4 under the jurisdiction of local governing boards or a charter school 5 board, the state university as defined in subdivision one of section 6 three hundred fifty of the education law and community colleges as 7 defined in subdivision two of section sixty-three hundred one of the 8 education law.

9 17. "School police and security departments" includes police and secu-10 rity departments of the state university of New York, community 11 colleges, charter schools, public elementary and secondary schools and 12 school districts.

13 § 319-a. Restrictions on New York law enforcement agency actions. 1.
14 New York law enforcement agencies shall not:

15 (a) Use agency or department moneys or personnel to investigate, 16 interrogate, detain, detect, or arrest persons for immigration enforce-17 ment purposes, including any of the following:

18 (i) Inquiring into a person's immigration status.

19 (ii) Detaining a person on the basis of a hold request.

20 (iii) Providing information regarding a person's release date or 21 responding to requests for notification by providing release dates or 22 other information unless that information is available to the public, or 23 is in response to a notification request from immigration authorities in 24 accordance with section three hundred nineteen-b of this article.
25 Responses are never required, but are permitted under this subdivision, 26 provided that they do not violate any local law or policy.

27 (iv) Providing personal information about a person as defined in 28 subdivision seven of section ninety-two of the public officers law, 29 including, but not limited to, such person's home address or work 30 address unless that information is available to the public.

31 (v) Making or intentionally participating in arrests based on civil 32 immigration warrants.

33 (vi) Assisting immigration authorities in the activities described in 34 paragraph three of subsection (a) of section thirteen hundred fifty-sev-35 en of title eight of the United States code.

36 (vii) Performing the functions of an immigration officer, whether 37 pursuant to subsection (g) of section thirteen hundred fifty-seven of 38 title eight of the United States code or any other law, regulation, or 39 policy, whether formal or informal.

40 (b) Place peace officers under the supervision of federal agencies or 41 employ peace officers deputized as special federal officers or special 42 federal deputies for purposes of immigration enforcement. All peace 43 officers remain subject to New York law governing conduct of peace offi-44 cers and the policies of the employing agency.

45 (c) Use immigration authorities as interpreters for law enforcement 46 matters relating to persons in agency or department custody.

47 (d) Transfer a person to immigration authorities unless authorized by 48 a judicial warrant or judicial probable cause determination, or in 49 accordance with section three hundred nineteen-b of this article.

50 (e) Provide office space exclusively dedicated for immigration author-51 ities for use within a city or county law enforcement facility.

52 (f) Contract with the federal government for use of New York law 53 enforcement agency facilities to house individuals as federal detainees.

54 2. Notwithstanding the limitations in subdivision one of this section, 55 this section does not prevent any New York law enforcement agency from 56 doing any of the following that does not violate any policy of the law

1 enforcement agency or any local law or policy of the jurisdiction in 2 which the agency is operating:

3 (a) Investigating, enforcing, or detaining upon reasonable suspicion 4 of, or arresting for a violation of, subsection (a) of section thirteen 5 hundred twenty-six of title eight of the United States code that may be 6 subject to the enhancement specified in paragraph two of subsection (b) 7 of section thirteen hundred twenty-six of title eight of the United 8 States code and that is detected during an unrelated law enforcement 9 activity. Transfers to immigration authorities are permitted under such 10 subsection only in accordance with paragraph (d) of subdivision one of 11 this section.

12 (b) Responding to a request from immigration authorities for informa-13 tion about a specific person's criminal history, including previous 14 criminal arrests, convictions, or similar criminal history information 15 accessed through the division of criminal justice services, where other-16 wise permitted by state law.

17 (c) Conducting enforcement or investigative duties associated with a 18 joint law enforcement task force, including the sharing of confidential 19 information with other law enforcement agencies for purposes of task 20 force investigations, so long as the following conditions are met:

21 (i) The primary purpose of the joint law enforcement task force is not 22 immigration enforcement, as defined in subdivision eleven of section 23 three hundred nineteen of this article.

24 (ii) The enforcement or investigative duties are primarily related to 25 a violation of state or federal law unrelated to immigration enforce-26 ment.

27 (iii) Participation in the task force by a New York law enforcement 28 agency does not violate any local law or policy to which it is otherwise 29 subject.

30 (d) Making inquiries into information necessary to certify a person 31 who has been identified as a potential crime or trafficking victim for a 32 T or U visa pursuant to subparagraphs (T) and (U) of paragraph fifteen 33 of subsection (a) of section eleven hundred one of title eight of the 34 United States code or to comply with paragraph five of subsection (d) of 35 section nine hundred twenty-two of title eighteen of the United States 36 code.

37 (e) Giving immigration authorities access to interview a person in 38 agency or department custody.

39 3. (a) If a New York law enforcement agency chooses to participate in 40 a joint law enforcement task force, for which such agency has agreed to 41 dedicate personnel or resources on an ongoing basis, such agency shall 42 submit a report annually to the division of criminal justice services.
43 Such agency shall report the following information, if known, for each 44 task force of which it is a member:

45 (i) The purpose of the task force;

46 (ii) The federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies involved;

47 (iii) The total number of arrests made during the reporting period; 48 and

49 (iv) The number of people arrested for immigration enforcement 50 purposes.

51 (b) All law enforcement agencies shall report annually to the division 52 of criminal justice services, in a manner specified by the commissioner 53 of the division of criminal justice services, the number of transfers 54 pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision one of this section, and the 55 offense that allowed for the transfer, pursuant to such paragraph.

1 (c) All records described in this subdivision shall be public records 2 for purposes of article six of the public officers law.

