1 closed circuit television or the secure online website on which the 2 hearing may be viewed.

3 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 440.50 of the criminal procedure law, as 4 amended by chapter 193 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as 5 follows:

6 1. Upon the request of a victim of a crime, or in any event in all
7 cases in which the final disposition includes a conviction of a violent 8 felony offense as defined in section 70.02 of the penal law, a felony
9 defined in article one hundred twenty-five of such law, or a felony
10 defined in article one hundred thirty of such law, the district attorney 11 shall, within sixty days of the final disposition of the case, inform 12 the victim by letter of such final disposition. If such final disposi-13 tion results in the commitment of the defendant to the custody of the 14 department of corrections and community supervision for an indeterminate 15 sentence, the notice provided to the crime victim shall also inform the 16 victim of his or her right to submit a written, audiotaped, or vide-17 otaped victim impact statement to the department of corrections and 18 community supervision or to meet personally with a member of the state 19 board of parole at a time and place separate from the personal interview 20 between a member or members of the board and the inmate and make such a 21 statement, subject to procedures and limitations contained in rules of 22 the board, both pursuant to subdivision two of section two hundred 23 fifty-nine-i of the executive law. A copy of such letter shall be 24 provided to the board of parole. The right of the victim under this 25 subdivision to submit a written victim impact statement or to meet
26 personally with a member of the state board of parole applies to each 27 personal interview between a member or members of the board and the 28 inmate. The notice to the victim shall also inform the victim of his or 29 her right to view the defendant's parole hearing on closed circuit tele-30 vision or over a secure online website and shall inform the victim of 31 the intended date and time of the parole hearing as well as the location
32 or website address at which the victim may view the hearing.

33 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
