AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to municipal directors of weights and measures

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 180 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by section 1 of part EE of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

1. There shall be a county director of weights and measures in each county, except where (a) a county is wholly embraced within a city there shall be a city director of weights and measures, or (b) where two or more counties have entered into an intermunicipal agreement, pursuant to article five-G of the general municipal law, to share the functions, powers, and duties of one director of weights and measures. Any county or city having a population of one million or more may elect to designate its commissioner of consumer affairs as its director of weights and measures. The county of Westchester may elect to designate its commissioner or director of consumer affairs as its director of weights and measures. Subdivision four of this section shall not apply to a commissioner or director of consumer affairs so designated.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
