

STATE OF NEW YORK

2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

March 4, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. WALKER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the county law, the real property actions and proceedings law, the vehicle and traffic law, the state finance law and the judiciary law, in relation to enacting the "NY Civil Gideon Act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "New York Civil Gideon act".

§ 2. The county law is amended by adding a new article 18-C to read as follows:

ARTICLE 18-C

REPRESENTATION OF PERSONS IN CIVIL MATTERS

Section 723. Legislative findings.

723-a. Civil right to counsel commission.

723-b. Lead agency for civil right to counsel.

723-c. Assigned counsel for civil matters review panel.

723-d. Compensation and reimbursement.

§ 723. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

1. Every year, at least eighty percent of the civil legal needs of low income New Yorkers go unmet.

2. These legal needs often concern matters pertaining to the essentials of life including shelter, food, employment, health, and family sustainability.

3. The lack of available civil legal assistance undermines comprehensive assistance for crime victims.

4. The lack of civil legal services to resolve a family's legal problems often disrupts the children and young adults' education, frequently with a permanent impact.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD05937-01-9

1 5. The lack of civil legal services can worsen chronic health problems 2 often increasing the cost of medical care.

3 6. The lack of civil legal services can result in homelessness not 4 only affecting the individual families but also destabilizing entire 5 neighborhoods.

6 7. In light of these trying economic times, the need for civil legal 7 services has increased beyond individuals below the federal poverty 8 guidelines to homeowners and other middle income New Yorkers that 9 provide the foundation for New York's economy.

10 8. The substantial number of unrepresented litigants in civil legal 11 matters adversely impacts the quality of justice for all parties in the 12 courts of New York state, increases the amount of litigation, and under-13 mines the rule of law.

14 9. It has been found that when a society is unable to meet their basic 15 human needs it is in an ongoing state of emergency.

16 10. The unmet need for civil legal assistance in the state is 17 profoundly impacting vulnerable New Yorkers and costing taxpayers 18 millions of dollars by increasing homelessness, failing to prevent 19 domestic violence, and increasing poverty.

20 11. In order to address this emergency, this legislature finds that a 21 right to counsel in certain civil matters is imperative.

22 § 723-a. Civil right to counsel commission. 1. There is hereby estab-
23 lished the civil right to counsel commission. The commission shall be 24 composed of eleven members.

25 2. a. The members of the commission shall be appointed as follows:

26 (i) one member shall be appointed by the governor and shall be an 27 attorney with expertise in civil legal services;

28 (ii) one member shall be appointed by the temporary president of the 29 senate;

30 (iii) one member shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly;

31 (iv) one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the 32 assembly;

33 (v) one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the 34 senate;

35 (vi) two members shall be appointed by the chief judge of the court of 36 appeals;

37 (vii) one member shall be appointed by the association of counties;

38 (viii) one member shall be appointed by the mayor of the city of New 39 York and shall be an attorney who has provided civil legal services for 40 at least five years;

41 (ix) one member shall be appointed by the governor, from a list of no 42 more than two nominees submitted by the chief administrator of the 43 courts, each of whom shall be a judge or justice, or retired judge or 44 justice, who was elected to the supreme, county or family court, or 45 appointed to the criminal court or family court in the city of New York, 46 and has substantial experience presiding as such a judge or justice in 47 trial matters before such court; and

48 (x) one member shall be appointed by the New York state bar associ-49 ation.

50 b. All members of the commission shall be residents of the state of 51 New York.

52 c. The members of the commission shall serve terms of four years. All 53 members shall serve until their successors are appointed. Vacancies on 54 the commission shall be filled for the remainder of the term in the 55 manner provided for by the original appointment.

1 d. The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for 2 their services, but shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses
3 incurred in the performance of their duties.

4 e. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of law, no officer or 5 employee of the state or any civil division thereof shall be deemed to 6 have forfeited or shall forfeit his or her office or employment by 7 reason of his or her acceptance of membership on the commission.

8 f. The commission shall meet at least once per year.

9 g. A majority of the members of the commission shall constitute a 10 quorum.

11 h. The chief judge of the court of appeals, or his or her designee, 12 shall serve as a non-voting ex-officio member of the commission.

13 i. Appointment to the commission shall be filed by the chief judge of 14 the court of appeals, who shall convene the first meeting of the commis-15 sion following the filing of the majority of appointments. At the 16 initial meeting the members shall elect officers.

