ty-two of section 1.03 of the mental hygiene law and enrollees who are under twenty-one years of age under section three hundred sixty-five-1 of this chapter, or any entity that provides home and community based services to enrollees who are under twenty-one years of age under a demonstration program pursuant to section eleven hundred fifteen of the federal social security act; child care and school-based programs for children ages three through five regulated by the health code of the city of New York, temporary employment agencies providing substitute child care staff to any other provider agency, and educational and training institutions assigning child care staff as interns or residents at any other provider agency; publicly-funded emergency shelters for families with children, provided, however, for purposes of this section, when the provider or provider agency is a publicly-funded emergency shelter for families with children, then all references in this section to the "potential for regular and substantial contact with individuals who are cared for by the agency" shall mean the potential for regular and substantial contact with children who are served by such shelter; and any other facility or provider agency, as defined in subdivision four of section four hundred eighty-eight of this chapter, in regard to the employment of staff, or use of providers of goods and services and staff of such providers, consultants, interns and volunteers.

§ 2. Subdivision 4 of section 424-a of the social services law, as amended by section 14 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

4. For purposes of this ~~section~~ title, the term "licensing agency" shall mean an authorized agency which has received an application to become an adoptive parent or an authorized agency which has received an application for a certificate or license to receive, board or keep any child pursuant to the provisions of section three hundred seventy-six or three hundred seventy-seven of this article or an authorized agency which has received an application from a relative within the second degree or third degree of consanguinity of the parent of a child or a relative within the second degree or third degree of consanguinity of the step-parent of a child or children, or the child's legal guardian for approval to receive, board or keep such child, or an authorized agency that conducts a clearance pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision two of section four hundred fifty-eight-b of this article, or a state or local governmental agency which receives an application to provide child day care services in a child day care center, school-age child care program, family day care home or group family day care home pursuant to the provisions of section three hundred ninety of this article, or the department of health and mental hygiene of the city of New York, when such department receives an application for a ~~[certificate of approval to provide child day care services in a child day care center]~~ permit to provide child care services or receives a notice of a school based program for children ages three through five pursuant to the provisions of the health code of the city of New York, or the office of mental health or the office for people with developmental disabilities when such office receives an application for an operating certificate pursuant to the provisions of the mental hygiene law to operate a family care home, or a state or local governmental official who receives an application for a permit to operate a camp which is subject to the provisions of article thirteen-A or thirteen-B of the public health law or the office of children and family services which has received an application for a certificate to receive, board or keep any child at a foster family home pursuant to articles nineteen-G and nineteen-H of the

1 executive law or any other facility or provider agency, as defined in 2 subdivision four of section four hundred eighty-eight of this chapter, 3 in regard to any licensing or certification function carried out by such 4 facility or agency.

5 § 3. Section 390-b of the social services law is amended by adding a 6 new subdivision 11 to read as follows:

7 11. For purposes of this section, and notwithstanding section three 8 hundred ninety of this article, an operator or provider of a child day 9 care center or a school age child care program shall include temporary 10 child care employment agencies and child care educational and training 11 institutions. A temporary child care employment agency or child care 12 educational and training institution shall be subject to the criminal 13 history record check requirements for child care staff who may be placed 14 at a child day care center or a school age child care program, but not 15 for the operators or providers of such temporary child care employment 16 agency or child care educational and training institution. Such require-17 ments shall include submitting fingerprint cards and such other informa-18 tion as required by the office of children and family services and the 19 division of criminal justice services, and authorizing the office of 20 children and family services to deny or hold in abeyance an employee's 21 application as provided for in this section. The office of children and 22 family services may charge the temporary child care employment agency or 23 child care educational and training institution an amount equal to the 24 processing fee imposed pursuant to subdivision eight-a of section eight 25 hundred thirty-seven of the executive law. Where the office of children 26 and family services advises the temporary child care employment agency 27 or child care educational and training institution that an individual 28 has no criminal history record, no additional criminal history record 29 check by a child day care center or a school age child care program
30 shall be required upon placement of that individual at the child day 31 care center or a school age child care program. For purposes of this 32 subdivision, a "temporary child care employment agency" shall mean any 33 entity that employs substitute child care staff to be supplied on a 34 temporary basis to a child day care center or a school age child care 35 program, and a "child care educational and training institution" shall 36 mean any entity that assigns child care staff as interns or residents at 37 a child day care center or a school age child care program.

38 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
