§ 227-c. Termination of residential lease by victims of domestic violence. 1. Lease or rental agreement. In any lease or rental agreement covering premises occupied for dwelling purposes, where a tenant or a member of the tenant's household is a victim of domestic violence as defined by section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social services law and reasonably fears remaining in the leasehold premises because of 8 potential further domestic violence, such tenant shall be permitted to 10 terminate such lease or rental agreement and quit and surrender 11 possession of the leasehold premises and the land so leased or occupied 12 pursuant to the provisions of this section and to be released from any liability to pay to the lessor or owner, rent or other payments in lieu of rent for the time subsequent to the date of termination of such lease 14 in accordance with subdivision two of this section.

16 2. Lease termination procedure. (a) A tenant who meets the require-17 ments in subdivision one of this section may terminate his or her lease 18 by notice in writing delivered to the lessor or owner of the premises occupied by such person, or to the lessor's or owner's agent, and to any 19 co-tenants of such lessee or tenant other than the perpetrator of domes-21 tic violence. The notice shall specify the termination date which shall be no earlier than thirty days after such notice is delivered. If the notice is mailed via first class mail, it shall be deemed delivered five days after mailing. If the tenant asserts that the lessor or owner is the perpetrator of domestic violence, a person authorized by the tenant may deliver such notice on the tenant's behalf.

- (b) Such notice shall state that the tenant or a member of the tenant's household has experienced domestic violence and reasonably believes he or she, or the member of the tenant's household, is unable to safely remain in the leased premises as a result of the domestic violence.
- 11 (c) Within twenty-five days of such notice, the tenant shall provide 12 documentation demonstrating that the tenant or a member of the tenant's 13 household has been a victim of domestic violence as described in subdi14 vision one of this section. This documentation may include any one or 15 more of the following:
- 16 (i) A temporary or final order of protection issued by a court of competent jurisdiction;
- (ii) A record, complaint, or report from a federal, state, or local law enforcement agency of an act of domestic violence as described in section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social services law or a family offense as described in section eight hundred twelve of the family court act, or certifying that the tenant or a member of the tenant's household has been subjected to domestic violence;
- 24 (iii) A record from a health care provider for treatment related to 25 domestic violence as described in section four hundred fifty-nine-a of 26 the social services law or a family offense as described in section 27 eight hundred twelve of the family court act;
- 28 (iv) A written verification from any other qualified third party to
 29 whom the tenant, or a member of the tenant's household reported the
 30 domestic violence.
- 31 (A) "Qualified third party" shall include: any law enforcement offi-32 cer; employee of a court of the state; attorney, physician, psychia-33 trist, psychologist, social worker, registered nurse, therapist, or 34 clinical professional counselor licensed to practice in any state; 35 person employed by a government or non-profit agency or service that 36 advises or provides services to persons regarding domestic violence; or 37 any member of the clergy of a church or religious society or denomi-38 nation.
- 39 (B) Written verification as described herein shall be satisfied by any 40 sworn or notarized statement including the required information.
- 41 (C) The following sample form shall satisfy the verification require-42 ments but is not required. This sample form shall be posted to the New 43 York state unified court system's website, and shall be made available 44 in the state's family, civil, housing, criminal, and supreme courts:
