which it shall have become a law and shall apply to actions or proceedings filed on or after such date.
