AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to the rehabilitation of historic properties tax credit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph 1 of subsection (oo) of
2 section 606 of the tax law, as amended by section 1 of part RR of chap-
3 ter 59 of the laws of 2018, is amended and two new paragraphs 6 and 7
4 are added to read as follows:

5 (A) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thou-
6 sand ten and before January first, two thousand twenty-five, a taxpayer
7 shall be allowed a credit as hereinafter provided, against the tax
8 imposed by this article, in an amount equal to one hundred percent of 9 the amount of credit allowed the taxpayer with respect to a certified
10 historic structure, and one hundred fifty percent of the amount of cred-
11 it allowed the taxpayer with respect to a certified historic structure
12 that is a small project, under internal revenue code section 47(c)(3), 13 determined without regard to ratably allocating the credit over a five 14 year period as required by subsection (a) of such section 47, with 15 respect to a certified historic structure located within the state.
16 Provided, however, the credit shall not exceed five million dollars. For 17 taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-
18 five, a taxpayer shall be allowed a credit as hereinafter provided,
19 against the tax imposed by this article, in an amount equal to thirty
20 percent of the amount of credit allowed the taxpayer with respect to a
21 certified historic structure under internal revenue code section
22 47(c)(3), determined without regard to ratably allocating the credit

over a five year period as required by subsection (a) of such section 47, with respect to a certified historic structure located within the state; provided, however, the credit shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars.

(6) A taxpayer is permitted to transfer such credit allowed under this subsection, in whole or in part, to any individual or entity, without the requirement of transferring any ownership interest in the certified historic structure or any interest in the entity which owns the certified historic structure; provided, however, that a taxpayer may only transfer such credit once. Any individual or entity to whom the credit was transferred may not transfer the credit, in whole or in part, to any other party but may claim it against the tax imposed by this article. Such transfer shall not affect the time schedule for claiming the credit transferred. Any credit recaptured shall be the liability of the taxpayer who actually claimed the credit. The claim of a transferee shall be permitted in the same manner and subject to the same provisions of this subsection as applied to the taxpayer to whom the credit was originally allowed.

(7) For purposes of this subsection the term "small project" means qualified rehabilitation expenditures totaling five million dollars or less.

§ 2. Subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 26 of section 210-B of the tax law, as amended by section 2 of part RR of chapter 59 of the laws of 2018, is amended and a new paragraph (f) is added to read as follows:

(i) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand ten, and before January first, two thousand twenty-five, a taxpayer shall be allowed a credit as hereinafter provided, against the tax imposed by this article, in an amount equal to one hundred percent of the amount of credit allowed the taxpayer for the same taxable year with respect to a certified historic structure, and one hundred fifty percent of the amount of credit allowed the taxpayer with respect to a certified historic structure that is a small project, under internal revenue code section 47(c)(3), determined without regard to ratably allocating the credit over a five year period as required by subsection (a) of such section 47, with respect to a certified historic structure located within the state. Provided, however, the credit shall not exceed five million dollars.

(f) For purposes of this subdivision "small project" means qualified rehabilitation expenditures totaling five million dollars or less.

§ 3. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph 1 of subdivision (y) of section 1511 of the tax law, as amended by section 3 of part RR of chapter 59 of the laws of 2018, is amended and a new paragraph 6 is added to read as follows:

(A) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand ten and before January first, two thousand twenty-five, a taxpayer shall be allowed a credit as hereinafter provided, against the tax imposed by this article, in an amount equal to one hundred percent of the amount of credit allowed the taxpayer with respect to a certified historic structure, and one hundred fifty percent of the amount of credit allowed the taxpayer with respect to a certified historic structure that is a small project, under internal revenue code section 47(c)(3), determined without regard to ratably allocating the credit over a five year period as required by subsection (a) of such section 47, with respect to a certified historic structure located within the state. Provided, however, the credit shall not exceed five million dollars. For

1 taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-
2 five, a taxpayer shall be allowed a credit as hereinafter provided,
3 against the tax imposed by this article, in an amount equal to thirty
4 percent of the amount of credit allowed the taxpayer with respect to a
5 certified historic structure under internal revenue code section
6 47(c)(3), determined without regard to ratably allocating the credit
7 over a five year period as required by subsection (a) of such section 47
8 with respect to a certified historic structure located within the state.
9 Provided, however, the credit shall not exceed one hundred thousand
10 dollars.

11 (6) For purposes of this subdivision "small project" means qualified
12 rehabilitation expenditures totaling five million dollars or less.

13 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable
14 years beginning on and after January 1, 2020.
