AN ACT to amend the general obligations law, in relation to reforming the statutory short form and other powers of attorney for purposes of financial and estate planning; and to repeal certain provisions of such law relating to statutory gift riders

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (j) of subdivision 2 of section 5-1501 of the general obligations law, as amended by chapter 340 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

(j) "Power of attorney" means a written document, other than a document referred to in section 5-1501C of this title, by which a principal with capacity designates an agent to act on his or her behalf and includes both a statutory short form power of attorney and a non-statutory power of attorney.

§ 2. Paragraph (n) of subdivision 2 of section 5-1501 of the general obligations law is REPEALED, and paragraphs (o), (p) and (q) are relettered paragraphs (n), (o) and (p).

§ 3. Paragraph (n) of subdivision 2 of section 5-1501 of the general obligations law, as amended by chapter 340 of the laws of 2010 and as relettered by section two of this act, is amended to read as follows:

(n) "Statutory short form power of attorney" means a power of attorney that meets the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subdivision one of section 5-1501B of this title, and that ~~[contains the exact]~~ substantially conforms to the wording of the form set forth in section 5-1513 of this title; provided however, that any section indicated as "Optional" that is not used may be omitted and replaced by the words "Intentionally Omitted". ~~[A mistake in wording, such as in spelling,~~

~~punctuation or formatting, or the use of bold or italic type, shall not prevent a~~ A given power of attorney ~~[from being deemed a statutory short form power of attorney, but the wording of the form]~~ substantially conforms to the form required pursuant to section 5-1513 of this title notwithstanding that the form contains (i) an insignificant mistake in wording, spelling, punctuation or formatting, or the use of bold or italic type; or (ii) uses language that is essentially the same as, but is not identical to, the statutory form, including utilizing language from a previous statute. The determination of whether there is substantial conformity with the form set forth in section 5-1513 of this title ~~[shall govern]~~ shall not depend on the presence or absence of a particular clause. Failing to include clauses that are not relevant to a given power of attorney shall not in itself cause such power of attorney to be found to not substantially conform with the requirements of such form. The use of the form set forth in section 5-1513 of this title is lawful and when used, it shall be construed as a statutory short form power of attorney. A statutory short form power of attorney may be used to grant authority provided in sections 5-1502A through 5-1502N of this title. A "statutory short form power of attorney" may contain modifications or additions as provided in section 5-1503 of this title~~, but in no event may it be modified to grant any authority provided in section 5-1514 of this title. If the authority (SCR) on the statutory short form is initialed by the principal, the statutory short form power of attorney must be executed in the manner provided in section 5-1501B of this title, simultaneously with the statutory gifts rider. A statutory short form power of attorney and a statutory gifts rider which supplements it must be read together as a single instrument].~~

§ 4. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 5-1501B of the general obligations law, as added by chapter 644 of the laws of 2008, the opening paragraph and paragraphs (b) and (c) of subdivision 1, and the opening paragraph and paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 340 of the laws of 2010, are amended to read as follows:

1. To be valid, except as otherwise provided in section 5-1512 of this title, a statutory short form power of attorney, or a non-statutory power of attorney, executed in this state by a principal, must:

(a) Be typed or printed using letters which are legible or of clear type no less than twelve point in size, or, if in writing, a reasonable equivalent thereof.

(b) Be signed, initialed and dated by a principal with capacity, or in the name of such principal by another person, other than a person designated as the principal's agent or successor agent, in the principal's presence and at the principal's direction, in either case with the signature of the ~~[principal]~~ person signing duly acknowledged in the manner prescribed for the acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property in the presence of the principal. When a person signs at the direction of a principal he or she shall sign by writing or printing the principal's name, and printing and signing his or her own name.

(c) Be signed and dated by any agent acting on behalf of the principal with the signature of the agent duly acknowledged in the manner prescribed for the acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property. A power of attorney executed pursuant to this section is not invalid solely because there has been a lapse of time between the date of acknowledgment of the signature of the principal and the date or dates of acknowledgment of the signature or signatures of any agent or agents or successor agent or successor agents authorized to act on behalf of the

1 principal or because the principal became incapacitated during any such 2 lapse of time.

3 (d) ~~[Contain the exact]~~ Substantially conform to the wording of the:

4 (1) "Caution to the Principal" in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of 5 section 5-1513 of this title; and

6 (2) "Important Information for the Agent" in paragraph (n) of subdivi-7 sion one of section 5-1513 of this title.

