AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to fines and procedures in connection with misconduct by real estate brokers and salespersons

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 441-c of the real 2 property law, as amended by chapter 81 of the laws of 1995, is amended 3 to read as follows:

4 (a) The department of state may revoke the license of a real estate
5 broker or salesman or suspend the same, for such period as the depart-6 ment may deem proper, or in lieu thereof may impose a [~~fine~~] civil 7 penalty not exceeding [~~one~~] two thousand dollars payable to the depart-
8 ment of state, or a reprimand upon conviction of the licensee of a 9 violation of any provision of this article, or for a material misstate-10 ment in the application for such license, or if such licensee has been 11 guilty of fraud or fraudulent practices, or for dishonest or misleading 12 advertising, or has demonstrated untrustworthiness or incompetency to 13 act as a real estate broker or salesman, as the case may be. In the case 14 of a real estate broker engaged in the business of a tenant relocater, 15 untrustworthiness or incompetency shall include engaging in any course 16 of conduct including, but not limited to, the interruption or discontin-
17 uance of essential building service, that interferes with or disturbs 18 the peace, comfort, repose and quiet enjoyment of a tenant.

19 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 441-e of the real property law, as 20 amended by chapter 505 of the laws of 2001, is amended to read as 21 follows:

22 2. Revocation, suspension, reprimands, fines. The department of state 23 shall, before revoking or suspending any license or imposing any fine or 24 reprimand on the holder thereof or before imposing any fine upon any

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

1 person not licensed pursuant to this article who is deemed to be in 2 violation of section four hundred forty-two-h of this article, and at 3 least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing, notify in writing 4 the holder of such license or such unlicensed person of any charges made 5 and shall afford such licensee or unlicensed person an opportunity to be 6 heard in person or by counsel in reference thereto. Such written notice 7 may be served by delivery of same personally to the licensee, or by 8 mailing same by certified mail to the last known business address of 9 such licensee or unlicensed person, or by any method authorized by the 10 civil practice law and rules. If said licensee be a [~~salesman~~] salesper-11 son, the department shall also notify the broker with whom he or she is 12 associated of the charges by mailing notice by certified mail to the 13 broker's last known business address. The hearing on such charges shall 14 be at such time and place as the department shall prescribe, which 15 place, in the case of any hearing relating to a charge arising out of an 16 alleged violation of section four hundred forty-two-h of this article, 17 shall be within the county wherein the real property in connection with 18 the charge arises is located if it can be arranged at reasonable cost.

19 § 3. Section 442-h of the real property law is amended by adding a new 20 subdivision 4 to read as follows:

21 4. The secretary of state shall publish annually, on or before Decem-22 ber thirty-first of each year, a list organized by zip code, of all
23 finances, suspensions, and revocations imposed upon licensees for violation 24 of this section.

25 § 4. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 3 of section 442-h of the real prop-26 erty law, as amended by chapter 505 of the laws of 2001, is amended to 27 read as follows:

28 (c) No rule establishing a cease and desist zone shall be effective
29 for longer than five years. However, the secretary of state may re-adopt 30 the rule to continue the cease and desist zone for additional periods
31 not to exceed five years each. At least ninety days prior to the expi-32 ration of a cease and desist zone rule, the secretary of state shall 33 hold public hearings within each such cease and desist zone provided it 34 can be arranged at reasonable cost. At least sixty days prior to the 35 expiration of a cease and desist zone, the secretary of state shall 36 report to the legislature whether or not such cease and desist zone is 37 being readopted and the reason for such determination. Whenever a rule 38 establishing a cease and desist zone shall have expired or shall have 39 been repealed, all owner's statements filed with the secretary of state
40 pursuant to that rule shall also expire. However, an owner may file a 41 new statement with the secretary of state if a new rule is adopted
42 establishing a cease and desist zone containing the owner's property.
43 Once the boundaries of a cease and desist zone have been established by 44 rule of the secretary of state, the boundaries may not be changed except 45 by repeal of the existing rule and adoption of a new rule establishing 46 the new boundaries.

47 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that sections 48 one and two of this act shall take effect on the first of January next 49 succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law; and provided 50 further that the secretary of state is authorized to promulgate any and 51 all rules and regulations and take any other measures necessary to 52 implement this act on its effective date on or before such date.