17 3. The commission shall submit to the governor, temporary president of 18 the senate, speaker of the assembly and the chief judge of the court of 19 appeals an annual report on or before the anniversary date of the 20 commission's first meeting. Such report shall contain all pertinent data 21 for the prior twelve months on the operation of the commission including 22 the number of assigned counsel in each county, the number of cases 23 assigned, the number of cases resolved, recommendations for additional 24 attorneys, if necessary, the cost of operation and financial assistance 25 to localities. Such report shall also include the proposed budget for 26 the succeeding twelve months including funds for financial assistance to 27 localities.

28 § 723-b. Lead agency for civil right to counsel. 1. Representation 29 for persons in civil matters shall be a partnership between the courts 30 and all qualified legal services providers, bar associations and private 31 organizations.

32 2. The legal services providers shall serve as the lead agency for 33 case assessment and direction under this article and furthermore shall:

34 a. be the central point of contact for receipt of referrals for legal 35 representation;

36 b. make determinations of eligibility based on uniform criteria;

37 c. be responsible for providing representation to the clients or 38 referring the matter to one of the organizations or individual providers 39 with whom the lead legal services agency contracts to provide the 40 service; and

41 d. to the extent practical, identify and make use of pro bono services 42 in order to maximize available services efficiently and economically.

43 3. Recognizing that not all indigent parties can be afforded represen-44 tation, even when they have meritorious cases, the court partner shall, 45 as a corollary to the services provided by the lead legal services agen-46 cy, be responsible for providing procedures, personnel, training, and 47 case management and administration practices that reflect best practices 48 to ensure unrepresented parties meaningful access to justice and to 49 guard against the involuntary waiver of rights, as well as to encourage 50 fair and expeditious voluntary dispute resolution, consistent with prin-51 ciples of judicial neutrality.

52 4. The participating legal services agency shall be selected by the 53 judicial council.

54 a. The judicial council shall be made up of one administrative judge 55 from each judicial district. There shall be at least one legal services 56 agency chosen for each judicial district.

1 b. The judicial council shall assess the applicants' capacity for 2 success, innovation, and efficiency, including, but not limited to, the 3 likelihood that the agency would deliver quality representation in an 4 effective manner that would meet critical needs in the community and 5 address the needs of the court with regard to access to justice and 6 calendar management, and the unique local unmet needs for representation 7 in the community.

8 c. Agencies approved pursuant to this section shall initially be 9 authorized for a three-year period, commencing on the effective date of 10 this section and subject to renewal for a period to be determined by the 11 judicial council, in consultation with the participating agency in light 12 of the agency's capacity and success. After the initial three-year peri-13 od, the judicial council shall distribute any future funds available as 14 the result of the termination or nonrenewal of an agency pursuant to the 15 process set forth in this subdivision.

16 d. Agencies shall be selected on the basis of whether, in the cases 17 proposed for service, the persons to be assisted are likely to be 18 opposed by a party who is represented by counsel. The judicial council 19 shall also consider the following factors in selecting the agencies:

20 (i) the likelihood that representation in the proposed case type tends 21 to affect whether a party prevails or otherwise obtains a significantly 22 more favorable outcome in a matter in which they would otherwise 23 frequently have judgment entered against them or suffer the deprivation 24 of the basic human need at issue;

25 (ii) the likelihood of reducing the risk of erroneous decisions;

26 (iii) the nature and severity of potential consequences for the unrep-27 resented party regarding the basic human need at stake if representation 28 is not provided;

29 (iv) whether the provision of legal services may eliminate or reduce 30 the potential need for and cost of public social services regarding the 31 basic human need at stake for the client and others in the client's 32 household;

33 (v) the unmet need for legal services in the geographic area to be 34 served; and

35 (vi) the availability and effectiveness of other types of court 36 services, such as self-help.

37 e. Each applicant shall do the following:

38 (i) identify the nature of the partnership between the court and the 39 other agencies or other providers that would work within the project;

40 (ii) describe the referral protocols to be used, the criteria that 41 would be employed in case assessment, why those cases were selected, the 42 manner to address conflicts without violating any attorney-client privi-43 lege when adverse parties are seeking representation through the 44 project, and the means for serving potential clients who need language 45 assistance within the court system; and

46 (iii) describe how the project would be administered, including how 47 the data collection requirements would be met without causing an undue 48 burden on the courts, clients, or the providers, the particular objec-49 tives of the project, strategies to evaluate their success in meeting 50 those objectives, and the means by which the project would serve the 51 particular needs of the community, such as by providing representation 52 to limited-English-speaking clients, the elderly and the disabled.

