3 the officer or agent of any corporation, partnership, or limited liabil-4 ity company, who pays or agrees to pay to any employee less than the 5 wage applicable under this article shall be quilty of a misdemeanor and 6 upon conviction therefor shall be fined not less than five hundred nor 7 more than twenty thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one 8 year, and, in the event that any second or subsequent offense occurs 9 within six years of the date of conviction for a prior offense, shall be 10 guilty of a felony for the second or subsequent offense, and upon 11 conviction therefor, shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than twenty thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year 12 13 plus one day, or punished by both such fine and imprisonment, for each 14 such offense. Each payment to any employee in any week of less than the wage applicable under this article shall constitute a separate offense. 15 16 2. Any employer or his or her agent, or the officer or agent of any 17 corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, who fails to keep the records required under this article or to furnish such records 18 or any information required to be furnished under this article to the 19 20 commissioner or his or her authorized representative upon request, or 21 who hinders or delays the commissioner or his or her authorized representative in the performance of his or her duties in the enforcement of 22 this article, or refuses to admit the commissioner or his or her author-23 ized representative to any place of employment, or falsifies any such 24 25 records or refuses to make such records accessible to the commissioner 26 or his or her authorized representative, or refuses to furnish a sworn 27 statement of such records or any other information required for the proper enforcement of this article to the commissioner or his or her 28 authorized representative, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon 29 30 conviction therefor shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more 31 than five thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year, and, in the event that any second or subsequent offense occurs within 32 33 six years of the date of conviction for a prior offense, shall be guilty of a felony for the second or subsequent offense, and upon conviction 34 35 therefor, shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than twenty 36 thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year plus one day, 37 or punished by both such fine and imprisonment, for each such offense. 38 Each day's failure to keep the records requested under this article or 39 to furnish such records or information to the commissioner or his or her authorized representative shall constitute a separate offense. 40 § 696-f. Civil action. 1. If any employee is paid by his or her 41 42 employer less than the wage to which he or she is entitled under the 43

§ 696-e. Penalties; failure to pay minimum wage or overtime compensation; failure to keep records. 1. Any employer or his or her agent, or employer less than the wage to which he or she is entitled under the provisions of this article, he or she shall recover in a civil action the amount of any such underpayments, together with all reasonable attorney's fees, prejudgment interest as required under the civil practice law and rules, and unless the employer proves a good faith basis to believe that its underpayment of wages was in compliance with the law, an additional amount as liquidated damages equal to one hundred percent of the total of such underpayments found to be due. Any agreement between the employee, and the employer to work for less than such wage shall be no defense to such action.

2. On behalf of any employee paid less than the wage to which the employee is entitled under the provisions of this article, the commissioner may bring any legal action necessary, including administrative action, to collect such claim, and the employer shall be required to pay the full amount of the underpayment, plus costs, and unless the employer proves a good faith basis to believe that its underpayment was in compliance with the law, an additional amount as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages shall be calculated by the commissioner as no more than one hundred percent of the total amount of underpayments found to be due the employee. In any action brought by the commissioner in a court of competent jurisdiction, liquidated damages shall be calculated as an amount equal to one hundred percent of underpayments found to be due the employee.

- 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an action to recover upon a liability imposed by this article must be commenced within six years. The statute of limitations shall be tolled from the date an employee files a complaint with the commissioner or the commissioner commences an investigation, whichever is earlier, until an order to comply issued by the commissioner becomes final, or where the commissioner does not issue an order, until the date on which the commissioner notifies the complainant that the investigation has concluded. Investigation by the commissioner shall not be a prerequisite to nor a bar against a person bringing a civil action under this article.
- 4. In any civil action by an employee or by the commissioner, the employee or commissioner shall have the right to collect attorneys' fees and costs incurred in enforcing any court judgment. Any judgment or court order awarding remedies under this section shall provide that if any amounts remain unpaid upon the expiration of ninety days following issuance of judgment, or ninety days after expiration of the time to appeal and no appeal therefrom is then pending, whichever is later, the total amount of judgment shall automatically increase by fifteen percent.
- § 696-g. Regulations. 1. The commissioner may promulgate such regulations as he or she deems appropriate to carry out the purposes of this article and to safeguard minimum wage standards.
- 31 2. Such regulations shall be promulgated by the commissioner after a 32 public hearing held after due notice.
- 33 3. A notice of the public hearing and a notice of the promulgation of 34 any such regulation shall be published in the state bulletin. The notice
 35 of the promulgation of any such regulation shall be published at least 36 twenty days before the effective date of the regulation.
- § 696-h. Savings clause. If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person, employer, occupation or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the article and the application of such provision to other persons, employees, occupations, or circumstance stances shall not be affected thereby.
- 42 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 43 have become a law.