8 2. ~~[In addition to the requirements of subdivision one of this 9 section, to be valid for the purpose of authorizing the agent to make 10 certain gift transactions described in section 5-1514 of this title.~~

11 ~~(a) a statutory short form power of attorney must contain the authori-12 ty (SGR) initialed by the principal and be accompanied by a valid statu-13 tory gifts rider; and~~

14 ~~(b) a non-statutory power of attorney must be executed pursuant to the 15 requirements of paragraph (b) of subdivision nine of section 5-1514 of 16 this title.]~~ Insubstantial variation in the wording of the "Caution to 17 the Principal" of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 5-1513 of 18 this title or of the "Important Information for the Agent" of paragraph 19 (n) of subdivision one of section 5-1513 of this title shall not prevent 20 a power of attorney from being deemed a statutory short form power of 21 attorney or a non-statutory power of attorney.

36 ment which the agent may think useful for the accomplishment of any of 37 the purposes enumerated in this section;

39 gations law, as amended by chapter 340 of the laws of 2010, are amended 40 to read as follows:

41 2. To sell, to exchange, to convey either with or without covenants,

45 section 5-1514 of this title]~~ to grant options concerning, to lease or 46 to sublet to others, or otherwise to dispose of any chattel or goods or 47 any interest in any chattel or goods;

33 attorney without actual knowledge that the signature is not genuine may 34 rely upon the presumption that the signature is genuine.

35 (c) A person that in good faith accepts an acknowledged power of 54 (f) For purposes of this section, a person that conducts activities 55 through employees is without actual knowledge of a fact relating to a 56 power of attorney, a principal, or an agent if the employee conducting

2. No third party located or doing business in this state shall refuse, without reasonable cause, to honor a statutory short form power of attorney properly executed in accordance with section 5-1501B of this title, [~~including a statutory short form power of attorney which is supplemented by a statutory gifts rider,~~] or a statutory short form power of attorney properly executed in accordance with the laws in effect at the time of its execution.

(7) actual knowledge or a reasonable basis for believing that the power of attorney was procured through fraud, duress or undue influence;

(10) the refusal of a request for a certification or an opinion of counsel under paragraph (d) of subdivision one of this section.

(b) It shall be deemed unreasonable for a third party to refuse to honor a statutory short form power of attorney[, ~~including a statutory short form power of attorney which is supplemented by a statutory gifts rider,~~] properly executed in accordance with section 5-1501B of this title or a statutory short form power of attorney properly executed in accordance with the laws in effect at the time of its execution, if the only reason for the refusal is any of the following:

(2) there has been a lapse of time since the execution of the power of attorney.

(3) on the face of the statutory short form power of attorney, there is a lapse of time between the date of acknowledgment of the signature

6 of this title or in accordance with the laws in effect at the time of 7 its execution to a third party for acceptance, such third party shall 8 either (a) honor the statutory short form power of attorney, or (b) 9 reject the statutory short form power of attorney in a writing that sets 10 forth the reasons for such rejection, which writing shall be sent to the 11 principal and the agent at the addresses on the power of attorney and 12 such other addresses as provided by the principal or the agent, or (c) 13 request the agent to execute an acknowledged affidavit pursuant to 14 subdivision seven of this section stating that the power of attorney is 15 in full force and effect if the statutory short form power of attorney 16 was not submitted for acceptance together with such an acknowledged 17 affidavit. Such reasons for rejection may include, but not be limited to 18 non-conforming form, missing or wrong signature, invalid notarization, 19 or unacceptable identification. In the event that the statutory short 20 form power of attorney presented is not an original or attorney certi-21 fied copy, as part of the initial rejection, such short form power of 22 attorney may be rejected for such reason, provided, however, in explain-23 ing the reason for rejecting the short form power of attorney, the third 24 party shall also identify such other provisions of the short form power 25 of attorney, if any, that would otherwise constitute cause for rejection 26 of the statutory short form power of attorney. If the third party 27 initially rejects the statutory short form power of attorney in a writ-28 ing that sets forth the reasons for such rejection, the third party 29 shall within seven business days after receipt of a writing in response

32 of attorney in a writing that sets forth the reasons for such rejection.
33 Such writing shall be sent to the address provided on the power of 34 attorney, to the address of the agent, if any, and may also be sent to 35 such other address as shall be provided on the account documents, or to 36 the address of the attorney as provided in an opinion of counsel pursu-37 ant to this section. If the third party requests the agent to execute 38 such an acknowledged affidavit, the third party shall honor such statu-39 tory short form power of attorney within seven business days after 40 receipt by the third party of an acknowledged affidavit which complies 41 with the provisions of subdivision seven of this section, stating that 42 the power of attorney is in full force and effect unless reasonable 43 cause exists as described in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of this 44 section. For the purposes of this subdivision, notice shall be consid-45 ered delivered at the time such notice is mailed and the time require-46 ments in which to honor or reject the statutory short form power of 47 attorney or request the agent to execute an acknowledged affidavit shall 48 not apply to the department of audit and control or a public retirement 49 system of the state as defined in subdivision six of section one hundred 50 fifty-two of the retirement and social security law.

