Introduced by M. of A. WOERNER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Insurance

AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to gender indication on claim forms

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subsection (i) of section 3216 of the insurance law is amended by adding a new paragraph 35 to read as follows:

(35) Every policy delivered or issued for delivery in this state that provides coverage for hospital, surgical or medical care shall not exclude coverage for screening, diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions, or services otherwise covered by the policy solely on the basis of the gender indicated on a claim form, or that the gender indicated on a claim form is different from the insured's sex assigned at birth or gender otherwise recorded, or that the insured is not of the gender to whom a service is typically or exclusively provided.

§ 2. Subsection (l) of section 3221 of the insurance law is amended by adding a new paragraph 21 to read as follows:

(21) Every policy delivered or issued for delivery in this state that provides coverage for hospital, surgical or medical care shall not exclude coverage for screening, diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions, or services otherwise covered by the policy solely on the basis of the gender indicated on a claim form, or that the gender indicated on a claim form is different from the insured's sex assigned at birth or gender otherwise recorded, or that the insured is not of the gender to whom a service is typically or exclusively provided.

§ 3. Section 4303 of the insurance law is amended by adding a new subsection (ss) to read as follows:

(ss) Every contract issued by a corporation subject to the provisions of this article that provides coverage for hospital, surgical or medical care shall not exclude coverage for screening, diagnosis and treatment
