2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

March 14, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. WOERNER, WALSH -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the domestic relations law and the family court act, in relation to establishing a living allowance for adults with developmental disabilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The domestic relations law is amended by adding a new 2 section 240-d to read as follows:
- § 240-d. Support orders for adult dependent children. 1. Notwithstanding any other law parents of an adult child of any age are chargeable with support of such individual provided such individual is diagnosed with a developmental disability as defined under subdivision twenty-two of section 1.03 of the mental hygiene law.
- 2. The court shall make its award for support for an adult child with a developmental disability in accordance with the provisions of subdivision one-b of section two hundred forty of this article. If the court awards a living allowance for an adult child with a developmental disability, then on or before each and every fifth year following the date that the judgment award was entered, the court shall, sua sponte, set the matter down for a mandatory reassessment hearing to determine if a modification of the living allowance is warranted based on a substantial change in circumstances.
- 3. The court has jurisdiction to determine proceedings brought by petition and order to show cause, for the determination of support of adult dependent children, as well as to enforce or modify orders or judgments.
- 21 4. The court shall have discretion to order the payor party to make 22 support payments either directly to the New York achieving a better life 23 experience (NY ABLE) savings program trust fund or directly to a third