51 (b) Notice to the agent as required by paragraph (a) of this subdivi-52 sion shall not be sent until after a determination is made by adult 53 protective services if the reason for rejection is a reason set forth in 54 subdivision two of this section and is otherwise prohibited by law or 55 regulation.

1 4. (a) Once reasonably accepted, if a third party conducts a trans-2 action in reliance on a properly executed statutory short form power of 3 attorney, the third party shall be held harmless from liability for the 4 transaction.

5 (b) Except as provided in subdivision [three] five of this section, it 6 shall be deemed unlawful for a third party to unreasonably refuse to 7 honor a properly executed statutory short form power of attorney[7 8 including a statutory short form power of attorney which is supplemented 9 by a statutory gifts rider,] executed in accordance with section 5-1501B 10 of this title or a statutory short form power of attorney properly 11 executed in accordance with the laws in effect at the time of its 12 execution. [A] If a special proceeding as authorized by section 5-1510 13 of this title is brought to compel the third party to honor the statuto-14 ry short form power of attorney, the court may award damages, including 15 reasonable attorney's fees and costs, if the court finds that the third 16 party acted unreasonably in refusing to honor the agent's authority 17 under the statutory short form power of attorney. Such special proceed-18 ing shall be the exclusive remedy for a violation of this section.

19 [3-] 5. In the absence of actual knowledge that the principal lacked 20 capacity to execute a statutory short form power of attorney or that the 21 statutory short form power of attorney was procured through fraud, 22 duress or undue influence, no third party receiving and retaining a 23 [properly executed] statutory short form power of attorney properly 24 executed in accordance with section 5-1501B of this title, [including a 25 statutory short form power of attorney which is supplemented by a statu-26 tory gifts rider] or a statutory short form power of attorney properly 27 executed in accordance with the laws in effect at the time of its 28 execution, or a complete photostatic copy of the properly executed 29 original thereof, nor any officer, agent, attorney-in-fact or employee 30 of such third party shall incur any liability by reason of acting upon 31 the authority thereof unless the third party shall have received actual 32 notice of the revocation or termination of such power of attorney.

33 If a principal maintains an account at a financial institution, the 34 financial institution is deemed to have actual notice after it has had a 35 reasonable opportunity to act on a written notice of the revocation or 36 termination following its receipt of the same at its office where such 37 account is located.

38 [4-] 6. If the application of the provisions of subdivision [one or] 39 two or four of this section shall be held invalid to any third party the 40 application of such provisions to any third party other than those to 41 which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

42 [5-] 7. When the power of attorney is presented to a third party, it 43 shall not be deemed unreasonable for a third party to require the agent 44 to execute an acknowledged affidavit pursuant to this subdivision stat-45 ing that the power of attorney is in full force and effect. Such an 46 affidavit is conclusive proof to the third party relying on the power of 47 attorney that the power of attorney is valid and effective, and has not 48 been terminated, revoked or modified, except as to any third party who 49 had actual notice that the power of attorney had terminated, been 50 revoked or been modified prior to the execution of the affidavit. Such 51 affidavit shall state that:

52 (a) the agent does not have, at the time of the transaction, actual 53 notice of the termination or revocation of the power of attorney, or 54 notice of any facts indicating that the power of attorney has been 55 terminated or revoked;

(b) the agent does not have, at the time of the transaction, actual notice that the power of attorney has been modified in any way that would affect the ability of the agent to authorize or engage in the transaction, or notice of any facts indicating that the power of attorney has been so modified;

(c) if the agent was named as a successor agent, the prior agent is no longer able or willing to serve; and

(d) if the agent has been the principal's spouse, the power of attorney expressly provides that divorce or annulment as defined in subparagraph two of paragraph (f) of section 5-1.4 of the estates, powers and trusts law does not terminate the agent's authority thereunder, or the agent does not have actual notice that the marriage has been terminated by divorce or annulment as defined in subparagraph two of paragraph (f) of section 5-1.4 of the estates, powers and trusts law at the time of the transaction.

~~[6.]~~ 8. Nothing in this section shall require the acceptance of a form that is not a statutory short form power of attorney.

~~[7.]~~ 9. A statutory short form power of attorney or a non-statutory power of attorney that meets the requirements of subdivision one of section 5-1501B of this title shall be accepted for recording so long as it has been signed by one agent named therein whose signature has been acknowledged. If two or more agents acting on behalf of the principal are required to act together, the power of attorney shall be accepted for recording as long as their signatures have been acknowledged. When a successor or co-agent authorized to act separately from any other agents presents a certified copy of a recorded statutory short form power of attorney or non-statutory power of attorney with the agent's signature acknowledged, the instrument shall be accepted for recording.

