IN ASSEMBLY

February 4, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. MALLIOTAKIS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Agriculture

AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to the humane destruction or other disposition of certain animals by a duly incorporated humane society or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, dog control officer, or any police officer

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 6, 7, 7-a, 8, 9 and 11 of section 117 of the 2 agriculture and markets law, such section as renumbered by section 12 of 3 part T of chapter 59 of the laws of 2010, subdivisions 6, 9 and 11 as 4 added by chapter 220 of the laws of 1978, subdivision 7 as amended by 5 section 13 of part T of chapter 59 of the laws of 2010, subdivision 7-a 6 as amended by chapter 83 of the laws of 2011 and subdivision 8 as 7 amended by chapter 221 of the laws of 1978, are amended to read as 8 follows:

9 6. Promptly upon seizure of any identified dog, the owner of record of 10 such dog shall be notified personally or by certified mail, return 11 receipt requested, of the facts of seizure and the procedure for redemp-12 tion. If notification is personally given, such dog shall be held for a 13 period of seven days after day of notice, during which period the dog 14 may be redeemed by the owner. If such notification is made by mail, such 15 dog shall be held for a period of nine days from the date of mailing, 16 during which period the dog may be redeemed by the owner. In either 17 case, the owner may redeem such dog upon payment of the impoundment fees 18 prescribed by subdivision four of this section and by producing proof 19 that the dog has been licensed, provided, however, that the notification 20 requirements and redemption rights provided by this subdivision are 21 inapplicable if the owner relinquished possession and control of the dog 22 pursuant to subdivision one of section three hundred seventy-four of 23 this chapter and such dog shall be made available for adoption subject

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets

1 to subdivision seven, seven-a, eight and nine of this section and 2 subject to the provisions of subdivisions two and three of section three 3 hundred seventy-four of this chapter.

4 7. An owner shall forfeit title to any dog unredeemed at the expira-5 tion of the appropriate redemption period prescribed by subdivisions 6 six, eight and nine of this section and subject to the provisions of 7 section three hundred seventy-four of this chapter, and the dog shall 8 then be made available for adoption [~~or euthanized~~] subject to [~~subdivi-~~ 9 ~~sions six, eight and nine~~] subdivision seven-a of this section and 10 subject to the provisions of section three hundred seventy-four of this 11 chapter or euthanized subject to the provisions of section three hundred 12 seventy-four of this chapter. Any municipality may by local law or ordi-13 nance establish additional conditions for adoption including the 14 requirement that adopted dogs shall be spayed or neutered before or 15 after release from custody upon such terms and conditions as the munici-16 pality may establish.

17 7-a. Any animal in the custody of a pound or shelter shall, after the 18 expiration of the appropriate redemption period prescribed by subdivi-19 sions six, eight and nine of this section and subject to the provisions 20 of section three hundred seventy-four of this chapter, be made available 21 for adoption or euthanized subject to [~~subdivisions six, eight and nine~~ 22 ~~of this section and subject to~~] the provisions of section three hundred 23 seventy-four of this chapter [~~after the time for redemption has~~ 24 ~~expired~~]; provided, however, that such release may be made to another 25 such pound, duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to 26 animals, duly incorporated humane society or duly incorporated animal 27 protective association for the sole purpose of placing such animal in an 28 adoptive home, when such action is reasonably believed to improve the 29 opportunity for adoption.

30 8. The redemption periods set forth above in this section notwith-31 standing, any municipality may establish the duration of such periods by 32 local law or ordinance, provided that no such period shall be less than 33 [~~three~~] five days, except that where notice to the owner is given by 34 mail, no such period shall be less than seven days.

35 9. Any dog, owned by a resident of any city having a population of 36 over two million or by a non-resident of this state, seized and impound-37 ed pursuant to the provisions of this article, and whose owner can be 38 identified, shall be subject to subdivision six of this section, 39 provided, however, that the notification requirements and redemption 40 rights provided by such subdivision are inapplicable if the owner relin-41 quished possession and control of the dog pursuant to subdivision one of 42 section three hundred seventy-four of this chapter and such dog shall be 43 made available for adoption pursuant to the provisions of subdivisions 44 two and three of section three hundred seventy-four of this chapter. If 45 the dog is licensed pursuant to the provisions of law of the area of the 46 owner's residence, the licensing requirements of this article shall not 47 apply provided such dog is not harbored within this state outside any 48 city having a population of over two million for a period exceeding 49 thirty days.

50 11. No liability in damages or otherwise shall be incurred on account 51 of the seizure, euthanization or adoption of any dog pursuant to the 52 provisions of this article or of section three hundred seventy-four of 53 this chapter.