53 5. To ensure the most effective use of the funding available, the lead 54 legal services agency shall serve as a hub for all referrals, and the 55 point at which decisions are made about which referrals will be served 56 and by whom. Referrals shall emanate from the court, as well as from the

1 other agencies providing services through the program, and shall be 2 directed to the lead legal services agency for review. That agency, or 3 another agency or attorney in the event of conflict, shall collect the 4 information necessary to assess whether the case should be served. In 5 performing that case assessment, the agency shall determine the relative 6 need for representation of the litigant, including all of the following:

- 7 a. case complexity;
- 8 b. whether the opposing party is represented;
- 9 c. the adversarial nature of the proceeding;
- 10 d. the availability and effectiveness of other types of services, such 11 as self-help, in light of the potential client and the nature of the 12 case;
- 13 e. barriers to access due to language;
- 14 f. barriers to access due to disability;
- 15 g. barriers to access due to literacy;
- 16 h. the merits of the case;
- 17 i. the nature and severity of potential consequences for the potential 18 client if representation is not provided; and
- 19 j. whether the provision of legal services may eliminate or reduce the 20 need for and cost of public social services for the potential client and 21 others in the potential client's household.

22 6. The decision and level of representation should be made at the sole 23 discretion of the lead agency, organization, or attorney based on the 24 factors set forth above.

25 7. If both parties to a dispute are financially eligible for represen-26 tation, each proposal shall ensure that representation for both sides is 27 evaluated. In these and other cases in which conflict issues arise, the 28 lead legal services agency shall have referral protocols with other 29 agencies and providers, such as a private attorney panel, to address 30 those conflicts.

31 8. Each lead agency, organization, or attorney shall be responsible 32 for keeping records on the referrals accepted and those not accepted for 33 representation, and the reasons for each, in a manner that does not 34 violate any privileged communications between the agency and the 35 prospective client. Each lead agency, organization or attorney shall be 36 provided with standardized data collection tools to be determined by the 37 commission, and required to track case information for each referral to 38 allow the evaluation to measure the number of cases served, the level of 39 service required, and the outcomes for the clients in each case. In 40 addition to this information on the effect of the representation on the 41 clients, data shall be collected regarding the outcomes for the trial 42 courts. This data shall be compiled in a report to be submitted to the 43 commission on a quarterly basis.

44 § 723-c. Assigned counsel for civil matters review panel. 1. There is 45 hereby established the assigned counsel for civil matters review panel.

46 2. a. The review panel shall be composed of at least sixteen members, 47 to be appointed as follows:

22 All members shall serve until their successors are appointed. Vacancies 23 on the review panel shall be filled for the remainder of the term in the 24 manner provided for by the original appointment.

25 c. The members of the review panel shall receive no compensation for 26 their services, but shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses
27 incurred in the performance of their duties.

28 d. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of law, no officer or 29 employee of the state or any civil division thereof shall be deemed to 30 have forfeited or shall forfeit his or her office or employment by 31 reason of his or her acceptance of membership on the review panel.

32 e. A majority of the members of the review panel shall constitute a 33 quorum.

34 f. The members of the review panel may participate in a meeting of 35 such review panel by means of a conference telephone or similar communi-36 cations equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to 37 hear each other at the same time; participation by such means shall 38 constitute presence in person at such meeting.

39 3. The purpose of the panel is to ensure that quality representation 40 is provided under this article. This includes processing complaints 41 against attorneys assigned under this article, establishing the proper 42 remedy for aggrieved parties, attorney admission as assigned counsel, 43 attorney training, and all other procedures the review panel finds 44 necessary to achieve its goal. Nothing in this article shall prevent 45 any investigation under the New York state unified court system rules of 46 professional conduct or otherwise.

48 commission to achieve the common goals of this article.

49 5. a. The chief judge of the court of appeals and the review panel 50 appointees shall convene the review panel and create a plan outlining 51 the procedure and guidelines to govern the panel and assigned counsel 52 program in accordance with the goal of providing quality civil legal 53 representation. The chief judge of the court of appeals shall consult 54 with the administrative judges of each judicial district to receive 55 guidance on the needs of each district.