§ 15. Subparagraph 2 of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 5-1505 of the general obligations law, as amended by chapter 340 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

(2) To keep the principal's property separate and distinct from any other property owned or controlled by the agent, except for property that is jointly owned by the principal and agent at the time of the execution of the power of attorney, and property that becomes jointly owned after the execution of the power of attorney as the result of the agent's acquisition of an interest in the principal's property by reason of the agent's exercise of authority granted in the modifications section of a statutory ~~[gifts rider]~~ short form power of attorney or in a non-statutory power of attorney ~~[signed and dated by the principal with the signature of the principal duly acknowledged in the manner prescribed for the acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property, and which is executed pursuant to the requirements of paragraph (b) of subdivision nine of section 5-1514 of this title]~~. The agent may not make gifts ~~[to]~~ of the principal's property to himself or herself without specific authorization in a power of attorney.

§ 16. Paragraphs (h) and (i) of subdivision 2 of section 5-1510 of the general obligations law, as added by chapter 644 of the laws of 2008, are amended to read as follows:

(h) to construe any provision of a power of attorney; or

(i) to compel acceptance of the power of attorney ~~[in which event the relief to be granted is limited to an order compelling acceptance]~~.

§ 17. Section 5-1513 of the general obligations law, as amended by chapter 340 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 5-1513. Statutory short form power of attorney. ~~[1.]~~ The use of the following form, or one which substantially conforms to the following

1 form, in the creation of a power of attorney is lawful, and, when used, 2 and executed in accordance with subdivision one of section 5-1501B of 3 this title, it shall be construed as a statutory short form power of 4 attorney in accordance with the provisions of this title; provided 5 however, that any section indicated as "Optional" which is not used may 6 be omitted and replaced by the words "Intentionally Omitted":

7 "POWER OF ATTORNEY

8 NEW YORK STATUTORY SHORT FORM

9 (a) CAUTION TO THE PRINCIPAL: Your Power of Attorney is an important 10 document. As the "principal," you give the person whom you choose (your 11 "agent") authority to spend your money and sell or dispose of your prop-12 erty during your lifetime without telling you. You do not lose your 13 authority to act even though you have given your agent similar authori-14 ty.

15 When your agent exercises this authority, he or she must act according 16 to any instructions you have provided or, where there are no specific 17 instructions, in your best interest. "Important Information for the 18 Agent" at the end of this document describes your agent's responsibil-19 ities.

20 Your agent can act on your behalf only after signing the Power of 21 Attorney before a notary public.

22 You can request information from your agent at any time. If you are 23 revoking a prior Power of Attorney, you should provide written notice of 24 the revocation to your prior agent(s) and to any third parties who may 25 have acted upon it, including the financial institutions where your 26 accounts are located.

27 You can revoke or terminate your Power of Attorney at any time for any 28 reason as long as you are of sound mind. If you are no longer of sound 29 mind, a court can remove an agent for acting improperly.

30 Your agent cannot make health care decisions for you. You may execute 31 a "Health Care Proxy" to do this.

32 The law governing Powers of Attorney is contained in the New York 33 General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. This law is available at a 34 law library, or online through the New York State Senate or Assembly 35 websites, [~~www.senate.state.ny.us~~] www.nysenate.gov or 15 of Attorney or otherwise, is not effective as to a third party until the 16 third party has actual notice or knowledge of the termination.

27 (n) IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR THE AGENT:

28 When you accept the authority granted under this Power of Attorney, a 29 special legal relationship is created between you and the principal.
30 This relationship imposes on you legal responsibilities that continue 31 until you resign or the Power of Attorney is terminated or revoked. You 32 must:

33 (1) act according to any instructions from the principal, or, where

47 You may not use the principal's assets to benefit yourself or anyone 48 else or make gifts to yourself or anyone else unless the principal has 49 specifically granted you that authority in the modifications section of 1 this document[~~, which is either a Statutory Gifts Rider attached to a~~ 2 ~~Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney~~] or a Non-Statutory Power of 3 Attorney. If you have that authority, you must act according to any 4 instructions of the principal or, where there are no such instructions, 5 in the principal's best interest. You may resign by giving written 6 notice to the principal and to any co-agent, successor agent, monitor if 7 one has been named in this document, or the principal's guardian if one 8 has been appointed. If there is anything about this document or your 9 responsibilities that you do not understand, you should seek legal 10 advice.

11 Liability of agent:

12 The meaning of the authority given to you is defined in New York's 13 General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. If it is found that you
