- (B) to notify the social services official if the adoptive parents are 4 5 no longer providing any support of the child or are no longer legally 6 responsible for the support of the child[-]; and
 - (C) to notify the social services official if: (I) another person has been granted physical custody of the child; (II) another person has been appointed guardian for the child; or (III) the child no longer resides with the adoptive parent.
- 11 (c-2) If the adoptive parent fails to respond to an annual certification notice within thirty days of the receipt of the certification 12 13 notice from the social services official, the social services official 14 may:
- (i)(A) contact the adoptive parent by letter, telephone or electronic 15 16 means; or (B) if other means of contact have not been successful, visit the home of the adoptive parent; and 17
- 18 (ii) require the adoptive parent, as a condition for the continuation 19 of the subsidy payments, to produce evidence of the support that is 20 being provided on behalf of the adopted child.
- 21 (c-3) (i) If the social services official receives from any person information that provides reasonable cause to suspect that the adoptive 22 parent is no longer providing any support to the child, the social 23 services official shall review whether the adoptive parents are legally 24 responsible for the support of the child and whether the child is receiving any support from the adoptive parents. Circumstances in which 27 the social services official shall conduct this review include the following:
 - (A) the child has been placed in foster care;
 - (B) a person alleges to the social services official that:
- 31 (I) a person other than the adoptive parent has been granted legal 32 custody of the child;
 - (II) another person has been appointed guardian for the child, or
 - (III) the child is found to no longer reside with the adoptive parent.
- 35 (ii) In conducting the review described in this paragraph, the social services official may: 36
- 37 (A) contact the adoptive parent by letter, telephone, electronic, or 38 other means;
 - (B) visit the home of the adoptive parent; and
- (C) require the adoptive parent, as a condition for the continuation 40 41 of the subsidy payments, to produce evidence of the support that is 42 being provided on behalf of the adopted child.
- (iii) If the child is not in foster care and the social services offi-44 cial determines that the adoptive parents are no longer legally respon-45 sible for the support of the child or that the child is no longer 46 receiving any support from the adoptive parents, the social services 47 official shall terminate the assistance provided to the adoptive parents pursuant to this section. The adoptive parents may appeal the termi-48 nation of assistance to the department in accordance with section twen-50 ty-two of this chapter.
- 51 (iv) If the child is in foster care and the social services official 52 determines that the child is no longer receiving any support from the adoptive parents, the social services official may reduce, suspend, or 53 terminate the assistance provided to the adoptive parents pursuant to 54 55 this section. The adoptive parents may appeal the termination of assist-56 ance to the department in accordance with section twenty-two of this chapter. If assistance is reduced, suspended or terminated pursuant to this paragraph and the child is returned from foster care to the care of the adoptive parents, the social services official shall resume assistance effective from the date when the child was returned to the adoptive parent's care.

- (c-4) If the social services official terminates the adoption assistance provided to adoptive parents pursuant to paragraph (c-three) of this subdivision and the child resides with another person who has been granted physical custody or appointed as guardian of the child, the social services official shall enter into a written agreement to make adoption assistance payments to the custodian or guardian. Such payments shall be made retroactive from the termination of assistance to the adoptive parents pursuant to paragraph (c-three) of this subdivision and shall be made until the child's twenty-first birthday. A custodian or guardian who receives adoption assistance payments pursuant to this paragraph shall be subject to the same requirements that apply to adoptive parents under this section.
- (c-5) If the social services official terminates the adoption assistance provided to adoptive parents pursuant to paragraph (c-three) of this subdivision after the eighteenth birthday and before the twenty-first birthday of the adopted child, and no person other than the adoptive parents has legal custody or guardianship of the child, the social services official shall make payments to the child:
- (i) through direct payments to the child, if the social services official determines the child demonstrates the ability to manage such direct payments; or
- (ii) to a representative payee certified by the social services official in accordance with paragraph (g) of this subdivision.
- § 2. Clause (B) of subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (g) of subdivision 1 of section 453 of the social services law, as added by chapter 518 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:
- (B) If the twenty-first birthday of the child occurs while awaiting the certification of a representative payee, the child shall be entitled to retroactive direct payment of subsidy payments since the death of the adoptive parent or parents or the termination of assistance to the adoptive parent or parents pursuant to paragraph (c-three) of this subdivision after the eighteenth birthday of the child.
- § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 453 of the social services law, as amended by chapter 83 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:
- 2. [The] Any agreement provided for in subdivision one of this section shall be subject to the approval of the department upon the application of the social services official; provided, however, that in accordance with the regulations of the department, the department may authorize the social services official to approve or disapprove the agreement on behalf of the department. In either situation, if the agreement is not approved or disapproved by the social services official within thirty days of submission, the voluntary authorized agency may submit the agreement directly to the department for approval or disapproval. If the agreement is not disapproved in writing by the department within thirty days after its submission to the department, it shall be deemed approved. Any such disapproval shall be accompanied by a written statement of the reasons therefor.
 - § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