56 b. The guidelines shall include but not be limited to:

1 (i) meeting requirements of the panel;
2 (ii) standards of quality representation;
3 (iii) training necessary to provide civil assigned counsel represen-4 tation;

5 (iv) content for the complaint form for a grievance against an agency 6 or attorney assigned as civil assigned counsel;

7 (v) a grievance procedure; and 8 (vi) establishing possible remedies for those found to be aggrieved.

9 § 723-d. Compensation and reimbursement. 1. All counsel assigned in 10 accordance with a plan of the court, other organization, or a bar asso-11 ciation conforming to the requirements of this article whereby the 44 support or administrative staff should be set by individual counsel, 45 firm, or organization and should be set at a lower rate than compen-46 sation for counsel.

47 5. There shall be no differential in compensation rate for out of 48 court time expended and in court time expended. Rates should be set at 37 § 4. Subdivision 3 of section 1303 of the real property actions and 39 laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

40 3. The notice to any mortgagor required by paragraph (a) of subdivi-41 sion one of this section shall appear as follows:

42 Help for Homeowners in Foreclosure

43 New York State Law requires that we send you this notice about the 44 foreclosure process. Please read it carefully.

45 Summons and Complaint

46 You are in danger of losing your home. If you fail to respond to the 47 summons and complaint in this foreclosure action, you may lose your 48 home. Please read the summons and complaint carefully. You should imme-49 diately contact an attorney or your local legal aid office to obtain 50 advice on how to protect yourself.

51 Sources of Information and Assistance

52 The State encourages you to become informed about your options in 53 foreclosure. In addition to seeking assistance from an attorney or legal 54 aid office, there are government agencies and non-profit organizations 55 that you may contact for information about possible options, including 56 trying to work with your lender during this process. You may be enti-

1 bled to assigned counsel if you are financially unable to obtain repre-2 sentation.

3 To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll-free helpline 4 maintained by the New York State Department of Financial Services at 5 (enter number) or visit the Department's website at (enter web address).

6 Rights and Obligations

7 YOU ARE NOT REQUIRED TO LEAVE YOUR HOME AT THIS TIME. You have the right 8 to stay in your home during the foreclosure process. You are not 9 required to leave your home unless and until your property is sold at 10 auction pursuant to a judgment of foreclosure and sale.

11 Regardless of whether you choose to remain in your home, YOU ARE 12 REQUIRED TO TAKE CARE OF YOUR PROPERTY and pay property taxes in accord-13 ance with state and local law.

14 Foreclosure rescue scams

15 Be careful of people who approach you with offers to "save" your home.
16 There are individuals who watch for notices of foreclosure actions in 17 order to unfairly profit from a homeowner's distress. You should be 18 extremely careful about any such promises and any suggestions that you 19 pay them a fee or sign over your deed. State law requires anyone offer-20 ing such services for profit to enter into a contract which fully 21 describes the services they will perform and fees they will charge, and 22 which prohibits them from taking any money from you until they have 23 completed all such promised services.

24 § 5. Section 722-c of the county law, as amended by section 3 of part 25 J of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

42 actions and proceedings law, rule three hundred five and article seven-43 ty-eight of the civil practice law and rules, and article four of the 44 family court act, is financially unable to obtain them, the court shall 45 authorize counsel, whether or not assigned in accordance with a plan, to 46 obtain the services on behalf of the defendant or such other person. The 47 court upon a finding that timely procurement of necessary services could 48 not await prior authorization may authorize the services nunc pro tunc.
49 The court shall determine reasonable compensation for the services and 50 direct payment to the person who rendered them or to the person entitled 51 to reimbursement. ~~[Only in extraordinary circumstances may the court~~ 52 ~~provide for compensation in excess of one thousand dollars per investi-~~ 53 ~~gative, expert or other service provider.]~~

4 new subdivision 7 to read as follows:

6 ble by a revocation or suspension of his or her drivers' license where 7 the person is dependent on driving for their employment or where there 8 is a lack of public transportation in the person's surrounding area 9 shall have a right to assigned counsel by the court. Assignment of coun-10 sel under this section shall be implemented as provided in article eigh-11 teen-B of the county law. For the purposes of this section the term 12 "financially unable" shall mean an individual who is at or below two 13 hundred percent of the federal poverty guidelines.
