2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

February 27, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. ABBATE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to the appointment and promotion of supervisors of the emergency medical service

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 59-b of the civil service law, as added by a chap-
2 ter of the laws of 2018, amending the civil service law relating to the 3 appointment and promotion of supervisors of the emergency medical 4 service, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 5118-B and A.
5 6990-A, is amended to read as follows:

6 § 59-b. Promotions of supervisory personnel of the emergency medical 7 service. 1. The legislature hereby finds and declares that the contin-
8 ued, uninterrupted, adequate and efficient operation of emergency
9 medical services is necessary for the general welfare of the people; 10 that such adequate operation involves and requires personnel with highly 11 specialized ability, skill, training and knowledge, which necessitate 12 that vacancies in the emergency medical services in the positions of 13 Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialist Level II (Captains), 14 Deputy Chief, Division Chief, and Division Commander, shall be filled as 15 far as practicable by promotion from among persons holding competitive
16 class positions in a lower grade in the department in which the vacancy 17 exists, provided that such lower grade positions are in direct line of 18 promotion, as determined by the department or municipal commission.

19 2. Promotion shall be based on merit and fitness as determined by 20 competitive examination, due weight being given to seniority. The previ-
21 ous training and experience of the candidates, and performance ratings 22 where available, may be considered and given due weight as factors in 23 determining the relative merit and fitness of candidates for promotion.

24 3. Any permanent competitive employee holding a provisional or discre-
25 tionary appointment in the affected supervisory titles of the emergency
