8 shall be deemed to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the 9 Part in which it is found. Section three of this act sets forth the 10 general effective date of this act.

11 PART A

12 Section 1. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 44 to read
13 as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD06121-02-9

1 § 44. Hire-NY tax credit. (a) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer, which
2 is subject to tax under article nine-A or twenty-two of this chapter and
3 which creates a new job, shall be allowed a credit against such tax. The 4 amount of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the 5 product of 6.85 percent and the gross wages paid for each new employee.
6 The credit shall not be more than five thousand dollars for any new 7 employee for one full year of employment; if a new employee has been 8 hired for less than a full tax year this amount shall be prorated and 9 apportioned to each tax year but shall in no way decrease the full three 10 consecutive years of credit eligibility. The taxpayer may claim this 11 credit for each new employee for a period of three consecutive years of 12 employment. The taxpayer may offset quarterly estimated tax returns with 13 the amount of this credit earned in any previous quarter.

14 (b) Unemployment enhancement. For calendar years two thousand nineteen
15 and two thousand twenty if a new employee was receiving unemployment
16 insurance benefits at the time of hire, an additional three thousand
17 dollar credit will be allowed for the first full year of employment.

18 (c) Definitions. As used in this section, the following terms shall 19 have the following meanings:

20 (1) "New employee" shall mean any full time employee that causes the 21 total number of employees to increase above base employment or credit
22 employment, whichever is higher.

23 (2) "Base year" shall mean calendar year two thousand nineteen.

24 (3) "Base employment" shall mean the average number of full time
25 employees or full time equivalent employees during the base year. For a 26 new business, base employment shall begin at zero.

27 (4) "Credit employment" shall mean base employment plus the number of 28 new employees for which a credit is earned for the prior tax years.

29 (d) Replacement employees. If a new employee for which a credit was 30 earned leaves the payroll and an employee is hired which brings total
31 employment above base employment but at or below credit employment
32 level, the credit eligibility period for such employee shall be three 33 years minus the amount of time (rounded to the next full month) the 34 employer received the credit for the departing employee.

35 (e) Credit disallowed. No credit shall be allowed under this section
36 to a taxpayer for any new employee if the taxpayer claims any other 37 credit under this article for such new employee where the basis of such 38 other credit is an increase in employment.

39 § 2. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-
40 sion 53 to read as follows:

41 53. Hire-NY tax credit. (a) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer will be 42 allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in section forty-four of 43 this chapter, against the tax imposed by this article.

44 (b) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subdivision
45 for any taxable year may not reduce the tax due for such year to less 46 than the amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of 47 section two hundred ten of this article. However, if the amount of 48 credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year reduces the 49 tax to such amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible in such 50 taxable year will be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or 51 refunded in accordance with the provisions of section one thousand 52 eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions of 53 subsection (c) of section one thousand eighty-eight of this chapter
54 notwithstanding, no interest will be paid thereon.

55 § 3. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection
56 (jjj) to read as follows:

(jjj) Hire-NY tax credit. (1) A taxpayer will be allowed a credit, to the extent allowed under section forty-four of this chapter, against the tax imposed by this article.

(2) If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred eighty-six of this article, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon.

§ 4. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xliv) to read as follows:

(xliv) Hire-NY tax credit	Amount of credit under
under subsection (jjj)	subdivision fifty-three of section
	two hundred ten-B

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2019.

(B) "qualified business income" shall mean ten percent of the business income of the taxpayer as defined in the laws of the United States.

(3) If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred eighty-six of this article, provided, however, no interest shall be paid thereon.