3 (d) If more than one New York law enforcement agency is participating 4 in a joint task force that meets the reporting requirement pursuant to 5 this section, the joint task force shall designate a local or state 6 agency responsible for completing the reporting requirement.

7 4. The commissioner of the division of criminal justice services, by 8 March first, two thousand twenty-one, and annually thereafter, shall 9 report on the total number of arrests made by joint law enforcement task 10 forces, and the total number of arrests made for the purpose of immi-11 gration enforcement by all task force participants, including federal 12 law enforcement agencies. To the extent that disclosure of a particular 13 item of information would endanger the safety of a person involved in an 14 investigation, or would endanger the successful completion of the inves-15 tigation or a related investigation, that information shall not be 16 included in such report. The commissioner of the division of criminal 17 justice services shall post the reports required by this subdivision on 18 the division of criminal justice services internet web site.

19 5. This section does not prohibit or restrict any government entity or 20 official from sending to, or receiving from, federal immigration author-21 ities, information regarding the citizenship or immigration status, 22 lawful or unlawful, of a person, or from requesting from federal immi-23 gration authorities immigration status information, lawful or unlawful, 24 of any person, or maintaining or exchanging that information with any 25 other federal, state, or local government entity, pursuant to sections 26 thirteen hundred seventy-three and sixteen hundred forty-four of title 27 eight of the United States code.

28 6. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a New York law enforcement 29 agency from asserting its own jurisdiction over criminal law enforcement 30 matters.

31 § 319-b. Standards for responding to United States immigration and 32 customs enforcement holds. 1. A law enforcement official shall have 33 discretion to cooperate with immigration authorities only if doing so 34 would not violate any federal, state, or local law, or local policy, and 35 where permitted by section three hundred nineteen-a of this article.
36 Additionally, the specific activities described in subparagraph (iii) of 37 paragraph (a) of subdivision one of such section and in paragraph (d) of 38 subdivision one of such section shall only occur under the following 39 circumstances:

40 (a) Such person has been convicted of a violent felony as defined in 41 subdivision one of section 70.02 of the penal law.

42 (b) Such person has been convicted of a felony punishable by imprison-43 ment in the state prison.

44 (c) Such person has been convicted within the past five years of a 45 misdemeanor for a crime that is punishable as either a misdemeanor or a 46 felony, or has been convicted within the last fifteen years of a felony.

47 (d) Such person is a current registrant on the state sex offender 48 registry pursuant to article six-C of the correction law.

49 (e) Such person has been convicted of a federal crime that meets the 50 definition of an aggravated felony as set forth in subparagraphs (A) to 51 (P), inclusive, of paragraph forty-three of subsection (a) of section 52 one hundred one of the Federal Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.
53 Sec. 1101), or is identified by the United States department of homeland 54 security's immigration and customs enforcement as the subject of an 55 outstanding federal felony arrest warrant.

2. In cases in which a person is arrested and taken before a magistrate on a charge involving a violent felony, as defined in subdivision one of section 70.02 of the penal law, or a felony that is punishable by imprisonment in state prison, and the court makes a finding of reasonable cause as to that charge pursuant to section 180.70 of the criminal procedure law, a law enforcement official shall additionally have discretion to cooperate with immigration officials pursuant to subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section three hundred nineteen-a of this article.

§ 319-c. Cooperation policies. 1. The attorney general of the state of New York, by October first, two thousand twenty, in consultation with appropriate stakeholders, shall publish model policies limiting assistance with immigration enforcement to the fullest extent possible consistent with federal and state law at public schools, public libraries, health facilities and shelters operated by the state or a political subdivision of the state, courthouses, department of labor facilities, the department of workers compensation and the department of social services, and ensuring that they remain safe and accessible to all New York residents, regardless of immigration status. All public schools, health facilities operated by the state or a political subdivision of the state, and courthouses shall implement such model policy, or an equivalent policy.

2. For any databases operated by state and local law enforcement agencies, including databases maintained for the agency by private vendors, the attorney general of the state of New York shall, by October first, two thousand twenty, in consultation with appropriate stakeholders, publish guidance, audit criteria, and training recommendations aimed at ensuring that those databases are governed in a manner that limits the availability of information therein to the fullest extent practicable and consistent with federal and state law, to anyone or any entity for the purpose of immigration enforcement. All state and local law enforcement agencies shall adopt necessary changes to database governance policies consistent with such guidance.

§ 319-d. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this article shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

§ 2. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 626 to read as follows:

§ 626. Cooperation with United States immigration and customs enforcement. 1. The department shall:

(a) In advance of any interview between the United States immigration and customs enforcement (ICE) and a person in department custody regarding civil immigration violations, provide such person with a written consent form that explains the purpose of the interview, that the interview is voluntary, and that he or she may decline to be interviewed or may choose to be interviewed only with his or her attorney present.

(b) Upon receiving any ICE hold, notification, or transfer request, as defined in section three hundred nineteen of the executive law, provide a copy of the request to such person and inform him or her whether the department intends to comply with the request.

2. The department shall not:

1 (a) Restrict access to any in-prison educational or rehabilitative 2 programming, or credit-earning opportunity on the sole basis of citizen-3 ship or immigration status, including, but not limited to, whether a 4 person is in removal proceedings, or immigration authorities have issued 5 a hold request, transfer request, notification request, or civil immi-6 gration warrant against such person.

7 (b) Consider citizenship and immigration status as a factor in deter-8 mining a person's custodial classification level, including, but not 9 limited to, whether such person is in removal proceedings, or whether 10 immigration authorities have issued a hold request, transfer request, 11 notification request, or civil immigration warrant against such person.

12 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 13 have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment 14 and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation 15 of this act on its effective date are authorized and directed to be made 16 and completed on or before such effective date.