54 § 2. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 374 of the agriculture and 55 markets law, as amended by chapter 449 of the laws of 2010, are amended 56 to read as follows:

1 1. Any agent or officer of any duly incorporated humane society, a 2 duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, any 3 dog control officer, or any police officer, may lawfully cause to be 4 humanely destroyed (by means provided for in paragraph a of subdivision 5 three of this section) any animal found abandoned and not properly cared 6 for, or any lost, strayed, homeless or unwanted animal, if upon examina-7 tion a licensed veterinarian shall certify in writing, or if two 8 reputable citizens called upon by such agent, officer or police officer 9 to view the same in his or her presence find that the animal is so 10 maimed, diseased, disabled, or infirm so as to be unfit for any useful 11 purpose and that humane euthanasia is warranted; or after such agent, 12 officer or police officer has obtained in writing from the owner of such 13 animal his or her consent to such destruction; provided however, that if 14 an animal is not maimed, diseased, disabled or infirm such owner shall 15 not consent to destruction of such animal and shall relinquish ownership 16 and possession of such animal to a duly incorporated humane society, a 17 duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, or 18 any pound maintained by or under contract or agreement with any county, 19 city, town or village.

20 2. In the absence of such findings or certification, a duly incorpo-21 rated humane society, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of 22 cruelty to animals, or any pound maintained by or under contract or 23 agreement with any county, city, town or village [~~may~~] shall after five 24 days make available for adoption [~~or have humanely destroyed in accord-~~ 25 ~~ance with the provisions of this section and subject to~~], unless a long-
26 er period is prescribed by subdivisions six, eight and nine of section 27 one hundred [~~eighteen~~] seventeen of this chapter, any animal of which 28 possession is taken as provided for in [~~the preceding~~] section three 29 hundred seventy-three of this article, unless the same is earlier 30 redeemed by its owner, provided that no owner who relinquished 31 possession and ownership of an animal pursuant to subdivision one of 32 this section shall be allowed to redeem such animal and such animal 33 shall be immediately made available for adoption.

34 § 2-a. Subdivision 2 of section 374 of the agriculture and markets 35 law, as amended by chapter 421 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read 36 as follows:

37 2. In the absence of such findings or certification, a duly incorpo-38 rated humane society, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of 39 cruelty to animals, or any pound maintained by or under contract or 40 agreement with any county, city, town or village [~~may~~] shall after five 41 days make available for adoption [~~or have humanely destroyed in accord-~~
42 ~~ance with the provisions of this section and subject to~~], unless a long-
43 er period is prescribed by subdivisions six, eight and nine of section 44 one hundred seventeen of this chapter, any animal of which possession is 45 taken as provided for in [~~the preceding~~] section three hundred seventy-46 three of this article, unless the same is earlier redeemed by its owner, 47 provided that no owner who relinquished possession and ownership of an 48 animal pursuant to subdivision one of this section shall be allowed to 49 redeem such animal and such animal shall be immediately made available 50 for adoption. Notwithstanding the redemption periods set forth above in 51 this subdivision, any municipality may establish the duration of such 52 periods by local law or ordinance for any cat whose owner cannot be 53 identified by a collar, tag, microchip, tattoo or other identifying 54 mark, provided that no such period shall be less than three days, and 55 provided further that such cat be made available solely for the purposes
56 of adoption and released to an adoptive owner following an examination

1 by a duly-licensed veterinarian, the details of which shall be provided
2 to the adoptive owner. Notwithstanding the redemption periods set forth 3 above in this subdivision, any municipality may establish the duration 4 of such periods by local law or ordinance for any cat whose owner cannot 5 be identified by a collar, tag, microchip, tattoo or other identifying 6 mark, provided that no such period shall be less than three days, and 7 provided further that such cat be made available solely for the purposes
8 of adoption and released to an adoptive owner following an examination
9 by a duly-licensed veterinarian, the details of which shall be provided 10 to the adoptive owner.

11 § 3. Section 374 of the agriculture and markets law is amended by 12 adding a new subdivision 2-a to read as follows:

13 2-a. Any animal of which possession is taken pursuant to subdivision 14 one of this section that is in the possession of a duly incorporated 15 humane society, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruel-16 ty to animals, or any pound maintained by or under contract or agreement 17 with any county, city, town or village and has not been redeemed or 18 adopted pursuant to subdivision two of this section, shall be made 19 available for adoption for a reasonably practicable period that shall 20 not be less than ninety days, which shall commence immediately after the 21 expiration of the redemption period provided by subdivision two of this 22 section provided that if during such period a veterinarian certifies 23 that such animal is so maimed, diseased, disabled, or infirm as to be 24 unfit for any useful purpose such animal may, in the discretion of the 25 entity in possession of such animal, be humanely destroyed in accordance 26 with the provisions of this section and subject to subdivisions six, 27 eight and nine of section one hundred seventeen of this chapter prior to 28 the expiration of such period. After the expiration of such period, such 29 animal may, in the discretion of the entity in possession of such 30 animal, be humanely destroyed in accordance with the provisions of this 31 section and subject to subdivisions six, eight and nine of section one 32 hundred seventeen of this chapter. For purposes of this subdivision, 33 when determining a reasonably practicable period, consideration shall be 34 given to the number of other animals at the shelter, the shelter's 35 capacity for housing and caring for animals, the length of time that the 36 animal has been in the shelter, and the animal's health.

37 § 4. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 38 have become a law; provided, however, that if chapter 421 of the laws of 39 2018 shall not have taken effect on or before such date then section 40 two-a of this act shall take effect on the same date and in the same 41 manner as such chapter of the laws of 2018 takes effect. Effective imme-42 diately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation 43 necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are 44 authorized and directed to be made and completed on or before such 45 effective date.