17 by chapter 170 of the laws of 1994, are amended to read as follows:

18 (c) Denial, suspension and revocation. The commissioner, for cause,
19 may deny a license and suspend or revoke any license issued under this 20 section, after an opportunity for a hearing has been afforded the carrier;
21 provided, however, that a license may be denied or it may be 22 suspended or revoked for failure to file a return as required pursuant 23 to this article or for nonpayment of moneys due under this article prior 24 to a hearing. A violation of any of the provisions of this article [~~or~~ 25 ~~article twenty-one of this chapter~~] or of any rule or regulation of the 26 commissioner promulgated under this article [~~or such article twenty-one~~]
27 shall constitute sufficient cause for the denial, suspension or revoca-
28 tion of a license. In addition, if the commissioner enters into a coop-
29 erative agreement with other jurisdictions pursuant to section five 30 hundred twenty-eight of this article, the commissioner may deny an 31 application for license where a license previously issued to the appli-
32 cant is under suspension or revocation by any member jurisdiction and a 33 license may be revoked or suspended for failure to comply with such 34 agreement. A denial, revocation or suspension of a license shall be 35 final unless the applicant or licensee shall, within thirty days after 36 the giving of notice of such denial, revocation or suspension, petition
37 the division of tax appeals for a hearing in accordance with article
38 forty of this chapter. If the commissioner enters into a cooperative 39 agreement pursuant to such section five hundred twenty-eight, notice of 40 a hearing shall be given and a hearing held within any time restrictions
41 prescribed in such agreement.

42 (d) Trip permits. In lieu of the license and decal provided for in 43 subdivision (a) of this section, any carrier, except as hereinafter
44 limited, may apply to the commissioner for a trip permit for any quali-

46 of this state. Application for the trip permit shall be made on a form 47 prescribed by the commissioner and shall contain such information as the 48 commissioner shall require. The application shall be accompanied by a
49 fee of twenty-five dollars for each qualified motor vehicle. Each trip 50 permit shall be valid for a period of seventy-two hours from the time of 51 its issuance. The issuance of a trip permit for a qualified motor vehi-52 cle shall exempt the carrier from the requirement of filing returns and 53 payment of the taxes imposed by this article and section three hundred 54 one-h of this chapter on the operation of such qualified motor vehicle
55 for the effective period of the permit but no refund application may be 56 filed on account of trip permit applications. [~~Provided, however, that~~

~~in order for any person liable for the tax to claim such exemption, such person must retain a copy of the trip permit in his records for the complete period of time required by section five hundred seven of this chapter.] A carrier may not apply for more than ten trip permits under this section during a single calendar year.~~

§ 9. Section 528 of the tax law, as added by chapter 170 of the laws of 1994, subdivision (b) as amended by section 35 of part K of chapter 61 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

§ 528. Procedure, administration and disposition of revenues. (a) ~~[General. The provisions of subdivision two of section five hundred six and sections five hundred seven through five hundred fifteen of this chapter (excluding sections five hundred eight, five hundred twelve and five hundred thirteen) shall apply to the provisions of this article with the same force and effect as if the language of such subdivision and sections had been incorporated in full into this article and had expressly referred to the tax under this article, except to the extent that any such provision is either inconsistent with or not relevant to this article or inconsistent with a provision of any agreement which the commissioner enters into pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section, with such modification as may be necessary to adapt the language of such provisions to the tax imposed by this article, provided that (1) notwithstanding such section five hundred ten and subdivision four of section two thousand six of this chapter, a determination, as provided in such section five hundred ten, relating to the tax imposed by this article, shall finally and conclusively fix such tax, unless the person against whom it is assessed shall, within thirty days after the giving of notice of such determination, petition the division of tax appeals for a hearing, or unless the commissioner on the commissioner's own motion shall redetermine the same; (2) the term "vehicular unit" shall be read as "qualified motor vehicle"; (3) if the commissioner enters into a cooperative agreement under this section, the reference in section five hundred fourteen a of this chapter to the United States postmark shall include a postmark made by the Canadian postal service; and (4) if the commissioner enters into a cooperative agreement under this section, for purposes of applying subdivision four of section five hundred fourteen of this chapter, the banks, banking houses or trust companies which may be designated by the commissioner may include any such banks, banking houses or trust companies designated or seeking designation by other member jurisdictions. For purposes of determining the amount of tax due in accordance with section five hundred ten of this chapter as incorporated by this subdivision, any return filed before the last day prescribed for its filing shall be deemed to be filed on such last day. The commissioner is authorized to provide for the joint administration, in whole or in part, of the tax imposed by article twenty one of this chapter and the tax imposed by this article.~~

