The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new section 403-a to read as follows:

§ 403-a. Certificate of merit in proceedings to recover possession of real property. (a) In any proceeding under article seven of the real property actions and proceedings law, the petition shall be accompanied by a certificate, signed by the attorney for petitioner, certifying that the attorney has reviewed the facts of the case and that, based on consultation with representatives of petitioner identified in the certificate and the attorney's review of pertinent documents, including the lease, rental records in an action based on non-payment of rent, and any documents that establish any grounds for eviction, to the best of such attorney's knowledge, information and belief there is a reasonable basis for the commencement of such action. If not attached to the notice of petition and petition, a copy of the lease, if any, and any other document relevant to the claims of petitioner, and which petitioner intends to use as evidence at trial, shall be attached to the certificate.

1 (b) Where a certificate is required pursuant to this section, a single 2 certificate shall be filed for each action even if more than one 3 respondent has been named in the petition or is subsequently named.

4 (c) Where the documents required under subdivision (a) of this section 5 are not attached to the notice of petition and petition or to the 6 certificate, the attorney for the petitioner shall attach to the certifi-7 cate supplemental affidavits by such attorney or representative of 8 petitioner attesting that such documents are lost whether by 9 destruction, theft or otherwise. Nothing in this subdivision shall 10 replace or abrogate petitioner's obligations as set forth in the New 11 York uniform commercial code.

12 (d) If a petitioner willfully fails to provide copies of the papers
13 and documents required by subdivision (a) of this section and the court 14 finds, upon the motion of any party or on its own motion on notice to 15 the parties, that such papers and documents ought to have been provided, 16 the court may dismiss the petition or issue an order with regard to such 17 failure as is just including but not limited to any costs, attorneys' 18 fees and other fees, relating to the petition. Any such dismissal shall 19 be without prejudice and shall not be on the merits.

20 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to 21 proceedings commenced on or after such date.
