AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to a patient's right to know

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 18-a of the public health law is amended by adding 2 a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3 3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, each health care
4 professional licensed, registered or certified pursuant to title eight 5 of the education law shall make available a printed copy of any medical 6 malpractice convictions. The information shall be placed in a common 7 area and must be readily available to patients and prospective patients.
8 This information will only be required for any such health care profes-9 sional who has been convicted of one or more instances of medical malp-10 ractice. The information on such convictions will be furnished from the 11 websites of the New York state department of health's office of profes-12 sional medical conduct, the state education department, and any other 13 reporting agency.

14 (b) Any individual who violates, disobeys or disregards the provisions 15 of paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor
16 and subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars for a first 17 violation and a civil penalty of one thousand dollars for any subsequent 18 violation.

19 § 2. The public health law is amended by adding a new section 2801-h 20 to read as follows:

21 § 2801-h. Patient's right to know. 1. The commissioner shall require 22 all general hospitals, and other facilities approved pursuant to this 23 article, to make available a printed copy of medical malpractice 24 convictions and/or information about those placed on probation for all 25 health care practitioners performing any type of treatment or consultation in such hospital or facility. This information shall be placed in a common area of such hospital or facility and shall be readily available to patients and prospective patients. The information on such convictions and/or probationary disciplinary actions will be furnished from the websites of the New York state department of health's office of professional medical conduct, the state education department, and any other reporting agency.

2. Any individual or facility who violates, disobeys or disregards the provisions of subdivision one of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars for a first violation and a civil penalty of one thousand dollars for any subsequent violation. Any individual who violates, disobeys or disregards the provisions of subdivision one of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.
