"Electroconvulsive therapy" means a procedure done in which electrical currents are passed through the brain to intentionally cause a brief seizure.

- 2. It shall be professional misconduct for a health professional to engage in electroconvulsive therapy, and any health professional found guilty of such misconduct under the procedures prescribed in title two-A of article two of the public health law shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in section two hundred thirty-a of the public health law, as added by chapter six hundred six of the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-one.
- 11 3. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 120.80 to read 12 as follows:
- 13 § 120.80 Performance of electroconvulsive therapy.
 - A person is guilty of performance of electroconvulsive therapy when:
 - 1. A person performs, attempts to perform, or participates in the performance of electroconvulsive therapy on another person; or
 - 2. With the intent to perform, attempt to perform, or participate in the performance of electroconvulsive therapy, possesses an electroconvulsive therapy device.

Performance of electroconvulsive therapy is a class D felony.

- 4. Section 60.27 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdivision 15 to read as follows:
- 15. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, when a person is convicted of performance of electroconvulsive therapy as defined in section 120.80 of this chapter, the court, in addition to any other sentence, shall order the payment of restitution to the person the electroconvulsive therapy was performed on.
- § 5. Subdivision (a) of section 80.03 of the mental hygiene law, as amended by chapter 619 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:
- (a) "Major medical treatment" means a medical, surgical or diagnostic intervention or procedures where a general anesthetic is used or which involves any significant risk or any significant invasion of bodily integrity requiring an incision or producing substantial pain, discomfort, debilitation or having a significant recovery period. Such term does not include: any routine diagnosis or treatment such as the administration of medications other than chemotherapy for non-psychiatric conditions or nutrition or the extraction of bodily fluids for analysis; [electroconvulsive therapy;] dental care performed with a local anesthetic; any procedures which are provided under emergency circumstances, pursuant to section twenty-five hundred four of the public health law; the withdrawal or discontinuance of medical treatment which is sustaining life functions; or sterilization or the termination of a pregnancy.
- § 6. Subdivision (i) of section 81.03 of the mental hygiene law, as added by chapter 698 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as follows:
- (i) "major medical or dental treatment" means a medical, surgical or diagnostic intervention or procedure where a general anesthetic is used or which involves any significant risk or any significant invasion of bodily integrity requiring an incision or producing substantial pain, discomfort, debilitation, or having a significant recovery period, or which involves the administration of psychotropic medication [or electroconvulsive therapy]; it does not include any routine diagnosis or treatment such as the administration of medications other than chemoth-54 erapy for non-psychiatric conditions or nutrition or the extraction of 55 bodily fluids for analysis; dental care performed with a local anesthetic; and any procedures which are provided under emergency circumstances,