~~(b)] Cooperative agreements. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, the commissioner is authorized to enter into a cooperative agreement with other states, the District of Columbia or provinces or territories of Canada for the administration of the tax imposed by this article and similar taxes imposed by other member jurisdictions and for the reporting and payment of tax to a single base state and a proportional sharing of revenue of taxes relating to fuel use among the jurisdictions where a qualified motor vehicle is operated. The agreement may provide for determining the base state for carriers, carriers records requirements, audit procedures, exchange of information, persons eligible for tax licensing, defining qualified motor vehicles, determin-~~ ing if bonding is required and requiring bonds to secure the tax imposed by this article and similar taxes imposed by other member jurisdictions, specifying reporting requirements and periods including defining uniform penalty and interest rates for late reporting, determining methods for collecting and forwarding of taxes, interest and penalties to another jurisdiction, notice and timing of hearings and other provisions as will facilitate the administration of the agreement. The commissioner may, pursuant to the terms of the agreement, forward to the proper officers of another member jurisdiction any information in the commissioner's possession relating to the manufacture, receipt, sale, use, transportation or shipment of motor fuel or diesel motor fuel by any person and may share any information relating to the administration of taxes pursuant to the agreement with such officers. The commissioner may disclose to the proper officers of another member jurisdiction the location of offices, motor vehicles and other real and personal property of carriers. The agreement may provide for each member jurisdiction to audit the records of persons based in the member jurisdiction and determine taxes due each member jurisdiction. The commissioner may adopt rules and regulations for the administration and enforcement of the agreement. In connection with the administration of taxes under such a cooperative agreement, the commissioner may enter into an agreement with other member jurisdictions and any banks, banking houses, trust companies or other similar institutions with respect to the payment of any tax, fees, penalty or interest to such banks, banking houses, trust companies or similar institutions and the filing of returns and reports with such banks, banking houses, trust companies or similar institutions as agent of the commissioner and such other member jurisdictions. Pursuant to a written agreement made with one or more of the appropriate departments, agencies, officers or instrumentalities of other jurisdictions, the commissioner may let contracts for provision of such services to the department and to one or more of such entities of other jurisdictions; provided, that provisions shall be made in all such agreements with the participating governmental entities and in all such contracts let by the commissioner for the assumption by each of the participating governmental entities of sole responsibility for its proportionate share of the costs under the terms of such contract. The commissioner may contract for such services jointly with and pursuant to a contract let by the appropriate department, agency, officer or instrumentality of another jurisdiction; provided that (1) the commissioner shall approve the proposed terms and conditions of all such joint governmental contracts, (2) the letting of such joint governmental contract shall be based on invitation of competitive bids or proposals, and (3) the participation by the department in any such joint contract shall be preceded by an evaluation and finding in writing by the commissioner that a reasonable potential exists for the saving of costs by the state, by means of such joint governmental contract.

[~~(e)~~] (b) Rate changes. In the event the rate of tax imposed under this article or under section three hundred one-h of this chapter or the rate of surcharge imposed on such tax changes and such change does not coincide with the beginning of a reporting period, the rates of tax and surcharge for the reporting period which includes such change shall be equal to the sum of the respective rates otherwise applicable in each month of the reporting period divided by the number of months in the reporting period.

[~~(d)~~] (c) Construction. In the event the commissioner, pursuant to the authority of this article, enters into a cooperative agreement as provided in this section, the commissioner shall carry out any provision of such agreement required for continued New York state participation in such agreement, to the extent not inconsistent with a specific requirement of this article or any other provision of the laws and the constitution of the state of New York.
