AN ACT to amend the alcoholic beverage control law, in relation to reciprocal wine shipping privileges

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 79-c of the alcoholic beverage
2 control law, as amended by chapter 184 of the laws of 2005, is amended 3 to read as follows:

4 1. Authorization. Notwithstanding any provision of law, rule or regu-5 lation to the contrary, any holder of a license to manufacture wine or 6 any holder of a retail license to sell wine for off-premises consump-
7 tion, in any other state who obtains an out-of-state direct shipper's 8 license, as provided in this section, may ship no more than thirty-six 9 cases (no more than nine liters each case) of wine produced or sold by 10 such license holder per year directly to a resident of New York who is 11 at least twenty-one years of age, for such resident's personal use and 12 not for resale, provided the state in which such person is so licensed 13 affords lawful means for shipments of wine to be received by a resident 14 thereof who is at least twenty-one years of age, for such resident's 15 personal use and not for resale, from a person licensed in this state as 16 a manufacturer or retail licensee and, provided further, that the state 17 in which such out-of-state winery or retail premises is located affords
18 to New York state winery and farm winery licensees or New York state 19 retail licensees reciprocal shipping privileges, meaning shipping privi-
20 leges that are substantially similar to the requirements in this 21 section. No person shall place an order for shipment of wine unless they 22 are twenty-one years of age or older. Any common carrier with a permit
