(d) absent from his or her voting residence because he or she is detained in jail awaiting action by a grand jury or awaiting trial, or confined in jail or prison after a conviction for an offense other than a felony, provided that he or she is qualified to vote in the election district of his or her residence.] (a) Any person who is registered to vote may vote by absentee ballot.

7 (b) A registered voter may not vote in person if the voter filed an 8 application to vote by absentee ballot.

9 2. A qualified voter desiring to vote at such election as an absentee 10 voter for any reason specified in subdivision one hereof must make 11 application for an absentee ballot on a form to be obtained and filed as 12 provided herein or by letter as provided in paragraph (d) of this subdi-13 vision.

14 (a) Application forms shall be furnished by and may be obtained from 15 any board of elections at any time until the day before such election. 16 Application forms shall also be supplied by the board of inspectors of 17 the election district in which applicant is a qualified voter on all of the days provided for local registration. In addition, application forms 18 shall be supplied upon the request of the person authorized to vote 19 20 pursuant to this section, any such person's spouse, parent or child, a 21 person residing with the applicant as a member of his household, or the applicant's duly authorized agent. Application forms sent outside of the 22 23 United States to a country other than Canada or Mexico, shall be sent airmail. Any reference to "board of elections" in the remaining 24 25 provisions of this section, except with respect to the furnishing and 26 obtaining of applications for absentee ballots, means only the board of 27 elections of the county or city in which the applicant is a qualified 28 voter.

(b) Applications may be filed either with the board of elections or in person with the board of inspectors of the election district in which the applicant is a qualified voter, on one of the days provided for local registration.

33 (c) All applications must be mailed to the board of elections not 34 later than the seventh day before the election for which a ballot is 35 first requested or delivered to such board not later than the day 36 [before] of such election.

37 (d) The board of elections shall mail an absentee ballot to every 38 qualified voter otherwise eligible for such a ballot, who requests such an absentee ballot from such board of elections in writing in a letter, 39 telefax indicating the address, phone number and the telefax number from 40 41 which the writing is sent or other written instrument, which is signed 42 by the voter and received by the board of elections not earlier than the 43 thirtieth day nor later than the seventh day before the election for 44 which the ballot is first requested and which states the address where 45 the voter is registered and the address to which the ballot is to be 46 mailed; provided, however, a military voter may request a military 47 ballot or voter registration application or an absentee ballot application in a letter as provided in subdivision three of section 10-106 of 48 this chapter; and provided further, a special federal voter may request 49 50 special federal ballot or voter registration application or an absenа 51 tee ballot application in a letter as provided in paragraph d of subdi-52 vision one of section 11-202 of this chapter. The board of elections 53 shall enclose with such ballot a form of application for absentee ballot 54 if the applicant is registered with such board of elections.

55 3. The application for an absentee ballot when filed must contain in 56 each instance the following information: A. 4505

(a) Applicant's full name, date of birth, and residence address, including the street and number, if any, rural delivery route, if any, 1 2 mailing address if different from the residence address and his or her 3 4 town or city and an address to which the ballot shall be mailed. 5 (b) A statement that the applicant is a qualified and registered б voter. 7 (c) [A statement, as appropriate, that on the day of such election the 8 applicant expects in good faith to be in one of the following catego-9 ries: 10 (i) absent from the county of his or her residence, or if a resident 11 of the city of New York absent from said city; provided, however, if the applicant expects to be absent from such county or city for a duration 12 13 covering more than one election and seeks an absentee ballot for each 14 election, he or she shall state the dates when he or she expects to 15 begin and end such absence; or (ii) unable to appear at a polling place because of illness or phys-16 17 ical disability or dutics related to the primary care of one or more individuals who are ill or physically disabled; or 18 19 (iii) a resident or patient of a veterans health administration hospi-20 tal; or 21 (iv) detained in jail awaiting action by a grand jury or awaiting 22 trial or confined in jail or prison after a conviction for an offense other than a felony and stating the place where he or she is so detained 23 or confined. 24 25 (d) Such application shall permit the applicant to apply for an 26 absentee ballot for either a primary election or the general election in 27 any year and for those persons who will be continuously absent from their county of residence during the period between the fall primary 28 29 election and the general election in any year to apply for ballots for both such elections in such year. A voter who applies for an absentee 30 31 ballot shall be sent an absentee ballot for any special election or winter primary that occurs during the period of absence specified in the 32 33 application. 4. [A voter who claims permanent illness or physical disability] Any 34 voter may make application for an absentee ballot and the right to 35 receive an absentee ballot for each election thereafter as provided 36 herein without further application[, by filing with the board of 37 elections an application which shall contain a statement to be executed 38 by the voter]. Upon filing of such application the board of elections 39 shall cause the registration records of the voter to be marked ["Perma-40 nently Disabled"] "permanent absentee" and thereafter shall send an 41 42 absentee ballot for each succeeding primary, special or general election 43 to such voter at his or her last known address by first class mail with a request to the postal authorities not to forward such ballot but to 44 45 return it in five days in the event that it cannot be delivered to the 46 addressee. The mailing of such ballot for each election shall continue 47 until such voter's registration is cancelled. 48 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
