IN ASSEMBLY

February 26, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. BICHOTTE, CYMBROWITZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to provision of interpreters at certain poll sites

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The election law is amended by adding a new section 8-110 2 to read as follows:

3 § 8-110. Boards of elections; provision of interpreters. 1. Notwith-4 standing any provision of law to the contrary, the board of elections for each county shall, at a minimum, provide at least one interpreter for each of the six most common languages spoken by individuals with limited English proficiency residing in such county at all poll sites that contain an election district with at least fifty voting age resi-9 dents with limited English proficiency. The six most common limited 10 English proficiency languages, as well as the voting districts with at least fifty voting age residents with limited English proficiency, shall 11 be determined by the board of elections based upon the most recent 12 United States census data or American community service data, whichever 13 14 is more recent, and beginning on January first, two thousand twenty-two, 15 such data shall be reviewed every two years. Unless an election district 16 has at least fifty voting age residents with limited English proficiency who speak one of the six common languages spoken by individuals with 17 limited English proficiency residing in such county, an interpreter for 18 such language shall not be required for any poll site in such election 19 20 district.

2. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the New York 22 city board of elections shall, at a minimum, provide interpreters for all languages that are designated city-wide languages pursuant to section 23-1101 of the administrative code of the city of New York at 2.5 all poll sites that contain an election district with at least fifty voting age residents whose limited English proficiency language is a designated city-wide language. The voting districts with at least fifty voting age residents with limited English proficiency shall be made by 3 the New York city board of elections based upon the most recent United States census data or American community service data, whichever is more recent, and beginning on January first, two thousand twenty-two, such data shall be reviewed every two years. Unless an election district has 7 at least fifty voting age residents with limited English proficiency who 9 speak a specific city-wide language, an interpreter for such city-wide language shall not be required for any poll site in such election 10 11 district.

- 3. All interpreters provided by a board of elections pursuant to subdivision one or two of this section shall be made available to the public inside the poll site. Any interpreter who engages in any activity in violation of subdivision one of section 8-104 of this article shall be immediately relieved of his or her duties as an interpreter.
- 4. Nothing in this section shall restrict or prohibit a board of elections from providing interpreters for languages that are not required pursuant to this section.
- 5. The state board of elections shall promulgate rules and regulations that include establishing standards for the number of interpreters that will be required at each poll site based upon the number of voting age residents in an election district with limited English proficiency that speak a specific language.
- § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
