AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to noncompliance with an income execution order

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph 1 of subdivision (g) of section 5241 of the civil 2 practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 270 of the laws of 2013,
3 is amended to read as follows:

4 (1) (A) An employer or income payor served with an income execution 5 shall commence deductions from income due or thereafter due to the 6 debtor no later than the first pay period that occurs fourteen days
7 after service of the execution, and shall remit payments within seven 8 business days of the date that the debtor is paid. Each payment remitted 9 by an employer or income payor shall include the information as 10 instructed on the income execution and shall be payable to and remitted 11 to the state disbursement unit established in this state in accordance 12 with section six hundred fifty-four-b of title forty-two of the United 13 States Code unless the income execution is for spousal support only, in 14 which case the payments shall be payable to and remitted to the creditor.
15 If the money due to the debtor consists of salary or wages and his 16 or her employment is terminated by resignation or dismissal at any time 17 after service of the execution, the levy shall thereafter be ineffective,
18 and the execution shall be returned, unless the debtor is reinstated 19 or re-employed within ninety days after such termination. An 20 employer must notify the issuer promptly when the debtor terminates 21 employment and provide the debtor's last address and name and address of 22 the new employer, if known. An income payor must notify the issuer 23 promptly when the debtor no longer receives income and must provide the 24 debtor's last address and the name and address of the debtor's new 25 employer, if known. Where the income is compensation paid or payable to

1 the debtor for personal services, the amount of the deductions to be 2 withheld shall not exceed the following:

3 (i) Where a debtor is currently supporting a spouse or dependent child 4 other than the creditor, the amount of the deductions to be withheld
5 shall not exceed fifty percent of the earnings of the debtor remaining 6 after the deduction therefrom of any amounts required by law to be with-7 held ("disposable earnings"), except that if any part of such deduction
8 is to be applied to the reduction of arrears which shall have accrued 9 more than twelve weeks prior to the beginning of the week for which such 10 earnings are payable, the amount of such deduction shall not exceed 11 fifty-five percent of disposable earnings.

12 (ii) Where a debtor is not currently supporting a spouse or dependent 13 child other than the creditor, the amount of the deductions to be with-14 held shall not exceed sixty percent of the earnings of the debtor
15 remaining after the deduction therefrom of any amounts required by law 16 to be withheld ("disposable earnings"), except that if any part of such 17 deduction is to be applied to the reduction of arrears which shall have 18 accrued more than twelve weeks prior to the beginning of the week for 19 which such earnings are payable, the amount of such deduction shall not 20 exceed sixty-five percent of disposable earnings.

21 (B) An employer or income payor served with an income execution shall 22 be served a notice by the creditor for each failure to withhold
23 deductions from income due or thereafter due to the debtor. Such notice
24 shall state the date payment was due under subparagraph (A) of this 25 paragraph, the date on which such notice was served, whether such notice 26 concerns a first, or subsequent offense and the monies owed in penalty.
27 In calculating the penalty under this subparagraph the support 28 collection unit shall use the penalties described in subparagraph (D) of 29 paragraph two of this subdivision and shall aggregate the penalties for 30 each instance of failure to withhold deductions or to remit payment to 31 the unit.

32 § 2. Subparagraph (D) of paragraph 2 of subdivision (g) of section 33 5241 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 335 of 34 the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

35 (D) In addition to the remedies herein provided and as may be other-36 wise authorized by law, upon a finding by the family court that the 37 employer or income payor failed to deduct or remit deductions as 38 directed in the income execution, the court shall issue to the employer
39 or income payor an order directing compliance and may direct the payment 40 of a civil penalty not to exceed five hundred dollars for the first 41 instance and one thousand dollars per instance for the second and subse-
42 quent instances of employer or income payor noncompliance. Upon a find-43 ing that the creditor has complied with the notice provisions of subpar-
44 agraph (B) of paragraph one of this subdivision, the court shall impose 45 a penalty as described for each failure to withhold deductions or remit 46 payment to the unit; provided that such penalties shall not accrue to 47 the government of the United States or the government of the state of 48 New York or its political subdivisions. The penalty shall be paid to the 49 creditor and may be enforced in the same manner as a civil judgment or 50 in any other manner permitted by law.

51 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
