AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to termination of criminal action in favor of the accused

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended by 2 adding a new subdivision 5 to read as follows:

3 5. (a) When a criminal record maintained by the division of criminal justice services pursuant to subdivision six of section eight hundred thirty-seven of the executive law contains information about an arrest dated after January first, two thousand twenty-one, but the criminal 7 record contains no docket number or other information about the arrest, the division, no later than six months after the date of arrest, shall 9 send a notice to the prosecutor's office, the clerk of the court of the 10 local criminal court wherein the arrest would be prosecuted, the office 11 of court administration, the police department or law enforcement agency which transmitted the fingerprints of the person to the division of 12 criminal justice services, the department of correctional services and 13 14 the local correctional facility. Such notice shall inform such entities 15 that the arrest will be considered terminated in favor of such person 16 and sealed in a manner consistent with subdivision three of this section, sixty days from transmission of said notification, if the divi-17 sion of criminal justice services does not receive information that a 18 criminal investigation or prosecution is proceeding. If after sixty days 19 20 the division of criminal justice services receives no information that a criminal investigation or prosecution is proceeding, the arrest shall be 22 considered terminated in favor of such person and be sealed in accordance with this paragraph, and the division of criminal justice services 23 shall send notice of such sealing to such entities. Upon such notifica-25 tion, all official records and papers relating to the arrest, including
