Introduced by M. of A. ORTIZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Economic Development

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to educating foreign women entering this country as prospective spouses about the history of the men they may be marrying and their rights as residents of the United States if they become victims of domestic violence

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "International Marriage Brokers Act".

3 § 2. Legislative findings. In 1999, the Immigration and Naturalization
4 Service commissioned a study that found more than 200 international 5 marriage brokers operating around the globe, arranging between 4,000 and 6 6,000 marriages between American men and foreign women every year.
7 Today, the number of international marriage brokers is nearly 500 world-8 wide and, based on the 1999 statistics, 20,000 to 30,000 women have 9 entered the United States using an international marriage broker in the 10 past five years. In 1993, the Commonwealth Fund estimated that seven 11 percent of American women who are married or living with someone are 12 physically abused in a year's time, and that the incidence is higher in 13 mail-order marriages. The purpose of this act is to regulate interna-
14 tional marriage brokers and to inform prospective wives of the history 15 of the men they may be marrying and their rights as residents of the 16 United States if they become victims of domestic violence.

17 § 3. The general business law is amended by adding a new article 28-CC
18 to read as follows:

27 obligee for damages and costs incurred from the international marriage 28 broker's failure to comply with the requirements of this article.

27 violated a provision of this article, it shall award actual damages,
28 plus an amount equal to treble the amount of actual damages or one thou-29 sand dollars per violation, whichever is greater. The court shall also

33 reduce the principal amount of the bond remaining available to pay
34 claims below the principal amount required by section four hundred 35 seventy-two of this article, the international marriage broker shall 36 cease to conduct any business within the state unless and until the bond 37 has been reinstated up to the minimum amount required by section four 38 hundred seventy-two of this article.

39 § 474. Enforcement. The secretary of state shall enforce the 40 provisions of this article that govern the filing and maintenance of 41 surety bonds and shall promulgate any rules and regulations pertaining 42 to the posting of such bonds.

43 § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 44 it shall have become a law.
